BOB HOPE Laugh-O-Rama

HELPING TO promote the Bob Hope Laugh-O-Rama show is "Jelly Bean," white toy poodle shown in downtown Arlington Heights Saturday afternoon. Assisting the poodle is Judy Burke of Wilson Community, a member of the YMCA Women's Auxiliary which is selling tickets to the benefit. Proceeds will go to the building fund of Northwest Suburban YMCA.

Production plans are nearly complete for the giant Bob Hope Laugh-O-Rama show, according to Byron J. Sayre, 606 E. Park st., Arlington Heights, producer of the benefit.

The Laugh-O-Rama will be presented Sunday, Aug. 21 at 8 p. m. in Maine East high school, Dempster st. and Potter rd., Park Ridge, to raise funds for the Northwest Suburban YMCA.

Proceeds will go toward the $100,000 that still must be raised to complete the $1 million YMCA building now under construction at Cambridge rd. and Northwest hwy., between Mount Prospect and Des Plaines.

Comedian Bob Hope headlines the all-star Laugh-o-Rama cast of colorful radio, TV, and recording personalities. One of Hollywood's most popular film and TV stars, Hope will make his first personal appearance in northwest suburbs at the benefit.

He personally set the Laugh-O-Rama theme with his enthusiastic plea: "Let's Help Pay for the 'Y'!"

THE TWO-HOUR stage show will be the biggest, most spectacular production ever offered in northwest suburbs.

In addition to Bob Hope, the Laugh-O-Rama stars:

—Anita Bryant, beautiful singing star of TV, radio, and records;

—Bobby Winters, America's foremost juggling comedian and a popular TV and night club performer;

—"Nippy" Nelson, well-known night club comedian who has appeared on the Ed Sullivan and Jackie Gleason TV shows, will serve as Master of Ceremonies for the Laugh-O-Rama.

—Norm Krone and his Orchestra, from the famed Boulevard Room of the Conrad Hilton hotel; and —other special guests, including Margi Koehler, young Des Plaines beauty queen who recently competed in the Miss Illinois finals.

DONATIONS for tickets are scaled at $5, $10, and $25 and are tax deductible, said Charles L. Kimball, 600 Go-Wanda, Mt. Prospect, ticket chairman.

Tickets are now on sale at Northwest Suburban YMCA office at 1488 Miner st., Des Plaines. Mail orders are also being accepted.

Other locations in northwest suburbs where tickets may be purchased are:

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS: Paddock Publications, 217 W. Campbell st.; Arlington Heights National bank, 14 E. Campbell; Bank of Arlington Heights, 900 E. Kensington rd.; and Lattof Motor Sales, 800 E. Northwest hwy.

PALATINE: Palatine Enterprise, 35 W. Slade st.; Palatine National bank, 34 N. Brockway st.; Brandt's restaurant, 10 N. Northwest hwy.; and Palatine Savings and Loan association, 4 N. Brockway st.

MT. PROSPECT: Mt. Prospect State bank, 15 E. Busse ave.; Keefer's Pharmacy, 10 E. Northwest hwy.

The Women's Auxiliary of Northwest Suburban YMCA will also sell tickets Saturday at Arlington Market shopping center, Arlington Heights; at Dunton and Campbell sts., Arlington Heights; and at Meeske's Market, Mt. Prospect.

Chaos Follows 'Bombshell'

Builder's Ultimatum Threatens Art Center

The Northwest Art center, after four years of struggle, resulting in unparalleled progress in suburban art circles, stands on the verge of collapse—all because artists are artists, not businessmen.

The absence of business acumen finds the center's 62 members facing ejection come November from their home in North Arlington Heights at 715 Palatine rd.—a home they thought was their's.

Surviving monthly crises—objections by a religious group to the hanging of nudes in exhibitions at Pioneer park, and battles with local garden club members who wanted to hang garden prints alongside abstract oils—the artists held together and last November were offered a sanctuary.

MRS. ALBERT F. RILEY, wife of the president of Hasbrook Construction co., and a member of the art center, suggested the group might be able to move into a farm house owned by the construction company and located adjacent to Hasbrook subdivision.

Art center members were elated. In November, at a banquet in Rolling Green country club, Riley presented art center president William Wimmer with what members thought was a deed to the Palatine rd. house, accompanied by a statement that the center had a year to find another site for the structure

Members went to work with a vengeance, painting, remodeling, peeling off old wallpaper, tearing down a wall. Riley furnished the money for decorating and the members supplied the work. Hasbrook construction company picked up the electric and heating bills.

The center began to make a name for itself. Exhibitions were held, film series sponsored, speakers booked, and classes held. The membership list included residents from throughout the northwest area: Park Ridge, Palatine, Des Plaines, Roselle, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect.

THE GALLERY was visited by hundreds of people from the Chicago area. It gained a reputation as one of the fastest growing suburban art centers.

They found, however, that sites were scarce and land prices high. Then once again, it looked as if Hasbrook Construction co. would come through. The art center was offered the property on which the house stands for $5,600.

Then came the bombshell. In June, Mrs. Riley informed members the construction co. would no longer underwrite the expenses of the gallery and that the house must be vacated by November, 1960.

CHAOS FOLLOWED. Members asked about the deed, and learned it was only a blank piece of paper that Wimmer received from Riley last November. The art center has absolutely nothing in writing. They could be evicted tomorrow.

In making her explosive announcement, Mrs. Riley cited the center's lack of financial support and complained of weak organization. She accused some members of using the center's facilities but not concerning themselves with support of the gallery.

Riley told Paddock Publications last week that the November deadline for vacation still stands.

The gallery is closed for the summer. Under their new president, Carl Zehner, the members decided to make Riley an offer of $5,600 for the house and property. The offer is expected to be made this month.

Craft Classes Plan Exhibit

The Arlington Heights park district crafts classes will put on a display of their accomplishments in the auditorium at Pioneer park.

The exhibit may be viewed from 1 p.m. Friday until 8:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Awards will be given to projects of outstanding merit.

RESIDENTS RILED BY 'ROW' HOUSES

Village Ordinance 'Ignored'

A fight over interpretation of a village ordinance prohibiting construction of look-alike row housing in Arlington Heights could have a far reaching effect on the community's future architecture.

Eight families on Forrest ave. in east Arlington Heights claim the village's architectural committee has condoned violation of the ordinance by approving plans for a row of six houses going up on Prindle ave. that are nearly identical.

The ordinance, passed in 1952 after the village went to court over the design of a proposed subdivision, prohibits the construction of houses adjacent to or across the street from each other with the same exterior design.

THE HOUSES in question are split-levels with roofs sloping at an extreme angle. Floor plans are all the same. Changes in detail are planned for the exteriors.

The ordinance notes, however, that "the mere change of details" in front of a house, such as a change in window size or roof design, is not considered sufficient variation.

Six property owners on Forrest whose homes back up to the houses in question met last week with the architectural committee. As a result, Building Commissioner Bruce Nelson talked the builder into putting flat roofs on the carports of houses numbers four and six.

RESIDENTS of the area, however, say this doesn't alter the fact that the houses still look alike and violate both the spirit and the wording of the code.

The complaining families have obtained copies of the ordinance, mimeographed by one of the homeowners, and say they intend to see it is complied with.

Both the building commissioner and architectural committee concede that the controversial houses violate the "true sense" of the ordinance. They are quick to point out, however, that examples of violation are scattered throughout the community.

"This particular builder is no more wrong than many other builders in the community," said Robert Esbensen, member of the architectural committee.

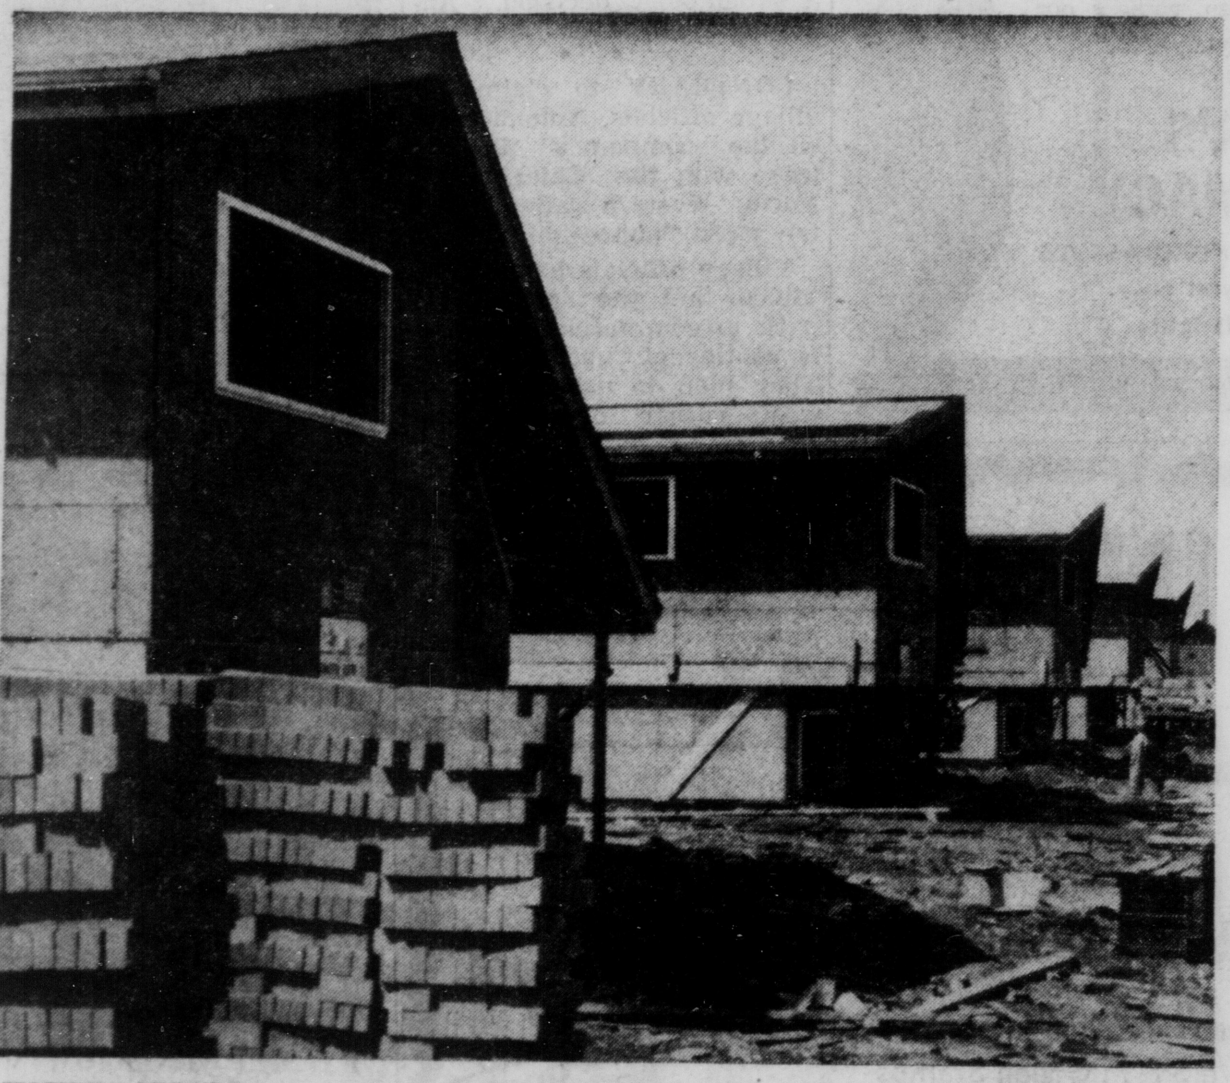
ONE MEMBER of the building department noted that if the ordinance were strictly enforced, Arlington Heights would be a community of custom built homes.

Last April Village Manager L. A. Hanson asked village trustees to amend the ordinance to permit greater latitude in judging what might be considered a suitable change in exterior construction. At that time Hanson noted there were many existing violations in the village. Trustees rejected the proposed amendment.



HOUSES UNDER construction on Prindle ave. have aroused ire of homeowners in area who claim houses violate village anti-look-alike ordinance. Five of the homes are already up, and a sixth is planned.

Heavy Rains Flood Cellars

Over 25 calls complaining of flooded basements were received by Arlington Heights village hall Wednesday morning following Tuesday night's rain storm.

Many callers complained that sewage was backing up into their basements.

The downpour flooded Northwest hwy. in front of the Red Owl food store, stalling some cars.

School Board Urges Builder: Keep Word

Board of education members of Wilson school district 24 this week adopted a resolution calling upon Hasbrook Construction company to keep its oft-repeated promise of financial aid to the district.

In its two page statement the board noted:

"All contributions from the Hasbrook Construction company . . . have stopped in spite of a promise made three years ago to the Wilson Board of Education — a promise which has been reaffirmed frequently by Mr. Albert E. Riley, President of Hasbrook Construction company, with reassurance as late as April, 1960, that the promise would be kept."

THE "PROMISE" was an offer by Riley to pay the district $175 for each house hold in the subdivision in north Arlington Heights.

The 300th family moved into a Hasbrook home this month. Riley has paid the district $33,950, leaving an unpaid balance of nearly $20,000. A 500 home subdivision is planned, which would leave Riley owing the district $54,000 and a four acre plot in accordance with his agreement.

Riley stopped payments to the district last June. An Illinois Supreme court decision handed down in March held that school districts could not coerce or pressure a builder into donating money to a school district. Riley claims he was pressured into the agreement with district 24.

BOARD MEMBERS deny this, and in their resolution cite Riley's 1957 letter in which he stated:

"Hasbrook Construction company recognizes that the rapid growth of an area poses many problems for the community, especially schools. Although we feel we are unable to solve these problems completely, we do desire to assist in any way we can. Pursuant to this policy, we agreed to donate $175.00 for each home built in Hasbrook upon sale and occupancy of the house."

The resolution terms the controversy "a moral question involving a builder who foresaw the problem to be created by the construction of 500 homes, who made promises, and who now is failing to keep those promises."

In concluding its statement, the board asks that Riley and the construction company keep "their promise to the children of Wilson school."

THE CHILDREN of Wilson school number 482 youngsters, the majority from Hasbrook and Virginia Terrace subdivisions.

Board members point out, however, that of the 611 youngsters under 18 years of age in Hasbrook subdivision, over 400 are of pre-school age, and an estimated 300 of these will be attending Wilson.

"Thus our financial problems are far from solved. We have planned on having Mr. Riley's donations to work with," noted a board member.

A spokesman for Riley told the Herald this week that the construction company president is attempting to get a complete picture of the district's financial status.

Youth Is Arrested For Fight

A 19-year-old Algonquin youth, whose father charges he was assaulted by an Arlington Heights youngster, was involved in another fight in the village Sunday night.

Charles Collignon of 170 Blackhawk Trail has been charged with disorderly conduct and released on $100 bond. Arrested with Collignon was Fred Turner, 19, of 8949 Nina st., Morton Grove. The two were apprehended after residents in the 700 block of N. Dunton claimed they were fighting in the street.

Collignon's father, Harold, signed a complaint in July against Richard Leckband, 19, of 211 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights, charging him with aggravated assault against his son.

Leckband's court appearance is scheduled for August 17.

Gymnarama Set For August 12

This Friday, August 12, the Arlington Heights park district will close its summer playground activities program with the second annual Gymnarama presentation.

Held at Pioneer Park the program will feature dance routines from the modern dance classes, baton twirling and marching, and exhibitions of the tumbling and Trampoline classes.

The program will start at 8:15 on the Pioneer park tennis courts.

Police Raid Teenagers' Beer Party

A beer party involving 13 northwest suburban youngsters was broken up by Arlington Heights police Monday night.

A village resident complained to police that a group of cars were congregated at the end of Donald st. in east Arlington Heights.

UPON ARRIVING at the scene, police saw youngsters scattering into the weeds from five cars.

Police found nine boys and four girls, ranging in age from 16 to 22, had been drinking beer in the cars. One of the cars belonged to a 16-year-old girl.

Those involved were from Palatine, Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines, Bensenville, and Prospect Heights. None were from Arlington Heights.

STUART R. PADDOCK

It is not true that the Chicago area has the highest prices, according to Bernard Nelson of Regina, Saskatchewan. He is a brother of Palatine Village Trustee Robert Nelson, with whom his family is visiting.

"I can save so much money buying in the U.S. that I am stocking up on food and clothing," says Mrs. Nelson.

Something is wrong somewhere. Everytime we motored to Canada we thought we were stocking up in order to save money.

Quoting from the Saturday Evening Post: "If births continue at their present rate . . . in about 700 years there will be 50,000 men for every one now alive . . . there will be one square yard of land for each person."

We wonder what political party will solve that problem? Or will the hordes from Asia have crowded Western civilization off this earth by then?

While listening to the band concert at Palatine Friday, our thoughts turned back to 30 or 40 years ago when both Arlington Heights and Palatine supported a village band. Those Friday night band concerts were part of the community life of those two towns.

The men who kept those bands alive were Harry Schoppe, Palatine, and the late H. Landeck, Arlington Heights.

It is again being demonstrated that next to Senator Paul Douglas, there is no candidate who is doing a more thorough job of campaigning than Mrs. Marguerite Stitt Church.

The station wagon used by Douglas in his trips about the state tells the world that here is a Democratic candidate for office.

The purse carried by Rep. Church is a replica of an elephant and also tells the world that here is a Republican candidate. Mrs. Church and her purse are certainly covering the highways and byways of the 13th congressional district!

Early this spring we became interested in old burial places in the south. Sunday, we found that Cady cemetery in Palatine is just as interesting.

Many of the grave stones are illegible, dating back 125 years, but the names upon the stones represented pioneer families who are not recalled today, even by oldtimers.

Descendents of many such families still reside in Palatine. The condition in which that old cemetery is maintained is possible because the ownership for nearly 100 years rests in the township; really not such a bad idea, as it represents a reverence to the founders of Palatine.

Standard Oil co. said Friday it is prepared to go to the Illinois Supreme cour if Arlington Heights reject its proposed $150,000 service station-car wash.

The plan commission las week denied Standard's petition to rezone the railroad park on the southwest corner of Vail st. and Northwest hwy., claiming that a service station is not "the highest and best use of the land."

The commission's recommendation will go to the village board of trustees for a final decision at the August 15 meeting.

Steven Antonik, who represented Standard Oil at the hearing last week, said the company will appeal to the circuit court in two or three months if the trustees turn down the project.

"We are prepared to go as far as necessary until we get a satisfactory decision," Antonik stated.

CONTRARY to claims of village officials, Antonik called the company's 20 year lease with the Chicago and North Western railway for the park "unbreakable."

Village officials have maintained that the sale of the park to commercial interests is contingent upon rezoning. They plan to use the southwest corner of Vail and Northwest hwy. as a parking ot.

Two and a half hours of rgument by two Standard awyers and a real estate epresentative failed to impress the plan commission.

No one came forward to ppose the company's plans, which called for the railroad park to be rezoned from B-1 (limited retail) to B-3 (general service). Standard dignitaries composed most of the sparse audience.

With B-3 zoning, which allows for a service station, the company believes it can obtain the necessary variations to also construct a car wash.

STANDARD tried unsucessfully to allay the village's biggest fear—that downtown Arlington Heights would be turned into a "gasoline alley" if the parks were zoned B-3.

The company disclosed that it had obtained from Chicago and North Western railway a 25 year agreement not to sell the remaining seven parks for service station use. But Antonik admitted that the land still could be purchased by related businesses.

The plan commission gave four reasons for rejecting what a Standard representative termed "a new innovation that would beautify Arlington Heights."

—Change in zoning for this small partition represents an outstanding example of spot zoning, contrary to the master plan. (a comprehensive development plan for Arlington Heights drawn up by Evert Kincaid and associates.)

—IT WOULD further aggravate an already serious traffic problem and be detrimental to the safety of residents.

—The congested traffic caused by the railroad would be intensified.

—A service station is not the highest and best use of the land consistent with the master plan.

A realtor witness, Ralph Martin of Des Plaines, testified that "the highest and best use" of the land is for service - type operations.

Harold Klingner, commission member most adamant in opposition to the service station, questions whether the proposed use would be best for the village, or Standard Oil.

"Do you realize how many service stations there are in the village," asked Klingner.

Martin called the present stations "outmoded," saying that they would be forced to modernize or go out of business if Standard moved into town.

EVEN IF THE village has 31 stations already," Martin said, "there are actually less per automobile than 10 years ago."

Chicago and North Western railway put the parks on sale last year following rejection by village residents of a $375,000 bond issue to purchase the parks.

Village officials still hope to acquire some of the parks through the sale of revenue bonds.

Standard considers the southwest corner of Vail and Northwest hwy. a particularly rich plum since there is not a service station on the south side of the highway between Palatine and Park Ridge.

Keith, 5, Is Proud Of His 10-Ft. Corn

FARMER EKSTROM waters his corn from astride his tractor behind home at 1106 E. Mayfair, Arlington Heights. He's not predicting how many bushels he'll have this year. (AF

Ten - feet high cornstalks overshadowed the birth of his baby sister Monday for five-year - old Keith Ekstrom, 1106 E. Mayfair, Arlington Heights.

When his grandma, Mrs. Dewey Broberg, asked little Keith to tell his grandpa the "big news," meaning, of course, the arrival of the stork and a welcome female addition, little Keith blurted out:

"The big news is the newspaper is going to put a picture of my corn in the paper."

Well, little Keith can be quite proud of both his sister and the corn. But the corn right now means more, for he hadn't seen his sister yet.

YOU SEE, IT all began last Spring, when his mom took Keith with her to a nursery to buy some snapdragons and other plants. Young Keith picked some corn kernels off the floor of the nursery. He was going to do some planting, too.

And when they arrived home, Keith rushed to plant his "crop," all 10 kernels, beside the garage. A careful devotee of his gardening mother and a faithful disciple of his dad's coaching, he did what was necessary.

The seeds grew, and the boy was delighted. All through the summer, he watched the corn grow. Ten seeds grew into 10 stalks. When Keith noticed there were no tassels, his heart grew heavy. And, when the tassels came, his sadness vanished.

DAY AFTER DAY, he rushed to his"crop," to witness the miracle of growth. And today, several of the stalks are 10 feet high, others almost as tall.

"I have to wait for a month before the corn comes," Keith told the Herald. And while his mom, Mrs. Edward Ekstrom, watches the, as of Monday, unnamed new infant develop, young Keith watches over "his brood."

Grandma says that the cornstalks will be gathered for Halloween as "Keith's own crop." And they are competing successfully for the attention of Keith as compared with the new infant born in St. Francis hospital, Evanston, at 2:27 a.m., weighing seven pounds, 13 ounces.

Now... GAS brings you a water heater that works like three!

Rheem 30 PLUS GAS WATER HEATER

It's a 30 gallon tank that supplies up to 50 gallons of hot water per hour...INSTANTLY!

The "30-plus" is an entirely new concept in water heaters. Designed for today's larger families, it "grows" as the needs for hot water increase. For example, whenever large amounts are required, say 40 or 50 gallons an hour, you just set the dial for the amount wanted.
Instantly the heat input is stepped up, and you can draw off 140-degree water at the rate selected, hour after hour.
When for any reason hot water demands decrease, simply re-set the dial — to any point as low as 30 gallons.
It's as easy as that with the RHEEM "30-PLUS"!

REMEMBER, GAS water heaters cost less to operate, much less . . . only about 10¢ a day . . . and that's far less than any other automatic water heating method

SPECIAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE
For a limited time, to help you learn how wonderful a Rheem "30-Plus" water heater can be, Northern Illinois Gas Company will give you an attractive trade-in allowance on your old water heater and the easiest terms ever . . . only

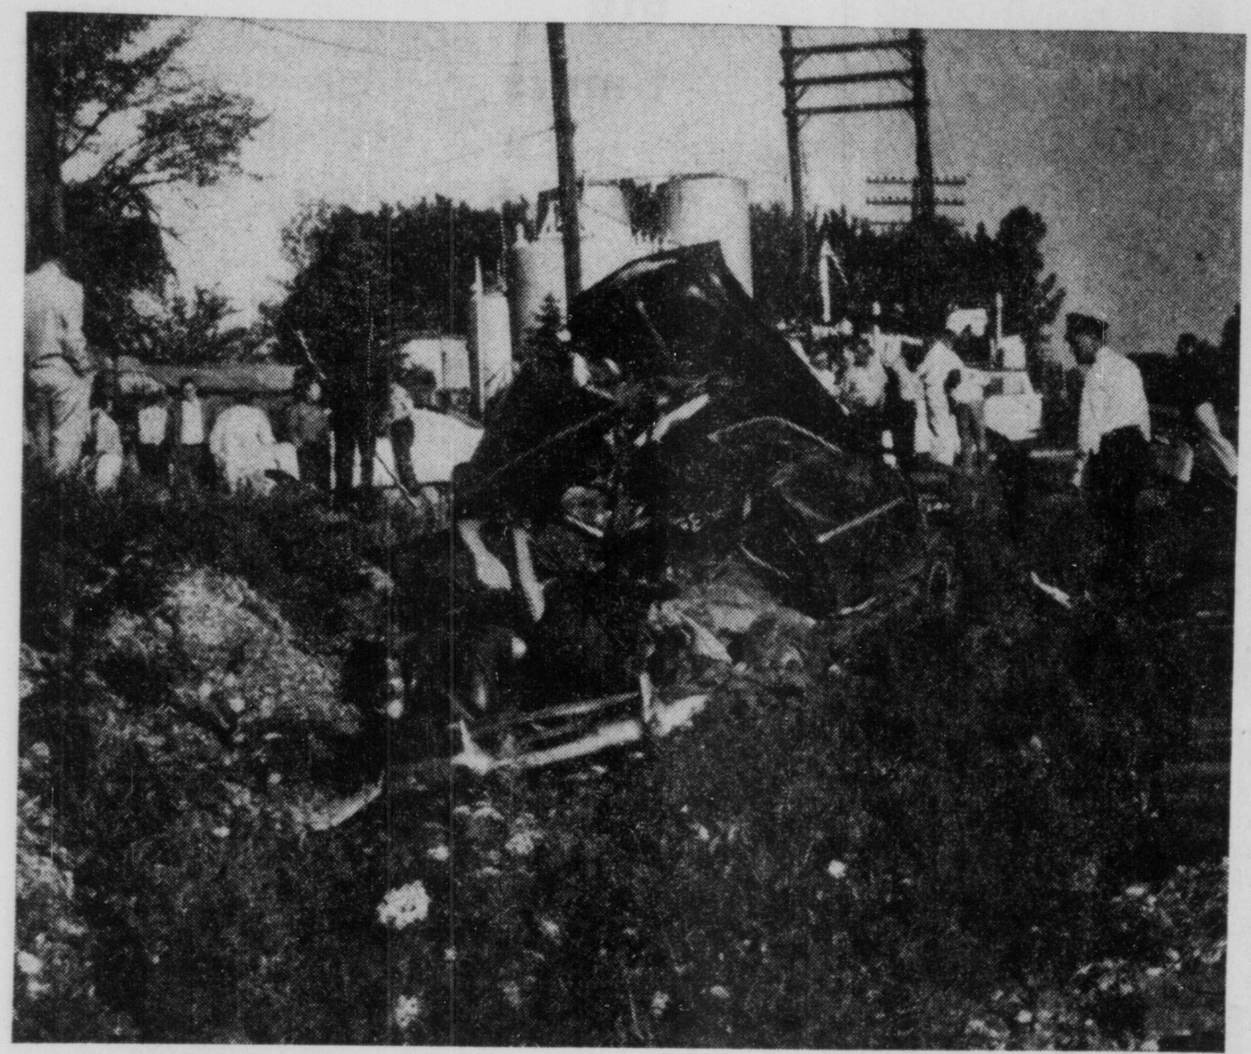
Accidental Death Is Jury's Ruling In Rail Fatality



THESE ARE THE remains of the car rammed broadside by a Chicago and North Western commuter train Friday at the Rohlwing rd. and Northwest hwy. crossing in Palatine. A coroner's jury ruled the death of the driver, Mrs. Sophie E. Stevens, Arlington Heights, was accidental. (B8

A coroner's jury ruled that the death of Mrs. Sophie E. Stevens, whose car was struck broadside by a train Friday, was accidental.

Mrs. Stevens lived at 100 W. Palatine rd., Arlington Hts. She drove past the crossing's safety flashers into the path of the Chicago and North Western's commuter express 634, at hwy 14 and Rohlwing rd., Palatine twp.

Three witnesses saw Mrs. Steven's car, which was traveling from north to south, thrown 150 feet by the impact. Her body was found 30 feet from the car, according to state police.

THE ACCIDENT occurred at 8:06 p.m. She was alone in the car.

Services were held Monday, August 8, at 1:30 p.m. at Tharp's funeral home, Palatine. The Rev. Elder Gruesbeck officiated at the services. Burial was at Randhill cemetery.

Born April 30, 1888, Mrs. Stevens is survived by a niece Mrs. Eva Matson, rte. 1, Palatine. (B8

Summer Accidents Plague Households

Summertime household accidents took a heavy toll last week, as many children were brought into the Northwest Community hospital emergency room with cuts and broken limbs.

Timothy Cunniff, 2, of Palatine, broke his left leg when he fell from a swing. The son of Herbert J. Cunniff, television director for American Broadcasting company, Chicago, was admitted to the hospital.

JOESPH McKOWN, 6, of Roselle, fell off the top of a slide and broke both bones of his right forearm. He also was admitted.

Norma Carver, 34, of Franklin Park fell down a flight of stairs. A cut on the back of her head was stitched.

Another fall victim is Earl Young, 14, of Rolling Meadows, who fell in a driveway and got a jagged four-inch cut on his hand. Stitches were taken. Marilyn Shea, 13, of Mt. Prospect, also has a stitched hand. She got a 2½-inch cut from a piece of glass.

Gary Lawson, 20, of Mt. Prospect, stepped on a rusty nail and had to have the resulting puncture through his foot dressed. Barbara Barieth, 8, of Rolling Meadows had the same treatment. Richard Munroe, 8, of Arlington Heights, was hit in the upper eyelid with a ball bat while he played in Busse woods. He had a cut stitched.

JOHN SCHOEN, 4, of Elk Grove Village, fell on a metal stake last week and received a four inch laceration on his right leg.

Diane Laseke's cut was suffered not from a fall, but from a dog bite. The eight-year-old Arlington Heights girl was bitten in the nose.

Stomach pumps were put into action for a variety of substances the younger set ate last week. One girl was sent home without the pump treatment. She is Sandra Vesecky, 3, of Arlington Heights, who swallowed a bobby pin. An x-ray showed it hadn't lodged inside her, and she would lose it naturally.

CHRISTINE Chakoian, 3, of Mt. Prospect, drank a small quantity of model airplane fuel (wood alcohol) and had her stomach pumped Wednesday. The day before, Tuesday, Darlene Dahlequist, 16-months, of Rolling Meadows, swallowed ant poison.

Dan Taylor, 4, of Arlington Heights, swallowed potassium carborate and had his stomach washed. The youngster suffered no apparent ill effects. An Elk Grove two-year-old drank lighter fluid and had his stomach pumped. He is Thomas Lukas.

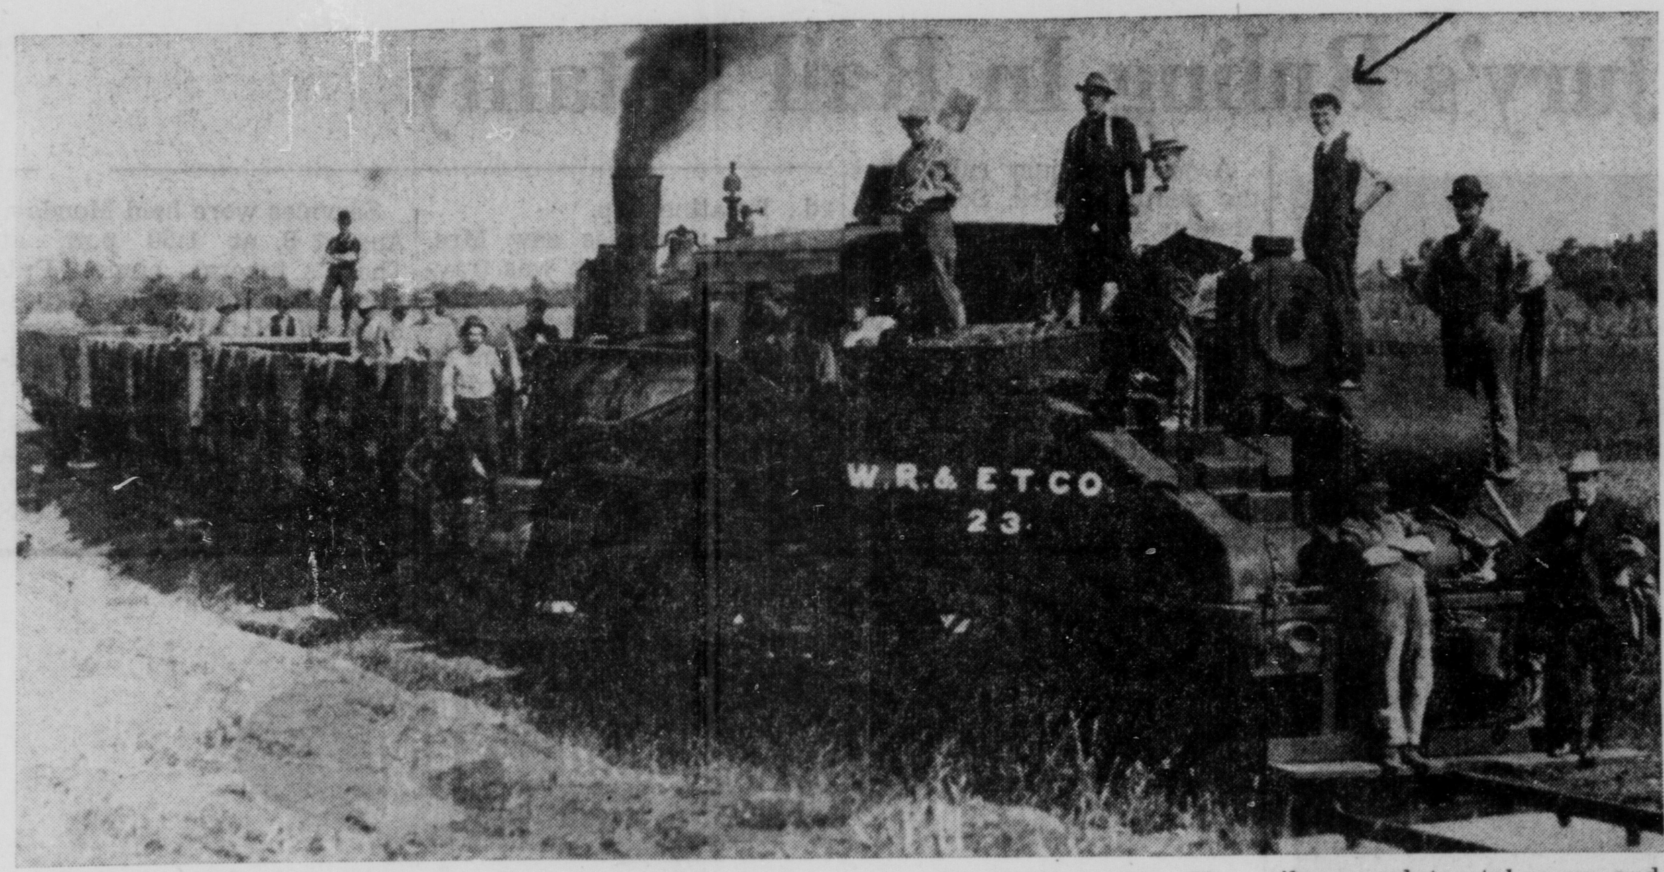
THIS DEPOT served railway passengers in Mount Prospect before the late 1920s. Often lanterns were mounted at the end of the platform on Sunday evenings to signal trains to stop for visitors returning to Chicago after spending a "day in the country."



FIFTY YEARS AGO, with the advent of railways to the northwest territory, promoters dreamed of making Palatine a rail center between Chicago and the Lake county resort area. The Waukegan Rockford, and Elgin Traction co. (later re-named the Palatine, Lake Zurich, and Wauconda Railroad) connected Palatine with Wauconda via Deer Grove. The railroad opened for business in 1911 and was dissolved in 1920. The rails were later taken up and sold for junk. Pictured above are northwest area workmen shoveling cinders to balance the roadbed of the W. R. & T. Co. between Palatine and Deer Grove. The young man astride the engine (arrow) is Stuart R. Paddock Sr., now president of Paddock Publications, Inc.

Railroad Heralded Start Of the 'Commuter Suburbs'

(This is the first of a series of articles concerning the growth of the northwest suburbs, their social-economic structure, their changing role in a metropolitan society, and their predicted future.)

by JACK MARTIN

If you've lived in the northwest suburbs for 10 years, chances are that your neighbors consider you an "oldtimer." And 20 year residents are almost non-existent.

Newcomers to the area find incredulous the fact that just 10 years ago the residents of Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, and Palatine were fewer in number than the three villages' grade school children last year.

This phenomenal growth has provoked many studies. One of the most impressive of the research projects is "A Social Geography of Metropolitan Chicago," prepared by the Northeastern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning commission.

The commission's report, over-simplifying history, perhaps, has divided the growth of the metropolitan area into three stages—the water transport era (1840-1880); the railroad era (1880-1920); and the automobile era (1920-1960).

THE FIRST suburbs appeared during the water era. but amounted to only a string of towns along the Fox river, between Elgin and Aurora. Waukegan, too far removed to be considered a suburb at that time, became an important lake port, and the north shore towns, due more to Lake Michigan's attractiveness than its functional use, were settled.

It is interesting to note that at the beginning of the railroad era the "commuting suburbs" consisted of Hyde Park, at 53rd st. and the Illinois Central; Englewood at 63rd st. and the Rock Island; and Grand Crossing at the intersection of the Ill. Central, New York Cenrtal, and the Pennsylvania. Hyde Park and Kenwood were considered "aristocratic dormitory suburbs."

At the turn of the century, however, the major residential suburbs were on the north shore (Evanston, Wilmette, Winnetka) and on the west side (Oak Park, Forest Park, Maywood, River Forest, Berwyn and La Grange).

The decentralization of industry, often thought of as a modern movement, started in the early 1900's with Western Electric's move to Cicero, Corn Products' transfer to Summit; the establishment of the Kenwood, Central and Clearing industrial districts on Chicago's west side; and the formation of land associations (forerunners of today's planned industrial parks) in Chicago Heights, Blue Island, and Harvey.

THE NORTHWEST suburban area, however, remained principally agricultural during this period, seeing Chicago only as a market for farm products.

In 1910 only two suburban rail lines — the Chicago , Aurora and Elgin and the Illinois Central—had direct access to the Loop. The Galena division and the Burlington terminated west of the Chicago River. Other railroads stopped at the city limits and depended upon transfers to Chicago's surface and elevated lines.

The opening of the Skokie Valley route in the 20's created the Skokie Land boom, and the electrification of the Illinois Central between 1923 and 1928 spurred extensive subdivisions along its line.

With the advent of shorter working hours and faster rail transportation, the metropolitan commuting area extended farther and farther from the loop.

THE RAILROAD service centers were the nuclei around which commuter housing was built. The old main street centered around the railway station testifies to these towns' former rural functions.

Major highways, such as Route 14, were built to solidify the radial rail pattern of settlement. It was the automobile that permitted the extension of the suburban settlement beyond walking distance to the railroad station.

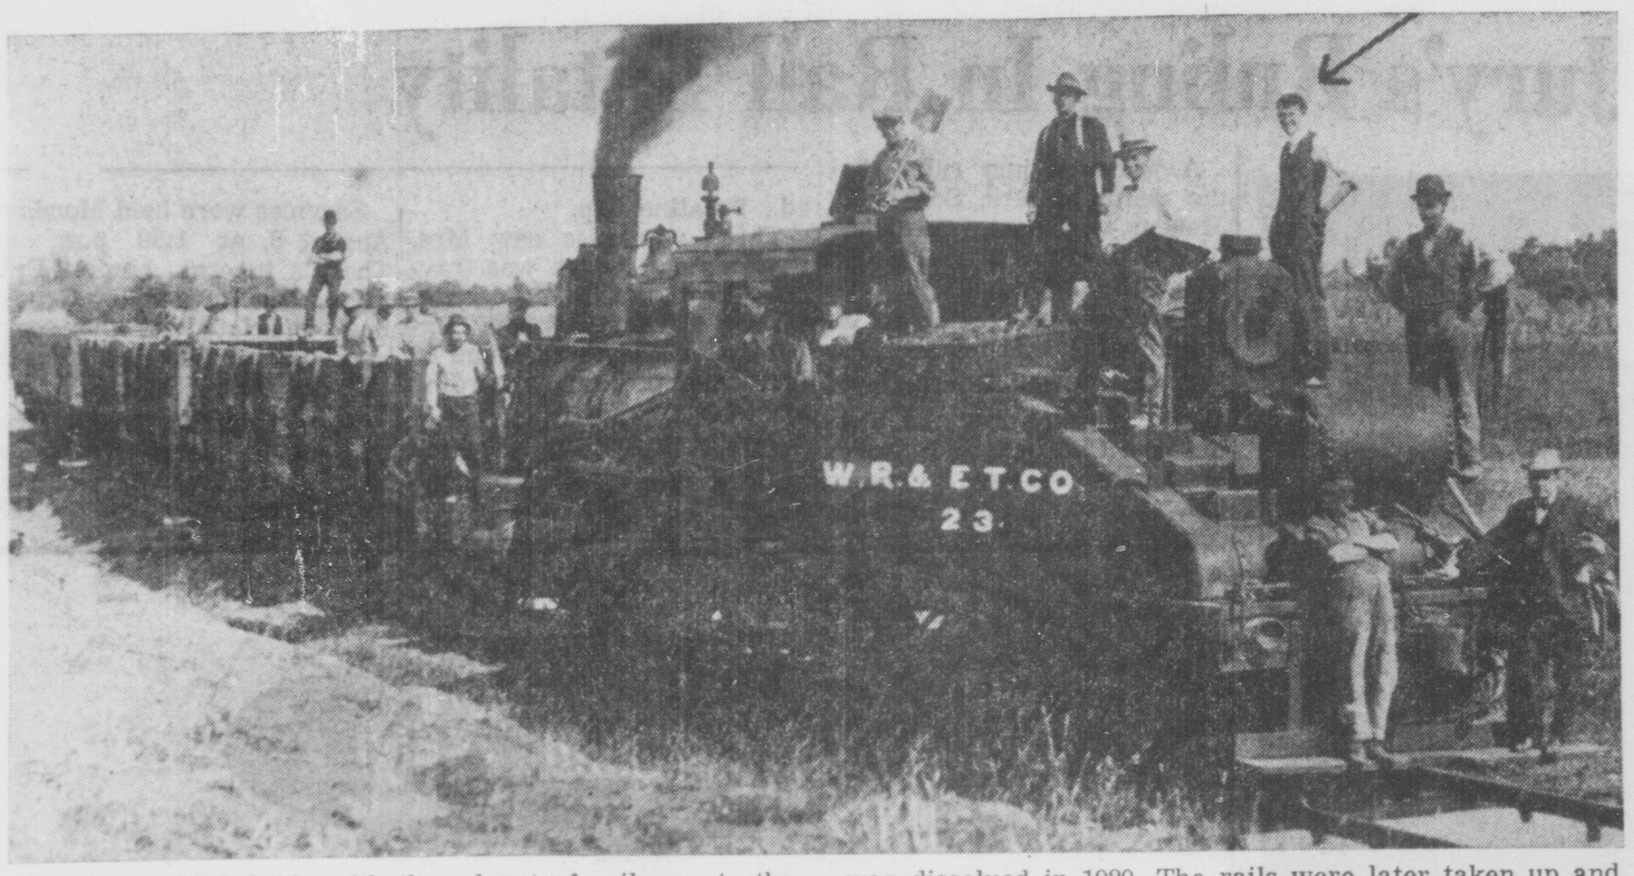
THIS DEPOT served railway passengers in Mount Prospect before the late 1920s. Often lanterns were mounted at the end of the platform on Sunday evenings to signal trains to stop for visitors returning to Chicago after spending a "day in the country."



FIFTY YEARS AGO, with the advent of railways to the northwest territory, promoters dreamed of making Palatine a rail center between Chicago and the Lake county resort area. The Waukegan Rockford, and Elgin Traction co. (later re-named the Palatine, Lake Zurich, and Wauconda Railroad) connected Palatine with Wauconda via Deer Grove. The railroad opened for business in 1911 and was dissolved in 1920. The rails were later taken up and sold for junk. Pictured above are northwest area workmen shoveling cinders to balance the roadbed of the W. R. & T. Co. between Palatine and Deer Grove. The young man astride the engine (arrow) is Stuart R. Paddock Sr., now president of Paddock Publications, Inc.

Railroad Heralded Start Of the 'Commuter Suburbs'

(This is the first of a series of articles concerning the growth of the northwest suburbs, their social-economic structure, their changing role in a metropolitan society, and their predicted future.)

By PHILIP NELSON

At long last, the Redskins are exacting retribution upon the paleskin.

It began innocently and insidiously in the aboriginal country of the Wisconsin Dells. Before I was aware of it, three-year-old David stood rapt in awe and wonder before huge posters of the "Vanishing American."

Taking an afternoon nap in a motel, I awoke, suddenly my scalp tingling, to spot a diminutive warrior in full war regalia poised above me, his feathered bonnet circling his scowling features and a tomahawk in his grubby paw about to plunge down upon by aching dandruff.

"I'm going to scalp you," the scowling warrior said. The a thwarted scowl upon his lips. "Ugg."

"Did you hear me?" I demanded fruitlessly. "David, I'm talking to you. David!"

"Ugg," he went on. "My name is Big Cheap. Ugg. How!" And he held his hand out in an imperious gesture.

"Not bad yet," I warned grimly, "but I know one Injun that's going to bite the dust shortly if he doesn't get a licking first."

"I'm an Injun," he said proudly, "and you're not. You're oney a daddy, and daddies not 'sposed to gib Injuns a licking."

And with that, he marched off in dignity, muttering "uggs" and "hows" under his tomahawk descended. Quickly, I rolled off the bed and escaped unscathed as his tomahawk fell upon barren soil.

"DAVID," I screamed. "I'm your daddy. What do you think you're doing and where did you get that ridiculous costume?"

"Ugg," was all he would say, his grubby fist clamped upon the bloodless tomahawk, and with what I suspect was breath as his right arm shot out occasionally in his version of the Indian greeting.

BIG CHIEF SCOWLS fiercely in the best Indian tradition as he prepares to sneak in on the Big Powwow of White Cloud and other tribal chieftans. "I'll scold you," he threatens all within earshot and waves his tomahawk. "I'll smoke you," he growls, as he puffs away on his peacepipe. For he is a brave, and will not be parted from his fierce costume, except in the arms of Morpheus.

AND THAT IS how Carrie and I became prisoners of this Indian warrior. Unsuspectingly, Carrie, while I slept, had crept out of the cabin with this junior-sized latent Sitting Bull and bought him "the works."

In headdress, moccasins and buckskin shirt and trousers, he looked the spitting image of Chief Thundercloud. True, the buckskin shirt and trousers were genuine and authentic rubberized calico or something "made in Japan," and his tomahawk and bow and arrow were beautifully manufactured by our Oriental friends, but authenticity of Indianism was stamped heavily on David's little mind.

"Indian cheaps don't eat breakpusts," he said authoritatively," and "Injun cheaps don't let daddies and mommies holler on dem, 'cause Injun cheaps are bigger."

His new garb became as close to him as his new culture, and neither bed nor bath would dissuade him from removal of the costume. We were in despair.

The next evening, we went to the Indian Dance Ceremonial. We had, at Big Cheap's insistence, frequented the Indian Village, all the Indian curio stores within a 10-mile radius, visited the Indian museums, conversed in monosyllables with everyone remately resembling the First Americans.

IT WAS IMPRESSIVE—the ceremonial. Lit by colored spotlights, Stand Rock was a natural stage setting, carved out of rock, with the audience seated on a rising incline of the sloping soil and the stage backgrounded by a sheer rising rock slope, with portions hollowed out for special stage effects high above the ground.

We were enthralled by the beauty of it all—the dances, the lake to our left, the breathtaking natural panorama, but especially the dances.

In fact, so enthralled were we that we forgot our difficulties of the day. I even put aside the two books I had studied assiduously, one on "How This Big Daddy Learned to Be Firm," and a rather famous study by Dr. William Chill: "Quell Incipient Juvenile Delinquency at Birth."

The Snake Dance engrossed us. Derived from the Hopi Indians, it is an intricate movement, sinuous in its windings and its intertwinings of figures, replete with foot poundings and grunts and moans from the dancers.

As the chiefs, braves and squaws moved in and out of the dance, suddenly, I felt my ribs being jabbed and a hiss came from Carrie:

"Look," she hissed. "See," she sibilantly snorted.

At the ail end of the snake dance, as they came out of a particularly intricate figure, a small Indian emerged under the rose spotlight. Small? Did I say small? It was almost infinitesmal. Yes, it was Da - - er-Big Cheap.

He had escaped from our side, crawled down the stone steps and joined "my frembs" in their dance. I jumped to my feet, horrified, Carrie was already halfway down the slope.

'Da-da-vid," I muttered, unable to find my voice

JUST THEN A ROAR went up from the crowd. They, too, had spotted the tiny figure. And then, applause burst upon the arena like a clap of thunder. Applause and admiring laughter as they followed the little figure.

Carrie came back to my side, her eyes following "Big Cheap's" movements, unable to tear her fascinated gaze from his contortions. Lump in my throat, I sat down. David had arrived. At last, he had made the big time, had seized Time by the forelock and forced her to sit up and beg.

Where can one get a full-dress Indian regalia second-hand, feathers and all? I'm going to join the tribe. How? How?

As the chiefs, braves and squaws moved in and out of the dance, suddenly, I felt my ribs being jabbed and a hiss came from Carrie:

"Look," she hissed. "See," she sibilantly snorted.

At the ail end of the snake dance, as they came out of a particularly intricate figure, a small Indian emerged under the rose spotlight. Small? Did I say small? It was almost infinitesmal. Yes, it was Da - - er-Big Cheap.

He had escaped from our side, crawled down the stone steps and joined "my frembs" in their dance. I jumped to my feet, horrified, Carrie was already halfway down the slope.

JUST THEN A ROAR went up from the crowd. They, too, had spotted the tiny figure. And then, applause burst upon the arena like a clap of thunder. Applause and admiring laughter as they followed the little figure.

Carrie came back to my side, her eyes following "Big Cheap's" movements, unable to tear her fascinated gaze from his contortions. Lump in my throat, I sat down. David had arrived. At last, he had made the big time, had seized Time by the forelock and forced her to sit up and beg.

Where can one get a full-dress Indian regalia second-hand, feathers and all? I'm going to join the tribe. How? How?

BIG CHIEF SCOWLS fiercely in the best Indian tradition as he prepares to sneak in on the Big Powwow of White Cloud and other tribal chieftans. "I'll scold you," he threatens all within earshot and waves his tomahawk. "I'll smoke you," he growls, as he puffs away on his peacepipe. For he is a brave, and will not be parted from his fierce costume, except in the arms of Morpheus.

Qualifying for tennis tournaments has kept Bob Inman in trim this summer. Several weeks ago he was in Springfield, Ohio where he participated in the Westerns and the following week he qualified for the National Junior championship in Kalamazoo.

Recent visitors at the Wilbur Inman home have been Mrs. Inman's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. John Hosler and their three children. They stopped for a short visit before vacationing in the North and enroute home to Boundbrook, N. J., spent another weekend with the Inmans.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mell of Lincoln lane recently returned from a 3½ week western vacation. Perfect weather graced their 6-day stay at Sun Valley, Idaho, highlight of which was watching the continuous spectacular ice carnival at the new Olympic rink. From Sun Valley the Mells journeyed to the Broken Arrow ranch near Jackson, Wyo., scene of their last year's vacation. Fishing in mountain streams for rainbow trout, all day horseback pack trips and a side trip to Jackson Lake lodge made for a memorable vacation that was over all too soon, but a duplicate of which they are already looking forward to next year.

DOROTHY Magnussen is flashing a new engagement ring bestowed by her fiance Eugene Leonardi on July 9. The wedding will take place this fall. Dorothy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Magnussen, 622 N. Dryden. Her fiance's father is Mr. Joseph Leonardi of New Philadelphia, Ohio.

Kathleen Harty's fourth birthday on August 7 was celebrated with an ice cream and cake party for four of her playmates, plus her three brothers. After the party, Kathleen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harty, further celebrated the occasion by taking their family to the Hapsburg Inn for dinner.

Another birthday celebration for a four-year-old was that of Margaret Kanouse, whose actual birthdate is August 5, but Saturday was a more convenient get-together date for a family celebration that included both sets of grandparents. Margaret is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kanouse of 215 Brighton pl.

Frequent visitors at the Bob Glader residence have been Mrs. Glader's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Knudsen Jr. from Fresno, Cal. While the Knudsens have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Knudsen Sr. in Park Ridge, they have enjoyed cookouts and dinners downtown with the Gladers.

Miserability

The secret of being miserable is to have leisure to bother about whether you are happy or not.--George Bernard Shaw.

ALTHOUGH the first camping trip of the Curt Kenyon family of 313 N. Brighton pl. was not exactly according to plan, they are already looking forward to another one at Apple River Canyon. The site of their first camp was Ludington State park in Michigan, which was "full-up" when they arrived, so instead of camping, their first night was spent in a motel. When they did finally pitch their tent they were flooded by 2½ inches of rain. Despite the fact it was the rainiest week in 20 years in Ludington, the Kenyons enjoyed boating, fishing and hiking through the natural trails. Kimmie and Scott are as thrilled with camping as are their parents.

It's been a busy summer for Virginia and Dick Vlach of N. Beverley. A triple celebration on June 25 marked their 15th wedding anniversary, Dick's birthday and six years to the day they moved in their present home. A catered party for the same friends who attended their wedding honored the occasion. A week later they vacationed in Phillips, Wis. and also in Merrill, where they visited friends, Peg and Chuck Wurster, whom they have known for 25 years.

The following week, Mrs. Vlach's aunt, Mrs. Bess Van Bever, whom they haven't seen in 4½ years, visited from Los Angeles. Another visitor from Los Angeles has been Lorraine Buckley, a friend of Virginia's from high school days.

To top off a very active summer Mr. and Mrs. Vlach will spend next week at Portage Point Inn at Onekama, Mich., the same spot where they honeymooned 15 years ago.

Winners of last year's bridge tournament, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, are making up the schedule for next season's play. All Eastwood residents interested in playing bridge are invited to call Marguerite at CLearbrook 3-5748.

RIDGE PARK

Dr. and Mrs. George Oliver and the children, 705 N. Kennicott, recently returned from 10 days with friends in Log lodge, Wis. on a lake aptly named Fish Trap. The men fished every day with good results but as always, the big one got away.

The Joe Pecoraro family, 727 N. Kennicott, attended the recent annual picnic of the Independent Order of Foresters held in Harms woods. Fifteen hundred dads, moms and kids ate, played, relaxed and looked forward to next year's get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Oja and Carol, and Mr. and Mrs. John Glandak and Doren recently spent a weekend in Bloomington, Ind., where the girls will attend Indiana university next month. The families toured the campus and the coeds-to-be can hardly wait to start coeding.

Linda Sue Bahe celebrated her August 4 birthday with a birthday with a family party in the Bahe home, 930 N. Princeton. Linda Sue was two.

RECENT Des Moines visitors in the Clyde Harden home, 909 N. Salem, were Mrs. Harden's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Atkinson. During the weekend stay, host Harden and Mr. Atkinson went to Wrigley field twice and watched the Cubs snap a losing streak.

Two weeks ago today, a happy-hectic week began for the Henry Rosenblatt family, 1007 N. Salem, with the arrival of Mrs. Rosenblatt's cousin "Buck" Meyers and his family from Van Nuys, Cal. Next day, Mrs. Meyers' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lappi and Doug, came from Grand Rapids, Mich., for a reunion that brought some of the children in the three families together for the first time. The Van Nuys contingent also spent some of their long weekend with Mr. Meyers' sister in Prospect Heights. Another day was spent at Bangs lake where the water slides and other aquatic playground features delighted the children. A week ago yesterday, the Rosenblatt's son, Edward, a Civil Air Patrol member, entered the air force as airman 3/c and left for Lackland Air Force base in San Antonio, Tex.

Mrs. William Randle, 832 N. Kaspar, enjoyed a 10-day visit in Indianapolis with her sister, Mrs. Hazel Fullmer, and returned here early last week.

AT THE Eugene Myslo home, 721 N. Kaspar, little people have been coming and going busily, leaving Mom and Dad at home to manage as best they can. A week ago yesterday 7-year-old Marybeth left for a couple of weeks in Twin Lakes, Wis. with her aunt, Mrs. Natalie Loster and cousin, Nancy Loster, who had been visiting here with Marybeth the first part of the week.

Last Friday Susie, 10 years old, left from the Itasca home of her uncle, Alex Rurka, with Uncle Alex and his family for two weeks in Iron Mountain, Mich., with Grandfather and Grandmother Rurka. When the two weeks are up Mr. Myslo and Marybeth will drive to Iron Mountain for a weekend visit and to bring Susie home.

Hurricane Brenda and the George Bieber family, 801 N. Princeton, arrived in New York about the same time recently, but the Biebers outmaneuvered and out-lasted the big blow to enjoy two weeks in the east. They visited the senior Mrs. Bieber and her daughter in Highland Mills, N.Y., and the parents of the junior Mrs. Bieber, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morin of Long Island. The children were able to watch, from a distance, West Point battle maneuvers, and still don't know which was more exciting, Brenda or the cadets.

The Robert Abbott family returned home to 933 N. Yale a week ago Tuesday after a week at the Presbyterian family camp in Saugatuck, Mich., and a few days visiting the senior Abbotts in Saw Mill Lake, Ind.

THE CHARLES Rychaerts, 820 N. Kaspar, came home Saturday from a 2-week vacation in Lake Jordon, Wis. Ideal weather combined with water-skiing, swimming and fishing fun to make it the best but shortest two weeks of the year.

Patti Rosheger had her first birthday Sunday and celebrated with a family party in the home of her parents, the junior Philip Roshegers, 807 N. Kennicott. Among the guests were the birthday girl's grandparents, the senior Roshegers and Mr. and Mrs. Mario LaPlaca, all of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William LaGrave and the children, 824 N. Patton, returned early last week from a 3000 mile, 2-week vacation that had everything. They were delighted with the scenic wonders of Colorado and returned home via Kansas and Missouri for reunions with many friends and family members. Mrs. LaGrave visited her two grandmothers she hadn't seen for 15 years, Mrs. Josie Purvis of Goodland, Kan., and Mrs. J. C. Ison in Lamar, Mo. In Hill City, Kan., she and her sister, Mrs. Ray Caruthers, were reunited for the first time in nine years.

Lamar is the home of her parents, the Walter Isons, who met the littlest LaGrave, 14-month-old Jayne, for the time and it was here that Mrs. LaGrave's Grandmother Ison joined the family for a four-generation reunion. The last stop was in St. Louis where they visited Mr. LaGrave's parents and renewed many friendships in the old home town. From the Continental divide to the memorable reunions, the trip was a once-in-a-lifetime experience, the LaGraves report.

MONICA Schlickman was one year old Tuesday and celebrated twice as befits such a momentous occasion. Sunday, Monica and the rest of the family at 712 N. Fernandez spent the day at the cottage of Grandpa Schlickman in Lake Delevan and there they had one celebration. Tuesday evening, the birthday girl received the congratulations of her godparents, the Frank Kiecas of Ridge Park, at celebration number two, a dinner party in her parents' home.

Mrs. Earl Busse and Mary, 712 N. Kaspar, returned Sunday from a happy busy week at the Geneva School of Missions interdenominational camp in Lake Geneva.

The Glenn Buckleys, 1404 W. Elm, Friday night attended the crowning of Miss Chicago at the Sheraton Towers where finalists competed in evening gown, bathing suit and talent contests.

SHERWOOD

The Sherwood entertainment committee last week announced a brunch and white elephant sale to be held from 10 a.m. to noon August 23 in the home of committee chairman, Mrs. Robert Fernstrom, 1219 Watling. All Sherwoodites are invited to bring a white elephant item, enjoy a summer get-to-gether over "coffee and," and browse among the white elephants that miraculously become objects d'art when they belong to someone else. The hostess will be assisted by her committee members, Mrs. John Rankin, Mrs. Roger Ryden, Mrs. George Thieman and Mrs. Raymond Peck.

Visitors this week in the W. L. Johnson home, 1308 Watling, are the Johnson's daughter and family, the Rev. and Mrs. William J. Murphy, Christine and Diane of Greenwich, Conn. Since Mr. Johnson is recuperating from a recent stay in the hospital and grandchildren are especially noted as cheerer-uppers, the Murphys' visit is most timely.

MR. AND MRS. Richard Oldenburg, 1315 Watling, enjoyed the weekend in Cedar Grove, Wis. in the summer home of friends. Miss Diane is currently having fun too, at Camp Tiyalaka in Westfield, Wis., where she'll spend the week.

Jay Seyfert, son of George Seyferts, 1017 Watling, returned Sunday from two weeks of fun at Trump Lake lodge in Wabeno, Wis.

Chester Giuliani, 1314 Watling, returned Thursday from a 2-week business trip to Italy and the Hague that also introduced him to two cousins in Italy whom he'd never met. Through the efforts of an Italian business associate, Giuliani was able to visit the town where his father was born and is buried, and to meet the cousins. The senior Giuliani had brought his family to America but chose to die in his homeland and returned to Italy when Chester was 10 years old.

At Corpus Christi

Midshipman James D. Solon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Solon, of 614 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, a student at Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, is one of 1500 NROTC Midshipmen from 52 colleges and universities who completed three weeks of aviation indoctrination July 26 at the Naval Air Advanced Training station, Corpus Christi, Texas.

The midshipmen traveled to the Naval Amphibious Training base at Coronado, Cal., for the second phase of their 6-week training period in amphibious warfare.

On Reserve Duty

Major Walter E. Schlais, 302 S. Forrest ave., Arlington Heights, recently served for two weeks in the U. S. Army Reserve with the 417th Civil Affairs company at Weldon Spring, Mo., located approximately 25 miles west of St. Louis.

The mission of the 417th was to make an area survey of two Missouri counties adjacent to St. Louis. The material compiled from the survey will be available for use by the local communities for civil defense purposes.

Major Schlais, a project engineer with Pure Oil Co., served his unit as operations officer.

An Ordinance No. 60-30

PROVIDING FOR THE PRORATION OF COST OF CONSTRUCTING OF A SANITARY SEWER AND WATER MAINS ON CERTAIN PROPERTIES IN HICKORY MEADOWS SUBDIVISION IN THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS

WHEREAS JULES REINEKE, who at the time was the owner of and interested in certain lots in a subdivision hereinafter more specifically and legally described, in the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, had heretofore caused to be constructed, by private contract, and had paid the cost thereof, water mains covering subdivision and portions adjacent thereto, which said improvement with their appurtenances so constructed, can serve property in said subdivision and adjacent property, which said lots though not owned by JULES REINEKE are being benefitted, and which said lots as to the water mains placed thereon are described as follows:

The east 165 feet of Lots 24, 26, 28, and 30 in Allison's Addition to Arlington Heights, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, (except the West one-half of the Southwest Quarter and the South 4 acres of the East one-half of the Southwest Quarter thereof), and

The South 132 feet of Lots 113 and 114 in C. A. Goelz's Arlington Heights Gardens, being a subdivision of part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, and

Lot 8 and Lot 9 in C. H. Taylor's Arlington Heights Acres, being a subdivision of the East one-half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 41 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, and

WHEREAS said improvement so constructed is and will be of benefit to the above legally described properties; and

WHEREAS the said JULES REINEKE was given permission to construct said improvement by private contract, with the understanding that the Village of Arlington Heights be not charged with any part of the cost thereof, and with the further understanding that an ordinance be passed by the Village of Arlington Heights, after the completion of said improvement, requiring that the owners of any property adjacent thereto desiring to make use thereof pay the proportionate share of the cost of said improvements, to be used in reimbursement of the said JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, for the proportionate cost of the construction thereof; and

WHEREAS the cost for the water mains and the engineering in connection therewith as it affects the above described lots was equitably chargeable to the property in the amount of $5.74 per front foot; and

WHEREAS JULES REINEKE, who at the time was the owner of and interested in certain lots in a subdivision hereinafter more specifically and legally described in the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, had heretofore caused to be constructed, by private contract, and paid the cost thereof, sanitary sewers covering subdivision and portions adjacent thereto, which said improvement and their appurtenances so constructed, can serve property in said subdivision and adjacent property, which said lots though not owned by JULES REINEKE are being benefitted, and which said lots as to the sanitary sewers placed therein are described as follows:

The East 165 feet of Lots 24, 26, 28 and 30 in Allison's Addition to Arlington Heights, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian (except the West one-half of the Southwest Quarter and the South 4 acres of the East one-half of the Southwest Quarter thereof), and

The South 132 feet of Lot 114 and also the East 310 feet of the South 132 feet of Lot 113 in C. A. Goelz's Arlington Heights Gardens, being a subdivision of part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 41 North, Range 11, East of the Third Principal Meridian,

WHEREAS said improvement so constructed is and will be of benefit to the above legally described properties; and

WHEREAS the said JULES REINEKE was given permission to construct said improvement by private contract, with the understanding that the Village of Arlington Heights be not charged with any part of the cost thereof, and with the further understanding that an ordinance be passed by the Village of Arlington Heights, after the completion of said improvement, requiring that the owners of any property adjacent thereto desiring to make use thereof pay the proportionate share of the cost of said improvements, to be used in reimbursement of JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, for the proportionate cost of the construction thereof;

WHEREAS the cost for the sanitary sewers and the engineering in connection therewith as it affects the above described lots was equitably chargeable to the property in the amount of $2.68 per front foot; and

WHEREAS the President and the Board of Trustees of the Village find said costs and charges to be reasonable and in their judgment less than the cost of such improvement if constructed by special assessment; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, COUNTY OF COOK, AND STATE OF ILLINOIS:

SECTION ONE: That the cost of said improvement as to the water mains, which does not include any house connection or service pipes, is hereby determined and fixed at the rate of $5.74 per front foot of property in said subdivision and adjacent property, said amount being the cost of the construction of said improvement and engineering and other costs paid for the construction thereof by the said JULES REINEKE.

SECTION TWO: That no person, firm or corporation, being the owner of or party interested, nor any contractor, agent or other representative of such owner or party interested, of the above and the following described premises, to-wit:

The east 165 feet of Lots 24, 26, 28, and 30 in Allison's Addition to Arlington Heights, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian (except the West one-half of the Southwest Quarter and the South 4 acres of the East one-half of the Southwest Quarter thereof), and

The South 132 feet of Lots 113 and 114 in C. A. Goelz's Arlington Heights Gardens, being a subdivision of part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11, East of the Third Principal Meridian, and

Lot 8 and Lot 9 in C. H. Taylor's Arlington Heights Acres, being a subdivision of the East one-half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 41 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, shall connect to or obtain service from said improvement without first obtaining a permit from the Village of Arlington Heights to make such connection. No such permit shall be issued unless the applicant will first pay to the Village of Arlington Heights for the use of the said JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, a sum equal to $5.74 per front foot of such applicant's property to be served by such improvement. Such charge and the amount so paid, shall entitle such property owner to connect to any and all of said improvement, and shall be in addition to the usual charges and fees payable to the Village for making water connections. Such payment shall not relieve such property owner or owners from the payment of the established water rentals chargeable by said Village for water service rendered and furnished.

SECTION THREE: That the cost of said improvement as to the sanitary sewers, which do not include any house connection or service pipes, is hereby determined and fixed at the rate of $2.68 per front foot of property in said subdivision and adjacent property, said amount being the cost of the construction of said improvement and engineering and other costs paid for the construction thereof by the said JULES REINEKE.

SECTION FOUR: That no person, firm or corporation, being the owner of or party interested, nor any contractor, agent or other representative of such owner or party interested, of the above and the following described premises, to-wit:

The East 165 feet of Lots 24, 26, 28 and 30, in Allison's Addition to Arlington Heights, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian (except the West one-half of the Southwest Quarter and the South 4 acres of the East one-half of the Southwest Quarter thereof), and

The South 132 feet of Lot 114 and also the East 310 feet of the South 132 feet of Lot 113 in C. A. Goelz's Arlington Heights Gardens, being a subdivision of part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 41 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, shall connect to or obtain service from said improvement without first obtaining a permit from the Village of Arlington Heights to make such connection. No such permit shall be issued unless the applicant will first pay to the Village of Arlington Heights for the use of JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, a sum equal to $2.68 per front foot of such applicant's property to be served by such improvement. Such charge and the amount so paid shall entitle such property owner to connect to any or all of said improvement, and shall be in addition to the usual charges and fees payable to the Village for making sewer connections. Such payment shall not relieve such property owner or owners from the payment of the established sewer rentals chargeable by said Village for sewer service rendered and furnished.

SECTION FIVE: All moneys collected by the Village from such adjacent property owners for such connection charges, provided for in the preceding sections of this ordinance, except the usual connection fees and charges made by the Village in other instances, shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt thereof by the Village, be paid to the said JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, less, however, an amount of two per cent (2%) to be retained by the Village for the cost of collection, legal and publication costs with a minimum fee of $100.00 paid from the first sums collection, and that the said JULES REINEKE shall execute any and all necessary documents to hold the Village of Arlington Heights harmless by reason of any action on the part of the said JULES REINEKE or any other person affected thereby.

SECTION SIX: Any person, firm or corporation being the owner or owners of or parties interested in any of said property being capable of being served by said improvements, and any contractor, agent or representative of any such person, firm, or corporation making connections with the improvements hereinbefore described, without first making application to the Village for a permit, and without first paying the fees and charges herein provided for, shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), and upon conviction thereof, the Village shall enter upon said street and remove all such connections so made within the street lines of said street.

SECTION SEVEN: This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication in accordance with law.

Qualifying for tennis tournaments has kept Bob Inman in trim this summer. Several weeks ago he was in Springfield, Ohio where he participated in the Westerns and the following week he qualified for the National Junior championship in Kalamazoo.

Recent visitors at the Wilbur Inman home have been Mrs. Inman's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. John Hosler and their three children. They stopped for a short visit before vacationing in the North and enroute home to Boundbrook, N. J., spent another weekend with the Inmans.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mell of Lincoln lane recently returned from a 3½ week western vacation. Perfect weather graced their 6-day stay at Sun Valley, Idaho, highlight of which was watching the continuous spectacular ice carnival at the new Olympic rink. From Sun Valley the Mells journeyed to the Broken Arrow ranch near Jackson, Wyo., scene of their last year's vacation. Fishing in mountain streams for rainbow trout, all day horseback pack trips and a side trip to Jackson Lake lodge made for a memorable vacation that was over all too soon, but a duplicate of which they are already looking forward to next year.

DOROTHY Magnussen is flashing a new engagement ring bestowed by her fiance Eugene Leonardi on July 9. The wedding will take place this fall. Dorothy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Magnussen, 622 N. Dryden. Her fiance's father is Mr. Joseph Leonardi of New Philadelphia, Ohio.

Kathleen Harty's fourth birthday on August 7 was celebrated with an ice cream and cake party for four of her playmates, plus her three brothers. After the party, Kathleen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harty, further celebrated the occasion by taking their family to the Hapsburg Inn for dinner.

Another birthday celebration for a four-year-old was that of Margaret Kanouse, whose actual birthdate is August 5, but Saturday was a more convenient get-together date for a family celebration that included both sets of grandparents. Margaret is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kanouse of 215 Brighton pl.

Frequent visitors at the Bob Glader residence have been Mrs. Glader's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Knudsen Jr. from Fresno, Cal. While the Knudsens have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Knudsen Sr. in Park Ridge, they have enjoyed cookouts and dinners downtown with the Gladers.

Four-year-old Gary Glader received emergency treatment at Northwest Community hospital over the weekend. A fall from his wagon necessitated stitches for a one-half inch laceration on his nose. Gary is now at home and is convalescing nicely.

ALTHOUGH the first camping trip of the Curt Kenyon family of 313 N. Brighton pl. was not exactly according to plan, they are already looking forward to another one at Apple River Canyon. The site of their first camp was Ludington State park in Michigan, which was "full-up" when they arrived, so instead of camping, their first night was spent in a motel. When they did finally pitch their tent they were flooded by 2½ inches of rain. Despite the fact it was the rainiest week in 20 years in Ludington, the Kenyons enjoyed boating, fishing and hiking through the natural trails. Kimmie and Scott are as thrilled with camping as are their parents.

It's been a busy summer for Virginia and Dick Vlach of N. Beverley. A triple celebration on June 25 marked their 15th wedding anniversary, Dick's birthday and six years to the day they moved in their present home. A catered party for the same friends who attended their wedding honored the occasion. A week later they vacationed in Phillips, Wis. and also in Merrill, where they visited friends, Peg and Chuck Wurster, whom they have known for 25 years.

The following week, Mrs. Vlach's aunt, Mrs. Bess Van Bever, whom they haven't seen in 4½ years, visited from Los Angeles. Another visitor from Los Angeles has been Lorraine Buckley, a friend of Virginia's from high school days.

To top off a very active summer Mr. and Mrs. Vlach will spend next week at Portage Point Inn at Onekama, Mich., the same spot where they honeymooned 15 years ago.

Winners of last year's bridge tournament, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, are making up the schedule for next season's play. All Eastwood residents interested in playing bridge are invited to call Marguerite at CLearbrook 3-5748. (A

RIDGE PARK

Dr. and Mrs. George Oliver and the children, 705 N. Kennicott, recently returned from 10 days with friends in Log lodge, Wis. on a lake aptly named Fish Trap. The men fished every day with good results but as always, the big one got away.

The Joe Pecoraro family, 727 N. Kennicott, attended the recent annual picnic of the Independent Order of Foresters held in Harms woods. Fifteen hundred dads, moms and kids ate, played, relaxed and looked forward to next year's get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Oja and Carol, and Mr. and Mrs. John Glandak and Doren recently spent a weekend in Bloomington, Ind., where the girls will attend Indiana university next month. The families toured the campus and the coeds-to-be can hardly wait to start coeding.

Linda Sue Bahe celebrated her August 4 birthday with a birthday with a family party in the Bahe home, 930 N. Princeton. Linda Sue was two.

RECENT Des Moines visitors in the Clyde Harden home, 909 N. Salem, were Mrs. Harden's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Atkinson. During the weekend stay, host Harden and Mr. Atkinson went to Wrigley field twice and watched the Cubs snap a losing streak.

Two weeks ago today, a happy-hectic week began for the Henry Rosenblatt family, 1007 N. Salem, with the arrival of Mrs. Rosenblatt's cousin "Buck" Meyers and his family from Van Nuys, Cal. Next day, Mrs. Meyers' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lappi and Doug, came from Grand Rapids, Mich., for a reunion that brought some of the children in the three families together for the first time. The Van Nuys contingent also spent some of their long weekend with Mr. Meyers' sister in Prospect Heights. Another day was spent at Bangs lake where the water slides and other aquatic playground features delighted the children. A week ago yesterday, the Rosenblatt's son, Edward, a Civil Air Patrol member, entered the air force as airman 3/c and left for Lackland Air Force base in San Antonio, Tex.

Mrs. William Randle, 832 N. Kaspar, enjoyed a 10-day visit in Indianapolis with her sister, Mrs. Hazel Fullmer, and returned here early last week.

AT THE Eugene Myslo home, 721 N. Kaspar, little people have been coming and going busily, leaving Mom and Dad at home to manage as best they can. A week ago yesterday 7-year-old Marybeth left for a couple of weeks in Twin Lakes, Wis. with her aunt, Mrs. Natalie Loster and cousin, Nancy Loster, who had been visiting here with Marybeth the first part of the week.

Last Friday Susie, 10 years old, left from the Itasca home of her uncle, Alex Rurka, with Uncle Alex and his family for two weeks in Iron Mountain, Mich., with Grandfather and Grandmother Rurka. When the two weeks are up Mr. Myslo and Marybeth will drive to Iron Mountain for a weekend visit and to bring Susie home.

Hurricane Brenda and the George Bieber family, 801 N. Princeton, arrived in New York about the same time recently, but the Biebers outmaneuvered and out-lasted the big blow to enjoy two weeks in the east. They visited the senior Mrs. Bieber and her daughter in Highland Mills, N.Y., and the parents of the junior Mrs. Bieber, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morin of Long Island. The children were able to watch, from a distance, West Point battle maneuvers, and still don't know which was more exciting, Brenda or the cadets.

The Robert Abbott family returned home to 933 N. Yale a week ago Tuesday after a week at the Presbyterian family camp in Saugatuck, Mich., and a few days visiting the senior Abbotts in Saw Mill Lake, Ind.

THE CHARLES Rychaerts, 820 N. Kaspar, came home Saturday from a 2-week vacation in Lake Jordon, Wis. Ideal weather combined with water-skiing, swimming and fishing fun to make it the best but shortest two weeks of the year.

Patti Rosheger had her first birthday Sunday and celebrated with a family party in the home of her parents, the junior Philip Roshegers, 807 N. Kennicott. Among the guests were the birthday girl's grandparents, the senior Roshegers and Mr. and Mrs. Mario LaPlaca, all of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William LaGrave and the children, 824 N. Patton, returned early last week from a 3000 mile, 2-week vacation that had everything. They were delighted with the scenic wonders of Colorado and returned home via Kansas and Missouri for reunions with many friends and family members. Mrs. LaGrave visited her two grandmothers she hadn't seen for 15 years, Mrs. Josie Purvis of Goodland, Kan., and Mrs. J. C. Ison in Lamar, Mo. In Hill City, Kan., she and her sister, Mrs. Ray Caruthers, were reunited for the first time in nine years.

Lamar is the home of her parents, the Walter Isons, who met the littlest LaGrave, 14-month-old Jayne, for the time and it was here that Mrs. LaGrave's Grandmother Ison joined the family for a four-generation reunion. The last stop was in St. Louis where they visited Mr. LaGrave's parents and renewed many friendships in the old home town. From the Continental divide to the memorable reunions, the trip was a once-in-a-lifetime experience, the LaGraves report.

MONICA Schlickman was one year old Tuesday and celebrated twice as befits such a momentous occasion. Sunday, Monica and the rest of the family at 712 N. Fernandez spent the day at the cottage of Grandpa Schlickman in Lake Delevan and there they had one celebration. Tuesday evening, the birthday girl received the congratulations of her godparents, the Frank Kiecas of Ridge Park, at celebration number two, a dinner party in her parents' home.

Mrs. Earl Busse and Mary, 712 N. Kaspar, returned Sunday from a happy busy week at the Geneva School of Missions interdenominational camp in Lake Geneva.

The Glenn Buckleys, 1404 W. Elm, Friday night attended the crowning of Miss Chicago at the Sheraton Towers where finalists competed in evening gown, bathing suit and talent contests.

SHERWOOD

The Sherwood entertainment committee last week announced a brunch and white elephant sale tq be held from 10 a.m. to noon August 23 in the home of committee chairman, Mrs. Robert Fernstrom, 1219 Watling. All Sherwoodites are invited to bring a white elephant item, enjoy a summer get-to-gether over "coffee and," and browse among the white elephants that miraculously become objects d'art when they belong to someone else. The hostess will be assisted by her committee members, Mrs. John Rankin, Mrs. Roger Ryden, Mrs. George Thieman and Mrs. Raymond Peck.

Visitors this week in the W. L. Johnson home, 1308 Watling, are the Johnson's daughter and family, the Rev. and Mrs. William J. Murphy, Christine and Diane of Greenwich, Conn. Since Mr. Johnson is recuperating from a recent stay in the hospital and grandchildren are especially noted as cheerer-uppers, the Murphys' visit is most timely.

MR. AND MRS. Richard Oldenburg, 1315 Watling, enjoyed the weekend in Cedar Grove, Wis. in the summer home of friends. Miss Diane is currently having fun too, at Camp Tiyalaka in Westfield, Wis., where she'll spend the week.

Jay Seyfert, son of George Seyferts, 1017 Watling, returned Sunday from two weeks of fun at Trump Lake lodge in Wabeno, Wis.

Chester Giuliani, 1314 Watling, returned Thursday from a 2-week business trip to Italy and the Hague that also introduced him to two cousins in Italy whom he'd never met. Through the efforts of an Italian business associate, Giuliani was able to visit the town where his father was born and is buried, and to meet the cousins. The senior Giuliani had brought his family to America but chose to die in his homeland and returned to Italy when Chester was 10 years old.

At Corpus Christi

Midshipman James D. Solon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Solon, of 614 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, a student at Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, is one of 1500 NROTC Midshipmen from 52 colleges and universities who completed three weeks of aviation indoctrination July 26 at the Naval Air Advanced Training station, Corpus Christi, Texas.

The midshipmen traveled to the Naval Amphibious Training base at Coronado, Cal., for the second phase of their 6-week training period in amphibious warfare.

On Reserve Duty

Major Walter E. Schlais, 302 S. Forrest ave., Arlington Heights, recently served for two weeks in the U. S. Army Reserve with the 417th Civil Affairs company at Weldon Spring, Mo., located approximately 25 miles west of St. Louis.

The mission of the 417th was to make an area survey of two Missouri counties adjacent to St. Louis. The material compiled from the survey will be available for use by the local communities for civil defense purposes.

Major Schlais, a project engineer with Pure Oil Co., served his unit as operations officer.

An Ordinance No. 60-30

PROVIDING FOR THE PRORATION OF COST OF CONSTRUCTING OF A SANITARY SEWER AND WATER MAINS ON CERTAIN PROPERTIES IN HICKORY MEADOWS SUBDIVISION IN THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS

WHEREAS JULES REINEKE, who at the time was the owner of and interested in certain lots in a subdivision hereinafter more specifically and legally described, in the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, had heretofore caused to be constructed, by private contract, and had paid the cost thereof, water mains covering subdivision and portions adjacent thereto, which said improvement with their appurtenances so constructed, can serve property in said subdivision and adjacent property, which said lots though not owned by JULES REINEKE are being benefitted, and which said lots as to the water mains placed thereon are described as follows:

The east 165 feet of Lots 24, 26, 28, and 30 in Allison's Addition to Arlington Heights, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, (except the West one-half of the Southwest Quarter and the South 4 acres of the East one-half of the Southwest Quarter thereof), and
The South 132 feet of Lots 113 and 114 in C. A. Goelz's Arlington Heights Gardens, being a subdivision of part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, and
Lot 8 and Lot 9 in C. H. Taylor's Arlington Heights Acres, being a subdivision of the East one-half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 41 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, and

WHEREAS said improvement so constructed is and will be of benefit to the above legally described properties; and

WHEREAS the said JULES REINEKE was given permission to construct said improvement by private contract, with the understanding that the Village of Arlington Heights be not charged with any part of the cost thereof, and with the further understanding that an ordinance be passed by the Village of Arlington Heights, after the completion of said improvement, requiring that the owners of any property adjacent thereto desiring to make use thereof pay the proportionate share of the cost of said improvements, to be used in reimbursement of the said JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, for the proportionate cost of the construction thereof; and

WHEREAS the cost for the water mains and the engineering in connection therewith as it affects the above described lots was equitably chargeable to the property in the amount of $5.74 per front foot; and

WHEREAS JULES REINEKE, who at the time was the owner of and interested in certain lots in a subdivision hereinafter more specifically and legally described in the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, had heretofore caused to be constructed, by private contract, and paid the cost thereof, sanitary sewers covering subdivision and portions adjacent thereto, which said improvement and their appurtenances so constructed, can serve property in said subdivision and adjacent property, which said lots though not owned by JULES REINEKE are being benefitted, and which said lots as to the sanitary sewers placed therein are described as follows:

The East 165 feet of Lots 24, 26, 28 and 30 in Allison's Addition to Arlington Heights, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian (except the West one-half of the Southwest Quarter and the South 4 acres of the East one-half of the Southwest Quarter thereof), and
The South 132 feet of Lot 114 and also the East 310 feet of the South 132 feet of Lot 113 in C. A. Goelz's Arlington Heights Gardens, being a subdivision of part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 41 North, Range 11, East of the Third Principal Meridian,

WHEREAS said improvement so constructed is and will be of benefit to the above legally described properties; and

WHEREAS the said JULES REINEKE was given permission to construct said improvement by private contract, with the understanding that the Village of Arlington Heights be not charged with any part of the cost thereof, and with the further understanding that an ordinance be passed by the Village of Arlington Heights, after the completion of said improvement, requiring that the owners of any property adjacent thereto desiring to make use thereof pay the proportionate share of the cost of said improvements, to be used in reimbursement of JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, for the proportionate cost of the construction thereof;

WHEREAS the cost for the sanitary sewers and the engineering in connection therewith as it affects the above described lots was equitably chargeable to the property in the amount of $2.68 per front foot; and

WHEREAS the President and the Board of Trustees of the Village find said costs and charges to be reasonable and in their judgment less than the cost of such improvement if constructed by special assessment; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, COUNTY OF COOK, AND STATE OF ILLINOIS:

SECTION ONE: That the cost of said improvement as to the water mains, which does not include any house connection or service pipes, is hereby determined and fixed at the rate of $5.74 per front foot of property in said subdivision and adjacent property, said amount being the cost of the construction of said improvement and engineering and other costs paid for the construction thereof by the said JULES REINEKE.

SECTION TWO: That no person, firm or corporation, being the owner of or party interested, nor any contractor, agent or other representative of such owner or party interested, of the above and the following described premises, to-wit:

The east 165 feet of Lots 24, 26, 28, and 30 in Allison's Addition to Arlington Heights, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian (except the West one-half of the Southwest Quarter and the South 4 acres of the East one-half of the Southwest Quarter thereof), and
The South 132 feet of Lots 113 and 114 in C. A. Goelz's Arlington Heights Gardens, being a subdivision of part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11, East of the Third Principal Meridian, and
Lot 8 and Lot 9 in C. H. Taylor's Arlington Heights Acres, being a subdivision of the East one-half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 41 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, shall connect to or obtain service from said improvement without first obtaining a permit from the Village of Arlington Heights to make such connection. No such permit shall be issued unless the applicant will first pay to the Village of Arlington Heights for the use of the said JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, a sum equal to $5.74 per front foot of such applicant's property to be served by such improvement. Such charge and the amount so paid, shall entitle such property owner to connect to any and all of said improvement, and shall be in addition to the usual charges and fees payable to the Village for making water connections. Such payment shall not relieve such property owner or owners from the payment of the established water rentals chargeable by said Village for water service rendered and furnished.

SECTION THREE: That the cost of said improvement as to the sanitary sewers, which do not include any house connection or service pipes, is hereby determined and fixed at the rate of $2.68 per front foot of property in said subdivision and adjacent property, said amount being the cost of the construction of said improvement and engineering and other costs paid for the construction thereof by the said JULES REINEKE.

SECTION FOUR: That no person, firm or corporation, being the owner of or party interested, nor any contractor, agent or other representative of such owner or party interested, of the above and the following described premises, to-wit:

The East 165 feet of Lots 24, 26, 28 and 30, in Allison's Addition to Arlington Heights, being a subdivision of the Southwest Quarter of Section 20, Township 42 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian (except the West one-half of the Southwest Quarter and the South 4 acres of the East one-half of the Southwest Quarter thereof), and
The South 132 feet of Lot 114 and also the East 310 feet of the South 132 feet of Lot 113 in C. A. Goelz's Arlington Heights Gardens, being a subdivision of part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 41 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian, shall connect to or obtain service from said improvement without first obtaining a permit from the Village of Arlington Heights to make such connection. No such permit shall be issued unless the applicant will first pay to the Village of Arlington Heights for the use of JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, a sum equal to $2.68 per front foot of such applicant's property to be served by such improvement. Such charge and the amount so paid shall entitle such property owner to connect to any or all of said improvement, and shall be in addition to the usual charges and fees payable to the Village for making sewer connections. Such payment shall not relieve such property owner or owners from the payment of the established sewer rentals chargeable by said Village for sewer service rendered and furnished.

SECTION FIVE: All moneys collected by the Village from such adjacent property owners for such connection charges, provided for in the preceding sections of this ordinance, except the usual connection fees and charges made by the Village in other instances, shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt thereof by the Village, be paid to the said JULES REINEKE, or his heirs or assigns, less, however, an amount of two per cent (2%) to be retained by the Village for the cost of collection, legal and publication costs with a minimum fee of $100.00 paid from the first sums collection, and that the said JULES REINEKE shall execute any and all necessary documents to hold the Village of Arlington Heights harmless by reason of any action on the part of the said JULES REINEKE or any other person affected thereby.

SECTION SIX: Any person, firm or corporation being the owner or owners of or parties interested in any of said property being capable of being served by said improvements, and any contractor, agent or representative of any such person, firm, or corporation making connections with the improvements hereinbefore described, without first making application to the Village for a permit, and without first paying the fees and charges herein provided for, shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), and upon conviction thereof, the Village shall enter upon said street and remove all such connections so made within the street lines of said street.

SECTION SEVEN: This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication in accordance with law.

County Opens Bids For Area Projects

The county board has opened bids on bridge construction, road paving, and storm sewer projects important to the northwest section of Cook county.

A Lake - Cook road bridge is to be constructed in Wheeling township and will be located on the proposed Lake-Cook road over the Des Plaines river. The bridge roadway will be 300 feet long. The apparent low bid of $221,045 was submitted by Eric Bolander.

Palatine road is to be reconstructed from Milwaukee avenue to the Wisconsin Central (Soo Line) railroad tracks, a distance of 1.2 miles The apparent low bid of $259,953 was submitted by Contracting and Materical co.

ANOTHER project calls for installation of a storm sewer in Palatine road from a point 303 feet east of Wolf road to the Des Plaines river. The sewer will discharge into a headwall to be constructed on the west bank of the river. Reliance Underground Construction Co. filed the apparent low bid of $158,700. The reinforced concrete sewer line will be 4,982 feet long.

The board also opened bids for bituminous paving of two streets in Schaumburg township. They are Pleasant drive from Walnut avenue to Thacker street, a distance of 1,304 feet, and Long avenue from Chicago - Elgin road (58) for a distance 1,970 feet south. Apparent low bid of $4,783 was submitted by Arrow Road Construction Co.

Delicate Transfusions Save Infants' Lives

Four babies, born to parents with dissimilar Rh blood factors, are growing toward fully normal life as a result of delicate blood transfusions performed at the Northwest Community hospital in Arlington Heights.

According to Alan B. Campbell, hospital administrator, this complete exchange transfusion was perfected only about 15 years ago.

And even today, according to Campbell, many hospitals are not staffed and equipped to handle it. A complete blood bank, skilled laboratory technicians, and specially trained obstetrical, pediatric and nursing personnel are required.

BEFORE THE development of the complete exchange transfusion, Northwest Community hospital staff members point out, a certain percentage of Rh babies were doomed to suffer mental retardation, cerebral palsy, or even death.

But now, thanks to the complete exchange transfusion, parents where the male Rh factor is positive and the mother's Rh factor is negative may breathe much easier. Even before the scientific break-through with the exchange transfusion, the children of only five per cent of the negative Rh mothers were affected, according to Northwest hospital staff members.

Nowadays, the blood type of a pregnant woman is checked by her doctor. Should it show presence of the Rh negative factor, the father's blood is immediately checked. Should it be Rh positive, then all alert signs are up at delivery time.

IMMEDIATELY after birth, the infant's blood is subjected to a Coombs test. If this test shows positive, the child must be watched with utmost care. Attendants must be on the lookout for anemia. If the Coombs test has been positive, and if anemia is shown, it means there is an inner action between the factors of the mother's blood and the infant's blood cells. This action releases a blood component known as bilirubin which circulates through the body and can cause brain damage.

Therefore, when an Rh baby is born, a check is made every few hours for bilirubin and for anemia. If the bilirubin level is up and the hemoglobin level of the blood is down, the necessity for complete exchange transfusion is indicated.

According to Northwest hospital pediatrics staff members, the average infant's body contains about 200 cubic centimeters—or 8 ounces—of blood. The transfusion as it is now performed takes about two hours, with minute portions of the baby's blood being removed and equal portions of the new blood being added until a complete exchange has been effected. This complete change requires about 16 ounces of blood.

HOSPITAL STAFF members on the complete exchange teams are, like the parents of Rh babies, delighted that this technique has been perfected, but they hasten to remind parents generally that the incidence of man and wife with positive and negative Rh factors, respectively, is rare. Moreover, the difficulty is rarely evidenced with first-born children. And it may not assert itself in babies subsequently born to such parents.

Some babies from parents with the wrong Rh blood factors may show positive on the Coombs test and may not show anemia while in the hospital but they may become anemic later, during the early weeks of life. Often, just a small transfusion will bring these babies back to normal.

Q. How many attendants are the usual number at a home wedding?

A. The most fashionable include but two bridesmaids and a maid-of-honor — and many have no bridesmaids at all. There is no set number.

Q. When mailing birthday greeting cards to my women friends, whom my husband knows only slightly, should I sign both our names, or just mine alone?

County Opens Bids For Area Projects

The county board has opened bids on bridge construction, road paving, and storm sewer projects important to the northwest section of Cook county.

A Lake - Cook road bridge is to be constructed in Wheeling township and will be located on the proposed Lake-Cook road over the Des Plaines river. The bridge roadway will be 300 feet long. The apparent low bid of $221,045 was submitted by Eric Bolander.

Palatine road is to be reconstructed from Milwaukee avenue to the Wisconsin Central (Soo Line) railroad tracks, a distance of 1.2 miles The apparent low bid of $259,953 was submitted by Contracting and Materical co.

ANOTHER project calls for installation of a storm sewer in Palatine road from a point 303 feet east of Wolf road to the Des Plaines river. The sewer will discharge into a headwall to be constructed on the west bank of the river. Reliance Underground Construction Co. filed the apparent low bid of $158,700. The reinforced concrete sewer line will be 4,982 feet long.

The board also opened bids for bituminous paving of two streets in Schaumburg township. They are Pleasant drive from Walnut avenue to Thacker street, a distance of 1,304 feet, and Long avenue from Chicago - Elgin road (58) for a distance 1,970 feet south. Apparent low bid of $4,783 was submitted by Arrow Road Construction Co.

Delicate Transfusions Save Infants' Lives

Four babies, born to parents with dissimilar Rh blood factors, are growing toward fully normal life as a result of delicate blood transfusions performed at the Northwest Community hospital in Arlington Heights.

According to Alan B. Campbell, hospital administrator, this complete exchange transfusion was perfected only about 15 years ago.

And even today, according to Campbell, many hospitals are not staffed and equipped to handle it. A complete blood bank, skilled laboratory technicians, and specially trained obstetrical, pediatric and nursing personnel are required.

BEFORE THE development of the complete exchange transfusion, Northwest Community hospital staff members point out, a certain percentage of Rh babies were doomed to suffer mental retardation, cerebral palsy, or even death.

But now, thanks to the complete exchange transfusion, parents where the male Rh factor is positive and the mother's Rh factor is negative may breathe much easier. Even before the scientific break-through with the exchange transfusion, the children of only five per cent of the negative Rh mothers were affected, according to Northwest hospital staff members.

Nowadays, the blood type of a pregnant woman is checked by her doctor. Should it show presence of the Rh negative factor, the father's blood is immediately checked. Should it be Rh positive, then all alert signs are up at delivery time.

IMMEDIATELY after birth, the infant's blood is subjected to a Coombs test. If this test shows positive, the child must be watched with utmost care. Attendants must be on the lookout for anemia. If the Coombs test has been positive, and if anemia is shown, it means there is an inner action between the factors of the mother's blood and the infant's blood cells. This action releases a blood component known as bilirubin which circulates through the body and can cause brain damage.

Therefore, when an Rh baby is born, a check is made every few hours for bilirubin and for anemia. If the bilirubin level is up and the hemoglobin level of the blood is down, the necessity for complete exchange transfusion is indicated.

According to Northwest hospital pediatrics staff members, the average infant's body contains about 200 cubic centimeters—or 8 ounces—of blood. The transfusion as it is now performed takes about two hours, with minute portions of the baby's blood being removed and equal portions of the new blood being added until a complete exchange has been effected. This complete change requires about 16 ounces of blood.

HOSPITAL STAFF members on the complete exchange teams are, like the parents of Rh babies, delighted that this technique has been perfected, but they hasten to remind parents generally that the incidence of man and wife with positive and negative Rh factors, respectively, is rare. Moreover, the difficulty is rarely evidenced with first-born children. And it may not assert itself in babies subsequently born to such parents.

Some babies from parents with the wrong Rh blood factors may show positive on the Coombs test and may not show anemia while in the hospital but they may become anemic later, during the early weeks of life. Often, just a small transfusion will bring these babies back to normal.

Virginia Terrace News

Family of the week . . . is that of Jo and Les Rozdalovsky, 1321 N. Race, and their children, Shirley, 6, and Mary Jo, 4. Les hails from Nebraska, but it was in Jo's home state of Wisconsin that they met—she was a student and he an air cadet at the training school located at what is now the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee. Les, a commissioned officer in the air force, saw action as a bomber-navigator in England, while Jo received her degree and taught school. After his discharge, Les earned a degree in teaching and their courtship culminated in marriage in 1946. They returned to Nebraska, where both taught school for the next seven years. Les then had the opportunity to teach and coach at Maine Township East and Jo was about to retire and enjoy her role as housewife and mother. Following a year's residency in Des Plaines, they bought their first house here six years ago. The Rozdalovskys are active members of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights.

Les is now director of student personnel, which doesn't leave much time for other activities and maintains his rank of major with the air force reserve. However, he does find some time to enjoy wood carving, raise tropical fish and employ his talents as a handy man. Jo likes to cook and read. Both are participators and spectators of all sports and enjoy music.

Shirley, who will enter second grade at Wilson school, has enjoyed swimming lessons and handicraft at the park this summer, while Mary Jo, of course, is still company at home.

Visits to Les' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rozdalovsky, Crete, Nebr., are infrequent, Jo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaPresti, Milwaukee, visit their daughter and family often.

BETTY GUMZ, 1248 N. Chicago, entertained members of her baby sitting club last week. After taking care of the business at hand, Jerri Rix, Shirley Landes, Jackie Koenig, Grace Rogers, Adele Yore, Dorothy Catlin and Charlene Bang enjoyed dessert.

Beatrice and Walton Alexander, 1346 N. Illinois, and their children, Ross, 4, Lucille, 2, and Robert, 1, moved August 4 to their new home at 518 S. 2nd ave., Maywood. Everyone wishes them much luck and happiness.

Mary and Dan Healy, 1329 N. Chicago, have returned from a week's vacation to Nashville, Tenn., where they and the children, Danny, Mary Ann and Michael, visited Mary's relatives. Mary's aunt, Miss Catherine McKee returned home with them for an indefinite stay.

Another couple home from a week's vacation are Alice and Dick Brown, 1413 N. Chicago, who, with their children, Donald, Linda and Susan, had fun swimming, boating and fishing at a cottage located at Sturgeon Bay, Wis. They also visited with Alice's sister and her family, who were staying in a cottage nearby.

Welcoming a chosen baby to their home August 2 were Mary Lou and Jim Charleston, 1333 N. Chicago, who, together with their son, Jimmy, 2, announce that Jean Marie weighed 6 pounds 5 ounces when born June 22.

Swimming, boating, horseback riding and golfing were the mainstay of the 10-day vacation recently enjoyed by Hal and Herb Trowe, 1240 N. Chicago, and their children, Brad, Martha, Peggy and Barbara, at the family's summer home at Ephraim, Wis. The children also enjoyed the company of Great-grandmother Clemenson.

DAVID, SON OF JoAnne and Bill Herndon, 1333 N. Wilke, was wished many happy returns on his fifth birthday August 8 at a family dinner party. Also indulging in the cake and ice cream was his brother, Wayne.

An afternoon party was held August 3 at the home of Phyllis and Hal Fluhrer, 1433 N. Race, for their daughter, Janet, who was 6. Although playmates Janet Grassly and Joyce Randle were unable to attend, Marilyn Donath, Virginia May Catlin, Andy Staubitz, Kenny Hermann, Jenny Staubitz, and her sister, Linda, and brother, Skipper, were present to enjoy birthday cake, ice cream, games and to receive party favors.

Donna and Jack Garland, 1317 N. Chicago, and the children, John, Karen and Debbie, spent several days last week camping at Devil's Lake, Wis. Sleeping and cooking out-of-doors were the greatest, as far as the children were concerned.

Swimming and boating were on the agenda for Pierrette and Walter Leckie, 1429 N. Chicago, and the boys, Bruce and Bryan, as they enjoyed a 2-week vacation at a cottage at Island Lake, Wis.

Bob, 14, son of Polly and Charles Millhouser, 1702 W. Oakton, has returned from a 2-week stay at Camp Napowan, where the highlights were a canoe trip and the staging of a water carnival, the latter viewed by his parents and sisters, Mary and Jean. Charles spent a week at the camp in the capacity of a volunteer assistant.

Richard, son of Kathy and Don Munk, 1230 N. Race, celebrated his 14th birthday when his parents entertained his sister and brother, Marcia and Terry and three guests at Diamond lake for an afternoon of swimming followed by a barbecue supper.

Denver was the destination of Lois and Gilbert Martin, 1417 N. Chicago, and the children, Beth, Scott, Gary and Barbara, who just returned from their vacation spent with Lois' brother and his family, the William Lamonts. Interesting side trips included a visit to Pikes Peak, Air Force academy, Estes Park, Lookout mountain and Ghost Town, where they saw an old underground gold mine, much to the delight of the children.

USING AN Hawaiian theme, Isabel and Ray Nottoli, 1227 N. Race, entertained 15 members of Isabel's sorority and their husbands and a few friends at their annual patio party last Saturday night. Keeping in mind that it was also a fund raising evening, the couples enjoyed games, dancing and a potluck supper.

A cottage at Pike Lake, Wis., was the setting for a week's vacation for Ruth and Dick Randle, 1448 N. Yale, and their daughters, Janice, Joyce and Carol Jean, with emphasis on swimming, boating and fishing.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Marie Bender, 1119 N. Wilke. Friends and neighbors learned of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frances Wermuth, Madison, Wis., which was Mrs. Bender's former home.

A welcome is extended to Peggy and Bob MacMillan and their son, Robert, 17 months, 1220 N. Race, who moved here several days ago from Des Plaines. Bob is a salesman for Container Corp., Chicago. The couple plans to attend St. Simon Episcopal church.

A patio party was held Saturday night at the home of Doris and Dee Gehrig, 1219 N. Race, to introduce new home owners, Emily and Tom Deriemer, to some of their immediate neighbors. Becoming acquainted with the Deriemers, as well as the dancing and late buffet snack, were enjoyed by the Bill Browns, Jim Elfs, Ron Reeds, Terry McGuires, Ray Crouches, Ed Lussiers, "Red" Crowes and the Art Shogrens.

The Gehrigs, including daughter, Diana Lee, are moving to Springfield August 12, as the result of a company transfer. Their friends and neighbors wish them much luck and happiness in their new residence.

A TRIPLE celebration was in order for Therese, daughter of Ellen and George Sottung, 1722 W. Oakton, 2 August 2. Her brother, Michael, and sister, Marie, wished her many happy returns at a family dinner party that evening. Birthday cake and ice cream were on the agenda again Friday evening, when the family was joined by her maternal grandfather, Herbert Anderson, Skokie, and Saturday evening, when her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Sottung, Chicago, were present at a dinner party.

Sunday was a big day for Pauline and John Noerenberg, 1235 N. Race, and the children, Johnny, Tommy and Susan. They not only got in a visit with their respective parents, but after leaving Susan with her aunt, uncle and cousins for an afternoon visit, Pauline, John and the boys enjoyed the Cubs-Braves ball game in Milwaukee. Being pleased with the Brave's victory can be attributed to the fact that the Noerenbergs are original Wisconsinites.

Because the family was on vacation at the time of Shelley's birthday, July 13, her parents, Jeanne and Marvin Hayes, 1425 N. Chicago, celebrated it with an afternoon party this past Monday. In on the festivities, which included games, favors, birthday cake and ice cream, were her brother, Richard, Cheri McKee, Kathy Zaucha, Skipper Fluhrer, Bryan Leckie, Marilyn Donath and Gary Martin.

A luncheon party was held August 4 at the home of Maisie and Jim Sikorske, 1231 N. Race, for their son, Tommy, who was 3. Guests were his grandmothers, Mrs. Clara Sikorske and Mrs. Ann Kiney, both of Chicago, aunts, Mrs. Marie Kiney, Chicago, and Mrs. Art Kiney, Wheaton, cousins, Debbie, Derek and Johnny, and Mrs. Norma Elf and her son, Jimmy, of the Terrace.

Jean Lussier, 1216 N. Chicago, entertained friends of Doris Gehrig at a tea Tuesday afternoon. Among those enjoying the last get-together and presenting her with a farewell gift were Carolyn Brown, Pat McGuire, Marilou Crouch, Norma Elf, Isabel Nottoli, Carol Narup, Carol Reed, Lenora Crowe and Marilyn Crouch, Barrington. Neighbor Florence Paul was unable to attend. (A

Week's Best food buys

Better supplies of heavier, good eating fryers were released to the market to provide the first opportunity in weeks for lower wholesale quotes and general retail price drops.

Other meat values continue in selected beef and lamb lines at prices mostly steady with last week. Although pork supplies diminish, dull consumer demand holds prices steady. Ham "deals" are plentiful in area stores. Bacon, showing strong demand against limited supply, is the lone item to show price increase.

Local produce takes over seasonally, to offer broad selectivity at widely ranging quality and price. Lower priced potatoes offer value opportunities, 10 pounds for 89 cents being a current high point.

HIGHER marketing costs boost the processed foods grocery index over last year's high.

Against this general trend, the weekly University of Illinois consumer service market survey signals the following bargain considerations for the week ending August 13: eys; Meats — beef roasts and steaks, lamb shoulder roasts;

Poultry — fryers and turk- produce — pears, peaches, grapes, cantaloupe, sweet-corn, lettuce, tomatoes and cabbage.

Pork currently is caught in a three-way squeeze that has been developing over a period of weeks — dull demand at retail, extreme lack of interest at wholesale, and curtailed live receipts to the point of near scarcity with the smallest runs of hogs in years arriving at Chicago terminal.

CATTLE receipts are up over week-ago at slightly higher quotes. Better grades of lamb, mostly native spring, are active on a firmer price tone. Both advanced fractionally at wholesale, reflecting slight improved demand at retail.

Fryers show the effect of hold-back from trade, as more three-pounders and over appear at lower prices to wipe out previously prevailing 39-43 cent quotes. Even with hot-weather reduced supplies and ranging quality, dull demand and slow movement holds egg prices steady.

Pricing patterns: Poultry—Plenty of store features at 29 cents as the general price level for fryers drops to a 35-37 cent competitive range; fryer parts pricing accordingly. Stewing hens are steady at 39-49 cents. Turkeys stay at 45-49 cents generally, but show 39 cents on feature. Grade A large white eggs quote steady at 49-55 cents.

BEEF — Blade cut chucks quote a wider 35-49 cents, round bone roasts 65 cents generally but range down to 49 cents, rolled, rump and sirloin tip roasts 89-95 cents, standing rib roasts mostly from 69 cents. Steaks quote more widely, sirloins $1.09, porterhouse $1.25, round and rib steaks 89 cents. Ground beef ranges popularly 49-59 cents.

Pork — Mostly steady and unchanged, rib end roasts 43-45 cents, loin ends 53-55 cents, fresh Boston butts 49-59 cents, center chops 85-95 cents, end chops 39-49 cents, spareribs 55-59 cents. Larger hams show 55 cents butt cuts, 49 cents shank portions; smaller hams, whole or half shank 59 cents, butts 65-69 cents. Center slices range 89 cents-$1.09. Smoked Bostons 59-69 cents competitively. First brand bacon climbs to 75 cents, second lines quote 59 cents.

Lamb — Little change from last week, leg roasts 65-69 cents, shoulder roasts mostly 49 cents, shoulder chops 79-85 cents, rib chops 98 cents-$1.09, loin chops $1.19-1.25.

Q. We are giving a dinner in our home for a number of friends, and we should like to serve some cocktails before dinner. How many rounds of cocktails would it be proper for us to offer our guests?

A. There is no rule about this, although the usual number is two — which seems a practical limit, since the prime purpose of your party is to allow your friends to enjoy your cookery.

Q. Is it proper for the bride to carry her bridegroom's wedding ring to the altar with her?

A. The maid or matron of honor usually takes care of this ring, and hands it over to the bride at the proper moment during the ceremony.

Family of the week . . . is that of Jo and Les Rozdalovsky, 1321 N. Race, and their children, Shirley, 6, and Mary Jo, 4. Les hails from Nebraska, but it was in Jo's home state of Wisconsin that they met—she was a student and he an air cadet at the training school located at what is now the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee. Les, a commissioned officer in the air force, saw action as a bomber-navigator in England, while Jo received her degree and taught school. After his discharge, Les earned a degree in teaching and their courtship culminated in marriage in 1946. They returned to Nebraska, where both taught school for the next seven years. Les then had the opportunity to teach and coach at Maine Township East and Jo was about to retire and enjoy her role as housewife and mother. Following a year's residency in Des Plaines, they bought their first house here six years ago. The Rozdalovskys are active members of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights.

Les is now director of student personnel, which doesn't leave much time for other activities and maintains his rank of major with the air force reserve. However, he does find some time to enjoy wood carving, raise tropical fish and employ his talents as a handy man. Jo likes to cook and read. Both are participators and spectators of all sports and enjoy music.

Shirley, who will enter second grade at Wilson school, has enjoyed swimming lessons and handicraft at the park this summer, while Mary Jo, of course, is still company at home.

Visits to Les' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rozdalovsky, Crete, Nebr., are infrequent, Jo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaPresti, Milwaukee, visit their daughter and family often.

BETTY GUMZ, 1248 N. Chicago, entertained members of her baby sitting club last week. After taking care of the business at hand, Jerri Rix, Shirley Landes, Jackie Koenig, Grace Rogers, Adele Yore, Dorothy Catlin and Charlene Bang enjoyed dessert.

Beatrice and Walton Alexander, 1346 N. Illinois, and their children, Ross, 4, Lucille, 2, and Robert, 1, moved August 4 to their new home at 518 S. 2nd ave., Maywood. Everyone wishes them much luck and happiness.

Mary and Dan Healy, 1329 N. Chicago, have returned from a week's vacation to Nashville, Tenn., where they and the children, Danny, Mary Ann and Michael, visited Mary's relatives. Mary's aunt, Miss Catherine McKee returned home with them for an indefinite stay.

Another couple home from a week's vacation are Alice and Dick Brown, 1413 N. Chicago, who, with their children, Donald, Linda and Susan, had fun swimming, boating and fishing at a cottage located at Sturgeon Bay, Wis. They also visited with Alice's sister and her family, who were staying in a cottage nearby.

Welcoming a chosen baby to their home August 2 were Mary Lou and Jim Charleston, 1333 N. Chicago, who, together with their son, Jimmy, 2, announce that Jean Marie weighed 6 pounds 5 ounces when born June 22.

Swimming, boating, horseback riding and golfing were the mainstay of the 10-day vacation recently enjoyed by Hal and Herb Trowe, 1240 N. Chicago, and their children, Brad, Martha, Peggy and Barbara, at the family's summer home at Ephraim, Wis. The children also enjoyed the company of Great-grandmother Clemenson.

DAVID, SON OF JoAnne and Bill Herndon, 1333 N. Wilke, was wished many happy returns on his fifth birthday August 8 at a family dinner party. Also indulging in the cake and ice cream was his brother, Wayne.

An afternoon party was held August 3 at the home of Phyllis and Hal Fluhrer, 1433 N. Race, for their daughter, Janet, who was 6. Although playmates Janet Grassly and Joyce Randle were unable to attend, Marilyn Donath, Virginia May Catlin, Andy Staubitz, Kenny Hermann, Jenny Staubitz, and her sister, Linda, and brother, Skipper, were present to enjoy birthday cake, ice cream, games and to receive party favors.

Donna and Jack Garland, 1317 N. Chicago, and the children, John, Karen and Debbie, spent several days last week camping at Devil's Lake, Wis. Sleeping and cooking out-of-doors were the greatest, as far as the children were concerned.

Swimming and boating were on the agenda for Pierrette and Walter Leckie, 1429 N. Chicago, and the boys, Bruce and Bryan, as they enjoyed a 2-week vacation at a cottage at Island Lake, Wis.

Bob, 14, son of Polly and Charles Millhouser, 1702 W. Oakton, has returned from a 2-week stay at Camp Napowan, where the highlights were a canoe trip and the staging of a water carnival, the latter viewed by his parents and sisters, Mary and Jean. Charles spent a week at the camp in the capacity of a volunteer assistant.

Richard, son of Kathy and Don Munk, 1230 N. Race, celebrated his 14th birthday when his parents entertained his sister and brother, Marcia and Terry and three guests at Diamond lake for an afternoon of swimming followed by a barbecue supper.

Denver was the destination of Lois and Gilbert Martin, 1417 N. Chicago, and the children, Beth, Scott, Gary and Barbara, who just returned from their vacation spent with Lois' brother and his family, the William Lamonts. Interesting side trips included a visit to Pikes Peak, Air Force academy, Estes Park, Lookout mountain and Ghost Town, where they saw an old underground gold mine, much to the delight of the children.

USING AN Hawaiian theme, Isabel and Ray Nottoli, 1227 N. Race, entertained 15 members of Isabel's sorority and their husbands and a few friends at their annual patio party last Saturday night. Keeping in mind that it was also a fund raising evening, the couples enjoyed games, dancing and a potluck supper.

A cottage at Pike Lake, Wis., was the setting for a week's vacation for Ruth and Dick Randle, 1448 N. Yale, and their daughters, Janice, Joyce and Carol Jean, with emphasis on swimming, boating and fishing.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Marie Bender, 1119 N. Wilke. Friends and neighbors learned of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frances Wermuth, Madison, Wis., which was Mrs. Bender's former home.

A welcome is extended to Peggy and Bob MacMillan and their son, Robert, 17 months, 1220 N. Race, who moved here several days ago from Des Plaines. Bob is a salesman for Container Corp., Chicago. The couple plans to attend St. Simon Episcopal church.

A patio party was held Saturday night at the home of Doris and Dee Gehrig, 1219 N. Race, to introduce new home owners, Emily and Tom Deriemer, to some of their immediate neighbors. Becoming acquainted with the Deriemers, as well as the dancing and late buffet snack, were enjoyed by the Bill Browns, Jim Elfs, Ron Reeds, Terry McGuires, Ray Crouches, Ed Lussiers, "Red" Crowes and the Art Shogrens.

The Gehrigs, including daughter, Diana Lee, are moving to Springfield August 12, as the result of a company transfer. Their friends and neighbors wish them much luck and happiness in their new residence.

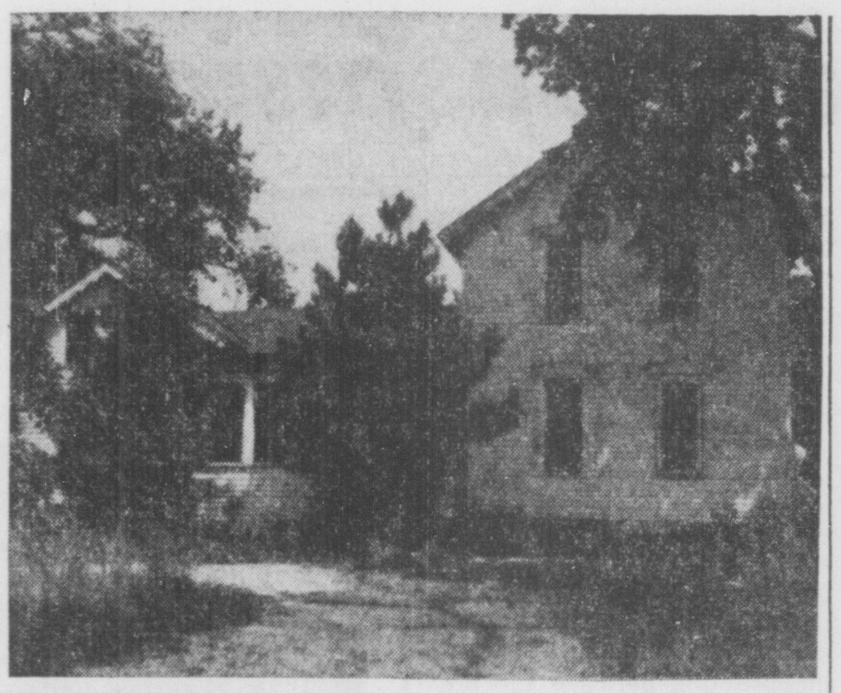
A TRIPLE celebration was in order for Therese, daughter of Ellen and George Sottung, 1722 W. Oakton, 2 August 2. Her brother, Michael, and sister, Marie, wished her many happy returns at a family dinner party that evening. Birthday cake and ice cream were on the agenda again Friday evening, when the family was joined by her maternal grandfather, Herbert Anderson, Skokie, and Saturday evening, when her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Sottung, Chicago, were present at a dinner party.

Sunday was a big day for Pauline and John Noerenberg, 1235 N. Race, and the children, Johnny, Tommy and Susan. They not only got in a visit with their respective parents, but after leaving Susan with her aunt, uncle and cousins for an afternoon visit, Pauline, John and the boys enjoyed the Cubs-Braves ball game in Milwaukee. Being pleased with the Brave's victory can be attributed to the fact that the Noerenbergs are original Wisconsinites.

Because the family was on vacation at the time of Shelley's birthday, July 13, her parents, Jeanne and Marvin Hayes, 1425 N. Chicago, celebrated it with an afternoon party this past Monday. In on the festivities, which included games, favors, birthday cake and ice cream, were her brother, Richard, Cheri McKee, Kathy Zaucha, Skipper Fluhrer, Bryan Leckie, Marilyn Donath and Gary Martin.

A luncheon party was held August 4 at the home of Maisie and Jim Sikorske, 1231 N. Race, for their son, Tommy, who was 3. Guests were his grandmothers, Mrs. Clara Sikorske and Mrs. Ann Kiney, both of Chicago, aunts, Mrs. Marie Kiney, Chicago, and Mrs. Art Kiney, Wheaton, cousins, Debbie, Derek and Johnny, and Mrs. Norma Elf and her son, Jimmy, of the Terrace.

Jean Lussier, 1216 N. Chicago, entertained friends of Doris Gehrig at a tea Tuesday afternoon. Among those enjoying the last get-together and presenting her with a farewell gift were Carolyn Brown, Pat McGuire, Marilou Crouch, Norma Elf, Isabel Nottoli, Carol Narup, Carol Reed, Lenora Crowe and Marilyn Crouch, Barrington. Neighbor Florence Paul was unable to attend. (A



THIS HOME on Northwest hwy., east of Stonegate in Arlington Heights, was occupied until September 25. Since that time it has been severely, damaged by youths or other persons who have broken doors and windows, wrecked the interior, etc. The village has ordered its demolition. The owner, Mrs. Carl Mayer of Maybay Farm, Route 1, Roselle, is having difficulty in finding someone who will tear down the structure for her.

DEDICATION ceremony for new parsonage of St. Peter Lutheran church is presided over by Pastor R. O. Bartz. Looking on are Mrs. Bartz and daughter Susan, Bill Carroll of Carroll-McHugh Builders, and Robert Luker, vice president of the congregation. The new tri-level is located on the corner of N. Highland and W. Olive. (A

Better supplies of heavier, good eating fryers were released to the market to provide the first opportunity in weeks for lower wholesale quotes and general retail price drops.

Other meat values continue in selected beef and lamb lines at prices mostly steady with last week. Although pork supplies diminish, dull consumer demand holds prices steady. Ham "deals" are plentiful in area stores. Bacon, showing strong demand against limited supply, is the lone item to show price increase.

Local produce takes over seasonally, to offer broad selectivity at widely ranging quality and price. Lower priced potatoes offer value opportunities, 10 pounds for 89 cents being a current high point.

HIGHER marketing costs boost the processed foods grocery index over last year's high.

Against this general trend, the weekly University of Illinois consumer service market survey signals the following bargain considerations for the week ending August 13: eys; Meats — beef roasts and steaks, lamb shoulder roasts; Poultry — fryers and turk-produce — pears, peaches, grapes, cantaloupe, sweetcorn, lettuce, tomatoes and cabbage.

Pork currently is caught in a three-way squeeze that has been developing over a period of weeks — dull demand at retail, extreme lack of interest at wholesale, and curtailed live receipts to the point of near scarcity with the smallest runs of hogs in years arriving at Chicago terminal.

CATTLE receipts are up over week-ago at slightly higher quotes. Better grades of lamb, mostly native spring, are active on a firmer price tone. Both advanced fractionally at wholesale, reflecting slight improved demand at retail.

Fryers show the effect of hold-back from trade, as more three-pounders and over appear at lower prices to wipe out previously prevailing 39-43 cent quotes. Even with hot-weather reduced supplies and ranging quality, dull demand and slow movement holds egg prices steady.

Pricing patterns: Poultry—Plenty of store features at 29 cents as the general price level for fryers drops to a 35-37 cent competitive range; fryer parts pricing accordingly. Stewing hens are steady at 39-49 cents. Turkeys stay at 45-49 cents generally, but show 39 cents on feature. Grade A large white eggs quote steady at 49-55 cents.

BEEF — Blade cut chucks quote a wider 35-49 cents, round bone roasts 65 cents generally but range down to 49 cents, rolled, rump and sirloin tip roasts 89-95 cents, standing rib roasts mostly from 69 cents. Steaks quote more widely, sirloins $1.09, porterhouse $1.25, round and rib steaks 89 cents. Ground beef ranges popularly 49-59 cents.

Pork — Mostly steady and unchanged, rib end roasts 43-45 cents, loin ends 53-55 cents, fresh Boston butts 49-59 cents, center chops 85-95 cents, end chops 39-49 cents, spareribs 55-59 cents. Larger hams show 55 cents butt cuts, 49 cents shank portions; smaller hams, whole or half shank 59 cents, butts 65-69 cents. Center slices range 89 cents-$1.09. Smoked Bostons 59-69 cents competitively. First brand bacon climbs to 75 cents, second lines quote 59 cents.

Lamb — Little change from last week, leg roasts 65-69 cents, shoulder roasts mostly 49 cents, shoulder chops 79-85 cents, rib chops 98 cents-$1.09, loin chops $1.19-1.25.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS LIONS CLUB

A LUXURIOUS new Cadillac car will be given away Sept. 18 by Arlington Heights Lions club. Helping to assure success of the project were A. D. Reeves, president of the club; Joseph P. McMahon, candidate for clerk of Circuit court and member of Shoreline Lions club of Chicago; Dr. Andrew J. Toman, candidate for county coroner and member of Berwyn Lions club; and H. C. Best, vice president of Arlington Heights club. The men are shown at the Wheeling Township Democratic organization picnic July 24 at Tree Top Inn in Wheeling.

Q. We are giving a dinner in our home for a number of friends, and we should like to serve some cocktails before dinner. How many rounds of cocktails would it be proper for us to offer our guests?

A. There is no rule about this, although the usual number is two — which seems a practical limit, since the prime purpose of your party is to allow your friends to enjoy your cookery.

Q. Is it proper for the bride to carry her bridegroom's wedding ring to the altar with her?

A. The maid or matron of honor usually takes care of this ring, and hands it over to the bride at the proper moment during the ceremony.

Mrs. Aug. Fredricks while on Train No. 21, found a ladies' pocket book Monday morning Aug. 2. If the party who lost same will call on Mrs. Fredricks, it will be returned to its owner on payment for this ad, 10 cents a line.

Saturday, August 7, 1920, Itasca dedicated their new village hall. It cost $12,000 and is estimated to be worth $25,000. Many citizens worked together to make the day memorable; among the townspeople and visitors, were Hon. Ira C. Copley, from Aurora, member of congress from this district, who made the evening address.

Besides Trustee Schroeder, who presided, Trustee H. H. Geils and Charles Hanck, and Wm. Baruth and Frank G. Schneider were busy day and evening, assisted by Frank Mallach and H. Luehring and many others.

Louis Brettmann, Sr., born Oct. 4, 1845 in Addison Township, on the old homestead where he spent his childhood, lived and toiled, died August 5, aged 74 years.

A township Farm Bureau meeting will be held at the Town Hall, Monday, Aug. 16. Advisor, C. E. Durst will speak on soil and fertilizers, also answer any other farm questions that those in attendance wish to ask. Albert Landmeier is township chairman, and asks that all members attend this meeting. The Farm Bureau is moving this week from the rear of the Arlington Heights State Bank to the brick office building, opposite the livery barn, formerly occupied by the Arlington Heights Lumber Co.

Mt. Prospect

Caroline Wenig, born in Germany Nov. 30, 1850, came to America in 1867 married Louis Oehlerking in 1872, died Aug. 2, 1920, aged 69 years, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Busse.

We are sorry to have to report the death of Ernest John Beutler, born Dec. 26, 1848, in Germany, who came to Chicago, U.S.A., in June 1866, where he married Miss Sarah Harris in 1869. They were residents of Chicago until 1878 when they moved to Arlington Heights, going to Palatine in 1882, where Mr. Beutler resided until his death Aug. 4, 1920, aged 71 years, 7 mo. and 8 days.

Arlington Heights

Engineer Kolling and Henry Garms put a new floor in the bridge on the Foundry Road this week. — Six big motor buses loaded with passengers from Chicago, spent Sunday picnicking in Meyer's Park. — None of us begrudge the deep-in breaths of fresh air those city people get who come here for Sunday outings, but we do object to their pulling up our flowers and trampling over our vines. — A stead baling machine has been at work pressing the straw on the Dunton fields in the eastern part of the village two or three days this week. — Have you noticed the return to the bicycle? Not only do the men and boys go about on wheels, but many of our young women use them to go on marketing tours. — Prof. Kohlsaat of Lewis Institute and his son hiked out from the city Saturday to visit his former pupil, Rexford Volz. — From OBSERVER' Notes: Anybody here remember when the only street lights Arlington Heights had was a few red and green lanterns about the station? Remember when a few kerosene lamps on posts, were set on certain corners? Then just recall the marvel of acetylene and up and up we have gone, from the old primitive "glims" and the moonlight schedules to the all night gas, and the brilliant gleam of approaching electric lights.

From report of Village Board meeting: Mayor Mors was authorized to execute a contract with the Public Service Co. for current to provide power for a 25 H.P. motor at the new Scarsdale well. — Many complaints have been received about train whistling thru town, and Mayor Mors said he would take the matter up with the RR Company. — Request was received that the Railroad company be asked to restore the driveway along the South track.

An incorporated firm, operating under the name of Cook County Creamery, Inc., has leased of Gus Framberg his ice cream and refrigerating plant and will begin manufacture this week.

Plum Grove Park

The newly paved Plum Grove road makes the park an ideal place for outings. This beautifully wooded tract comprises 65 acres with an artificial lake under construction, has wonderful drinking water. Refreshments are served on the grounds. Old and New time dances are given in the dance hall which has recently been decorated. This park is located about 2½ miles south of Palatine, and is under the management of Fred Behling who desires to cater to the nice class of people. Phil Childs orchestra will be there Saturday evening.

Palatine

Rev. Harry Culbertson, a retired Methodist minister, who has resided here some few years, died Sunday evening of injuries sustained that morning when he was "run down" by his auto which he was cranking. His wife and daughter were seated in the car preparatory to attending church, when he stepped in front of the car to crank it. As he did so, the car which was in gear, leaped forward and had passed over his body before there was an opportunity to stop it.

Arlington Heights

The National Tea Co. will open a self service store at 214 N. Dunton ave. Friday. This company recently purchased their own property, upon which they have erected their own building. D. H. Smith, formerly of the A&P, and later the Royal Blue Stores of this place, will be manager, with Wm. Wilke in charge of the market section. This is the first self service store in Arlington Heights, and also the first store of its kind here to handle meats and kindred products.

Palatine

Last week wreckers made short work of demolishing the old Seip building on Slade st. That building had stood there for many years and was for the greater part of its long life a hotel and a saloon. The Miller-Kehe building will rise in its place. It will contain 5 stores, one of which will probably be leased by the government as a new location for the Palatine Post Office.

Palatine

The last vestige of Palatine's first grand promotion, the old Palatine, Lake Zurich and Wauconda Ry. has passed into history. With the tearing up of the last of the old tracks by the C&NW Ry who had used them as a switch track at times, the last of Palatine's first bid for fame has been removed. The P. Z & W is now only a memory and a sad one to most of Palatine's pioneer railroad builders.

Arlington Heights

The Arlington Summer Colony at Fox River holds a half-century party at the camp grounds. With the exception of George Klehm, all of those present were descendents or members of the families of the twelve original members of the club that originally came into existence in the Spring of 1899. George Klehm and Henry McElhose, of California, are the only living charter members. Mr. Klehm has remained a member the entire period and its secretary 49 years. The 50th anniversary celebration was in the form of a potluck dinner served in the park of the club grounds and attended by over a hundred. Theodore Militzer gave a short review of the fifty years. The club was organized in the days when the Fox River was a three hour buggy ride from Arlington Heights. If a train was taken, the conductor usually obligingly stopped it at the bridge to allow the boys to get off.

Itasca

The Itasca Lions Club has been working on the organization of a junior Lions Club, and this week the names of the officers have been announced. Alan Medendorp, will head this junior group as president, with Charles Speckman, Jr. as vice president, Glen Mensching, secretary, and George Broker treasurer.

Roselle lost another of her early pioneers and perhaps the oldest full fledged blacksmith in this part of the country when death unexpectedly claimed Adolph Troyke Thursday morning of last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Schroeder, Arlington Heights. Mr. Troyke was in his 84th year and had plied the trade of a blacksmith for more than 50 years at the shop in Roselle where his son, Edwin, now follows in the footsteps of his father.

They say "figures don't lie." Here are a few in support of E. J. Ahmer, Arlington Heights building commissioner who states that 1950 building will probably be double that of 1949. Homes of 1949 numbered 207 and their cost, $3,000,000. The first seven months of 1950 permits have been issued for 339 homes to cost $4,305,800.

Palatine

Joseph Clettenberg, who served as superintendent of the Palatine grade school for a period of 12 years from 1935 to 1947, has been awarded a Doctor of Philosophy degree in Education at the University of Chicago. Dr. Clettenberg has resigned as superintendent of the Melrose Park schools where he has been employed since resigning his Palatine position. Starting July 1 Clettenburg became head of the extension division of Northern Illinois State Teachers College at DeKalb.

Mrs. Aug. Fredricks while on Train No. 21, found a ladies' pocket book Monday morning Aug. 2. If the party who lost same will call on Mrs. Fredricks, it will be returned to its owner on payment for this ad, 10 cents a line.

Saturday, August 7, 1920, Itasca dedicated their new village hall. It cost $12,000 and is estimated to be worth $25,000. Many citizens worked together to make the day memorable; among the townspeople and visitors, were Hon. Ira C. Copley, from Aurora, member of congress from this district, who made the evening address.

Besides Trustee Schroeder, who presided, Trustee H. H. Geils and Charles Hanck, and Wm. Baruth and Frank G. Schneider were busy day and evening, assisted by Frank Mallach and H. Luehring and many others.

Louis Brettmann, Sr., born Oct. 4, 1845 in Addison Township, on the old homestead where he spent his childhood, lived and toiled, died August 5, aged 74 years.

Elk Grove

A township Farm Bureau meeting will be held at the Town Hall, Monday, Aug. 16. Advisor, C. E. Durst will speak on soil and fertilizers, also answer any other farm questions that those in attendance wish to ask. Albert Landmeier is township chairman, and asks that all members attend this meeting. The Farm Bureau is moving this week from the rear of the Arlington Heights State Bank to the brick office building, opposite the livery barn, formerly occupied by the Arlington Heights Lumber Co.

Mt. Prospect

Caroline Wenig, born in Germany Nov. 30, 1850, came to America in 1867 married Louis Oehlerking in 1872, died Aug. 2, 1920, aged 69 years, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Busse.

We are sorry to have to report the death of Ernest John Beutler, born Dec. 26, 1848, in Germany, who came to Chicago, U.S.A., in June 1866, where he married Miss Sarah Harris in 1869. They were residents of Chicago until 1878 when they moved to Arlington Heights, going to Palatine in 1882, where Mr. Beutler resided until his death Aug. 4, 1920, aged 71 years, 7 mo. and 8 days.

Arlington Heights

Engineer Kolling and Henry Garms put a new floor in the bridge on the Foundry Road this week. — Six big motor buses loaded with passengers from Chicago, spent Sunday picnicking in Meyer's Park. — None of us begrudge the deep-in breaths of fresh air those city people get who come here for Sunday outings, but we do object to their pulling up our flowers and trampling over our vines. — A stead baling machine has been at work pressing the straw on the Dunton fields in the eastern part of the village two or three days this week. — Have you noticed the return to the bicycle? Not only do the men and boys go about on wheels, but many of our young women use them to go on marketing tours. — Prof. Kohlsaat of Lewis Institute and his son hiked out from the city Saturday to visit his former pupil, Rexford Volz. — From OBSERVER' Notes: Anybody here remember when the only street lights Arlington Heights had was a few red and green lanterns about the station? Remember when a few kerosene lamps on posts, were set on certain corners? Then just recall the marvel of acetylene and up and up we have gone, from the old primitive "glims" and the moonlight schedules to the all night gas, and the brilliant gleam of approaching electric lights.

Arlington Heights

From report of Village Board meeting: Mayor Mors was authorized to execute a contract with the Public Service Co. for current to provide power for a 25 H.P. motor at the new Scarsdale well. — Many complaints have been received about train whistling thru town, and Mayor Mors said he would take the matter up with the RR Company. — Request was received that the Railroad company be asked to restore the driveway along the South track.

An incorporated firm, operating under the name of Cook County Creamery, Inc., has leased of Gus Framberg his ice cream and refrigerating plant and will begin manufacture this week.

Plum Grove Park

The newly paved Plum Grove road makes the park an ideal place for outings. This beautifully wooded tract comprises 65 acres with an artificial lake under construction, has wonderful drinking water. Refreshments are served on the grounds. Old and New time dances are given in the dance hall which has recently been decorated. This park is located about 2½ miles south of Palatine, and is under the management of Fred Behling who desires to cater to the nice class of people. Phil Childs orchestra will be there Saturday evening.

Palatine

Rev. Harry Culbertson, a retired Methodist minister, who has resided here some few years, died Sunday evening of injuries sustained that morning when he was "run down" by his auto which he was cranking. His wife and daughter were seated in the car preparatory to attending church, when he stepped in front of the car to crank it. As he did so, the car which was in gear, leaped forward and had passed over his body before there was an opportunity to stop it.

Arlington Heights

The National Tea Co. will open a self service store at 214 N. Dunton ave. Friday. This company recently purchased their own property, upon which they have erected their own building. D. H. Smith, formerly of the A&P, and later the Royal Blue Stores of this place, will be manager, with Wm. Wilke in charge of the market section. This is the first self service store in Arlington Heights, and also the first store of its kind here to handle meats and kindred products.

Palatine

Last week wreckers made short work of demolishing the old Seip building on Slade st. That building had stood there for many years and was for the greater part of its long life a hotel and a saloon. The Miller-Kehe building will rise in its place. It will contain 5 stores, one of which will probably be leased by the government as a new location for the Palatine Post Office.

20 YEARS AGO
August 9, 1940
Palatine

The last vestige of Palatine's first grand promotion, the old Palatine, Lake Zurich and Wauconda Ry. has passed into history. With the tearing up of the last of the old tracks by the C&NW Ry who had used them as a switch track at times, the last of Palatine's first bid for fame has been removed. The P. Z & W is now only a memory and a sad one to most of Palatine's pioneer railroad builders.

Arlington Heights

The Arlington Summer Colony at Fox River holds a half-century party at the camp grounds. With the exception of George Klehm, all of those present were descendents or members of the families of the twelve original members of the club that originally came into existence in the Spring of 1899. George Klehm and Henry McElhose, of California, are the only living charter members. Mr. Klehm has remained a member the entire period and its secretary 49 years. The 50th anniversary celebration was in the form of a potluck dinner served in the park of the club grounds and attended by over a hundred. Theodore Militzer gave a short review of the fifty years. The club was organized in the days when the Fox River was a three hour buggy ride from Arlington Heights. If a train was taken, the conductor usually obligingly stopped it at the bridge to allow the boys to get off.

Itasca

The Itasca Lions Club has been working on the organization of a junior Lions Club, and this week the names of the officers have been announced. Alan Medendorp, will head this junior group as president, with Charles Speckman, Jr. as vice president, Glen Mensching, secretary, and George Broker treasurer.

Roselle lost another of her early pioneers and perhaps the oldest full fledged blacksmith in this part of the country when death unexpectedly claimed Adolph Troyke Thursday morning of last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Schroeder, Arlington Heights. Mr. Troyke was in his 84th year and had plied the trade of a blacksmith for more than 50 years at the shop in Roselle where his son, Edwin, now follows in the footsteps of his father.

Arlington Heights

They say "figures don't lie." Here are a few in support of E. J. Ahmer, Arlington Heights building commissioner who states that 1950 building will probably be double that of 1949. Homes of 1949 numbered 207 and their cost, $3,000,000. The first seven months of 1950 permits have been issued for 339 homes to cost $4,305,800.

Illinois Bell Telephone Co. has contracted for the purchase of property at Eastman and Vail, as a site for a one and partial two-story and basement dial telephone exchange.

Wheeling

The Village Board will publicly open and read bids for the job of constructing the new firehouse at a special meeting next Monday.

Palatine

Joseph Clettenberg, who served as superintendent of the Palatine grade school for a period of 12 years from 1935 to 1947, has been awarded a Doctor of Philosophy degree in Education at the University of Chicago. Dr. Clettenberg has resigned as superintendent of the Melrose Park schools where he has been employed since resigning his Palatine position. Starting July 1 Clettenburg became head of the extension division of Northern Illinois State Teachers College at De-Kalb.

Q. At the end of a course at the dinner table, should the hostess' plate be removed first, or if not, whose plate?

A. There is no rule governing the order of removing the dinner plates. This is a matter of convenience.

Democratic Women To Learn 'Tips'

"How to win an election" will be the main topic for discussion at the next meeting of the Wheeling Township Democratic Woman's organization to be held on Tuesday evening, August 23.

The meetings are held regularly on the 4th Tuesday of each month at the Union hotel in Wheeling. A door prize is called and refreshments are served.

SPEAKER at the last meeting, held Tuesday, July 26, was honorary member Mrs. Alice Mackin of Des Paines. A visiting guest was Mrs. Delores Hoste of Wheeling who joined the organization that evening.

The Wheeling Township Democratic Woman's organization is open to all voters of Wheeling township.

President is Mrs. K. Schuster, Mt. Prospect; vice president — Mrs. Marie Wisersky, Arlington Heights; recording secretary — Mrs. Marilyn Orlowski, Mt. Prospect; corresponding secretary -- Mrs. Maribell Peterson, Wheeling; Magdalene Remzing, Mt. Prospect; area vice president of the 13th Congressional Democratic Woman's organizations -- Mrs. Beverly Homan, Wheeling; and publicity chairman — Mrs. Helen Thiele, Prospect Heights.

Interested parties wishing information on membership or meetings of the organization are asked to call Mrs. Thiele, LE 7-2099.

Just Let Go

You can straighten a worm, but the crook is in him and only waiting.--Mark Twain.

Democratic Women To Learn 'Tips'

"How to win an election" will be the main topic for discussion at the next meeting of the Wheeling Township Democratic Woman's organization to be held on Tuesday evening, August 23.

The meetings are held regularly on the 4th Tuesday of each month at the Union hotel in Wheeling. A door prize is called and refreshments are served.

SPEAKER at the last meeting, held Tuesday, July 26, was honorary member Mrs. Alice Mackin of Des Paines. A visiting guest was Mrs. Delores Hoste of Wheeling who joined the organization that evening.

The Wheeling Township Democratic Woman's organization is open to all voters of Wheeling township.

President is Mrs. K. Schuster, Mt. Prospect; vice president — Mrs. Marie Wisersky, Arlington Heights; recording secretary — Mrs. Marilyn Orlowski, Mt. Prospect; corresponding secretary -- Mrs. Maribell Peterson, Wheeling; Magdalene Remzing, Mt. Prospect; area vice president of the 13th Congressional Democratic Woman's organizations -- Mrs. Beverly Homan, Wheeling; and publicity chairman — Mrs. Helen Thiele, Prospect Heights.

Interested parties wishing information on membership or meetings of the organization are asked to call Mrs. Thiele, LE 7-2099.

Cardinal Promenaders

Local teen-agers leaving next month for their first year at college are already beginning to look forward to a January reunion with the Cardinal Promenaders. This Arlington Heights area high school group of square dancers has danced together every Monday throughout the summer but come September several of them, including club president, Mari Boekhoff of Mt. Prospect, will swing out officially for the last time in the Arlington Heights home of caller, Harry Ryan.

PLANS ARE already simmering for a reunion when the collegians will be home for the holidays. Recently elected officers for the 1960-61 season will boil down the plans and report the essence later. Taking office September 5 will be Arlington Heighters Keith Sauerland, president; Dick Belter, vice-president; and Sheryl Crittenden, secretary-treasurer. The club is always promoting a growing membership and all interested teen-agers in the area are invited to contact Sheryl, 311 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, CL 3-2055.

Monday night's hoe-down in the Ryan home, 1134 N. Chestnut, was a special "with sincere appreciation" event honoring Mr. Ryan and his wife. A plaque inscribed "To Harry Ryan from the Cardinal Promenaders of 1960—Thanks" was given to the club's caller-host, and the lady of the house received a centerpiece that will be a permanent "thanks for your hospitality" from the youngsters.

Swingin' Pairs

Saturday evening the Swingin' Pairs of Barrington and the TNT club of North Chicago will hold their second "Swingin' on a Star" square dance of the summer at Wauconda shopping center, Osage st. and Route 176, in Wauconda. Dancing is from 8:30 to 11:30 to the calling of Bill Shymkus. Anyone who doesn't dance is welcome to come and watch the fun and maybe catch the dancing bug.

Special Event

All area dancers are invited to attend the afternoon program and evening fun dance August 14 of the Northern district meeting of the Illinois Square Dance Callers association to be held in Pioneer park, 500 S. Fernandez, Arlington Heights. Program chairman, Don Finfrock, local caller and dance instructor, emphasizes that this is NOT for callers only but will be of interest to dancers as well. During the afternoon 2 to 4 p.m. session Fred Douglas and his wife of Aurora will present highlights of the United Squares Institute that they attended in June. The annual institute is attended by one caller couple elected by the state callers association, and in return the caller conducts a workshop program in each of the three districts in the state association.

THE DOUGLASES have a special section on progressive squares and at least six squares are needed to properly present this figure. There is no charge for attending the afternoon session and Finfrock urges all local dance enthusiasts to join the many callers who will be there. A business meeting and supper hour will follow workshop and at 7 p.m. the big fun begins. All ISDCA members present will call and Finfrock reports that local dancers will have the opportunity of dancing to callers not often heard in this area.

Square Dance Club News

Cardinal Promenaders

Local teen-agers leaving next month for their first year at college are already beginning to look forward to a January reunion with the Cardinal Promenaders. This Arlington Heights area high school group of square dancers has danced together every Monday throughout the summer but come September several of them, including club president, Mari Boekhoff of Mt. Prospect, will swing out officially for the last time in the Arlington Heights home of caller, Harry Ryan.

PLANS ARE already simmering for a reunion when the collegians will be home for the holidays. Recently elected officers for the 1960-61 season will boil down the plans and report the essence later. Taking office September 5 will be Arlington Heighters Keith Sauerland, president; Dick Belter, vice-president; and Sheryl Crittenden, secretary-treasurer. The club is always promoting a growing membership and all interested teen-agers in the area are invited to contact Sheryl, 311 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, CL 3-2055.

Monday night's hoe-down in the Ryan home, 1134 N. Chestnut, was a special "with sincere appreciation" event honoring Mr. Ryan and his wife. A plaque inscribed "To Harry Ryan from the Cardinal Promenaders of 1960—Thanks" was given to the club's caller-host, and the lady of the house received a centerpiece that will be a permanent "thanks for your hospitality" from the youngsters.

Swingin' Pairs

Saturday evening the Swingin' Pairs of Barrington and the TNT club of North Chicago will hold their second "Swingin' on a Star" square dance of the summer at Wauconda shopping center, Osage st. and Route 176, in Wauconda. Dancing is from 8:30 to 11:30 to the calling of Bill Shymkus. Anyone who doesn't dance is welcome to come and watch the fun and maybe catch the dancing bug.

Special Event

All area dancers are invited to attend the afternoon program and evening fun dance August 14 of the Northern district meeting of the Illinois Square Dance Callers association to be held in Pioneer park, 500 S. Fernandez, Arlington Heights. Program chairman, Don Finfrock, local caller and dance instructor, emphasizes that this is NOT for callers only but will be of interest to dancers as well. During the afternoon 2 to 4 p.m. session Fred Douglas and his wife of Aurora will present highlights of the United Squares Institute that they attended in June. The annual institute is attended by one caller couple elected by the state callers association, and in return the caller conducts a workshop program in each of the three districts in the state association.

THE DOUGLASES have a special section on progressive squares and at least six squares are needed to properly present this figure. There is no charge for attending the afternoon session and Finfrock urges all local dance enthusiasts to join the many callers who will be there. A business meeting and supper hour will follow workshop and at 7 p.m. the big fun begins. All ISDCA members present will call and Finfrock reports that local dancers will have the opportunity of dancing to callers not often heard in this area.

It's All True, Gentlemen

Bargain-Battling Ladies Are Caught in Dollar Day Melee

By NATALIE McKENZIE

Oh, ladies! We were caught in the act Thursday!

Those things they've been writing about us are all true. The cartoonists don't lie.

When we go to bargain sales the elbows fly; the goods fly tempers sometimes fly; money flies.

Oh well, let's 'fess up and tell others all about it.

It started sometime early Thursday morning. The stream of cars was a snakeline. Shortly before 9:30 there were 20 cars stopped behind one stop sign alone—that at the corner of Campbell st. and Meadow dr., Rolling Meadows.

THE SNAKE LINE found its way toward the goal—the Rolling Meadows shopping center and dollar days!

All along the way walkers from nearby homes headed south with the cars. Two girls tbout 12 and 10 years old, stopped to wonder. They had yet to be initiated into the mysterious rites of a bargain hunt. A woman shaking her rugs in front of her house looked sympathetic and content to be with her rugs instead of the mobbing shoppers.

The fun—if you want to call it that—began at 9:30 as Crawford's department store opened its doors.

Of all ages, all sizes, in all modes of dress they were. Determined looking, as only women with a purpose look, they plowed through piles of clothes, racks of shoes, stacks of linens. A dull murmur of voices was all that was heard.

One could hear conversations like, "Hey, mom, lookit this. Isn't it pretty?" A 10-year-old held a sparkly blue stone necklace up to her T-shirted neck. How she admired the incongruous effect!

"Yes, dear, it's lovely," Mom replied. Her attention had been riveted on the sale of summer earrings.

"Hey, Mable, how'd you get a place over there?" a woman shouted across the shoe section to her friend. "You look great! That vacation really did things for you."

MABLE SMILED in agreement. Words flew with the breeze as the shoe section eddied with mass human chaos. Mothers held those who were barely toddlers, on their laps. Aisles were impassable. Women hovered, then snatched at summer samples on a table. Kids were everywhere as parents doggedly tried to outfit their offspring with the one item cursed most by the family billpayer—children's shoes!

"HEY, WHERE'D Mom's sneakers go? I was sure I saw her legs under those racks somewhere. You go that way, and I'll go this, and we'll find her." (B8

Teens swarmed through piles of bermuda shorts. They were getting their sale-scenters sharpened early in life.

"These are really good girdles," another woman explained to a friend. The two-way stretch department was by no means neglected.

Then it started — about 20 minutes after doors opened to the gigantic semi-annual sale.

"Will Karen's mother please come to the office to claim her? Karen's mother's first name is Shirley. Will the mother of Don .... please come and retrieve him from the office?"

THE LOUDSPEAKER system boomed. Lost children are no novelty to busy personnel of a department store.

Children, children everywhere. Some sat right on the floor in a rather protected corner behind towel racks. Others sobbed as their mothers dragged them from table to table. Others sat contently in strollers provided by the store as mothers hovered over the hosiery counter.

Fitting rooms were jammed and an overflow lined beside dress racks awaiting a chance to try on a summer-sale find.

Men? Oh, a few could be seen. But this definitely was not their idea of a wonderful way to spend a Thursday morning.

"Here, try this one," a wife advised, as she shoved a particular shoe style into her mate's hands. An older mustached gent looked stunned by the onslaught as he entered the door. He pirouetted slowly as if trying to find his bearings on a rolling ship.

THIS WAS the day for women and children. Children often helped mom in the maze of price tags and clothing piles. "Hey, mom, here's a 16," one young boy shouted jubilantly from the bermuda short rack. He was firmly wedged between two tables, rifling the clothes undisturbed.

Baby clothes, towels, children's clothes, slacks, and sheets. These all had their share of attention from the purposeful women. Little girls waited patiently as mothers held dresses against them for size.

A wishful thinker said to her companion, "I'm going home. We'll come back tonight when it's less crowded."

Yes, ladies. It's all true. Women everywhere love to push and shove and have tugs-of-war when two pairs of eyes spot an article at the same time. The eyes of women everywhere light up like neon signs when they read the magic word "sales." Husbands sit back and cringe, thankful for a quiet day elbowing their way through the loop, rather than elbowing their way through a bargain sale! (B8

"SURE THOSE WILL fit. What a buy!" Moms give consultation at a bargain sale. Junior tugging on Mom's purse is more anxious to get out of the crowd than to look for slacks. (B8

K. Zimmerman Is Cadet In Coast Guard Academy

Kurt G. Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Zimmerman, 105 S. Vail ave., Arlington Heights, was one of 218 young men sworn in as cadets July 15 at the United States Coast Guard academy, New London, Conn.

To qualify for this appointment, candidates were required to successfully complete examinations given to 3600 applicants throughout the country.

KURT G. ZIMMERMAN

ZIMMERMAN graduated last June from Arlington high school, where he was a 7-semester honor student, a member of the National Honor society and a member of the "A" club.

After five weeks of indoctrination the new cadets will take a 2-week cruise. Upon graduation from the academy Zimmerman will receive a commission as an ensign and a bachelor's degree in science.

Fire District Financing Is Complex

VILLAGE AND RURAL FIREMEN from four DuPage county departments had their hands full with this July 2 blaze. The fire destroyed seven barns at a mushroom farm. Damage was estimated at $120,000. No less than 50 firemen combined to fight the wind-swept flames. (A-13

Money Is Big Suburb Plight

(This is the second of two articles discussing the operation of fire protection districts. Included in this article are matters of finance, service, problems and outlook for the future.)

By BRUCE LADD

Fire districts, existing for the sole purpose of providing protection against fires, have been faced with the problem common to all governmental bodies—revenue.

The creation of many northwest suburban districts resulted from disastrous fires or frequency of fires. Not eligible for municipal protection, rural land owners hurriedly formed districts.

In some instances, areas served by volunteer rural units learned that such operations were inefficient, and fire districts were created.

The founding fathers, however, often overlooked the necessity of formulating sound taxing systems. The trial and error method was employed. These taxing inadequacies plague many areas today.

IN ONE DuPage county locale, for example, residents waged a court battle two years ago to rid themselves of dual, or overlapping taxes. The dilemma occurred when a city annexed land which was already situated in a rural fire protection district.

Residents in the annexed area, glad to be a part of the city, were not so happy to pay taxes to both the municipality and the rural district. Detachment from the rural district was achieved, but district trustees claimed the loss of the territory would work a hardship on the district's tax base.

The double tax problem was not unique to the DuPage area. The same difficulty has come up again and again in Cook county. There are home owners today who are paying two fire taxes.

The law requires fire districts to annually publish their financial statements within 30 days after the end of the fiscal year. A study of these statements shows considerable variation in the tax levies.

Residents in the Elk Grove rural fire district pay .038 per $100 assessed valuation, as compared to .208 paid by those living within the Hoffman Estates fire protection district.

Population, water supply, industrial development, and fire fighting equipment all contribute heavily in determining the tax rate. All districts hire attorneys to assist in setting the rate.

MANY FIRE departments and districts sponsor carnivals and dances to raise operating funds. The Wheeling fire department joins with the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce each year in sponsoring the Wheeling Days celebration. Half of the proceeds are used by the fire department for maintaining and buying new equipment.

The financing of a fire protection body today is big business. The Palatine rural fire protection district expects to spend more than $17,000 this year; Roselle fire district number one looks to a $16,000 expenditure, and Itasca fire district number one reported a recent year's disbursements at $12,000.

The service supplied by fire districts is traditionally good. Volunteers, given only token payment for each fire call made, are trained in the most up-to-date fire fighting methods.

PERIODIC practices and special and regular meetings keep firemen abreast of changing trends, new techniques. Fire prevention is stressed. Periodic inspections are made of public buildings, schools and churches.

Communities with heavy commuter populations arrange for businessmen and those employed locally to man the daytime shifts. Commuters handle the night shifts.

Though service remains at high quality, fire district officials say their biggest problem comes in finding enough volunteers.

"Folks just don't seem to have the time to give," one trustee pointed out. "The service clubs meet when it's convenient for the members, but it's a day and night proposition in fire protection."

Money, as established earlier, is another big problem. The biggest single expenditure for most districts is insurance for men and vehicles. Replacement and maintenance of equipment is costly, too.

The Illinois Association of Fire Districts is genuinely concerned about the future of fire districts. Consolidations and annexations cause headaches of great magnitude. County inspection bureaus requirements present other problems.

LEGISLATION passed in 1959 allows an area annexed to a municipality to disannex from its fire district. This is logical, but the district suffers the loss of tax income. The status of the district is sometimes seriously damaged.

Fire protection experts believe the future of efficient fire fighting lies in the formulation of new, and strengthening of old, fire districts.

In Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect, fire protection taxes are included in the village tax rates. Authorities say it would be better to divorce fire protection from the list of village services, and instead establish fire districts.

Thus, more efficient service administered by those especially trained in the field, fire experts assert. (The city of Rolling Meadows has done just this.)

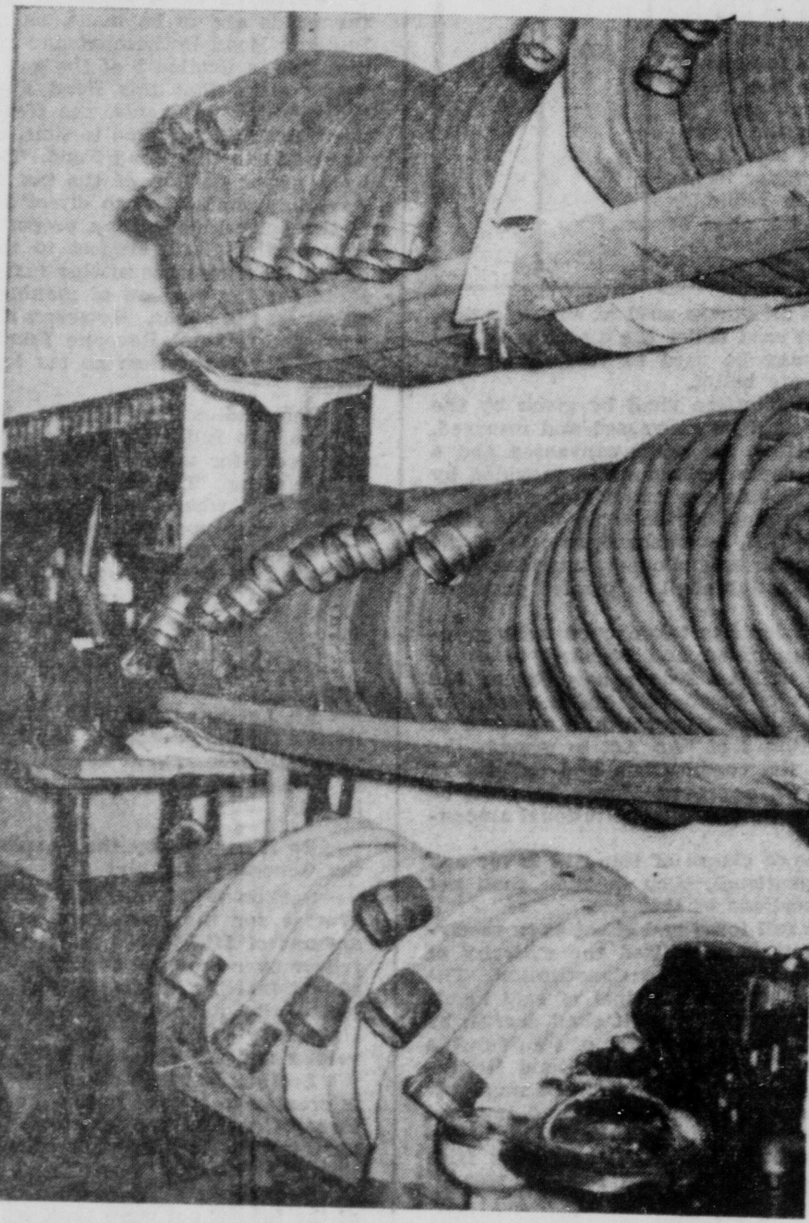
FIRE DISTRICTS are here to stay. Their makeup changes with the fluctuation of suburban populations, but until the suburbs take over all incorporated territory, districts are integral parts of government.

Fire protection, like insurance policies, can be considered investments in the unknown. And protection against the devastations of fire is worth the premium paid.



BIGGEST SINGLE EXPENDITURE for a fire district is insurance for men and vehicles. Replacement and maintenance of equipment like the hoses and generator shown above is costly, too.

PERIODIC PRACTICES and regular meetings keep northwest suburban firemen abreast of changing trends in fire fighting techniques. Here volunteers of the Prospect Heights district drill on readying the emergency vehicle for service. F. E. Foor (standing, with hat) is chief of the Prospect Heights district and secretary of the Illinois Association of Fire Districts. (A-13

Lower Insurance Rates Announced

State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance company is cutting over $2,750,000 from its Illinois Policyholder's annual auto insurance bill through a new driver classification plan.

Harold E. Nebel, Arlington Heights agent for State Farm, said most of the firm's 400,000 policyholders in Illinois will qualify for rate reductions.

He cited increased traffic safety measures in the state as contributing to the reduced accident costs which have made the rate cut possible.

SAVINGS WILL vary, he said, depending upon how individual drivers fit into the new driver classification plan being introduced here by State Farm. Biggest rate cuts will go to motorists whose cars have no single male drivers under 25, who don't use their cars for business and who don't drive far to work.

Although some drivers, particularly single males under 25, will get rate increases under the plan, the net effect will be an estimated $2,750,000 reduction in State Farm's annual premium income from its present policyholders in Illinois. Statewide, the decreases average 6.8 per cent.

Nebel said additional savings for many two-car families may result from pyramiding of second car and compact car discounts. Formerly either of the discounts, but not both, was allowed.

SOME policyholders will pay more for bodily injury and property damage liability coverages, but reductions in comprehensive and collision coverage costs may more than offset this, allowing an overall reduction in their total premium. But even with full coverage policies, some policyholders who drive long distances to work will be faced with a slightly higher total premium.

State Farm Mutual, which estimates it insures nearly one out of eight (12.4 per cent) of the passenger cars registered in Illinois, is the world's largest auto insurer with nearly 6,000,000 policies in force. Home office and the midwest office which serves Illinois policyholders are in Bloomington.

Nebel's office is located at 212 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights.

Wheeling Chief Criticizes Jail

Poor security conditions at Wheeling's police station were blamed Monday night for the escape of 13-year-old Harold Dalibozak, confessed slayer of Betsy Benham.

"The responsibility for these conditions, as far as I'm concerned, falls square on the shoulders of Mr. A. R. McIntyre," charged Wheeling Police Chief M. O Horcher. McIntyre is village president.

IN A TWO-page letter to the board of trustees, Horcher pointed out that Dolibozak was not the first to escape from the Wheeling station and, he said, "I doubt if it will be the last, if present conditions remain as it."

The "condition" he referred to included the window through which the Dalibozak boy escaped July 29 while waiting to be questioned on a petty larceny charge. The youth was recaptured that evening and confessed to slaying the five-year-old Benham girl while at large.

The village president has since ordered the installation of bars over what was previously an unprotected window. This action, charged Horcher, "is like locking the barn after the horse is stolen. It may prevent future escapes, but a gun or other weapon could still be handed into cell number two from someone outside this window, simply by breaking a pane of glass."

HORCHER blamed the poor layout of the station on Mayor McIntyre, who, he claimed, had refused to follow his recommendations on construction and remodeling.

McIntyre replied that he was not going to accept responsibility for the escape.

Q. When giving an informal dinner in her home, how does the hostess let her guests know the seating arrangement she wishes?

A. The hostess stands at her place at the table, and tells each guest just where he or she should be seated.

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

NOTICE OF PROPOSED PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS AT MENTAL HEALTH AND OTHER PUBLIC WELFARE INSTITUTIONS OWNED BY THIS STATE ACT AND BOND ISSUE

Voters at the November 8, 1960, general election will be afforded the opportunity to vote on a proposal for a bond issue which is essentially as follows: Shall the State of Illinois borrow $150,000,000 for a building program in order to relieve overcrowded conditions at the State owned mental health and other public welfare institutions?

The detailed provisions are contained in a law which was passed by a two-thirds vote of the General Assembly and approved by the Governor. The text of the act is published below, as required by the State constitution. The following Statement and Suggestions has been prepared to afford a proper understanding of the proposition to be voted on.

STATEMENT AND SUGGESTIONS

Scope of the Building Program. Proceeds of the bond issue are to be used for making permanent improvements at mental health and other public welfare institutions owned by the State of Illinois.

The term "permanent improvements" is defined in Section 3 of the act and includes acquisition of land as well as the construction, enlargement, and rehabilitation of buildings (Future General Assemblies will determine what specific improvements are to be made.)

Term, Interest, and Sale of Bonds. The bonds are to be fully retired within 25 years of issue, and they are to bear 4 per cent annual interest. They are to be sold, after newspaper advertising, to the "highest and best bidder, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids."

Payments to be Made. Payments on the principal and interest of the bonds are to be made, as they become due, from a Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury, as provided in Section 5 of the act.

In order that this Bond Fund contain sufficient moneys to meet the required payments, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, of State funds from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund. The General Revenue Fund is supported by a major portion of the tax revenues of the State. If the General Assembly should fail to direct such transfers of funds, then Section 6 of the Act, which levies a property tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to taxation, will be in full force and effect. The proceeds of this tax, if levied, shall be paid into this Bond Fund for the purpose of making payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds. However, if sufficient money has been transferred from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund to meet the required payments, then no tax levy will be necessary and none will be made.

Referendum Requirement. The act providing for this bond issue will go into full force and effect only if it receives a majority of the votes cast for members of the General Assembly at the November 8, 1960, general election. The proposition is to be submitted on a separate ballot, except that where voting machines are in use, such machines may be used to vote upon the proposition.

The form of ballot is given below in the text of the act. (The ballot itself, as well as the act, should be studied now.)

THE ACT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Act of the General Assembly hereinbefore mentioned is as follows:

An Act to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Illinois for the purpose of obtaining funds to be used for making permanent improvements at mental health and other public welfare institutions owned by this State and to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest upon such bonds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

Section 1. The State of Illinois is authorized to issue and sell and provide for the retirement of bonds of the State of Illinois to the amount of $150,000,000 for the purpose of providing funds in order to relieve overcrowded conditions by making permanent improvements at mental health and other public welfare institutions owned by this State which are now under the jurisdiction, management and control of the Department of Public Welfare.

Section 2. The Building Bond Board, hereinafter called the Board, is created to consist of the Governor, the State Treasurer and the Attorney General. The issuance, sale and retirement of bonds authorized by this Act shall be under the general supervision and control of the Board.

The bonds shall bear interest, payable annually, from their date, at the rate of not more than 4% per annum. They shall be serial bonds and be dated, issued and sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary to provide sufficient money to make improvements provided for in this Act. Each bond shall be in the denomination of $1000.00 or some multiple thereof, and shall be made payable within 25 years from its date. These bonds shall be signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State under the seal of the State and countersigned by the State Treasurer. The signatures of the Governor and the Secretary of State may be lithographed facsimile signatures. Interest coupons with lithographed facsimile signatures of the Governor, Secretary of State and State Treasurer may be attached to the bonds. The fact that an officer whose signature or facsimile thereof appears on a bond or interest coupon no longer holds such office at the time the bond or coupon is delivered shall not invalidate such bond or interest coupon.

Pending the preparation and execution of any such bonds, temporary bonds may be issued with or without interest coupons. The bonds shall be sold to the highest and best bidders, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids. The Board shall, from time to time as bonds are to be sold, advertise in at least 2 daily newspapers one of which is published in the City of Springfield and one in the City of Chicago for proposals to purchase the bonds. Each of such advertisements for proposals shall be published at least 10 days prior to the date of the opening of the bids. The Board may reserve the right to reject any and all bids. The bonds may, at the request of owners, be registered with the Secretary of State. The bonds shall be deposited with the State Treasurer and when sold the proceeds of the bonds shall be paid into the State treasury and kept in a separate fund which shall be known as the Public Welfare Building Fund, which separate fund is hereby created.

Section 3. The proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be used for making permanent improvements at State owned mental health and other public welfare institutions.

As used in this Act, the term "permanent improvements" means and includes construction of buildings, enlargement and rehabilitation of existing buildings, with fixed equipment installed; preparation of plans and specifications therefor; land acquisition; landscaping and construction of sidewalks, roads, driveways and parking space; and all other things necessary for completion of construction of buildings and grounds in connection therewith.

Section 4. The State Treasurer may, with the approval of the Governor, invest and reinvest, at the existing market price and in any event not to exceed 102% of par plus accrued interest, any money in the Public Welfare Building Fund in the State treasury which, in the opinion of the Governor communicated in writing to the State Treasurer, is not needed for current expenditures due or about to become due from such fund, in obligations of the United States Government maturing not more than one year after the date of purchase. The cost price of all such obligations shall be considered as cash in the custody of the State Treasurer and such obligations shall be conveyed at cost price as cash by the State Treasurer to his successor. The money in the Public Welfare Building Fund in the form of such obligations shall be set up by the State Treasurer as a separate account of such fund and shown distinctly in every report issued by him regarding fund balances.

All earnings accruing upon such investment shall be paid into the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury, which separate fund in the State treasury is hereby created. All of the moneys received from the sale or redemption of such obligations of the United States Government shall be replaced in the Public Welfare Building Fund.

Section 5. To the extent that funds are available in the General Revenue Fund of the State, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund of sufficient money to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by this Act, as the same become due, and to the extent such transfer of funds is authorized by the General Assembly for that purpose, the taxes levied for the payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds as provided by Section 6 of this Act shall be abated.

Section 6. Each year, after this Act becomes fully operative, and until all of the bonds issued as provided in this Act have been retired, there is levied a direct annual tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to taxation of such amount as shall be necessary and sufficient to pay the interest annually, as it shall accrue, on all bonds issued under the provisions of this Act and also to pay and discharge the principal of such bonds at par value, as such bonds fall due; and the amounts of such direct annual tax shall be appropriated for that specific purpose.

The proceeds of this tax shall be paid into the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury.

The required rate of such direct annual tax shall be fixed each year by the officers charged by law with fixing the rate for State taxes on the valuation of real and personal property in this State subject to taxation in accordance with the provisions of the statutes in such cases: provided, however, that if money has been transferred from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for the same purpose for which said direct annual tax is levied and imposed then said officers shall in fixing the rate of said direct annual tax make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the tax levied under this Section and the tax levied under this Section shall be abated in that amount.

Section 7. The proposition of whether this Act shall take effect, a debt of $150,000,000 be contracted, bonds be issued to that amount and the principal of such bonds be paid within 25 years of their date and the interest thereon be paid as it accrues by levying and imposing a direct annual tax and by authorizing the General Assembly to transfer money in the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund therefor, shall be submitted to the People of the State of Illinois at the general election to be held on Tuesday next after the first Monday of November, A. D. 1960, on a separate ballot to be substantially in the following form:

Shall an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Illinois for the purpose of obtaining funds to be used for making permanent improvements at mental health and other public welfare institutions owned by this State and to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest upon such bonds", enacted by the Seventy-first General Assembly, become effective and the State of Illinois contract a debt of $150,000,000 and issue serial bonds to that amount bearing not to exceed 4% interest pursuant to said Act to provide funds for permanent improvements for mental health and other public welfare institutions of the State of Illinois, and shall the State of Illinois levy annually a direct tax sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as it shall accrue and to pay and discharge the principal of such bonds within 25 years from their date, in accordance with said Act, which Act provides that, to the extent that funds are available in the General Revenue Fund of the State, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer of funds from time to time from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by said Act, and to the extent that money is so transferred from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for that purpose, then the appropriate officers in fixing the rate of said direct annual tax shall make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the taxes to be levied and such tax shall be abated in that amount?	YES
	NO

Such ballot shall be separate from all others used at such election, except that where voting machines are used under the direction of any county clerk, such voting machines may be used to vote upon such proposition instead of upon the separate ballot.

Notice of the submission of the proposition shall be given by the various county clerks and the ballots shall be canvassed and returned, abstracts of the vote made and submitted, the votes canvassed and a declaration of the result made in the same manner as is provided by Sections 3, 5, 6 and 7 of "An Act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution, and submitting the same to the electors of this State", approved March 14, 1877, as amended, in case of the submission of a proposed constitutional amendment; provided that ballots for the submission of such proposition shall be printed on paper that is white in color.

Section 8. Before the vote of the people is taken upon such proposition, the Secretary of State is authorized and directed to cause publication of this Act to be made in at least 2 daily newspapers, one of which shall be published in the City of Springfield and the other in the City of Chicago. Such publications shall be made and repeated at such times as is provided for by Section 2 of "An Act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution, and submitting the same to the electors of this state", approved March 14, 1877, as amended, in the case of publication of a proposed constitutional amendment.

Section 9. If any section, sentence or clause of this Act is for any reason held invalid or to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act.

Section 10. This Act shall go into full force and effect upon receiving at the general election at which it is submitted the majority of votes required by Section 18 of Article IV of the Constitution. The provisions of this Act for the payment of the principal of said bonds at maturity and of the interest thereon annually, as it shall accrue, by authorizing the General Assembly to direct the transfer of funds in the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for that purpose and by the direct annual tax upon real and personal property which has been levied and imposed herein for that purpose, shall be irrepealable until such debt and interest is paid in full, and for the making of such payments the faith of the State of Illinois is hereby pledged. (Approved July 22, 1959.)

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

NOTICE OF PROPOSED PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS AT EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS OWNED BY THIS STATE ACT AND BOND ISSUE

Voters at the November 8, 1960, general election will be afforded the opportunity to vote on a proposal for a bond issue which is essentially as follows: Shall the State of Illinois borrow $195,000,000 for a building program in order to relieve overcrowded conditions at the State owned institutions of higher education?

The detailed provisions are contained in a law which was passed by a two-thirds vote of the General Assembly and approved by the Governor. The text of the act is published below, as required by the State constitution. The following Statement and Suggestions has been prepared to afford a proper understanding of the proposition to be voted on.

STATEMENT AND SUGGESTIONS

Scope of the Building Program. Proceeds of the bond issue are to be used for making permanent improvements at the University of Illinois, Southern Illinois University, Eastern Illinois University, Illinois State Normal University, Northern Illinois University, and Western Illinois University.

The term "permanent improvements" is defined in Section 3 of the act and includes the acquisition of land as well as the construction, enlargement, and rehabilitation of buildings. (Future General Assemblies will determine what specific improvements are to be made.)

Term, Interest, and Sale of Bonds. The bonds are to be fully retired within 25 years of issue, and they are to bear 4 per cent annual interest. They are to be sold, after newspaper advertising, to the "highest and best bidder, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids."

Payments to be Made. Payments on the principal and interest of the bonds are to be made, as they become due, from a Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury, as provided in Section 5 of the act.

In order that this Bond Fund contain sufficient moneys to meet the required payments, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, of State funds from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund. The General Revenue Fund is supported by a major portion of the tax revenues of the State. If the General Assembly should fail to direct such transfers of funds, then Section 6 of the Act, which levies a property tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to the taxation, will be in full force and effect. The proceeds of this tax, if levied, shall be paid into this Bond Fund for the purpose of making payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds. However, if sufficient money has been transferred from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund to meet the required payments, then no tax levy will be necessary and none will be made.

Referendum Requirement. The act providing for this bond issue will go into full force and effect only if it receives a majority of the votes cast for members of the General Assembly at the November 8, 1960, election. The proposition is to be submitted on a separate ballot, except that where voting machines are in use, such machines may be used to vote upon the proposition.

The form of ballot is given below in the text of the act. (The ballot itself, as well as the act, should be studied now.)

THE ACT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Act of the General Assembly hereinbefore mentioned is as follows:

An Act to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Illinois for the purpose of obtaining funds to be used for making permanent improvements at educational institutions owned by this State and to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest upon such bonds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

Section 1. The State of Illinois is authorized to issue and sell and provide for the retirement of bonds of the State of Illinois to the amount of $195,000,000 for the purpose of providing funds in order to relieve over-crowded conditions by making permanent improvements at educational institutions owned by this State which are now under the jurisdiction, management and control of the Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois, the Board of Trustees of Southern Illinois University and the Teachers College Board.

Section 2. The Building Bond Board, hereinafter called the Board, is created to consist of the Governor, the State Treasurer and the Attorney General. The issuance, sale and retirement of bonds authorized by this Act shall be under the general supervision and control of the Board.

The bonds shall bear interest, payable annually, from their date, at the rate of not more than 4% per annum. They shall be serial bonds and be dated, issued and sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary to provide sufficient money to make improvements provided for in this Act. Each bond shall be in the denomination of $1000.00 or some multiple thereof, and shall be made payable within 25 years from its date. These bonds shall be signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State under the seal of the State and countersigned by the State Treasurer. The signatures of the Governor and the Secretary of State may be lithographed facsimile signatures. Interest coupons with lithographed facsimile signatures of the Governor, Secretary of State and State Treasurer may be attached to the bonds. The fact that an officer whose signature or facsimile thereof appears on a bond or interest coupon no longer holds such office at the time the bond or coupon is delivered shall not invalidate such bond or interest coupon.

Pending the preparation and execution of any such bonds, temporary bonds may be issued with or without interest coupons. The bonds shall be sold to the highest and best bidders, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids. The Board shall, from time to time as bonds are to be sold, advertise in at least 2 daily newspapers one of which is published in the City of Springfield and one in the City of Chicago for proposals to purchase the bonds. Each of such advertisements for proposals shall be published at least 10 days prior to the date of the opening of the bids. The Board may reserve the right to reject any and all bids. The bonds may, at the request of owners, be registered with the Secretary of State. The bonds shall be deposited with the State Treasurer and when sold the proceeds of the bonds shall be paid into the State treasury and kept in a separate fund which shall be known as the Universities Building Fund, which separate fund is hereby created.

Section 3. The proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be used for making permanent improvements at State institutions.

As used in this Act, the term "permanent improvements" means and includes construction of buildings, enlargement and rehabilitation of existing buildings, with fixed equipment installed; preparation of plans and specifications therefor; land acquisition; landscaping and construction of sidewalks, roads, driveways and parking space; and all other things necessary for completion of construction of buildings and grounds in connection therewith.

Section 4. The State Treasurer may, with the approval of the Governor, invest and reinvest, at the existing market price and in any event not to exceed 102% of par plus accrued interest, any money in the Universities Building Fund in the State treasury which, in the opinion of the Governor communicated in writing to the State Treasurer, is not needed for current expenditures due or about to become due from such fund, in obligations of the United States Government maturing not more than one year after the date of purchase. The cost price of all such obligations shall be considered as cash in the custody of the State Treasurer and such obligations shall be conveyed at cost price as cash by the State Treasurer to his successor. The money in the Universities Building Fund in the form of such obligations shall be set up by the State Treasurer as a separate account of such fund and shown distinctly in every report issued by him regarding fund balances.

All earnings accruing upon such investment shall be paid into the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury, which separate fund in the State treasury is hereby created. All of the moneys received from the sale or redemption of such obligations of the United States Government shall be replaced in the Universities Building Fund.

Section 5. To the extent that funds are available in the General Revenue Fund of the State, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, from the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund of sufficient money to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by this Act, as the same become due, and to the extent such transfer of funds is authorized by the General Assembly for that purpose, the taxes levied for the payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds as provided by Section 6 of this Act shall be abated.

Section 6. Each year, after this Act becomes fully operative, and until all of the bonds issued as herein provided have been retired, there is levied a direct annual tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to taxation for such amount as shall be necessary and sufficient to pay the interest annually, as it shall accrue, on all bonds issued under the provisions of this Act and also to pay and discharge the principal of such bonds at par value, as such bonds fall due; and the amounts of such direct annual tax shall be appropriated for that specific purpose.

The proceeds of this tax shall be paid into the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury.

The required rate of such direct annual tax shall be fixed each year by the officers charged by law with fixing the rate for State taxes on the valuation of real and personal property in this State subject to taxation in accordance with the provisions of the statutes in such cases: provided, however, that if money has been transferred from the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for the same purpose for which said direct annual tax is levied and imposed then said officers shall in fixing the rate of said direct annual tax make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the tax levied under this Section and the tax levied under this Section shall be abated in that amount.

Section 7. The proposition of whether this Act shall take effect, a debt of $195,000,000 be contracted, bonds be issued to that amount and the principal of such bonds be paid within 25 years of their date and the interest thereon be paid as it accrues by levying and imposing a direct annual tax and by authorizing the General Assembly to transfer money in the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund therefor, shall be submitted to the People of the State of Illinois at the general election to be held on Tuesday next after the first Monday of November, A. D. 1960, on a ballot to be substantially in the following form:

Shall an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Illinois for the purpose of obtaining funds to be used for making permanent improvements at educational institutions owned by this State and to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest upon such bonds", enacted by the Seventy-first General Assembly, become effective and the State of Illinois contract a debt of $195,000,000 and issue serial bonds to that amount bearing not to exceed 4% interest pursuant to said Act to provide funds for permanent improvements for educational institutions of the State of Illinois, and shall the State of Illinois levy annually a direct tax sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as it shall accrue and to pay and discharge the principal of such bonds within 25 years from their date, in accordance with said Act, which Act provides that, to the extent that funds are available in the General Revenue Fund of the State, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer of funds from time to time from the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by said Act, and to the extent that money is so transferred from the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for that purpose, then the appropriate officers in fixing the rate of said direct annual tax shall make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the taxes to be levied and such tax shall be abated in that amount?	YES

Such ballot shall be separate from all others used at such election, except that where voting machines are used under the direction of any county clerk, such voting machines may be used to vote upon such proposition instead of upon the separate ballot.

Notice of the submission of the proposition shall be given by the various county clerks and the ballots shall be canvassed and returned, abstracts of the vote made and submitted, the votes canvassed and declaration of the result made in the same manner as is provided by Sections 3, 5, 6 and 7 of "An Act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution, and submitting the same to the electors of this State", approved March 14, 1877, as amended, in case of the submission of a proposed constitutional amendment; provided that, if separate ballots are used, ballots for the submission of such proposition shall be printed on paper that is white in color.

Section 8. Before the vote of the people is taken upon such proposition, the Secretary of State is authorized and directed to cause publication of this Act to be made in at least two daily newspapers, one of which shall be published in the City of Springfield and the other in the City of Chicago. Such publications shall be made and repeated at such times as is provided for by Section 2 of "An Act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution, and submitting the same to the electors of this state", approved March 14, 1877, as amended, in the case of publication of a proposed constitutional amendment.

Section 9. If any section, sentence or clause of this Act is for any reason held invalid or to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act.

Section 10. This Act shall go into full force and effect upon receiving at the general election at which it is submitted the majority of votes required by Section 18 of Article IV of the Constitution. The provisions of this Act for the payment of the principal of said bonds at maturity and of the interest thereon annually, as it shall accrue, by authorizing the General Assembly to direct the transfer of funds in the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for that purpose and by the direct annual tax upon real and personal property which has been levied and imposed herein for that purpose, shall be irrepealable until such debt and interest is paid in full, and for the making of such payments the faith of the State of Illinois is hereby pledged. (Approved July 23, 1959.)

Lower Insurance Rates Announced

State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance company is cutting over $2,750,000 from its Illinois Policyholder's annual auto insurance bill through a new driver classification plan.

Harold E. Nebel, Arlington Heights agent for State Farm, said most of the firm's 400,000 policyholders in Illinois will qualify for rate reductions.

He cited increased traffic safety measures in the state as contributing to the reduced accident costs which have made the rate cut possible.

SAVINGS WILL vary, he said, depending upon how individual drivers fit into the new driver classification plan being introduced here by State Farm. Biggest rate cuts will go to motorists whose cars have no single male drivers under 25, who don't use their cars for business and who don't drive far to work.

Although some drivers, particularly single males under 25, will get rate increases under the plan, the net effect will be an estimated $2,750,000 reduction in State Farm's annual premium income from its present policyholders in Illinois. Statewide, the decreases average 6.8 per cent.

Nebel said additional savings for many two-car families may result from pyramiding of second car and compact car discounts. Formerly either of the discounts, but not both, was allowed.

SOME policyholders will pay more for bodily injury and property damage liability coverages, but reductions in comprehensive and collision coverage costs may more than offset this, allowing an overall reduction in their total premium. But even with full coverage policies, some policyholders who drive long distances to work will be faced with a slightly higher total premium.

State Farm Mutual, which estimates it insures nearly one out of eight (12.4 per cent) of the passenger cars registered in Illinois, is the world's largest auto insurer with nearly 6,000,000 policies in force. Home office and the midwest office which serves Illinois policyholders are in Bloomington.

Nebel's office is located at 212 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights.

Wheeling Chief Criticizes Jail

Poor security conditions at Wheeling's police station were blamed Monday night for the escape of 13-year-old Harold Dalibozak, confessed slayer of Betsy Benham.

"The responsibility for these conditions, as far as I'm concerned, falls square on the shoulders of Mr. A. R. McIntyre," charged Wheeling Police Chief M. O Horcher. McIntyre is village president.

IN A TWO-page letter to the board of trustees, Horcher pointed out that Dolibozak was not the first to escape from the Wheeling station and, he said, "I doubt if it will be the last, if present conditions remain as it."

The "condition" he referred to included the window through which the Dalibozak boy escaped July 29 while waiting to be questioned on a petty larceny charge. The youth was recaptured that evening and confessed to slaying the five-year-old Benham girl while at large.

The village president has since ordered the installation of bars over what was previously an unprotected window. This action, charged Horcher, "is like locking the barn after the horse is stolen. It may prevent future escapes, but a gun or other weapon could still be handed into cell number two from someone outside this window, simply by breaking a pane of glass."

HORCHER blamed the poor layout of the station on Mayor McIntyre, who, he claimed, had refused to follow his recommendations on construction and remodeling.

McIntyre replied that he was not going to accept responsibility for the escape.

A. The hostess stands at her place at the table, and tells each guest just where he or she should be seated.

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

NOTICE OF PROPOSED PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS AT MENTAL HEALTH AND OTHER PUBLIC WELFARE INSTITUTIONS OWNED BY THIS STATE ACT AND BOND ISSUE

Voters at the November 8, 1960, general election will be afforded the opportunity to vote on a proposal for a bond issue which is essentially as follows: Shall the State of Illinois borrow $150,000,000 for a building program in order to relieve overcrowded conditions at the State owned mental health and other public welfare institutions?

The detailed provisions are contained in a law which was passed by a two-thirds vote of the General Assembly and approved by the Governor. The text of the act is published below, as required by the State constitution. The following Statement and Suggestions has been prepared to afford a proper understanding of the proposition to be voted on.

STATEMENT AND SUGGESTIONS

Scope of the Building Program. Proceeds of the bond issue are to be used for making permanent improvements at mental health and other public welfare institutions owned by the State of Illinois.

The term "permanent improvements" is defined in Section 3 of the act and includes acquisition of land as well as the construction, enlargement, and rehabilitation of buildings (Future General Assemblies will determine what specific improvements are to be made.)

Term, Interest, and Sale of Bonds. The bonds are to be fully retired within 25 years of issue, and they are to bear 4 per cent annual interest. They are to be sold, after newspaper advertising, to the "highest and best bidder, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids."

Payments to be Made. Payments on the principal and interest of the bonds are to be made, as they become due, from a Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury, as provided in Section 5 of the act.

In order that this Bond Fund contain sufficient moneys to meet the required payments, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, of State funds from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund. The General Revenue Fund is supported by a major portion of the tax revenues of the State. If the General Assembly should fail to direct such transfers of funds, then Section 6 of the Act, which levies a property tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to taxation, will be in full force and effect. The proceeds of this tax, if levied, shall be paid into this Bond Fund for the purpose of making payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds. However, if sufficient money has been transferred from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund to meet the required payments, then no tax levy will be necessary and none will be made.

Referendum Requirement. The act providing for this bond issue will go into full force and effect only if it receives a majority of the votes cast for members of the General Assembly at the November 8, 1960, general election. The proposition is to be submitted on a separate ballot, except that where voting machines are in use, such machines may be used to vote upon the proposition.

The form of ballot is given below in the text of the act. (The ballot itself, as well as the act, should be studied now.)

THE ACT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Act of the General Assembly hereinbefore mentioned is as follows:

An Act to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Illinois for the purpose of obtaining funds to be used for making permanent improvements at mental health and other public welfare institutions owned by this State and to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest upon such bonds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

Section 1. The State of Illinois is authorized to issue and sell and provide for the retirement of bonds of the State of Illinois to the amount of $150,000,000 for the purpose of providing funds in order to relieve overcrowded conditions by making permanent improvements at mental health and other public welfare institutions owned by this State which are now under the jurisdiction, management and control of the Department of Public Welfare.

Section 2. The Building Bond Board, hereinafter called the Board, is created to consist of the Governor, the State Treasurer and the Attorney General. The issuance, sale and retirement of bonds authorized by this Act shall be under the general supervision and control of the Board.

The bonds shall bear interest, payable annually, from their date, at the rate of not more than 4% per annum. They shall be serial bonds and be dated, issued and sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary to provide sufficient money to make improvements provided for in this Act. Each bond shall be in the denomination of $1000.00 or some multiple thereof, and shall be made payable within 25 years from its date. These bonds shall be signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State under the seal of the State and countersigned by the State Treasurer. The signatures of the Governor and the Secretary of State may be lithographed facsimile signatures. Interest coupons with lithographed facsimile signatures of the Governor, Secretary of State and State Treasurer may be attached to the bonds. The fact that an officer whose signature or facsimile thereof appears on a bond or interest coupon no longer holds such office at the time the bond or coupon is delivered shall not invalidate such bond or interest coupon.

Pending the preparation and execution of any such bonds, temporary bonds may be issued with or without interest coupons. The bonds shall be sold to the highest and best bidders, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids. The Board shall, from time to time as bonds are to be sold, advertise in at least 2 daily newspapers one of which is published in the City of Springfield and one in the City of Chicago for proposals to purchase the bonds. Each of such advertisements for proposals shall be published at least 10 days prior to the date of the opening of the bids. The Board may reserve the right to reject any and all bids. The bonds may, at the request of owners, be registered with the Secretary of State. The bonds shall be deposited with the State Treasurer and when sold the proceeds of the bonds shall be paid into the State treasury and kept in a separate fund which shall be known as the Public Welfare Building Fund, which separate fund is hereby created.

Section 3. The proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be used for making permanent improvements at State owned mental health and other public welfare institutions.

As used in this Act, the term "permanent improvements" means and includes construction of buildings, enlargement and rehabilitation of existing buildings, with fixed equipment installed; preparation of plans and specifications therefor; land acquisition; landscaping and construction of sidewalks, roads, driveways and parking space; and all other things necessary for completion of construction of buildings and grounds in connection therewith.

Section 4. The State Treasurer may, with the approval of the Governor, invest and reinvest, at the existing market price and in any event not to exceed 102% of par plus accrued interest, any money in the Public Welfare Building Fund in the State treasury which, in the opinion of the Governor communicated in writing to the State Treasurer, is not needed for current expenditures due or about to become due from such fund, in obligations of the United States Government maturing not more than one year after the date of purchase. The cost price of all such obligations shall be considered as cash in the custody of the State Treasurer and such obligations shall be conveyed at cost price as cash by the State Treasurer to his successor. The money in the Public Welfare Building Fund in the form of such obligations shall be set up by the State Treasurer as a separate account of such fund and shown distinctly in every report issued by him regarding fund balances.

All earnings accruing upon such investment shall be paid into the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury, which separate fund in the State treasury is hereby created. All of the moneys received from the sale or redemption of such obligations of the United States Government shall be replaced in the Public Welfare Building Fund.

Section 5. To the extent that funds are available in the General Revenue Fund of the State, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund of sufficient money to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by this Act, as the same become due, and to the extent such transfer of funds is authorized by the General Assembly for that purpose, the taxes levied for the payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds as provided by Section 6 of this Act shall be abated.

Section 6. Each year, after this Act becomes fully operative, and until all of the bonds issued as provided in this Act have been retired, there is levied a direct annual tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to taxation of such amount as shall be necessary and sufficient to pay the interest annually, as it shall accrue, on all bonds issued under the provisions of this Act and also to pay and discharge the principal of such bonds at par value, as such bonds fall due; and the amounts of such direct annual tax shall be appropriated for that specific purpose.

The proceeds of this tax shall be paid into the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury.

The required rate of such direct annual tax shall be fixed each year by the officers charged by law with fixing the rate for State taxes on the valuation of real and personal property in this State subject to taxation in accordance with the provisions of the statutes in such cases: provided, however, that if money has been transferred from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for the same purpose for which said direct annual tax is levied and imposed then said officers shall in fixing the rate of said direct annual tax make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the tax levied under this Section and the tax levied under this Section shall be abated in that amount.

Section 7. The proposition of whether this Act shall take effect, a debt of $150,000,000 be contracted, bonds be issued to that amount and the principal of such bonds be paid within 25 years of their date and the interest thereon be paid as it accrues by levying and imposing a direct annual tax and by authorizing the General Assembly to transfer money in the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund therefor, shall be submitted to the People of the State of Illinois at the general election to be held on Tuesday next after the first Monday of November, A. D. 1960, on a separate ballot to be substantially in the following form:

Shall an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Illinois for the purpose of obtaining funds to be used for making permanent improvements at mental health and other public welfare institutions owned by this State and to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest upon such bonds", enacted by the Seventy-first General Assembly, become effective and the State of Illinois contract a debt of $150,000,000 and issue serial bonds to that amount bearing not to exceed 4% interest pursuant to said Act to provide funds for permanent improvements for mental health and other public welfare institutions of the State of Illinois, and shall the State of Illinois levy annually a direct tax sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as it shall accrue and to pay and discharge the principal of such bonds within 25 years from their date, in accordance with said Act, which Act provides that, to the extent that funds are available in the General Revenue Fund of the State, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer of funds from time to time from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by said Act, and to the extent that money is so transferred from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for that purpose, then the appropriate officers in fixing the rate of said direct annual tax shall make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the taxes to be levied and such tax shall be abated in that amount?	YES

Such ballot shall be separate from all others used at such election, except that where voting machines are used under the direction of any county clerk, such voting machines may be used to vote upon such proposition instead of upon the separate ballot.

Notice of the submission of the proposition shall be given by the various county clerks and the ballots shall be canvassed and returned, abstracts of the vote made and submitted, the votes canvassed and a declaration of the result made in the same manner as is provided by Sections 3, 5, 6 and 7 of "An Act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution, and submitting the same to the electors of this State", approved March 14, 1877, as amended, in case of the submission of a proposed constitutional amendment; provided that ballots for the submission of such proposition shall be printed on paper that is white in color.

Section 8. Before the vote of the people is taken upon such proposition, the Secretary of State is authorized and directed to cause publication of this Act to be made in at least 2 daily newspapers, one of which shall be published in the City of Springfield and the other in the City of Chicago. Such publications shall be made and repeated at such times as is provided for by Section 2 of "An Act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution, and submitting the same to the electors of this state", approved March 14, 1877, as amended, in the case of publication of a proposed constitutional amendment.

Section 9. If any section, sentence or clause of this Act is for any reason held invalid or to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act.

Section 10. This Act shall go into full force and effect upon receiving at the general election at which it is submitted the majority of votes required by Section 18 of Article IV of the Constitution. The provisions of this Act for the payment of the principal of said bonds at maturity and of the interest thereon annually, as it shall accrue, by authorizing the General Assembly to direct the transfer of funds in the General Revenue Fund to the Public Welfare Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for that purpose and by the direct annual tax upon real and personal property which has been levied and imposed herein for that purpose, shall be irrepealable until such debt and interest is paid in full, and for the making of such payments the faith of the State of Illinois is hereby pledged. (Approved July 22, 1959.)

NOTICE OF PROPOSED PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS AT EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS OWNED BY THIS STATE ACT AND BOND ISSUE

Voters at the November 8, 1960, general election will be afforded the opportunity to vote on a proposal for a bond issue which is essentially as follows: Shall the State of Illinois borrow $195,000,000 for a building program in order to relieve overcrowded conditions at the State owned institutions of higher education?

The detailed provisions are contained in a law which was passed by a two-thirds vote of the General Assembly and approved by the Governor. The text of the act is published below, as required by the State constitution. The following Statement and Suggestions has been prepared to afford a proper understanding of the proposition to be voted on.

STATEMENT AND SUGGESTIONS

Scope of the Building Program. Proceeds of the bond issue are to be used for making permanent improvements at the University of Illinois, Southern Illinois University, Eastern Illinois University, Illinois State Normal University, Northern Illinois University, and Western Illinois University.

The term "permanent improvements" is defined in Section 3 of the act and includes the acquisition of land as well as the construction, enlargement, and rehabilitation of buildings. (Future General Assemblies will determine what specific improvements are to be made.)

Term, Interest, and Sale of Bonds. The bonds are to be fully retired within 25 years of issue, and they are to bear 4 per cent annual interest. They are to be sold, after newspaper advertising, to the "highest and best bidder, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids."

Payments to be Made. Payments on the principal and interest of the bonds are to be made, as they become due, from a Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury, as provided in Section 5 of the act.

In order that this Bond Fund contain sufficient moneys to meet the required payments, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, of State funds from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund. The General Revenue Fund is supported by a major portion of the tax revenues of the State. If the General Assembly should fail to direct such transfers of funds, then Section 6 of the Act, which levies a property tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to the taxation, will be in full force and effect. The proceeds of this tax, if levied, shall be paid into this Bond Fund for the purpose of making payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds. However, if sufficient money has been transferred from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund to meet the required payments, then no tax levy will be necessary and none will be made.

Referendum Requirement. The act providing for this bond issue will go into full force and effect only if it receives a majority of the votes cast for members of the General Assembly at the November 8, 1960, election. The proposition is to be submitted on a separate ballot, except that where voting machines are in use, such machines may be used to vote upon the proposition.

The form of ballot is given below in the text of the act. (The ballot itself, as well as the act, should be studied now.)

THE ACT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Act of the General Assembly hereinbefore mentioned is as follows:

An Act to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds of the State of Illinois for the purpose of obtaining funds to be used for making permanent improvements at educational institutions owned by this State and to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest upon such bonds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

Section 1. The State of Illinois is authorized to issue and sell and provide for the retirement of bonds of the State of Illinois to the amount of $195,000,000 for the purpose of providing funds in order to relieve over-crowded conditions by making permanent improvements at educational institutions owned by this State which are now under the jurisdiction, management and control of the Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois, the Board of Trustees of Southern Illinois University and the Teachers College Board.

Section 2. The Building Bond Board, hereinafter called the Board, is created to consist of the Governor, the State Treasurer and the Attorney General. The issuance, sale and retirement of bonds authorized by this Act shall be under the general supervision and control of the Board.

The bonds shall bear interest, payable annually, from their date, at the rate of not more than 4% per annum. They shall be serial bonds and be dated, issued and sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary to provide sufficient money to make improvements provided for in this Act. Each bond shall be in the denomination of $1000.00 or some multiple thereof, and shall be made payable within 25 years from its date. These bonds shall be signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State under the seal of the State and countersigned by the State Treasurer. The signatures of the Governor and the Secretary of State may be lithographed facsimile signatures. Interest coupons with lithographed facsimile signatures of the Governor, Secretary of State and State Treasurer may be attached to the bonds. The fact that an officer whose signature or facsimile thereof appears on a bond or interest coupon no longer holds such office at the time the bond or coupon is delivered shall not invalidate such bond or interest coupon.

Pending the preparation and execution of any such bonds, temporary bonds may be issued with or without interest coupons. The bonds shall be sold to the highest and best bidders, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids. The Board shall, from time to time as bonds are to be sold, advertise in at least 2 daily newspapers one of which is published in the City of Springfield and one in the City of Chicago for proposals to purchase the bonds. Each of such advertisements for proposals shall be published at least 10 days prior to the date of the opening of the bids. The Board may reserve the right to reject any and all bids. The bonds may, at the request of owners, be registered with the Secretary of State. The bonds shall be deposited with the State Treasurer and when sold the proceeds of the bonds shall be paid into the State treasury and kept in a separate fund which shall be known as the Universities Building Fund, which separate fund is hereby created.

Section 3. The proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be used for making permanent improvements at State institutions.

As used in this Act, the term "permanent improvements" means and includes construction of buildings, enlargement and rehabilitation of existing buildings, with fixed equipment installed; preparation of plans and specifications therefor; land acquisition; landscaping and construction of sidewalks, roads, driveways and parking space; and all other things necessary for completion of construction of buildings and grounds in connection therewith.

Section 4. The State Treasurer may, with the approval of the Governor, invest and reinvest, at the existing market price and in any event not to exceed 102% of par plus accrued interest, any money in the Universities Building Fund in the State treasury which, in the opinion of the Governor communicated in writing to the State Treasurer, is not needed for current expenditures due or about to become due from such fund, in obligations of the United States Government maturing not more than one year after the date of purchase. The cost price of all such obligations shall be considered as cash in the custody of the State Treasurer and such obligations shall be conveyed at cost price as cash by the State Treasurer to his successor. The money in the Universities Building Fund in the form of such obligations shall be set up by the State Treasurer as a separate account of such fund and shown distinctly in every report issued by him regarding fund balances.

All earnings accruing upon such investment shall be paid into the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury, which separate fund in the State treasury is hereby created. All of the moneys received from the sale or redemption of such obligations of the United States Government shall be replaced in the Universities Building Fund.

Section 5. To the extent that funds are available in the General Revenue Fund of the State, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, from the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund of sufficient money to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by this Act, as the same become due, and to the extent such transfer of funds is authorized by the General Assembly for that purpose, the taxes levied for the payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds as provided by Section 6 of this Act shall be abated.

Section 6. Each year, after this Act becomes fully operative, and until all of the bonds issued as herein provided have been retired, there is levied a direct annual tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to taxation for such amount as shall be necessary and sufficient to pay the interest annually, as it shall accrue, on all bonds issued under the provisions of this Act and also to pay and discharge the principal of such bonds at par value, as such bonds fall due; and the amounts of such direct annual tax shall be appropriated for that specific purpose.

The proceeds of this tax shall be paid into the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State treasury.

The required rate of such direct annual tax shall be fixed each year by the officers charged by law with fixing the rate for State taxes on the valuation of real and personal property in this State subject to taxation in accordance with the provisions of the statutes in such cases: provided, however, that if money has been transferred from the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for the same purpose for which said direct annual tax is levied and imposed then said officers shall in fixing the rate of said direct annual tax make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the tax levied under this Section and the tax levied under this Section shall be abated in that amount.

Section 7. The proposition of whether this Act shall take effect, a debt of $195,000,000 be contracted, bonds be issued to that amount and the principal of such bonds be paid within 25 years of their date and the interest thereon be paid as it accrues by levying and imposing a direct annual tax and by authorizing the General Assembly to transfer money in the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund therefor, shall be submitted to the People of the State of Illinois at the general election to be held on Tuesday next after the first Monday of November, A. Such ballot shall be separate from all others used at such election, except that where voting machines are used under the direction of any county clerk, such voting machines may be used to vote upon such proposition instead of upon the separate ballot.

Notice of the submission of the proposition shall be given by the various county clerks and the ballots shall be canvassed and returned, abstracts of the vote made and submitted, the votes canvassed and declaration of the result made in the same manner as is provided by Sections 3, 5, 6 and 7 of "An Act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution, and submitting the same to the electors of this State", approved March 14, 1877, as amended, in case of the submission of a proposed constitutional amendment; provided that, if separate ballots are used, ballots for the submission of such proposition shall be printed on paper that is white in color.

Section 8. Before the vote of the people is taken upon such proposition, the Secretary of State is authorized and directed to cause publication of this Act to be made in at least two daily newspapers, one of which shall be published in the City of Springfield and the other in the City of Chicago. Such publications shall be made and repeated at such times as is provided for by Section 2 of "An Act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution, and submitting the same to the electors of this state", approved March 14, 1877, as amended, in the case of publication of a proposed constitutional amendment.

Section 9. If any section, sentence or clause of this Act is for any reason held invalid or to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act.

Section 10. This Act shall go into full force and effect upon receiving at the general election at which it is submitted the majority of votes required by Section 18 of Article IV of the Constitution. The provisions of this Act for the payment of the principal of said bonds at maturity and of the interest thereon annually, as it shall accrue, by authorizing the General Assembly to direct the transfer of funds in the General Revenue Fund to the Universities Building Bond Retirement and Interest Fund for that purpose and by the direct annual tax upon real and personal property which has been levied and imposed herein for that purpose, shall be irrepealable until such debt and interest is paid in full, and for the making of such payments the faith of the State of Illinois is hereby pledged. No Guesswork for Police

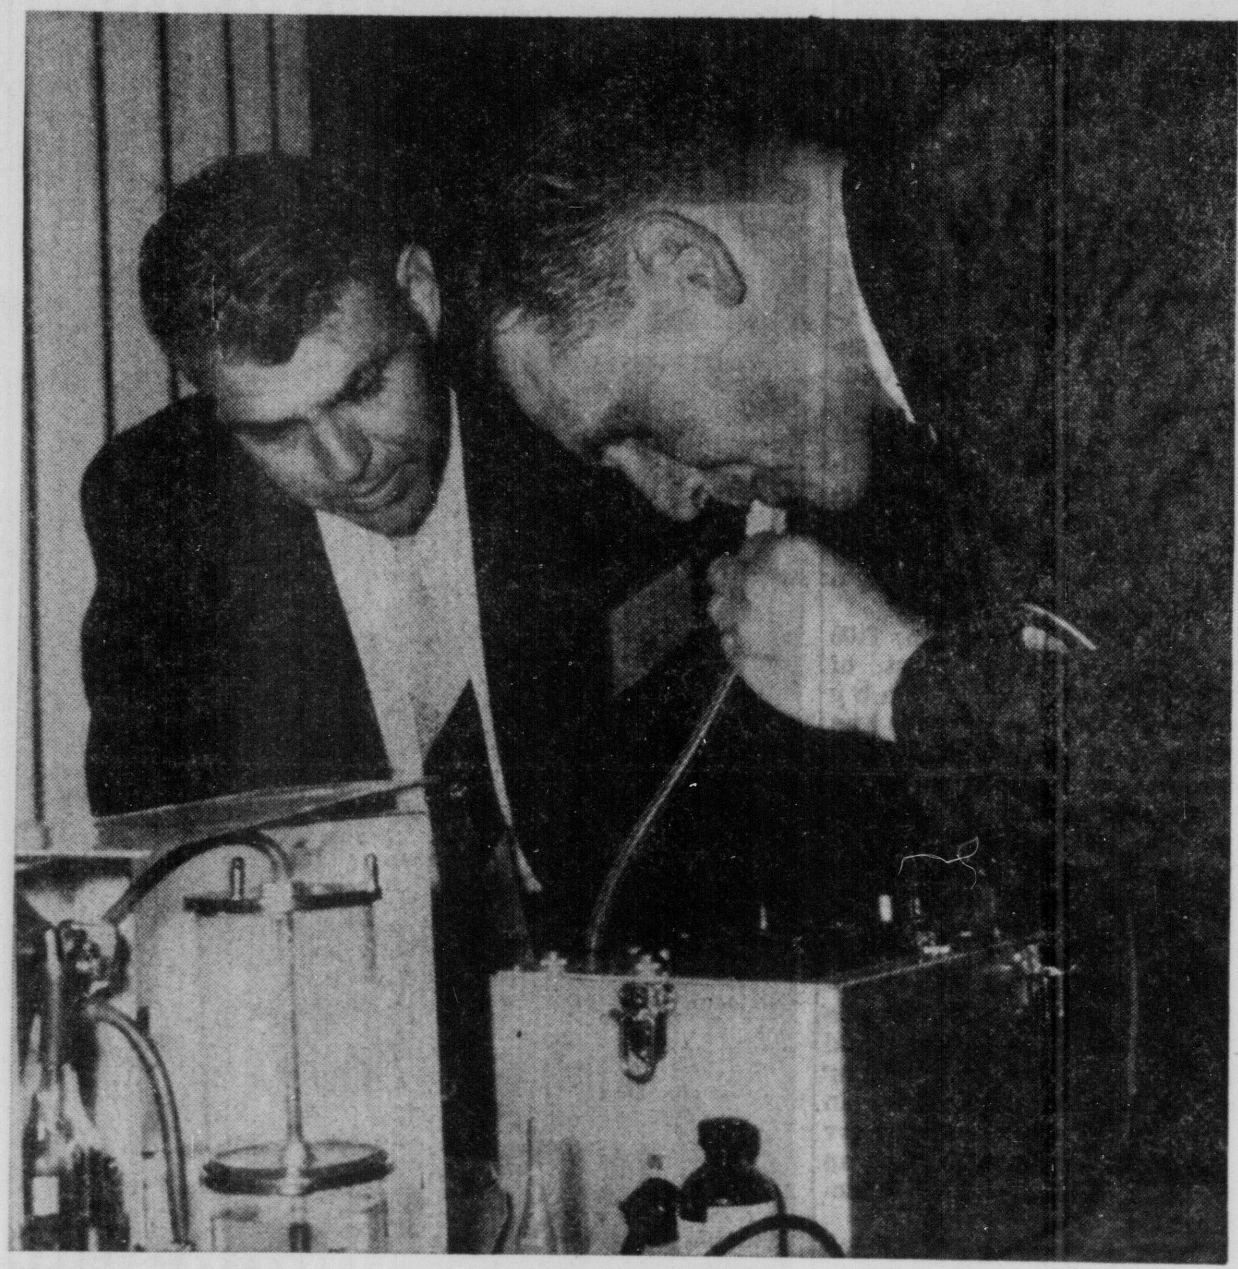
Tipsy Suburbanites Can't Fool Drunkometer Machine



WITH ONE EYE on indicator Verdell Middleton (right) submits to test of alcohol content in his blood stream. Demonstrating "Breathalizer" before Rotary group is Arlington Heights police officer Irv McDougall. Also demonstrated was "Drunkometer." Both pieces of equipment are used to determine if a person is under the influence of alcohol, "Mid," a voluntary guinea pig, passed his test. (AF

You may be able to touch the end of your nose, pick up pennies, and walk a straight line, but if you've had one too many, you can't keep it from the "Drunkometer."

This instrument, about the size of a portable radio, takes the guesswork out of determining whether a person is under the influence of alcohol.

Demonstrated before the Arlington Heights Rotary Club last week by village police officers Ray Jahnke and Irv McDougall, the apparatus measures the content of alcohol in the blood stream.

THE SUBJECT is asked to blow up a balloon. His breath is released into a tube and passed through a chemical. If the reading is .15 or over, the subject is booked for being under the influence.

This means the person tested had at least 15 per cent alcohol in his bloodstream when the test was given. This figure, according to McDougall, was arrived at by scientists, and indicates a person's reactions are definitely impaired. Anything over .10 is dangerous on the highway, says the officer.

The "Drunkometer" reads up to .50. McDougall notes, however, that anything over .40 will find the subject in a coma. Highest reading ever taken in Arlington Heights was .32.

IRONICALLY, says McDougall, a person who measures .20 is probably not as dangerous as one who registers .10.

"When a guy gets over 20 it's obvious he's drunk and you can see him coming, that is if he's able to drive. But a 10 per center may be just drunk enough to have his reactions fail when he attempts to put on his brakes," observes McDougall.

In case you're wondering about your capacity, McDougall notes that if a 150 lb. man downs six shots of 100 proof whiskey, his "Drunkometer" reading should reach .15 in 90 minutes. The liver would burn off 90 per cent of the alcohol at a rate of two-thirds of an ounce per hour.

While a person can't be forced to take the "Drunkometer," McDougall notes court decisions have held the test's results valid in 40 states. About 90 per cent of those asked to take the test in the Arlington Heights police station cooperate, says McDougall.

THE OFFICER, who completed a three-week course in operation of the instrument at Northwestern university, notes that while the machine may not be fool proof in determining a person's control over himself, it protects the innocent 100 per cent.

"The symptoms of diabetes and carbon monoxide can easily be mistaken for alcoholic intoxication. With the "Drunkometer" no mistake is made," says McDougall.

The officer ridicules the belief some drinkers have that drinking olive oil or eating butter will coat the stomach and prevent alcohol from entering the blood stream.

"Starches tend to hold the alcohol in the stomach a bit longer, but olive oil just seems to grease the skids instead of slowing the process," observes McDougall.

Rotary guinea pigs Bill Kaucher and Verdell Middleton rated .04 and .07 per cent respectively.

Petitions for Radio Star

Listener to Crusade For Return of Eigen

When a listener's favorite radio program goes off the air, there usually isn't much he can do besides send an angry letter to the station.

However, Arnold Locke, 1090 S. Haddow, Arlington Heights, has gone a step further.

He is circulating petitions reading: "We want the Jack Eigen show back in Chicago."

Eigen, well-known interviewer who conducted a late-evening radio show from the Chez Paree night club in Chicago for many years, was fired by NBC several months ago.

EIGEN NOW has a show in St. Louis, where he broadcasts from the Chase hotel.

"I'm getting tired of fiddling around with my radio trying to catch his show," Locke said. "Sometimes, with luck, it comes in weakly after midnight."

Locke, head of the Locke Patrol Service and Detective agency, began having petitions passed all over the United States last week.

His goal is 200,000 signatures. Fans of Eigen, whose show was broadcast into 38 states, are helping him gather signatures.

"All you hear now on the radio is jazz," Locke said. "This guy was different; nobody could carry on a conversation like him. He's better than Jack Paar."

LOCKE, WHO met Eigen through the show eight years ago, said he personally knew of many bed-ridden fans who have written to NBC asking for Eigen's return.

"They all wonder why he was fired; an official explanation was never made."

He described the Lee Vogel show, which replaced Eigen's, as one that would only interest people with a college education.

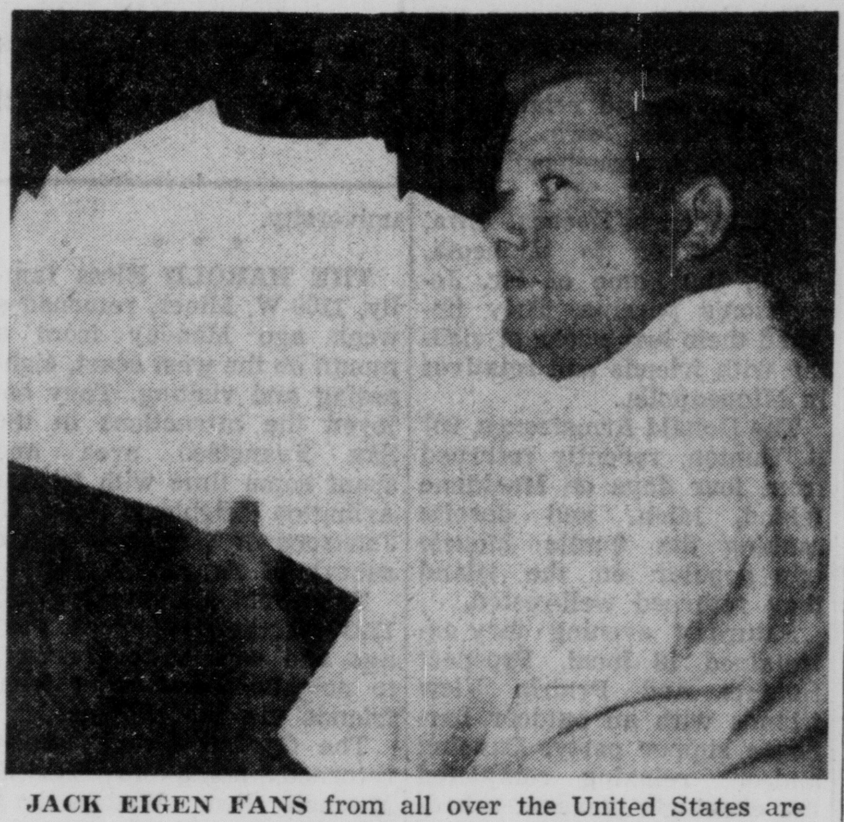
The show deals mainly with foreign and domestic affairs, with listeners calling in questions that Vogel discusses.

"You have to look in a dictionary for every fourth word he says," Locke remarked. "Heck, he must have read every history book that was printed. I listened twice and that was it."

Locke began the petition without Eigen's knowledge. Eigen recently was informed about it and expressed his approval to Locke.

WHEN HE obtains 200,000 signatures, Locke will give the petitions to Lloyd Yoder, NBC executive.

He said that anyone interested in passing out petitions can contact him at HEmpstead 7-9275. (AF



JACK EIGEN FANS from all over the United States are being asked by Arnold Locke, 1090 S. Haddow, Arlington Heights, to sign a "We want the Jack Eigen show back in Chicago" petition. Locke, a personal friend of Eigen, says he is tired of fiddling around with his radio in an attempt to catch the Eigen show from St. Louis. The well-known interviewer lost his job with NBC in Chicago several months ago.

At Colby

Samuel Richmond, 156 S. Center St., Bensenville, was enrolled in a summer institute for science at Colby college, Waterville, Me., which was in session from June 27 to August 5.

Financed by the National Science foundation, the institute was conducted for secondary school teachers of science and mathematics.

Richmond, who teaches science at Fenton high school, received his bachelor of science degree in 1933 from the University of Illinois.

At Cincinnati

Top - ranking students at the University of Cincinnati whose scholastic abilities gained places for them on the second-semester dean's lists were announced by Dr. Walter C. Langsam, the university's president.

The lists include: college of arts and sciences, James J. Finn, 134 Berkley st., Roselle.

Award Teacher Scholarships

Noble J. Puffer, Cook county superintendent of schools, announced that Cook county was eligible for 600 teacher college scholarships for the school year 1960 - 1961. To date 599 scholarships have been awarded to applicants seeking these scholarships.

In addition, 25 special teacher education scholarships have been awarded to applicants who wish to prepare themselves for teaching handicapped children.

Says Superintendent Puffer, "The wonderful response of young people to the scholarships offered indicates the great interest they have in the teaching profession and the opportunities for service which it offers. I am proud of these 600 young people who will prepare themselves for the teaching profession."

'More of the Same' to Fill Vacation Schedules

"Dog days" are supposedly here but August has thus far been as full of activity as the rest of the summer. Between out-of-town visitors and trips and parties there are plans for more of the same to fill the rest of the month and spill over the edge onto September.

Sidelights
Of Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights Scarsdale & Estates, Stonegate
Dorothy Meyer, CL 3-2298 Elsie Jedd, CL 3-5982

Weekend visitors in the Roger Breda home, 228 S. Patton, were Capt. and Mrs. Robert P. Scott of Quantico, Va. The Scotts and Bredas met several years ago in California where both men served with the Marine corps, and the Scotts' visit here was a farewell. Capt. Scott leaves soon for overseas duty in Okinawa.

Ernie Poulos returned home to 125 N. Dunton Sunday after a week with his grandfather, James Poulos, and other relatives in Chicago.

The Leonard Rateike family, 717 N. Evergreen, returned late Saturday from a 2-week, 3000-mile camping tour of the west and Sunday were co-hosts to 50 friends and relatives at a surprise anniversary party for Mr. Rateike's parents of Mt. Prospect. They're catching up on sleep the rest of this week.

THE TOUR was the first time in the west for the family and sightseeing combined with visiting friends and relatives to fill their schedule. An army buddy of Mr. Rateike, Charles Lusher, is a ranger in Estes Park and he made their stay at the park especially memorable. The Rateike children will long remember him as "that friend of Dad's who took us where we could make snowballs in August" in a mountain pass that will be closed because of the snow next month.

In Wind Cave National Park, S.D., the family descended 200 feet into Wind Cave, reported to be the only dry underground cave in the country. Because of the lack of moisture there are no stalactites or stalagmites and the weird formations within the cave are all the more remarkable.

It was at this park, too, that the Rateikes saw large herds of buffalo grazing by the side of the road. In Colorado the family visited Mr. Rateike's cousin, William Sellke in Arvada. They returned to rest a few days at their favorite fishing spot in Wisconsin where Mrs. Rateike's parents, the Kurt Stoeckels, joined them. Fishing was fine and Mr. Stoeckel hooked a 39-inch northern pike.

THE ANNIVERSARY party Sunday was in celebration of the senior Rateikes' 45th anniversary and was given for them by their three sons, Leonard of Arlington Heights, Mel of Itasca and Irving of Des Plaines in Irving's home. The anniversary couple took their children out to dinner early in the day and thought that was that as far as celebrating was concerned.

Their sons had plans to surprise their parents and 50 family members and friends helped them succeed completely. A barbecue supper began the festivities and a big evening completed them.

The Robert Josephsons, 908 S. Evergreen, returned Friday evening from two weeks with friends and relatives in Minnesota and Iowa. They visited Mrs. Josephson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hendrickson in Decora, Iowa, then went on to Minneota, Minn., the home of Mr. Josephson's parents. They finished their two weeks of visiting with friends and relatives in Minneapolis.

The Donald Armstrongs, 907 S. Dunton, recently returned from four days on Mackinac Island, Mich. and despite making the 9-mile bicycle trip popular on the island they returned well-rested.

Saturday evening they entertained 18 local, Prospect Heights and Prairie View friends with an outdoor barbecue supper party. Dancing and/or relaxing completed the evening's pleasant schedule.

THE ELMER Schmidt family, 1209 N. Dunton, were among 35 relatives and family friends honoring Mrs. Schmidt's uncle and aunt, the Edward Bleckes of Chicago, with a surprise silver wedding anniversary party Sunday. Guests in the Wood Dale home of the Bleckes' daughter, Mrs. Anthony Diomedes who planned the surprise, included relatives from Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Mrs. Gladys Leicht and her son, Doug, returned home to 824 N. Dunton Saturday after a cool and restful week at the Jack Pine lodge on Big St. Germaine Lake, Wis.

Ellen Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wolf, 607 S. State, was feted recently at two pre-nuptial parties.

The first was given by Miss Jane Stumpf, 702 S. Evergreen, who will attend the bride as maid of honor August 27 when Miss Wolf and Norman Stensel of Palatine are married in the First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights. Miss Stumpf's father, pastor of the church, had an ecclesiastical hand in the shower which was planned as a surprise. He asked the bride-to-be and her mother to call at his home on a matter concerning the wedding, then turned the matter over to the 20 friends of Miss Wolf who waited to shower her with personal gifts.

Co-hostesses were Miss Mary Jo Utt and Miss Rosemary Barry of Arlington Heights and Miss Suzi Tabacik of M. Prospect.

A week ago, 10 family friends and relatives honored the bride-elect at a miscellaneous shower given in the Park Ridge home of her aunt, Mrs. William Wualt. The bridal couple will leave immediately after the wedding for California where Mr. Stenzel will complete work for his masters degree at Stanford university.

THE HAROLD Bloss family, 1109 W. Miner, returned a week ago Monday from a month on the west coast, sight seeing and visiting. They enjoyed the attractions in the San Francisco area and spent some time with former Arlington Heighters, the J. G. Johnsons of Walnut Creek, a suburb of San Francisco.

The Johnson family left 1223 Woodford about a year ago and sent back greetings to neighbors and other local friends via the Blosses.

The Gordon Glorch family returned home to 822 S. Mitchell last Wednesday after three weeks in the east with relatives. They visited Mrs. Glorch's parents, the Roy Loppackers of Glen Ridge, N.J. and her sister and brother-in-law, the John Gamblings of Manhasset, Long Island. Mr. and Mrs. Glorch especially enjoyed a week on the Gamblings' 40-foot yawl, sailing on the sound and into the Atlantic.

A BLOCK party on the 700 block of S. Chestnut Saturday included past as well as present residents and brought families from Manitowac, suburban Cleveland, Jacksonville, Fla. Former residents also came from two blocks away and Barrington.

The grand reunion was called in order to properly farewell the Claude Chapins, leaving 728 S. Chestnut for a home in Springfield later this month, and for the Charles Johnsons, 709 S. Chestnut, who will remain in Arlington Heights but leave the sociable block as soon as a new home is completed.

Forty-six residents and former residents of all ages gathered in the George Hawkins backyard, 721 S. Chestnut, where the cooperative enterprise began. A few vagrant rain-drops late in the evening transplanted the gathering to the Hawkins basement where the reuniting and the farewelling continued. The Warren Sands, here from Manitowac for the occasion, were overnight guests in the Hawkins home and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Travers who returned for the first time since their move to Bay Village near Cleveland, overnighted with the Paul Blacks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gabrielsen and their children hosted the Travers' three children and Mr. and Mrs. John Lawler of Jacksonville, Fla. who were conveniently in the Chicago area visiting relatives last week. There have been block parties before and there will be again, but 46 people at 721 S. Chestnut Saturday night were sure theirs was the best in all time.

THE EARL Schmidt and Robert Sweet families of 724 S. Chestnut and 738 S. Walnut returned Saturday night from a week at Lake Nychaboyne near Spooner, Wis. July reports of just so-so fishing to the contrary the Schmidts and Sweets caught so many fish they're resting from the effort this week.

An estimated 100 pounds of pan fish and the big ones "ain't no more" and the kids weren't even working at it full time. They enjoyed surfboarding and swimming when hauling in fish lost its novelty.

Mrs. Herman Meyer and Mary Kay, 507 E. Euclid, accompanied by Miss Lydia Hausam, 116 W. Euclid, returned Sunday from the Geneva School of Missions interdenominational camp at Lake Geneva where they enjoyed a week's stay. Mrs. Meyer, who has served the school in many capacities in past years had the unique experience of attending the camp "just for fun."

Other local campers include Jeri Lorenz, 727 N. Evergreen, who accompanied Mrs. Thomas Mathews and Lynne, 711 N. Dunton. Jeri's senior sister, Jeanene, attended the camp with a local friend, Carol Seegers.

THE FORMER Judy FitzPatrick, daughter of the G.S. Fitz-Patricks, 319 N. Beverly, who was married Saturday to Avery Smith, was feted a week ago Friday night at a miscellaneous shower in the Wilmette home of Miss Debbie Gleeson. The hostess guests were student nurses and former schoolmates of the bride-elect who attended the Evanston nursing school.

The groom is the son of former Arlington Heighters, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith, now of Wilmette. Miss FitzPatrick and Mr. Smith were married in the First Presbytarian Church of Arlington Heights and after a brief honeymoon will make their home in Evanston.

MR. AND MRS. Warren Kline, 114 S. Brighton, have returned from a 3-week vacation at Paladise ranch in Buffalo, Wyo. They were accompanied by two of their children, Steve and Jack, both adept enough on horseback to join their parents on pack trips through the Big Horn mountains.

Mercer, Wis., is the favorite summer vacation spot of the Fay Hamilton family, 127 S. Brighton. Here they can relax and enjoy their favorite sports of boating and fishing.

The Leroy Garr family, 316 S. Derbyshire, spent two weeks vacationing at a resort in Saynor, Wis. They were joined by Mrs. Garr's father, Theodore Wojciechowski of Chicago, and their eldest son, Roy, who has just finished six weeks of basic marine training service with the ROTC. The Garrs reported good fishing, bringing back 32 pounds of large and small mouth bass.

MR. AND MRS. Carl Nagle, 321 Stratford, made their first jet plane trip to the west coast, where they spent a week visiting friends and relatives in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Midford, Ore. While in the Los Angeles area, they spent a day in Disneyland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hawkey, 310 S. Windsor, spent a week in Austin, Minn., visiting her sister and family, the B. B. Chandlers. Enroute to Minnesota, they made a stopover in LaCross for a visit with friends.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller, 1301 Woodford, were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Rice of LaPorte, Iowa. The Millers and their guests spent a day in Chicago visiting points of interest.

Mrs. Edward Ekstrom, 1106 E. Mayfair, was guest of honor Tuesday at a baby shower given by Mrs. Otis Means Jr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilcox at the Wilcox home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bruce Rasmussen, 202 S. Windsor, entertained 30 guests at a Saturday swimming party, followed by cocktails and a barbecue.

MR. AND Mrs Ian MacLachlan, 1230 Woodford, were hosts to 24 neighbors and friends Saturday at a lobster party. The lobsters, flown in live from Maine especially for the party were prepared on an outdoor grill by Mr. MacLachlan.

Taking advantage of a short state holiday, Miss Jean Rose, who is working in the summer program connected with the University of Colorado, flew in for a surprise visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rose, 1300 Mayfair.

Also weekending with the Roses were out-of-town guests from Buffalo, Mrs. Walter Kirchmeyer and her son, George Nairn, and daughter, Marion Nairn. Miss Nairn and Miss Rose became good friends when they toured Europe together last summer. Miss Nairn plans to sail for Germany the latter part of August where she will begin her teaching career.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gran, 221 S. Derbyshire, attended the Roarin' Twenties dinner dance Saturday at Rolling Green country club. Joining the Grans for a gay evening were a group of their Stonegate neighbors including the Edward Klamms, the Frank Krolls, the Norman Hawkeys and the Sigmund Hollingers of Plum Grove Estates.

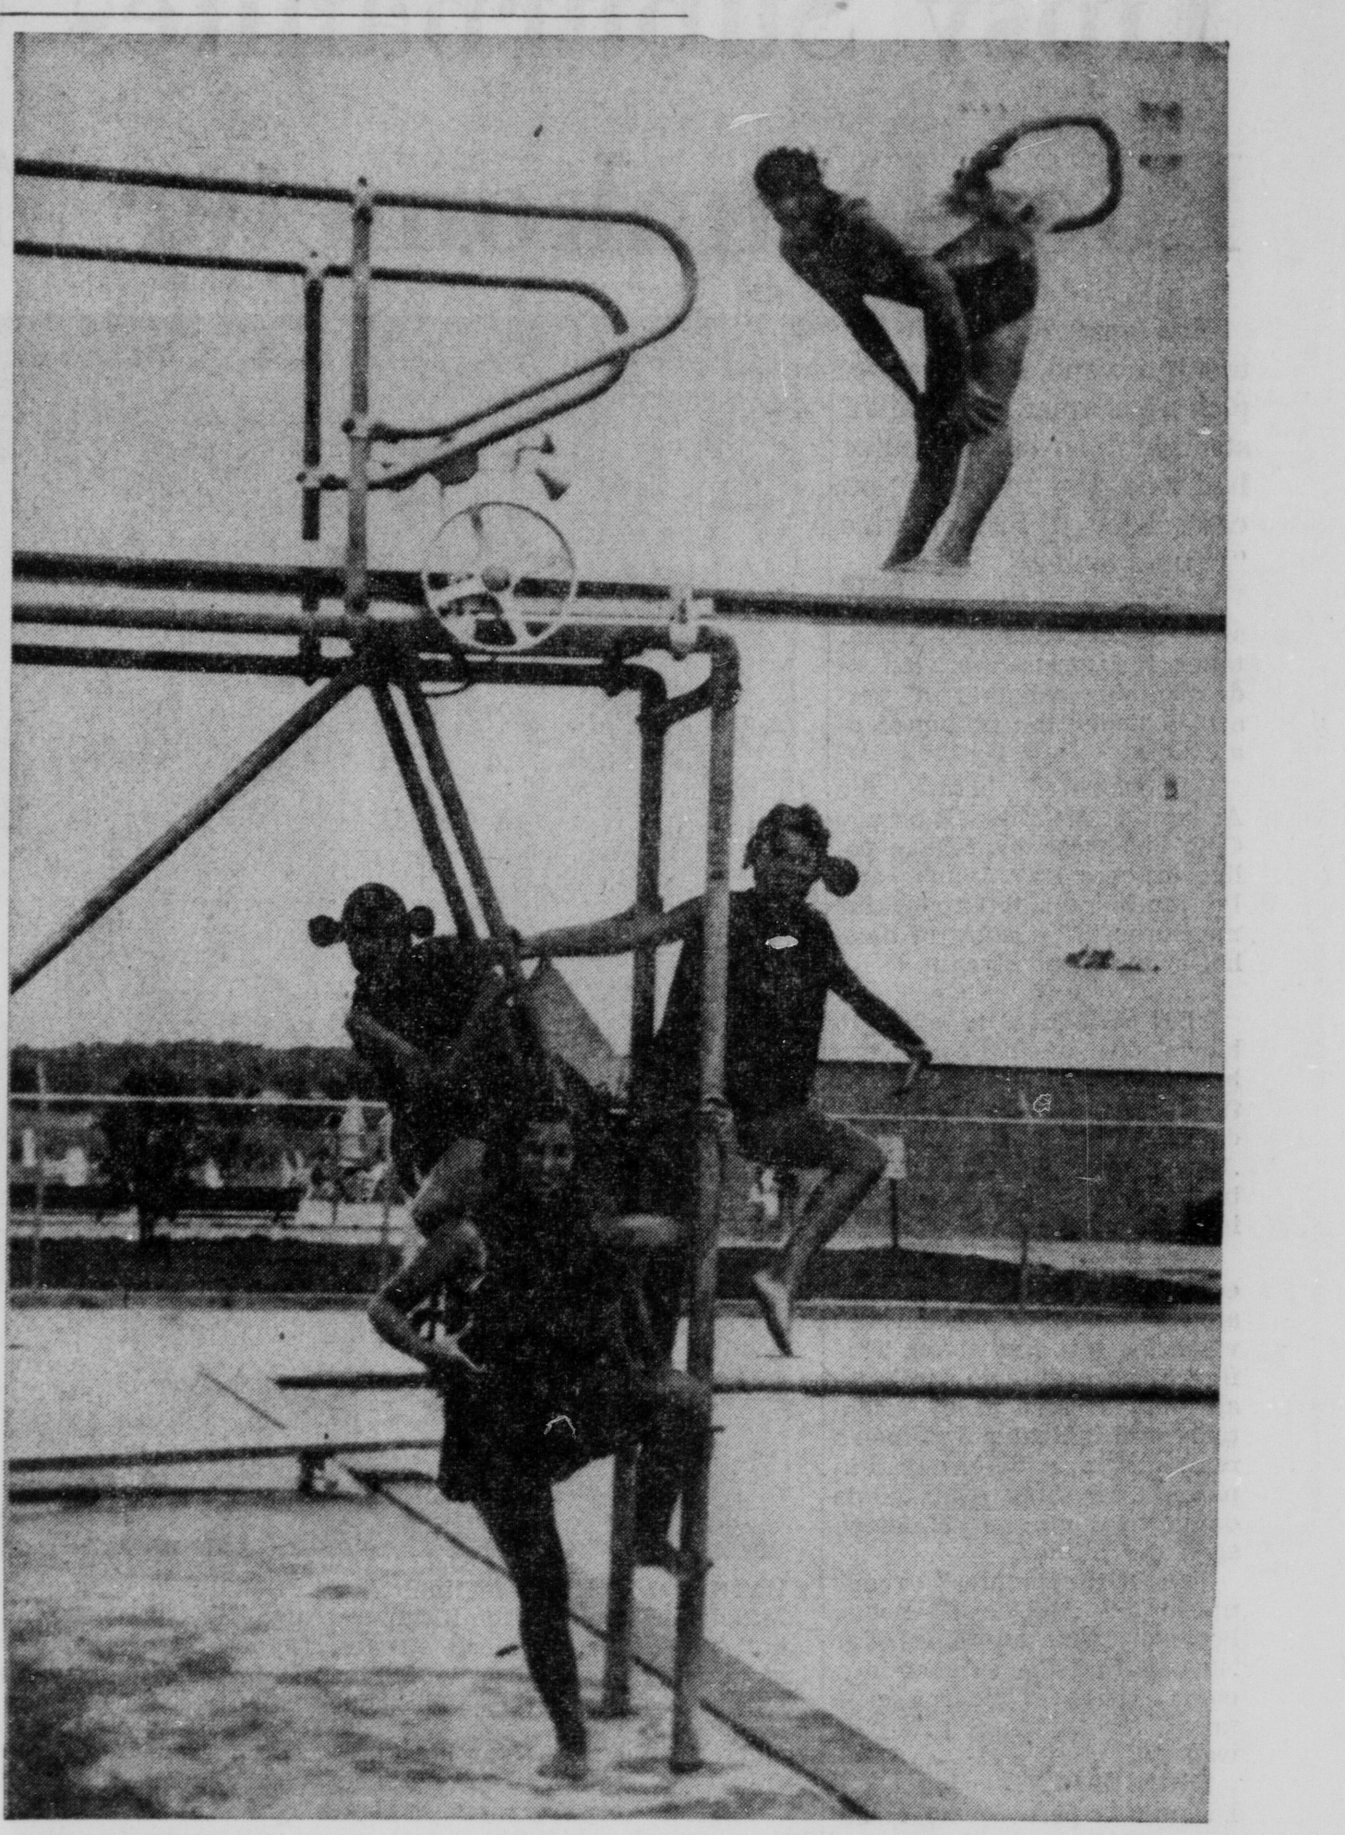
WHILE LARRY Kussow, 1203 Woodford, was in Hudson Bay, Canada, fishing, Mrs. Kussow and their youngest son, Jim, were in Neenah, Wis., for a visit with her father, Rudolph Vetter.

Upon returning to Arlington Heights, Mr. Kussow's sister and brother-in-law, Pastor and Mrs. Herbert Lemke and their daughter, Ruth, arrived from Williamston, Mich. for a visit.

During their visit, the Lemkes announced the approaching wedding of their eldest daughter, Myrna, who will be married September 17, to Gary Hollander of Long Beach, Cal. in the Memorial Lutheran Church of Williamston. Miss Lemke is currently in Long Beach where she is a nurse in the Veterans hospital.



DISNEYLAND H20, the Arlington Heights Park district's 15th annual water show, will take place Saturday and Sunday, August 13 and 14, at Pioneer park at 8:15 p.m. The four mice in the picture are one of the acts included in the show, which will feature 150 swimmers. Various water ballet numbers, trampoline and comedy diving acts are part of the production. There is no charge for admission. (AF

MR. AND MRS. Gale Oberlin, 201 S. Dryden, spent the past week vacationing at Gordon's lodge in Bailey's Harbor, Wis. They toured Door county, ivsiting nearby Ephraim and Aqualand.

NEW
tells you to answer the phone

Now a pleasant, melodic chime will tell you your phone is ringing—no matter where you are in your home.

You can have the new Bell Chime installed anywhere—living room, or the family room. It comes in velvety gold or soft ivory.

A handy switch makes it a loud bell when you're outside on the patio. Or you can set it for the familiar, regular telephone ring.

The cost is low. And, maintenance is free. Call your Service Representative at the Bell Telephone business office and ask about the Bell Chime.

Better yet, stop in and have her show it to you. Or if an installer-repairman visits your home, ask to see it.

'More of the Same' to Fill Vacation Schedules

Sidelights
Of Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights Scarsdale & Estates, Stonegate

Dorothy Meyer, CL 3-2298 Elsie Jedd, CL 3-5982

"Dog days" are supposedly here but August has thus far been as full of activity as the rest of the summer. Between out-of-town visitors and trips and parties there are plans for more of the same to fill the rest of the month and spill over the edge onto September.

Weekend visitors in the Roger Breda home, 228 S. Patton, were Capt. and Mrs. Robert P. Scott of Quantico, Va. The Scotts and Bredas met several years ago in California where both men served with the Marine corps, and the Scotts' visit here was a farewell. Capt. Scott leaves soon for overseas duty in Okinawa.

Ernie Poulos returned home to 125 N. Dunton Sunday after a week with his grandfather, James Poulos, and other relatives in Chicago.

The Leonard Rateike family, 717 N. Evergreen, returned late Saturday from a 2-week, 3000-mile camping tour of the west and Sunday were co-hosts to 50 friends and relatives at a surprise anniversary party for Mr. Rateike's parents of Mt. Prospect. They're catching up on sleep the rest of this week.

THE TOUR was the first time in the west for the family and sightseeing combined with visiting friends and relatives to fill their schedule. An army buddy of Mr. Rateike, Charles Lusher, is a ranger in Estes Park and he made their stay at the park especially memorable. The Rateike children will long remember him as "that friend of Dad's who took us where we could make snowballs in August" in a mountain pass that will be closed because of the snow next month.

In Wind Cave National Park, S.D., the family descended 200 feet into Wind Cave, reported to be the only dry underground cave in the country. Because of the lack of moisture there are no stalactites or stalagmites and the weird formations within the cave are all the more remarkable.

It was at this park, too, that the Rateikes saw large herds of buffalo grazing by the side of the road. In Colorado the family visited Mr. Rateike's cousin, William Sellke in Arvada. They returned to rest a few days at their favorite fishing spot in Wisconsin where Mrs. Rateike's parents, the Kurt Stoeckels, joined them. Fishing was fine and Mr. Stoeckel hooked a 39-inch northern pike.

THE ANNIVERSARY party Sunday was in celebration of the senior Rateikes' 45th anniversary and was given for them by their three sons, Leonard of Arlington Heights, Mel of Itasca and Irving of Des Plaines in Irving's home. The anniversary couple took their children out to dinner early in the day and thought that was that as far as celebrating was concerned.

Their sons had plans to surprise their parents and 50 family members and friends helped them succeed completely. A barbecue supper began the festivities and a big evening completed them.

The Robert Josephsons, 908 S. Evergreen, returned Friday evening from two weeks with friends and relatives in Minnesota and Iowa. They visited Mrs. Josephson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hendrickson in Decora, Iowa, then went on to Minneota, Minn., the home of Mr. Josephson's parents. They finished their two weeks of visiting with friends and relatives in Minneapolis.

The Donald Armstrongs, 907 S. Dunton, recently returned from four days on Mackinac Island, Mich. and despite making the 9-mile bicycle trip popular on the island they returned well-rested.

Saturday evening they entertained 18 local, Prospect Heights and Prairie View friends with an outdoor barbecue supper party. Dancing and/or relaxing completed the evening's pleasant schedule.

THE ELMER Schmidt family, 1209 N. Dunton, were among 35 relatives and family friends honoring Mrs. Schmidt's uncle and aunt, the Edward Bleckes of Chicago, with a surprise silver wedding anniversary party Sunday. Guests in the Wood Dale home of the Bleckes' daughter, Mrs. Anthony Diomedes who planned the surprise, included relatives from Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Mrs. Gladys Leicht and her son, Doug, returned home to 824 N. Dunton Saturday after a cool and restful week at the Jack Pine lodge on Big St. Germaine Lake, Wis.

Ellen Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wolf, 607 S. State, was feted recently at two pre-nuptial parties.

The first was given by Miss Jane Stumpf, 702 S. Evergreen, who will attend the bride as maid of honor August 27 when Miss Wolf and Norman Stensel of Palatine are married in the First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights. Miss Stumpf's father, pastor of the church, had an ecclesiastical hand in the shower which was planned as a surprise. He asked the bride-to-be and her mother to call at his home on a matter concerning the wedding, then turned the matter over to the 20 friends of Miss Wolf who waited to shower her with personal gifts.

Co-hostesses were Miss Mary Jo Utt and Miss Rosemary Barry of Arlington Heights and Miss Suzi Tabacik of M. Prospect.

A week ago, 10 family friends and relatives honored the bride-elect at a miscellaneous shower given in the Park Ridge home of her aunt, Mrs. William Wualt. The bridal couple will leave immediately after the wedding for California where Mr. Stenzel will complete work for his masters degree at Stanford university.

THE HAROLD Bloss family, 1109 W. Miner, returned a week ago Monday from a month on the west coast, sight seeing and visiting. They enjoyed the attractions in the San Francisco area and spent some time with former Arlington Heighters, the J. G. Johnsons of Walnut Creek, a suburb of San Francisco.

The Johnson family left 1223 Woodford about a year ago and sent back greetings to neighbors and other local friends via the Blosses.

The Gordon Glorch family returned home to 822 S. Mitchell last Wednesday after three weeks in the east with relatives. They visited Mrs. Glorch's parents, the Roy Loppackers of Glen Ridge, N.J. and her sister and brother-in-law, the John Gamblings of Manhasset, Long Island. Mr. and Mrs. Glorch especially enjoyed a week on the Gamblings' 40-foot yawl, sailing on the sound and into the Atlantic.

A BLOCK party on the 700 block of S. Chestnut Saturday included past as well as present residents and brought families from Manitowac, suburban Cleveland, Jacksonville, Fla. Former residents also came from two blocks away and Barrington.

The grand reunion was called in order to properly farewell the Claude Chapins, leaving 728 S. Chestnut for a home in Springfield later this month, and for the Charles Johnsons, 709 S. Chestnut, who will remain in Arlington Heights but leave the sociable block as soon as a new home is completed.

Forty-six residents and former residents of all ages gathered in the George Hawkins backyard, 721 S. Chestnut, where the cooperative enterprise began. A few vagrant rain-drops late in the evening transplanted the gathering to the Hawkins basement where the reuniting and the farewelling continued. The Warren Sands, here from Manitowac for the occasion, were overnight guests in the Hawkins home and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Travers who returned for the first time since their move to Bay Village near Cleveland, overnighted with the Paul Blacks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gabrielsen and their children hosted the Travers' three children and Mr. and Mrs. John Lawler of Jacksonville, Fla. who were conveniently in the Chicago area visiting relatives last week. There have been block parties before and there will be again, but 46 people at 721 S. Chestnut Saturday night were sure theirs was the best in all time.

THE EARL Schmidt and Robert Sweet families of 724 S. Chestnut and 738 S. Walnut returned Saturday night from a week at Lake Nychaboyne near Spooner, Wis. July reports of just so-so fishing to the contrary the Schmidts and Sweets caught so many fish they're resting from the effort this week.

An estimated 100 pounds of pan fish and the big ones "ain't no more" and the kids weren't even working at it full time. They enjoyed surfboarding and swimming when hauling in fish lost its novelty.

Mrs. Herman Meyer and Mary Kay, 507 E. Euclid, accompanied by Miss Lydia Hausam, 116 W. Euclid, returned Sunday from the Geneva School of Missions interdenominational camp at Lake Geneva where they enjoyed a week's stay. Mrs. Meyer, who has served the school in many capacities in past years had the unique experience of attending the camp "just for fun."

Other local campers include Jeri Lorenz, 727 N. Evergreen, who accompanied Mrs. Thomas Mathews and Lynne, 711 N. Dunton. Jeri's senior sister, Jeanene, attended the camp with a local friend, Carol Seegers.

THE FORMER Judy FitzPatrick, daughter of the G.S. Fitz-Patricks, 319 N. Beverly, who was married Saturday to Avery Smith, was feted a week ago Friday night at a miscellaneous shower in the Wilmette home of Miss Debbie Gleeson. The hostess guests were student nurses and former schoolmates of the bride-elect who attended the Evanston nursing school.

The groom is the son of former Arlington Heighters, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith, now of Wilmette. Miss FitzPatrick and Mr. Smith were married in the First Presbytarian Church of Arlington Heights and after a brief honeymoon will make their home in Evanston.

MR. AND MRS. Warren Kline, 114 S. Brighton, have returned from a 3-week vacation at Paladise ranch in Buffalo, Wyo. They were accompanied by two of their children, Steve and Jack, both adept enough on horseback to join their parents on pack trips through the Big Horn mountains.

Mercer, Wis., is the favorite summer vacation spot of the Fay Hamilton family, 127 S. Brighton. Here they can relax and enjoy their favorite sports of boating and fishing.

The Leroy Garr family, 316 S. Derbyshire, spent two weeks vacationing at a resort in Saynor, Wis. They were joined by Mrs. Garr's father, Theodore Wojciechowski of Chicago, and their eldest son, Roy, who has just finished six weeks of basic marine training service with the ROTC. The Garrs reported good fishing, bringing back 32 pounds of large and small mouth bass.

MR. AND MRS. Carl Nagle, 321 Stratford, made their first jet plane trip to the west coast, where they spent a week visiting friends and relatives in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Midford, Ore. While in the Los Angeles area, they spent a day in Disneyland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hawkey, 310 S. Windsor, spent a week in Austin, Minn., visiting her sister and family, the B. B. Chandlers. Enroute to Minnesota, they made a stopover in LaCross for a visit with friends.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller, 1301 Woodford, were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Rice of LaPorte, Iowa. The Millers and their guests spent a day in Chicago visiting points of interest.

Mrs. Edward Ekstrom, 1106 E. Mayfair, was guest of honor Tuesday at a baby shower given by Mrs. Otis Means Jr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilcox at the Wilcox home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bruce Rasmussen, 202 S. Windsor, entertained 30 guests at a Saturday swimming party, followed by cocktails and a barbecue.

MR. AND Mrs Ian MacLachlan, 1230 Woodford, were hosts to 24 neighbors and friends Saturday at a lobster party. The lobsters, flown in live from Maine especially for the party were prepared on an outdoor grill by Mr. MacLachlan.

Taking advantage of a short state holiday, Miss Jean Rose, who is working in the summer program connected with the University of Colorado, flew in for a surprise visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rose, 1300 Mayfair.

Also weekending with the Roses were out-of-town guests from Buffalo, Mrs. Walter Kirchmeyer and her son, George Nairn, and daughter, Marion Nairn. Miss Nairn and Miss Rose became good friends when they toured Europe together last summer. Miss Nairn plans to sail for Germany the latter part of August where she will begin her teaching career.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gran, 221 S. Derbyshire, attended the Roarin' Twenties dinner dance Saturday at Rolling Green country club. Joining the Grans for a gay evening were a group of their Stonegate neighbors including the Edward Klamms, the Frank Krolls, the Norman Hawkeys and the Sigmund Hollingers of Plum Grove Estates.

WHILE LARRY Kussow, 1203 Woodford, was in Hudson Bay, Canada, fishing, Mrs. Kussow and their youngest son, Jim, were in Neenah, Wis., for a visit with her father, Rudolph Vetter.

Upon returning to Arlington Heights, Mr. Kussow's sister and brother-in-law, Pastor and Mrs. Herbert Lemke and their daughter, Ruth, arrived from Williamston, Mich. for a visit.

During their visit, the Lemkes announced the approaching wedding of their eldest daughter, Myrna, who will be married September 17, to Gary Hollander of Long Beach, Cal. in the Memorial Lutheran Church of Williamston. Miss Lemke is currently in Long Beach where she is a nurse in the Veterans hospital.

MR. AND MRS. Gale Oberlin, 201 S. Dryden, spent the past week vacationing at Gordon's lodge in Bailey's Harbor, Wis. They toured Door county, ivsiting nearby Ephraim and Aqualand.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hermes, 717 Mayfair, are Mrs. Hermes' sister, Mrs. Everett Collins, and her children, Nancy and Steve, who were here from Sapulpa, Okla., for a 5-day visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Grady, 304 E. Grove, welcomed their fourth daughter, Maureen Therese O'Grady, born June 2, in Loretto hospital, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Windslow Patterson, 445 S. Beverly, joined a group of their Omaha friends at Lake Okobogi, Iowa, for a 10-day vacation.

Bruce Richmond, 731 Burton, is spending the remainder of the summer as a counselor at the YMCA Camp Olsen in Longville, Minn.

MR. AND MRS. Edward C. Peterson, 531 S. Bristol, had as their houseguests for a week, the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Evans Peterson of Bradenton, Fla.

There were several family parties and barbecues at the Robert Ross home, 341 Bristol, during the past week when Mrs. Ross' parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. A. Glenn Werner and Jim were visiting here from their home in Portsmouth, Ohio. Joining the family group were Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Freeman of Arlington Heights. (A

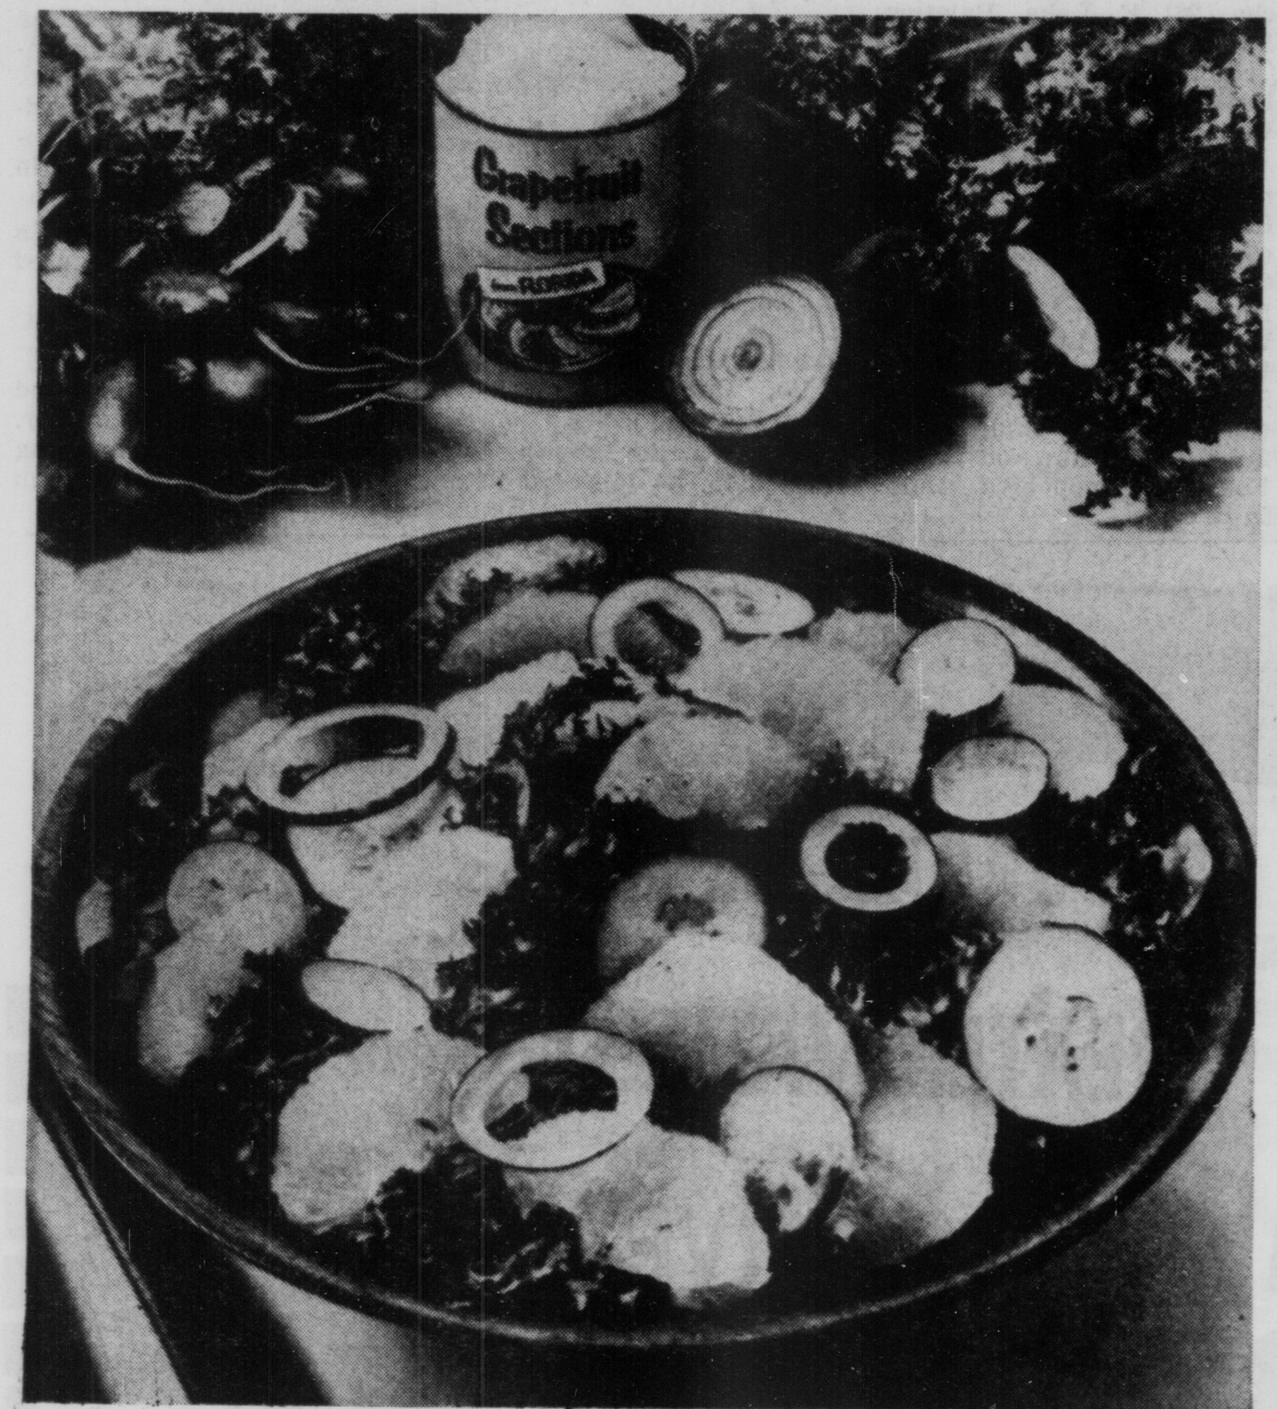
Welcome Salad Addition: Tart Florida Grapefruit



Salads, an ever popular menu item, really come into their own during the summer. On hot, sticky days, nothing looks as appealing or tastes as good as a crisp salad.

Garden greens are particularly good combined with plump Florida grapefruit sections. Their tart juiciness is a welcome addition to mixed salad greens, cucumber, radish and onion slices.

ALTHOUGH canned, Florida grapefruit sections have a garden-fresh taste because the fruit is picked, sectioned and canned immediately at the peak of flavor and maturity during the winter months. There's never a chance for any goodness to escape, or any precious vitamin C either.

Excellent with such a tossed salad is a French dressing made simply with fruit juice, catchup and salad oil.

Grapefruit Salad

1 can (1 pound) Florida grapefruit sections.

Mixed salad greens, (romaine, lettuce, endive, chicory, etc.)

1 purple onion, thinly sliced

½ cup sliced radishes

½ cucumber, sliced

Drain Florida grapefruit sections (reserve syrup or fruit juice cocktails, etc.). Wash and dry greens; tear into bite-size pieces. Add Florida grapefruit sections, sliced onion, radish and cucumber slices. Add *French Dressing just before serving and toss lightly. Yield: 6 servings.

French Dressing

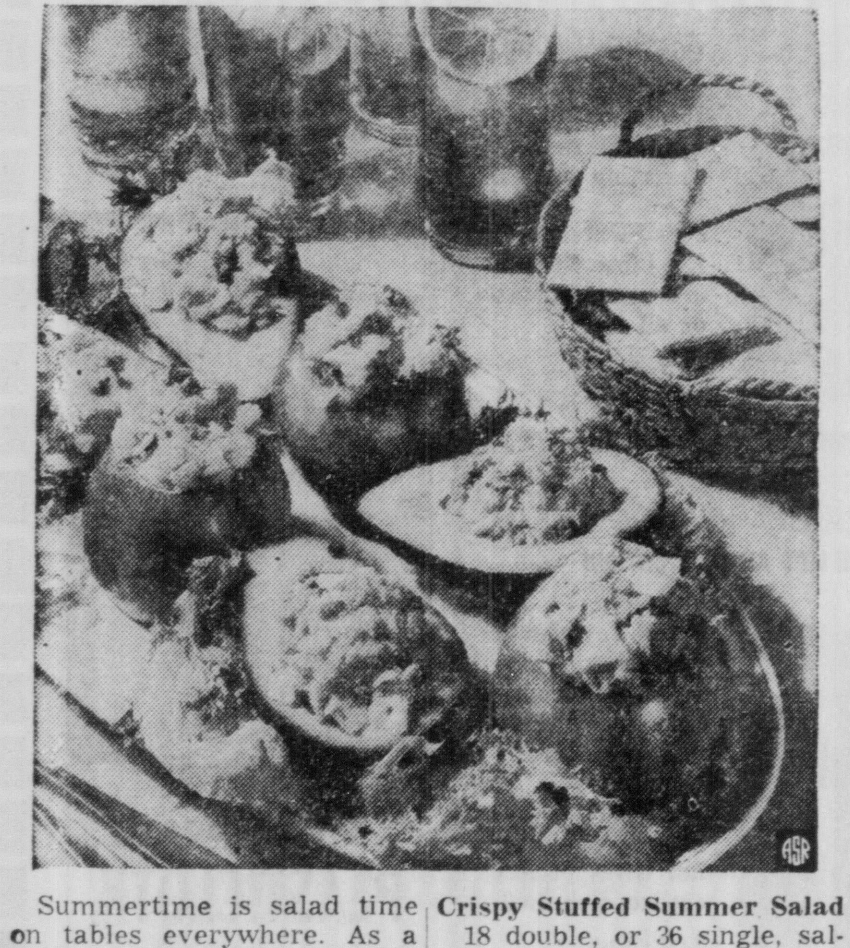
1 can (6 ounces) Florida frozen concentrated grapefruit juice.

½ cup catchup

¼ cup salad oil

Combine undiluted grapefruit juice and catchup; blend well. Add salad oil, beat with rotary beater until blended. Cover and store in refrigerator; shake before using. Yield: Approximately 1½ cups.

Crisp Summer Salad Has Tasty Stuffing



Summertime is salad time on tables everywhere. As a main dish for days when the temperature is sizzling, nothing's quite so refreshing as a cool and tasty vegetable salad. Here's a new one—"Crispy Stuffed Summer Salad"—that's sure to give a lift to any hot weather menu.

THE SPECIAL flavor is in the stuffing, delicious for filling either halved avocados or fresh ripe tomatoes. It's a quick-and-easy blend of crushed crispy saltine crackers and chopped hard cooked eggs, well seasoned and mixed with mayonnaise and deviled ham.

Served with whole crispy saltines and iced tea, this new salad is a perfect "cool off" meal for the hottest day of the year. Make it this easy way:

Crispy Stuffed Summer Salad

18 double, or 36 single, saltine crackers (2 cups crumbled)

¼ cup thinly sliced scallions

¼ teaspoon pepper

2 hard cooked eggs, chopped

½ cup mayonnaise

1 4½-oz. can deviled ham

6 tomatoes, or 3 large avocados

Lettuce

In a large bowl blend together crispy cracker crumbs, scallions, pepper and chopped egg. In another bowl mix mayonnaise and deviled ham. Blend mayonnaise mixture into crumb mixture, and toss well. Stuff into halved avocados, or whole tomatoes with centers removed. Serve on lettuce. Makes 6 servings.

Picnic Basket Delights

Hamburgers and frankfurters are the favorite meats to cook outdoors for many reasons. They are easy to transport, quick cooking, universally popular and relatively inexpensive in these days of rising food costs.

A barbecue relish is an essential, and a receipe follows that is as good on hamburgers as it is on franks. Make it up ahead and take it to the picnic grounds in a tightly covered container; Serve it with hamburgers and frankfurters after they've been grilled.

THE RELISH can be heated in a skillet and the frankfurters added and heated for a special picnic treat. A wonderful combination of sweet and sour flavors, the relish owes its tang to Tabasco, the seasoning that belongs with meals cooked or served outdoors.

Tomatoes, fruit, rolls and carefully wrapped meat can all be put in picnic basket at last minute, but you'll want to take the time to make this Summer Potato Salad before starting out. This recipe makes 12 people glad you did. Take precautions to keep it chilled during trip to picnic grounds.

Tabasco Barbecue Relish

1 medium onion, chopped

1 green pepper, chopped

1/3 cup sweet pickle relish

1/4 cup vinegar

1 cup catchup

2 tablespoons unsulphured molasses

2 teaspoons prepared mustard

1/4 teaspoon Tabasco

Combine all ingredients for sauce in saucepan. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer 5 minutes. Serve hot or cold with cooked frankfurters or hamburgers. Yield: Approximately 2 cups. Note: If desired, frankfurters may be added to the sauce in a skillet. Simmer 15 minutes.

Summer Potato Salad

3 pounds potatoes (8 cups diced)

¼ cup finely chopped onion

1 cup diced celery

1 cup diced cucumber

1 green pepper, chopped

6 to 8 radishes, sliced

2 teaspoons salt

½ teaspoon celery seed, optional

1 cup mayonnaise

2 tablespoons prepared mustard

2 tablespoons vinegar

½ teaspoon Tabasco

Cook potatoes in skins until tender. Peel and dice. Add onion, celery, cucumber, green pepper and radishes. Sprinkle with salt and celery seed. Mix together mayonnaise, mustard, vinegar and Tabasco. Add to potato mixture. Mix lightly with a fork, being careful not to break potatoes; chill. Serve with tomato slices or wedges. Yield: 12 servings.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

by Edward Rentz

A few facts today about those mysterious foodstuffs, the spices.

Allspice is not, as commonly assumed, a blend or mixture of many different spices. It is one spice and is so-named for its flavor which resembles a mixture of nutmeg, cinnamon, and cloves. Allspice is grown principally in Jamaica.

Ground, it is used in conjunction with other spices in puddings, cakes, pies, and so forth.

Whole allspice, on the other hand, is used in meat sauces, gravies, relishes, soups, and for spicing wines and pickling.

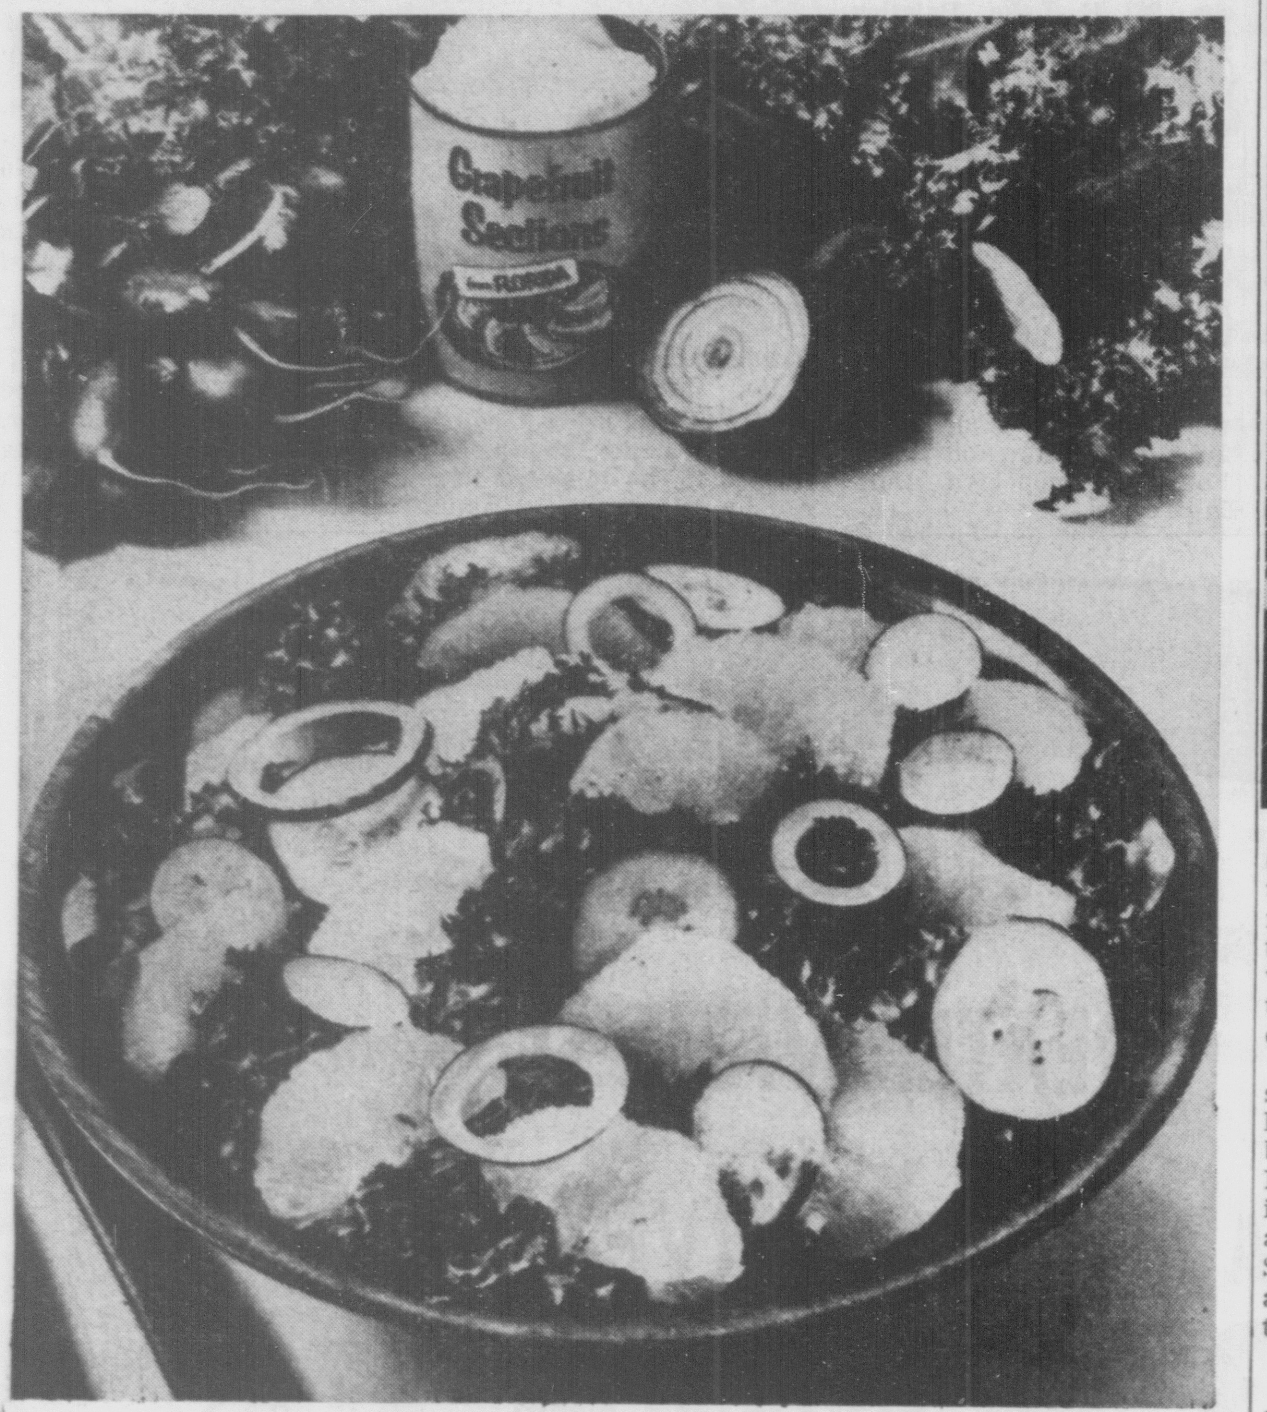
Welcome Salad Addition: Tart Florida Grapefruit



Salads, an ever popular menu item, really come into their own during the summer. On hot, sticky days, nothing looks as appealing or tastes as good as a crisp salad.

Garden greens are particularly good combined with plump Florida grapefruit sections. Their tart juiciness is a welcome addition to mixed salad greens, cucumber, radish and onion slices.

ALTHOUGH canned, Florida grapefruit sections have a garden-fresh taste because the fruit is picked, sectioned and canned immediately at the peak of flavor and maturity during the winter months. There's never a chance for any goodness to escape, or any precious vitamin C either.

Excellent with such a tossed salad is a French dressing made simply with fruit juice, catchup and salad oil.

Grapefruit Salad

1 can (1 pound) Florida grapefruit sections.

Mixed salad greens, (romaine, lettuce, endive, chicory, etc.)

1 purple onion, thinly sliced

½ cup sliced radishes

½ cucumber, sliced

Drain Florida grapefruit sections (reserve syrup or fruit juice cocktails, etc.). Wash and dry greens; tear into bite-size pieces. Add Florida grapefruit sections, sliced onion, radish and cucumber slices. Add *French Dressing just before serving and toss lightly. Yield: 6 servings.

French Dressing

1 can (6 ounces) Florida frozen concentrated grapefruit juice.

½ cup catchup

¼ cup salad oil

Combine undiluted grapefruit juice and catchup; blend well. Add salad oil, beat with rotary beater until blended. Cover and store in refrigerator; shake before using. Yield: Approximately 1½ cups.

Crisp Summer Salad Has Tasty Stuffing

Summertime is salad time on tables everywhere. As a main dish for days when the temperature is sizzling, nothing's quite so refreshing as a cool and tasty vegetable salad. Here's a new one—"Crispy Stuffed Summer Salad"—that's sure to give a lift to any hot weather menu.

THE SPECIAL flavor is in the stuffing, delicious for filling either halved avocados or fresh ripe tomatoes. It's a quick-and-easy blend of crushed crispy saltine crackers and chopped hard cooked eggs, well seasoned and mixed with mayonnaise and deviled ham.

Served with whole crispy saltines and iced tea, this new salad is a perfect "cool off" meal for the hottest day of the year. Make it this easy way:

Crispy Stuffed Summer Salad

18 double, or 36 single, saltine crackers (2 cups crumbled)

¼ cup thinly sliced scallions

¼ teaspoon pepper

2 hard cooked eggs, chopped

½ cup mayonnaise

1 4½-oz. can deviled ham

6 tomatoes, or 3 large avocados

Lettuce

In a large bowl blend together crispy cracker crumbs, scallions, pepper and chopped egg. In another bowl mix mayonnaise and deviled ham. Blend mayonnaise mixture into crumb mixture, and toss well. Stuff into halved avocados, or whole tomatoes with centers removed. Serve on lettuce. Makes 6 servings.

Picnic Basket Delights

Hamburgers and frankfurters are the favorite meats to cook outdoors for many reasons. They are easy to transport, quick cooking, universally popular and relatively inexpensive in these days of rising food costs.

A barbecue relish is an essential, and a receipe follows that is as good on hamburgers as it is on franks. Make it up ahead and take it to the picnic grounds in a tightly covered container; Serve it with hamburgers and frankfurters after they've been grilled.

THE RELISH can be heated in a skillet and the frankfurters added and heated for a special picnic treat. A wonderful combination of sweet and sour flavors, the relish owes its tang to Tabasco, the seasoning that belongs with meals cooked or served outdoors.

Tomatoes, fruit, rolls and carefully wrapped meat can all be put in picnic basket at last minute, but you'll want to take the time to make this Summer Potato Salad before starting out. This recipe makes 12 people glad you did. Take precautions to keep it chilled during trip to picnic grounds.

Tabasco Barbecue Relish

1 medium onion, chopped

1 green pepper, chopped

1/3 cup sweet pickle relish

1/4 cup vinegar

1 cup catchup

2 tablespoons unsulphured molasses

2 teaspoons prepared mustard

1/4 teaspoon Tabasco

Combine all ingredients for sauce in saucepan. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer 5 minutes. Serve hot or cold with cooked frankfurters or hamburgers. Yield: Approximately 2 cups. Note: If desired, frankfurters may be added to the sauce in a skillet. Simmer 15 minutes.

Summer Potato Salad

3 pounds potatoes (8 cups diced)

¼ cup finely chopped onion

1 cup diced celery

1 cup diced cucumber

1 green pepper, chopped

6 to 8 radishes, sliced

2 teaspoons salt

½ teaspoon celery seed, optional

1 cup mayonnaise

2 tablespoons prepared mustard

2 tablespoons vinegar

½ teaspoon Tabasco

Cook potatoes in skins until tender. Peel and dice. Add onion, celery, cucumber, green pepper and radishes. Sprinkle with salt and celery seed. Mix together mayonnaise, mustard, vinegar and Tabasco. Add to potato mixture. Mix lightly with a fork, being careful not to break potatoes; chill. Serve with tomato slices or wedges. Yield: 12 servings.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

by Edward Rentz

A few facts today about those mysterious foodstuffs, the spices.

Allspice is not, as commonly assumed, a blend or mixture of many different spices. It is one spice and is so-named for its flavor which resembles a mixture of nutmeg, cinnamon, and cloves. Allspice is grown principally in Jamaica.

Ground, it is used in conjunction with other spices in puddings, cakes, pies, and so forth.

Whole allspice, on the other hand, is used in meat sauces, gravies, relishes, soups, and for spicing wines and pickling.

Palatine Student Given Major Role

Guy Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Anderson of 225 N. Plum Grove, Palatine, had a major role in Eastern Illinois University's presentation of Lillian Hellman's "The Little Foxes," directed by E. Glendon Gabbard.

Anderson has worked previously in acting and directing at Eastern. Among his acting credits are nine seasons of summer stock and he has worked with well-known personalities, such as Betsy Palmer, John Carradine, Ian Keith, Imogene Coca and Zazu Pitts.

Among the shows he's worked in, he listed "The Adding Machine," "Taming of the Shrew," "Harvey" and "See How They Run." Mr. Anderson will begin teaching in the fall at Rock Falls high school.

At National

Mrs. Joseph A. Molumby, S. Main st., Mt. Prospect, has completed the work for the bachelor of education degree from National College of Education, Evanston.

Mrs. Molumby is one of a group of 19 completing the BE program during the summer session of the college. These degrees will be awarded at the midwinter commencement of the college in January.

Mrs. Molumby teaches in Community Consolidated school district 15.

Clambake Brings New England Touch to Arlington

SUCCESSFUL HOMEMAKING

By LOIS SEILER

"It was a real nice clambake, we all had a real good time!" This familiar refrain from "Carousel" can be heard right in Arlington Heights, far from New England's shores, when R. C. Decker hosts an old-fashioned clambake right in his own back yard.

"As a party-giver he rivals Perle Mesta," said one of his appreciative guests, "and as a cook he surpasses most women."

About a month before the clambake, which is held sometime in the latter part of August, Mr. and Mrs. Decker begin making their plans.

INVITATIONS to approximately 30 guests are sent out in the form of red construction paper lobsters, and replies are requested at least two weeks before the event, so all supplies can be ordered. The seafood and seaweed is flown in directly from Maine.

"Half of the fun is in the planning," says Dick, "and by planning and preparing in advance, you can really enjoy your own party. It is a joint project in our household," he continued, "My wife, Dottie, takes care of the invitations, decorations, the tables and cloths, ordering the vegetables and fixing the relishes. I order the seafood and take charge of the cooking, while the homemade ice cream is a joint endeavor."

THE cooking is really an ambitious enterprise when planning a clambake. In New England a pit is dug in the sands near the seashore, but in Arlington Heights it must be done in the back yard garden.

In a spot where the early summer flowers have finished their bloom, Dick digs a pit in the ground 5 feet long, 2½ feet wide and 2 feet deep. He lines both bottom and sides with large flat rocks, which he has collected on Lake Michigan's shores.

Around noon on the day of the clambake this enterprising host starts a wood fire in the pit. This he keeps burning until five o'clock, when all the coals and ashes are removed and the rocks are red hot.

THE ROCKS are covered with a layer of seaweed. Then clams, yams and sweet corn are spread on top and covered with another layer of seaweed. Next the lobsters and chicken halves, more clams and a top layer of seaweed. Mrs. Decker covers the whole pit with a tarpaulin and shovels a layer of dirt over the top to weight it down. This contains the steam which otherwise would raise the tarp up in the air and result in a heat loss.

By eight o'clock guests have arrived, the dirt is shoveled off the pit, the tarp removed and the contents are ready for eating. And what a splendid feast, indeed!

Guests seat themselves at colorful picnic tables throughout the yard. Red paper lobsters decorate the tables and the heavy paper buckets which contain the relishes and clams. There are containers of melted butter everywhere, for the clams, corn and the lobster. For the beverage a barrel of beer is provided.

GUESTS start on the clams while Dick heaps platters full of lobster, chicken, yams and sweet corn. The chicken is for those who don't care for lobster, and there are few such persons, indeed!

For dessert there is creamy homemade ice cream, made by the Deckers in a hand-crank machine.

Their screened porch is equipped with a phonograph and is available for dancing, but the most fun of this evening is in the eating itself, which takes almost hours.

WOULD YOU BELIEVE that the gentleman pictured above is getting ready to cook? Yes, R. C. Decker of Arlington Heights is preparing to dig a pit for an authentic old fashioned New England clambake right in his own back yard. This accomplished cook, who rivals Perle Mesta as a party giver, has shared his clambake know-how with the readers of this week's food column.

There are many helpful tricks in planning this event which the Deckers have learned over the years. Their first big back yard party began with a corn roast, and two years later they expanded it to a full-fledged clambake.

"I ORDER my seafood from Maine," said Dick, "but any good seafood shop will order it for you. Although seaweed is always included with the shipment, I order an extra bushel or two. It is the salt water bubbles in the seaweed which burst and create the steam in the pit," he explained. And as the clams cook, their shells crack open and the clam juice creates more steam. As a result the food has a superlative flavor."

"When ordering, we figure on a one and a half pound lobster or a half of a chicken, a minimum of a dozen clams, one yam and four ears of corn per person. Of course the vegetables are ordered locally, and in August the sweet corn is at its prime."

THE CORN is prepared by removing the silk but not the husks. Each ear is brushed with melted butter and seasoned with salt and pepper. Then it is tied with a husk. When Dick Decker removes the corn from the pit, he merely chops off the end stub and the husks are easily removed.

The lobsters, which are shipped live, are stored in the refrigerator until ready to cook. "My wife won't open the refrigerator until the lobsters are out," Mr. Decker jokingly exclaimed.

When removed from the refrigerator, Dick cuts the cord which joins the lobsters head and the first section of its body. This immediately kills it. He then slits the stomach, removes the vein and cracks both claws. The lobsters are then ready to bake.

THE chicken halves must be browned before being steamed with the seafood, and this Mrs. Decker does weeks before the clambake and stores them in the freezer.

For relishes she serves radishes, green onions and celery in heavy paper buckets. These can be procured from a paint store and decorated with paper lobsters. They are also used for serving the clams.

One gallon of the homemade ice cream is made the day of the clambake and packed heavily with cracked ice and rock salt right in the machine to keep it firm. The ice cream takes about 30 to 45 minutes to make, with Dick and Dottie taking turns at cranking until it is stiff.

"WE USE a recipe from the "Joy of Cooking" cook book" said Dick. "Although our guests often demur when dessert is mentioned, they weaken at the sight of homemade ice cream. It is a light and refreshing finale for a rich and hearty meal."

The Deckers give these authentic New England clambakes every other year. It is a unique party idea for the Midwest, lots of good fun and always successful. If you try one, be sure to use all of the methods employed by the Deckers, for their experience over the years has taught them much, and their suggestions will insure a smoothly-run operation. And what wonderful eating will be in store for you and your guests!

NOT ONLY is Dick Decker an expert at giving clambakes, but he is a talented and skillful cook both on the outdoor grill and the indoor range.

He prepares almost all of the family's Sunday dinners and likes to try new recipes as well as prepare the old stand-bys.

"I find it very relaxing, creative, and so entirely different from my work," says this salesman for the Sun Steel company. "However, I'm not interested in desserts, never prepare them and infrequently eat them. I seldom make the salad either, for this is my wife's specialty and she makes most of her own dressings."

IN addition to his culinary interests Dick is active in the Little League and has served as an umpire for three years. The Deckers live at 434 S. Dryden place in Arlington Heights and have two children, Sandy, 12, and Rick, 10.

Vanilla Ice Cream

1 cup cream
¾ to 1 cup sugar
1/8 teaspoon salt
3 cups cream
1½ teaspoons vanilla

Warm the one cup cream over low heat but do not boil. Stir in the sugar and salt until dissolved. Chill these ingredients. Add to them the remaining cream and vanilla.

Fill the ice cream container only three fourths full to allow for the expansion of the frozen cream.

To pack a freezer, allow from 3 to 6 measures of ice to one measure of coarse rock salt, according to the rapidity with which you wish to freeze the cream. The large proportion of salt will bring quicker results, but the cream is finer grained when it is frozen slowly. Pack the freezer one third full of ice before adding any salt, then add the salt and the remaining ice and salt in alternate layers around the container until the freezer is filled.

Turn the cream slowly at first until a slight pull is felt, then turn it rapidly. If the ice cream is to be used at once, turn it until it is very stiff. If the ice cream is to be packed, turn it only until it is the consistency of thick sauce.

Pour off the salt water in the freezer. Wipe the lid carefully, remove it, remove the dasher, scrape it and pack the cream down with a spoon. Place a heavy piece of waxed paper over the top of the container. Place a cork in the lid, fit it closely on the container and repack the ice cream in additional salt and ice. Cover the freezer with newspapers and a piece of carpet or other heavy material.

Makes about 1½ quarts.

Check Car Plugs Before Vacation

Sometimes a vacation trip can end even before you drive out of your neighborhood. The culprit could be spark plug failure — those mysterious little spit-fires that turn fuel into power to run the engine of your car.

In order to avoid being a co-conspirator to delaying the holiday jaunt, the Purolator Automotive research bureau asks you to heed the following advice:

BRING THE CAR to your service station for the "one plug-check" a few days before departing on your vacation. It consists of the attendant simply removing one plug which, at a glance, can reveal to him the condition of the others. If the removed plug is worn, burned or fouled, it's almost a certainty the others are too.

If the plug is in good condition, the attendant will simply flip your car's hood down, wipe your windshield and you'll be on your way in three minutes, satisfied that your vacation plans won't be delayed.

Remember also that spark plugs should be cleaned, adjusted and inspected for wear every 5,000 miles and replaced every 10,000 miles.

Mount Prospect Math Major Works On Research Project

GARY YOUNG

Four Carleton college mathematics majors are spending the summer on the Northfield, Minn., campus where, directed by Dr. Seymour Schuster, associate professor of mathematics, they are working on two seperate projects in their chosen major.

Three of the students, Miss Mary Ann Jordan, junior from St. Paul, and seniors, John Allen, Montclair, N. J., and Gary Young, Mt. Prospect, are involved in an original research project, and the fourth, David Appleyard, senior from South Haven, Mich., is developing the subject matter for a new 10th grade textbook.

PURPOSE OF the projects, made possible through a 4-year research grant awarded to Carleton in 1956 by the National Science foundation, is to encourage gifted students to do independent thinking in the field of mathematics by furthering their own academic knowledge of the subject beyond the "crutch" of textbooks and classrooms.

The research project which Miss Jordan, Mr. Allen and Mr. Young are developing, includes work on a differential equations project. They are attempting to arrive at a more general theory than the one originally discovered by Legendre, a 19th century mathematician whose work applied primarily to astronomy. The work has thus far carried the neophyte Carleton student researchers through the modern mathematical analysis of infinite dimensional geometry.

Gary Young is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Young, 324 S. Albert, and a graduate of Arlington high school.

Behind Hospital Bill Are Dedicated People

The burden of anxiety and financial cost that goes with illness and a stay in the hospital always seems heavy. Recovery takes a load off the mind, but the dent in the pocketbook has a way of lingering. along with dreams of the vacation, the new car or the new TV set that had to be postponed because of the hospital bill.

We buy merchandise and services "across the counter" where we think we get most for our money, but we resent the cost of illness because it seems to be imposed upon us. Yet we are in many cases getting the biggest bargain in what we pay for health.

A HOSPITAL does sell medicines and services "over the counter" too, but it also dispenses a lot of important things that the patient does not pay full price for.

The people who work in hospitals are better paid than they used to be, but their pay scales still lag behind comparable work in industry and the professions. A very large proportion of the work in hospitals has to be done at night and on weekends and holidays. Hospital employees don't get time and a half for this kind of duty. They may get a very slight premium in their paycheck for off shifts, but this is nothing like what industry expects to pay.

Then why do people work in hospitals? Most likely because they get extra satisfaction from knowing that they are doing important work, that they are helping people who need help. A hospital is an exciting place, where dedication and a special kind of comradeship of those who attend the sick provides something over and beyond the paycheck.

This means the patient is getting something he isn't paying for with money!

IN ADDITION to dedicated employees, there are a lot of people working in a hospital who get no wages at all. Trustees whose time and energy commands a high price "over the counters" of industry, work long extra hours to keep a hospital running smoothly and properly financed. They get no monetary compensation whatever.

Then there are the members of the service leagues, or women's auxiliaries as they are sometimes called. Their devotion to hospital work is phenomenal. If their services were priced in the labor market, they would be worth tens of thousands of dollars.

At Lutheran General hospital in Park Ridge, more than 200 women don their cherry uniforms weekly and put in time at scores of hospital tasks. Recently, the adult women have been joined by the "candystripers" or high school girls.

SINCE January 1 the Service League members have devoted an astonishing total of 27,186 hours to work in just this one hospital. Some of the time has been spent raising funds (which has the effect of cutting down the patient's hospital bill), but much of the time has been spent assisting the hospital staff and thereby reducing the need for paid personnel, which also has an important effect of lowering the cost of illness.

Yes, the hospital bill would be a lot higher if it hadn't been for all these dedicated people who work for modest wages, or who work for no wages at all. Where except in the family or in the church can you get such a bargain?

Misguided Parent

Nobody can misunderstand a boy like his own mother. —Norman Douglas.

"THE IVY FIVE," an outstanding singing group of three fellas and two beautiful girls who are fast rising as recording artists, have been added to the spectacular stage show being presented Sunday, Aug. 21, at 8 p.m. in Maine East high school. Bob Hope, famous Hollywood comedian, headlines the Laugh-O-Rama which is a benefit for the building fund of Northwest Suburban YMCA. Other guest stars include singer Anita Bryant, juggling funnyman Bobby Winters, Norm Krone and Orchestra from the Boulevard room of the Conrad Hilton, and popular TV and night club acts. Tickets to the Laugh-O-Rama are on sale at the 'Y' office, 1488 Miner st., Des Plaines, VA 4-4156, and from prominent business establishments in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Palatine. (P

Midshipman 3/C Donald J. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Reynolds of 114 Tanglewood dr., Elk Grove, was one of 42 midshipmen from the Naval academy who completed their summer training cruise July 28 aboard the destroyer leader USS Willis A. Lee.

During the cruise the midshipmen received practical "at sea" experience to help prepare them for commissions in the navy upon graduation from the academy.

The Lee visited Montreal, Canada, New York City and Bermuda during the 6-week cruise.

GOP Women Change Date of Reception

The Wheeling township Women's Republican club's reception and tea originally scheduled for August 23 has been switched to September 20, from 3 to 5 p.m., according to Mrs. George Marshall, 1162 N. Hickory, Arlington Heights.

The meeting, to be held in the home of Mrs. Andrew Duros, 15 Glenbrook, Prospect Heights, was changed in order that Congresswoman Marguerite Stitt Church (13th District) might be able to attend as the honored guest. The House of Representatives will be in session as of August 15.

MRS. WILLIAM G. Stratton, first lady of Illinois, has accepted the club's invitation to be among the guests.

Mrs. Marshall urges club members who did not hear Mrs. Arthur Waner's discussion of organizational activities within the precinct to bring their husbands and friends to the August 18 meeting at the VFW hall, Yale and Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Waner, who stresses the public relations aspect of precinct works, will present a step by step approach to contacting Republican voters.

New Catholic Parish Plans Its First Social

The Altar and Rosary society of St. Emily's, newly-established Catholic parish in the northwest suburbs, is sponsoring the first social event of many scheduled to be held, a family-style picnic, Sunday, Aug. 21, on the 10-acre church grounds on Central rd, just west of Wolf rd.

Each family will provide their own picnic tables as well as lunches, but other refreshment will be available throughout the day. Games races and other contests with prizes for all are the major items scheduled for entertainment and booths will feature merchandise.

Mrs. Dorothy Barrett of the Cumberland section, chairman of the picnic, will have charge of the parcel post booth and requests donations of packages containing items costing $1 minimum, and wrapped in brown paper to be sold at this booth. Packages may be dropped off at these three addresses: 381 Pinehurst rd., 230 Ardmore rd., 1719 E. Foundry rd., or brought to the booth the day of the picnic.

Father John McLoraine, pastor, who is also a colonel in the National Guard, will be away from the parish for the next two weeks, but will be back to attend the affair and meet all of his parishioners.

Picnic will start at 10 a.m. and end at sundown. In case of rain, the picnic will be held the following Sunday, Aug. 28.

New Catholic Parish Plans Its First Social

The Altar and Rosary society of St. Emily's, newly-established Catholic parish in the northwest suburbs, is sponsoring the first social event of many scheduled to be held, a family-style picnic, Sunday, Aug. 21, on the 10-acre church grounds on Central rd, just west of Wolf rd.

Each family will provide their own picnic tables as well as lunches, but other refreshment will be available throughout the day. Games races and other contests with prizes for all are the major items scheduled for entertainment and booths will feature merchandise.

Mrs. Dorothy Barrett of the Cumberland section, chairman of the picnic, will have charge of the parcel post booth and requests donations of packages containing items costing $1 minimum, and wrapped in brown paper to be sold at this booth. Packages may be dropped off at these three addresses: 381 Pinehurst rd., 230 Ardmore rd., 1719 E. Foundry rd., or brought to the booth the day of the picnic.

Father John McLoraine, pastor, who is also a colonel in the National Guard, will be away from the parish for the next two weeks, but will be back to attend the affair and meet all of his parishioners.

Picnic will start at 10 a.m. and end at sundown. In case of rain, the picnic will be held the following Sunday, Aug. 28.

Professor's Wife Is Killed in Auto Crash

The wife of a Northwestern university professor was killed Sunday in an accident at Rand and County Line rds. involving Earl Stockton, 23, of 123 W. Slade, Palatine.

District 3 state police said Stockton crossed the highway's double yellow line and rammed head-on into a car driven by William Stevens, 38, of 2025 First st., Glenview.

Steven's wife, Jean, died at Northwest Community hospital at 7 a.m., two hours after the accident occurred. She was bleeding profusely from a large head laceration upon arrival at the hospital.

STEVENS, who teaches at the school of engineering, suffered fractures of the right ankle and left leg, and a crushed chest.

Stockton was sent to Cook County hospital with multiple lacerations of the face and a fractured jaw and nose. He has been charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, driving on the wrong side of the road, involuntary manslaughter, and having no operator's license.

IN OTHER accidents reported by district three state police:

A collision at Barrington and Palatine rds. August 7 involving Robert Husak, 19, of Westchester, and Leroy Burdick, 35, of 255 S. Hamen, Palatine, brought three patients to Northwest Community hospital.

Burdick pulled onto Barrington rd. from Palatine rd. into the path of Husak's auto, police said. Husak suffered lacerations of the right eyebrow and temple. One passenger, Richard Ellstrom, 18, of Elmhurst, was treated for contusions of the right shoulder. The other, Edward Vitner, 20, of Elmhurst, suffered abrasions of the left arm, forearm, and chest.

Charges of failure to yield the right of way and not possessing a license were leveled against Burdick.

Damage to Husak's car was estimated at $900, while Burdick's was a total wreck.

IN ANOTHER accident August 7, Lee Coleman, 70, of Oak Park, and Sharon Graff, 16, of Glenview, collided at Highway 83 and Hinz rd.

Miss Graff pulled onto 83 into the path of Coleman's auto, according to police. She was charged with failure to yield the right of way. Damage was estimated at $750.

At State and Rand rd. August 6 two Arlington Heights residents were involved in a $550 accident. William J. Vesillus, 53, of 10 S. Belmont, had stopped for a red light on State rd. when Harvey Sullivan, 48, of Box 55 Rand rd., turned right from Rand and rammed into him, state police said.

Also on August 6, a three car collision was caused by an unidentified motorist at Oakton st. and Highway 83. The motorist, who fled from the scene on foot, struck Erich Tewes, 53, of the Lutheran Child Welfare association, Addison, in the rear, police reported.

TEWES was pushed into a car driven by James W. Lyman, 29, of 1222 Carol, Park Ridge. Tewes and Lyman had slowed down waiting for another automobile to enter a private drive.

Owner of the car driven by the unidentified man is Isaac Helms, 941 W. Higgins rd., Elk Grove township. Total damage was set at $700.

On August 2 at Highways 53 and 62 Thomas Hobbs of Plainfield, Ind., struck a car driven by James Engue, 36, of 106 S. Elm, Palatine, according to police. The accident took place as Engue was attempting to make a left turn onto 62.

Damage was estimated at $600.

Professor's Wife Is Killed in Auto Crash

The wife of a Northwestern university professor was killed Sunday in an accident at Rand and County Line rds. involving Earl Stockton, 23, of 123 W. Slade, Palatine.

District 3 state police said Stockton crossed the highway's double yellow line and rammed head-on into a car driven by William Stevens, 38, of 2025 First st., Glenview.

Steven's wife, Jean, died at Northwest Community hospital at 7 a.m., two hours after the accident occurred. She was bleeding profusely from a large head laceration upon arrival at the hospital.

STEVENS, who teaches at the school of engineering, suffered fractures of the right ankle and left leg, and a crushed chest.

Stockton was sent to Cook County hospital with multiple lacerations of the face and a fractured jaw and nose. He has been charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, driving on the wrong side of the road, involuntary manslaughter, and having no operator's license.

IN OTHER accidents reported by district three state police:

A collision at Barrington and Palatine rds. August 7 involving Robert Husak, 19, of Westchester, and Leroy Burdick, 35, of 255 S. Hamen, Palatine, brought three patients to Northwest Community hospital.

Burdick pulled onto Barrington rd. from Palatine rd. into the path of Husak's auto, police said. Husak suffered lacerations of the right eyebrow and temple. One passenger, Richard Ellstrom, 18, of Elmhurst, was treated for contusions of the right shoulder. The other, Edward Vitner, 20, of Elmhurst, suffered abrasions of the left arm, forearm, and chest.

Charges of failure to yield the right of way and not possessing a license were leveled against Burdick.

Damage to Husak's car was estimated at $900, while Burdick's was a total wreck.

IN ANOTHER accident August 7, Lee Coleman, 70, of Oak Park, and Sharon Graff, 16, of Glenview, collided at Highway 83 and Hinz rd.

Miss Graff pulled onto 83 into the path of Coleman's auto, according to police. She was charged with failure to yield the right of way. Damage was estimated at $750.

At State and Rand rd. August 6 two Arlington Heights residents were involved in a $550 accident.

William J. Vesillus, 53, of 10 S. Belmont, had stopped for a red light on State rd. when Harvey Sullivan, 48, of Box 55 Rand rd., turned right from Rand and rammed into him, state police said.

Also on August 6, a three car collision was caused by an unidentified motorist at Oakton st. and Highway 83. The motorist, who fled from the scene on foot, struck Erich Tewes, 53, of the Lutheran Child Welfare association, Addison, in the rear, police reported.

TEWES was pushed into a car driven by James W. Lyman, 29, of 1222 Carol, Park Ridge. Tewes and Lyman had slowed down waiting for another automobile to enter a private drive.

Owner of the car driven by the unidentified man is Isaac Helms, 941 W. Higgins rd., Elk Grove township. Total damage was set at $700.

On August 2 at Highways 53 and 62 Thomas Hobbs of Plainfield, Ind., struck a car driven by James Engue, 36, of 106 S. Elm, Palatine, according to police. The accident took place as Engue was attempting to make a left turn onto 62.

Damage was estimated at $600.

Quarterback Slot Poses Problem on Bradley Eleven

The weight of the campaign has shifted shoulders in the Bradley University football scheme.

Coach Billy Stone has lost the services of a very experienced quarterback in Ron Hermann for the 1960 season. The 6'1'', 185-pounder suffered a severe setback in his scholastic backfield and won't be eligible for the Braves this fall. Stepping into Bradley's number one signal-calling spot is Dean Mefford, 6'0'', 180-pound, 20-year old junior from Carlinville.

Last year Hermann continued the Braves' tradition of excellent passing from their quarterbacks as he completed 48 of 111 for 895-yards and 12 touchdowns. Mefford appeared in but six of the nine games and played a little over 75 minutes.

DURING THE last schedule Mefford threw 25 passes completing 12 for 165 yards and one touchdown. He will have to do considerably more passing this year if the Braves are to improve on the 2-7 mark of 1959.

When the gridders begin reporting for fall practice later this month Mefford's understudies are expected to be frosh. While Coach Stone will have enough returnees to field a potentially strong first unit, it will once again be the lack of depth which will hinder the Braves' chances the most.

As has been the case with the Peorians the past couple of seasons, the better than average freshmen will have ample opportunities to show their wares. In their first two games of the season Bradley's gridders oppose Butler (Sept. 17) and Western Illinois (Sept. 24) in Peoria, and both foes went through the 1959 slate without a loss.

Two Fastest Dragsters Set For Match Race

The two fastest dragsters in the world will engage in a best two-of three match race Sunday, Aug. 14, at the Great Lakes Dragway, Union Grove., for the purpose of determining the 1960 world title holder.

There will be three runs together plus three individual runs for the top speed in an all-out effort to break the tie.

Don Garlits of Tampa, Fla., holds the world's elapsed time record of 8.23 seconds for the quarter mile with his famous "Swamp Rat." Chris Karamesines of Chicago holds the world's top speed record of 204.54 mph with his equally famous "Chizler."

The "Swamp Rat" has turned a top speed of 200 mph while the "Chizler" has run the quarter in 8.34 seconds. Both of these potent dragsters are powered by Chrysler 300 Series engines with GMC Superchargers on top.

Common Foes

Michigan State and Purdue wrestling teams meet three times during the 1961 season.

Baltimore Coach Warns Gridders On Complacency

The Baltimore Colts have been warned to apply themselves assiduously to the task of preparation for the College All-Star game, or else.

Coach Weeb Ewbank has told the world champions, who return to Chicago on Aug. 12 for their second successive appearance against the collegians, that personnel changes may be just around the corner.

Ewbank has further asserted that he has not forgotten the Colts' midseason slump last fall. He has warned squad members of "fat headedness" as they approach the All-Star game.

"THERE IS NO doubt that last year we got in trouble because of fat headedness," Ewbank told the world champions at the Colts' Western Maryland college training base.

"You fellows have to grow up and realize every game is like a championship game," the Colt coach continued. "Last year you began to believe the fans and the sports writers, who thought you couldn't lose.

"Don't be cocky about the All-Star game. It was only year before last that the Detroit Lions made the mistake of underestimating the All-Stars, and they got their ears pinned back."

Tight Battle For Friday Night Lead

Gunnell Lanes and Union Hotel are going down to the wire to see which squad will represent the Friday night club in the Paddock tournament.

Gunnell's has 62 points and Union Hotel has 61½ markers. Good luck to both teams on this last Friday night play. Gunnell's meets Wheeling Lumber and Union Hotel battles Arlington Lanes.

Low gross was won by Bob Noble and Al Steingraber with 38s. Art Kehe played his best game of the season when he shot a 40-11 for a 29 to win low net.

BIRDIES were recorded by Len Baeuchler and Bud Haut on the 285 yard No. 8. Three deuces on the 167 yard par three were gained by Tom Kouros, Bob Martin, and Kehe. Tom Watt hit a two wood and dropped his 30 foot putt for a three on the 410 yard fourth.

Low putts for last week was 13, but there were nine players with 14 putts so the league is showing some impressive putting at this stage of the season.

Movers Need Two Points

Almost as sure as death and taxes is one descriptive way of describing the first and last place teams in the Old Orchard scratch league for next week's Paddock deadline.

The Pitzen Movers team captained by Marty Gilmore look the leaders while the Arlington Rest Home teamlooks like the league "holder - uppers." Pitzen's need only two points Friday to cinch the Paddock berth or can ease in by having the Peterson Floor & Tile setters lose a combine of two points.

There were a number of fine scores turned in last Friday and a retake include 35's by Hendricks and Len Arnold over the front nine. Hendricks birdied No. 6 with a bogey on No. 2, while Arnold also bogeyed No. 2 and birdied the 400 yd. 7th.

The versatile Arnold's par golf wasn't enough to match Lou Sabo's match winning 34 via eight pars and a birdie deuce on the 140 yd. water hole 4th. Front nine 36's included Bob Blessing and Don Murphy while Don Hager collected a par 36 on the back side with a bogey on No. 18 and a birdie on No. 16.

Deuces were made by Frank Matyas (No. 4), John Andrup (No. 8), Bob Kronn (No. 12), Bob Lee (No. 12) and "Pete" Peterson (No.12). Peterson's deuce was 12 inches short of rolling in for a hole-in-one.

Slicers Retain Loop Lead

The Slicers retained a narrow lead in the Hatlen Heights Friday Twilight league as the six teams moved into the last three weeks of play this week.

The leaders took an 8-5 beating from the fourth place Hookers last week, narrowing their first place margin over the Bogeys to 1.3 points. The Putters, who lost a second place battle to the Bogeys 7.8-6.4, are 1.8 points off the pace.

Low Gross score again went to Jim Carter of the Putters with a 39 over the Mt. Prospect country club's back nine.

Hookers 8, Slicers 5

Jordan Italia with a 34, and Dan Francis and Alternate Orv Williams with 35s took low net honors. Ed Pool carded a birdie on the fifth hole.

Area Swimmers Gain Slots in Weekend Races

Twenty-two teams and several unattached swimmers from Illinois competed in the Junior Olympic Long Course events in the Columbus Park pool last weekend, including numerous area athletes.

Paul Hembd finished third in the 50 meter breaststroke, and Barb Raasch gained a third in the 50 meter breaststroke. Bob Brown picked up two fourths in the 100 meter freestyle and 100 meter butterfly.

Dick Evans tied for fourth in the 50 meter freestyle, and Doug Rice placed in three events; third in the 200 meter individual medley, sixth in the 200 meter breaststroke; and seventh in the 100 meter freestyle.

Marguerite Dalton placed fifth in the 100 meter breaststroke, and Bill Raasch picked up a tie for fourth in the 100 meter freestyle and sixth in the 100 meter breaststroke.

In the Chicago Swim club relays Pamela Hembd finished second in the 200 meter freestyle and third in the 200 meter medley. Barb Johnson and Barb Raasch swam on Portage Park's medley relay which finished second.

Walls Unit Qualifies

Again this year the Walls team of the Arlington VFW golf league will go into the Paddock Publications tournament.

They picked up 4½ points Monday night to bring their total to 59½. The second place Jones team took a beating from the Demarets, picking up only 1½ markers.

Capt. Hank Hajek of the Walls, still on vacation, will be glad to see that his team—Dahl, Wood, Neal, and Fegan—held the line.

"Ike" Isaacson took low gross honors for the evening, shooting 37, one over par on the back nine. McDermott took low net 32.

What happened to the Sneads' teamwork? Only one man turned out - Harold Schaefer - and he had to come in from Cary, Ill. to play.

Quarterback Slot Poses Problem on Bradley Eleven

The weight of the campaign has shifted shoulders in the Bradley University football scheme.

Coach Billy Stone has lost the services of a very experienced quarterback in Ron Hermann for the 1960 season. The 6'1", 185-pounder suffered a severe setback in his scholastic backfield and won't be eligible for the Braves this fall. Stepping into Bradley's number one signal-calling spot is Dean Meffort, 6'0", 180-pound, 20-year old junior from Carlinville.

Last year Hermann continued the Braves' tradition of excellent passing from their quarterbacks as he completed 48 of 111 for 895-yards and 12 touchdowns. Mefford appeared in but six of the nine games and played a little over 75 minutes.

DURING THE last schedule Mefford threw 25 passes completing 12 for 165 yards and one touchdown. He will have to do considerably more passing this year if the Braves are to improve on the 2-7 mark of 1959.

When the gridders begin reporting for fall practice later this month Mefford's understudies are expected to be frosh. While Coach Stone will have enough returnees to field a potentially strong first unit, it will once again be the lack of depth which will hinder the Braves' chances the most.

As has been the case with the Peorians the past couple of seasons, the better than average freshmen will have ample opportunities to show their wares. In their first two games of the season Bradley's gridders oppose Butler (Sept. 17) and Western Illinois (Sept. 24) in Peoria, and both foes went through the 1959 slate without a loss.

Two Fastest Dragsters Set For Match Race

The two fastest dragsters in the world will engage in a best two-of three match race Sunday, Aug. 14, at the Great Lakes Dragway, Union Grove., for the purpose of determining the 1960 world title holder.

There will be three runs together plus three individual runs for the top speed in an all-out effort to break the tie.

Don Garlits of Tampa, Fla., holds the world's elapsed time record of 8.23 seconds for the quarter mile with his famous "Swamp Rat." Chris Karamesines of Chicago holds the world's top speed record of 204.54 mph with his equally famous "Chizler."

The "Swamp Rat" has turned a top speed of 200 mph while the "Chizler" has run the quarter in 8.34 seconds. Both of these potent dragsters are powered by Chrysler 300 Series engines with GMC Superchargers on top.

Common Foes

Michigan State and Purdue wrestling teams meet three times during the 1961 season.

Baltimore Coach Warns Gridders On Complacency

The Baltimore Colts have been warned to apply themselves assiduously to the task of preparation for the College All-Star game, or else.

Coach Weeb Ewbank has told the world champions, who return to Chicago on Aug. 12 for their second successive appearance against the collegians, that personnel changes may be just around the corner.

Ewbank has further asserted that he has not forgotten the Colts' midseason slump last fall. He has warned squad members of "fat headedness" as they approach the All-Star game.

"THERE IS NO doubt that last year we got in trouble because of fat headedness," Ewbank told the world champions at the Colts' Western Maryland college training base.

"You fellows have to grow up and realize every game is like a championship game," the Colt coach continued. "Last year you began to believe the fans and the sports writers, who thought you couldn't lose.

"Don't be cocky about the All-Star game. It was only year before last that the Detroit Lions made the mistake of underestimating the All-Stars, and they got their ears pinned back."

Tight Battle For Friday Night Lead

Gunnell Lanes and Union Hotel are going down to the wire to see which squad will represent the Friday night club in the Paddock tournament.

Gunnell's has 62 points and Union Hotel has 61½ markers. Good luck to both teams on this last Friday night play. Gunnell's meets Wheeling Lumber and Union Hotel battles Arlington Lanes.

Low gross was won by Bob Noble and Al Steingraber with 38s. Art Kehe played his best game of the season when he shot a 40-11 for a 29 to win low net.

BIRDIES were recorded by Len Baeuchler and Bud Haut on the 285 yard No. 8. Three deuces on the 167 yard par three were gained by Tom Kouros, Bob Martin, and Kehe. Tom Watt hit a two wood and dropped his 30 foot putt for a three on the 410 yard fourth.

Low putts for last week was 13, but there were nine players with 14 putts so the league is showing some impressive putting at this stage of the season.

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by BOB FRISK

THE CHEERS AND tears of high school athletics are behind them.

The next challenge — college.

A group of teenagers who gave Arlington high school some outstanding athletic teams in four years will be heading toward colleges throughout the United States in approximately one month.

They'll be located from Stanford, Calif., to Providence, R. I.; from Ann Arbor, Mich., to Durham, N. C. Several will stay in Illinois. Others will travel just outside the state to Lafayette, Ind., and Beloit, Wis.

But one thing is certain about this outstanding group of competitors. They'll be missed!

Athlete of the Year George Bork, a letterman in three sports, is still debating between the University of Michigan and Northern Illinois in DeKalb. All Mr. Bork did to the AHS record books last year was rewrite them — in two prominent places. His 70 completions for 1,002 yards in football and 497 markers in basketball are standards for future Cards to shoot at.

GEORGE BORK

Mike Dundy, that tireless performer who was an All-Stater in football and track, narrowed his numerous offers to the University of Illinois and Stanford and selected the Pacific Coast school. Gene Dahlquist, a three letterman and an outstanding competitor, is set for the University of Arizona in Tucson along with golf standout Al Kruse, West Suburban medalist for two straight seasons and state runnerup in 1960.

Southern Illinois in Carbondale has landed baseball standout Jim Blake, a .385 conference hitter; gymnast Tom Geocaris, still rings champ in Illinois for two years; gridder Jim Ruffer; and All-WSC wrestler Jerry Greer.

Future Ivy Leaguers are Bob Inman, Rick Johnston, and Dick Goeltz. Inman, who lettered in tennis and basketball and was named to the loop's all-star cage unit, is headed for Harvard with Johnston, an outstanding scholar as well as a letterman in fotball and basketball, going to Princeton. Goeltz, who lettered as a catcher on Arlington's outstanding baseball team last spring, has named Brown University in Providence, R. I., for his future education.

Arlington high's contributions to the Big Ten are Terry Harris, Carl Massa, Roy Klehm, Dan Striegel, George Shartle, and Al Westergaard — and possibly Bork.

Harris, an all-conference wrestler, and Massa, a starter on the Cards' regional champions and sectional runnerups in basketball, will attend the University of Illinois, and All-WSC gridder Roy Klehm will journey to East Lansing, Mich., and Michigan State.

Striegel, an All-Stater in football and track, is headed for Michigan in Ann Arbor, and Shartle, fourth place finisher in state wrestling at 120 pounds, will travel just a few miles to Evanston and Northwestern university. Westergaard, a football and track letterman, has selected Purdue.

All-conference baseball hurler Fred (Fritz) Peterson will go to Northern Illinois, and another baseball standout, John Lind, has decidede on Beloit. Lind's .512 plate mark in the West Suburban last spring is one of the highest averages ever recorded in the league.

Track standout Chuck Phelan, second place finisher in the state 880 and an All-Stater in the cinder sport, moves into the Atlantic Coast conference when he enters Duke in the fall, and track and football letterman Tony Stavros is planning on Illinois Tech.

The record made by these boys and several others at Arlington high during the past four years speaks for itself.

We hope they experience continued success in their future endeavors.

WHAT HAPPENS TO Bloom's athletes now that voters rejected a proposal to increase the educational tax rate — for the third time — and in the process eliminated the athletic program at the Chicago Heights school?

If they remain at Bloom, they won't be athletes. And Illinois high school association regulations may keep the boys from transferring to other schools.

The only way a Bloom athlete may compete at any other school this coming term is by having his family move to another school district. If a Bloom student transfers to Thornton as a tuition student, and his family remains residents of the Bloom district, he will be ineligible for athletics for a period of one year.

Several outstanding athletes, hopeful of an athletic scholarship as a way of obtaining a college education, may never get that chance now.

WE CAN'T GET too excited over Friday's football spectacle in Soldier Field. Have you noticed the prominent shortage of 1959's All-Americans on the "All-Star" roster?

How can you call this team representative of collegiate football's top talent of 1959 when such players as Penn State's Richie Lucas, Louisiana State's Billy Cannon, Illinois' Bill Burrell, and Northwestern's Ron Burton aren't even included?

The Colts in a walk — if they're mentally ready for this one! About 28-7.

Three Additions At Prospect High

Two new coaches and a trainer have been added to the Prospect high school athletic staff, Howard Lester, the Knights' athletic director, announced recently.

Ken Arneson, a graduate of Illinois State Normal university, will handle varsity cross country and frosh baseball, and Donald Arsenau, a University of Illinois grad, will serve as trainer and sponsor of the Varsity Club.

Maurice Levy, who was a full-time Driver Education teacher at Prospect last year, moves into the coaching ranks in 1960-61 and will assist in wrestling and tennis.

Arneson is taking over for Bob Meissner in cross country as Meissner has dropped out of coaching and entered the sporting goods business.

LESTER ALSO announced certain changes within the staff for the coming athletic campaigns. Dick Kinneman will handle frosh-soph cross country instead of frosh-soph baseball but will continue as head basketball coach.

J. O. Jackson, one of the "commuters" between Arlington high and Prospect last year, will work with football and track at PHS, and Frank Wright will handle the intramural program in addition to his job as head golf coach.

Larry Wyllie, frosh baseball mentor last spring, will move up to the frosh-soph diamond ranks, and Bob Hoese will head the JV football squad and soph basketball team. Ted Wissen is slated to work with the soph football squad and junior-varsity cagers.

THE JUNIOR - varsity aggregations will play the preliminary contests in every Interim association football and basketball encounter.

The rest of the staff remains the same. Chuck Aldrich will head the varsity baseball squad and Bill Beckman will guide the football fortunes. Dick Mudge and Rick Farris are the head men in wrestling and gymnastics respectively, and Farris also coaches the varsity tennis squad. Bob Scott is the head track coach.

Both Mudge and Scott will assist in football this fall.

ROUNDING OUT the Prospect high school athletic staff for 1960-61 are Rusty Dowell in football, Hal Henson in football and wrestling, Jack Murray in gymnastics, and Lou Schairer in basketball and baseball.

Wyllie will assist in basketball as well as head the frosh-soph baseball team.

Preliminaries Announced for PHS Athletes

The Prospect Knights will inaugurate the 1960 football season against St. Procopius on Saturday evening, September 17 and cross country at Fenton on Friday, September 16.

The Illinois High School Association requires fourteen days of practice before a boy may participate in his first football game. It is important that each participant complete the following preliminaries before the opening of practice on Monday, August 29.

1. Return your complete physical examination report to the school prior to checking out equipment.
2. Bring your parent permit card with you to your first practice.
3. Bring your school fee receipt with you verifying the purchase of athletic insurance.

School fees may be paid in the main office at Prospect High School between Monday, August 22 and the opening day of practice.

Yanks Top Pirates

Three More Outfits Cop Arlington Titles

Ralph Welton's Yankees, Ken Krischke's Sox, and Ed Denten's Eagles are the latest Arlington Heights baseball aggregations to claim 1960 championships.

The Yankees rolled to the Major division crown with 4-3, 8-1 conquests of the Pirates, and the Sox blasted the Oaks 17-6 for the Junior loop title.

Tallying 12 runs in the first inning, the Eagles bumped the Vikings 13-1 for the Varsity division championship.

IN THE Intermediate loop the Huskies, representing the southside, and the Saints, representing the northside, will meet for the coveted 1960 title.

Welton's Yanks opened the series with the Pirates with a 4-3 decision, tallying the deciding run in the visitor's half of the sixth frame.

A single by Ben Gow with the bases loaded drove in the winning run. The Yankees came from behind with a run in the fifth, then went on to push across the clincher.

RICK WHITEMAN hurled for the victors, fanning seven. Dix, the losing pitcher, fanned nine but was bothered with his control, walking five.

Conley had a pair of triples to take batting honors in the opening contest of the Little League World Series.

Yankees	020 011—4	9 0
Pirates	001 020—3	7 2

HOMERS BY Whiteman and Jim Welton powered the Yankees to an 8-1 victory over the Pirates last Thursday for the Arlington Heights Major division championship.

Whiteman and Welton also each collected a triple and Whiteman added a single to carry off hitting honors. Jim Bashleben doubled for the Yankees.

Johnny Keyes held the losers to four hits and was in trouble only in the fifth inning when a leadoff triple by Baer led to the Pirates' only tally.

Yankees	000 044—8	14 0

THE EAGLES didn't waste any time convincing the Vikings that they wanted that Varsity League title. Denten's crew countered 12 runs in the first inning and coasted home with a 13-1 decision.

Tossi was the winner and Daly the loser although Johnson relieved Daly in the first and pitched shutout ball until the seventh.

Boehm and Jerry Brown had the long hits of the day, both collecting triples.

Eagles	(12)00 000 1—13-10
Vikings	001 000 0— 1- 5

GLANTZ bested Buttenob as the Sox rolled past the Oaks 17-6 for the Junior division title. Cordova had a double for the Sox and Whitnell crashed a bases-loaded triple for the Oaks.

No line score or other information concerning the game were reported.

In Intermediate play a three-way tie for the first half title was decided ina playoff that found the Colonels edging the Redbirds 10-9 and the Saints, drawing a bye, stopping the Colonels 9-1 for the title.

In second half play the Saints blasted the Colonels 12-3 to resolve that deadlock.

Mark Frase tossed a no-hitter in the Saints' impressive 9-1 win over the Colonels, fanning 13 and facing only 21 batters in the six inning contest. In addition, the talented little moundsman also registered a pair of homers. Arndt also cracked two round-trippers for the Saints.

Saints	221 040—9	10
Colonels	000 000—1	0

THE SAINTS erupted for 10 runs in the final two innings in the 12-3 rout of the Colonels for second half laurels.

Klusing, Frase, and Arndt rapped homers for the winners and Stigger collected two doubles as Klinke worked on the mound. Shawhan absorbed the defeat.

Ohl, Chernicky AHS Newcomers

Two Purdue university graduates—both letter winners in Big Ten football—will join the Arlington high athletic staff for the 1960-61 school year.

The coaching assignments for the coming campaign, released last week by Athletic Director Wally Grace, list Dick Ohl and Steve Chernicky as the newcomers to the AHS staff.

Ohl will assist in track and frosh-soph football, and Chernicky will serve as line coach in football and assistant track coach.

Ohl, 27, was an All-Stater in football at Champaign, Ill., high school in 1950 and 1951 and spent two years at the University of Illinois before entering the service. Upon release from the Army he enrolled at Purdue and lettered as a right halfback on the Boilermakers' varsity, graduating in 1959.

CHERNICKY, a 6-1, 200-pounder, graduated from Purdue in 1957 and has coached at Benedictine high school in Cleveland, Ohio, and at Purdue with the freshman gridders. Chernicky, who gained two varsity football letters at Purdue, coached the regimental and post teams at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., while in the Army.

There are no changes in the head varsity coaching slots at Arlington. "Bus" Ormsbee will handle football and Russ Attis cross country in the fall, and Frank Bohac and Bob Emmons will guide the basketball and wrestling squads in the winter. Gay Hughes will again be in charge of the gymnasts.

In the spring campaign Bob Baker will coach baseball with Attis handling track, Ralph Meyer golf, and Ken Schaller tennis.

ASSISTING Ormsbee and Chernicky with the varsity gridders will be Norm Patberg and Sid Brown with Brown heading the junior-varsity eleven. Bill Daletski, head frosh coach in 1959, has the frosh-soph squad this fall, and Chuck Harrington will head the frosh "A" eleven. Baker and Julius Fliehler will work with the "B's."

Bohac will work with Attis in cross country, handling the frosh-soph harriers.

Basketball assistants are Patberg (junior - varsity), Schaller (frosh-soph), and Rog Steingraber and Bob Rees (frosh). Fliehler and Harrington will handle the frosh-soph and frosh wrestling squads respectively, and Mike Karon will enter his second year as frosh-soph gymnastics mentor.

EMMONS, Chernicky, and Ohl will be Attis' track assistants with Ormsbee, Rees, and Art Brownell working with the underclassmen in baseball. Steingraber will coach the frosh-soph tennis team.

There will be no frosh-soph golf coach next spring as Meyer will be in charge of both links aggregations.

Brownell will direct the Boys' Intramurals program in the winter only, and Larry Anderson will continue as head trainer.

Announce Registration Dates at AHS

Registration for all football and cross country condidates at Arlington high school, including frosh, will be held Monday through Friday, Aug. 22-26, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon in the office of H. W. Grace, athletic director.

Before any athlete registers at Arlington, however, he must comply with the following items:

(1) physical given or mailed to school nurse.

(2) general registration for school completed with fees paid; bring receipt showing payment of fees when registering.

(3) parents' card signed and ready on day of athletic registration.

The amount of the football fees will be announced in Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's letter. Cross country boys will pay required insurance fee and towel fee.

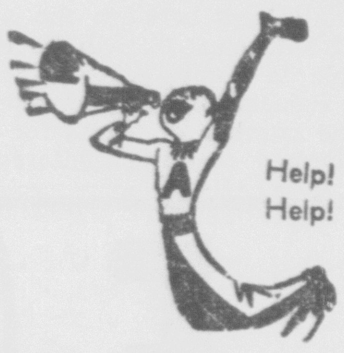
KICKIN' IT AROUND



by BOB FRISK

THE CHEERS AND tears of high school athletics are behind them.

The next challenge — college.

A group of teenagers who gave Arlington high school some outstanding athletic teams in four years will be heading toward colleges throughout the United States in approximately one month.

They'll be located from Stanford, Calif., to Providence, R. I.; from Ann Arbor, Mich., to Durham, N. C. Several will stay in Illinois. Others will travel just outside the state to Lafayette, Ind., and Beloit, Wis.

GEORGE BORK

But one thing is certain about this outstanding group of competitors. They'll be missed!

Athlete of the Year George Bork, a letterman in three sports, is still debating between the University of Michigan and Northern Illinois in DeKalb. All Mr. Bork did to the AHS record books last year was rewrite them — in two prominent places. His 70 completions for 1,002 yards in football and 497 markers in basketball are standards for future Cards to shoot at.

Mike Dundy, that tireless performer who was an All-Stater in football and track, narrowed his numerous offers to the University of Illinois and Stanford and selected the Pacific Coast school. Gene Dahlquist, a three letterman and an outstanding competitor, is set for the University of Arizona in Tucson along with golf standout Al Kruse, West Suburban medalist for two straight seasons and state runnerup in 1960.

Southern Illinois in Carbondale has landed baseball standout Jim Blake, a .385 conference hitter; gymnast Tom Geocaris, still rings champ in Illinois for two years; gridder Jim Ruffer; and All-WSC wrestler Jerry Greer.

Future Ivy Leaguers are Bob Inman, Rick Johnston, and Dick Goeltz. Inman, who lettered in tennis and basketball and was named to the loop's all-star cage unit, is headed for Harvard with Johnston, an outstanding scholar as well as a letterman in fotball and basketball, going to Princeton. Goeltz, who lettered as a catcher on Arlington's outstanding baseball team last spring, has named Brown University in Providence, R. I., for his future education.

Arlington high's contributions to the Big Ten are Terry Harris, Carl Massa, Roy Klehm, Dan Striegel, George Shartle, and Al Westergaard — and possibly Bork.

Harris, an all-conference wrestler, and Massa, a starter on the Cards' regional champions and sectional runnerups in basketball, will attend the University of Illinois, and All-WSC gridder Roy Klehm will journey to East Lansing, Mich., and Michigan State.

Striegel, an All-Stater in football and track, is headed for Michigan in Ann Arbor, and Shartle, fourth place finisher in state wrestling at 120 pounds, will travel just a few miles to Evanston and Northwestern university. Westergaard, a football and track letterman, has selected Purdue.

All-conference baseball hurler Fred (Fritz) Peterson will go to Northern Illinois, and another baseball standout, John Lind, has decidede on Beloit. Lind's .512 plate mark in the West Suburban last spring is one of the highest averages ever recorded in the league.

Track standout Chuck Phelan, second place finisher in the state 880 and an All-Stater in the cinder sport, moves into the Atlantic Coast conference when he enters Duke in the fall, and track and football letterman Tony Stavros is planning on Illinois Tech.

The record made by these boys and several others at Arlington high during the past four years speaks for itself.

We hope they experience continued success in their future endeavors.

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McELROY

NEXT WEEK Wednesday Inverness Golf Club at Palatine will hold its annual Stan Arendt Day to honor their pro who has been with the club 34 years. Arendt came to the nine hole Meadowbrook Golf Club in 1926 when it was owned by the Cudahy Packing Company as a combination membership and daily fee course. Later the McIntosh interests purchased the course and surrounding territory and made it into an 18 hole layout named Inverness. There have been many changes and developments in Stan's 34 years at the club. He is the only person identified with the club all these years. The annual special day is a fitting tribute to one who has devoted a lifetime to the golf club and on top of that is one of the most friendly and considerate persons you could ever meet.

Stan Arendt's life has been one of golf since he started caddying at the Ravisloe golf club on the south side of Chicago at the age of nine. Arendt has a distinction we have never heard of being equalled in that he made two consecutive holes in one. The Ravisloe course had two par three holes in succession and Stan at the age of 13 in a caddy tournament aced them on consecutive shots. One of Stan's fondest memories is the golf prowess of his son, Stanley Junior, a war hero who did not return from the Korean conflict. Stan Jr. holds the course record at Inverness with a score of 67. He could hit the longest shots of anyone we have ever seen play at the club in the 29 years we have played out there. Stan Senior seldom plays golf now due to health reasons but next Wednesday, on his annual day, will play a round with some of the host of golfing friends who come out to honor and wish him well.

Golf is moving up fast as a spectator sport in the field of professional athletics. Pro football was at the top last year with an average of 43,984 but golf moved up to second place with an average of 25,709 attendance for each of 43 official PGA tournaments. Baseball was third with 15,894, hockey fourth with 11,272, and racing fifth with 9,053.

FOOTBALL IS NOT far away. At most schools in the area equipment will be issued on Saturday, August 27 with the first day of practice allowed by Illinois State High School Association rules coming up Monday, August 29. The rules forbid any organized practice prior to that date including meeting to discuss plans or plays.

Boys may get themselves in condition on an individual basis but not as an organized group and a coach may not be present. After practice starts each player must have 15 days of practice before playing in the first game and no practice games or scrimmages with other than members of the high school squad may be held in this training period.

This rule about football practice applies to the period from the close of the season in November until the last Monday in August. Spring practice is thus outlawed in Illinois high schools. The same applies to basketball with no practice allowed between the close of the state tournament and October 1. The North Suburban Conference of which Palatine is a member allows no basketball practice until November 1 in order to encourage basketball players to engage in fall sports.

To be eligible to play football this fall a player must have passed three courses, which carry full credit, in the second semester of last school year. He must also maintain passing grades in three of four courses during the current season. He may not have reached the age of 19, must live with parents or guardian in the district where he competes, and may not have played in an all-star game or attended a sports clinic or coaching school.

A boy who moves to another district during the summer may be eligible at once when school opens unless he came from a private or parochial high school. In that case he would also be eligible if he had not competed in any sports at the private school. If he had, he must attend the public high a full year before being eligible. This is to prevent public schools from recruiting good athletes from their district who are attending parochial high schools. Parochial and private schools have no district lines while public schools do. If a boy transfers from one public high school to another during the year he must attend 30 school days before being eligible providing he meets all other requirements.

The Illinois Association rules were made by a voluntary association to which nearly all the high schools in the state belong. The principals of the schools vote on any change in rules or any new rules proposed.

There have been cases where parents and others have sought to get an injunction against a school to force the authorities to allow a certain boy to play even though he did not meet the state requirements. All such suits have failed and the courts have ruled that high school athletics is not a proper public school activity within the scope of physical education. The association which makes the rules is a voluntary one and a school does not have to belong to it. (There would be no one to play however, if an Illinois school decided not to join or was dropped from the association).

The members of the association may vote its rules and if they dislike the will of the majority the schools may withdraw. The courts rule that athletics does not fall in the same category as physical education which in most states is required of all students. Athletics activities are open to all students who can meet the requirements of eligibility, training, practice, ability, and other bases to be determined by state association, school, and coaching staff. Athletic participation is a PRIVILEGE and not a RIGHT.

YOU HAVE ALL heard of the Callaway system of handicapping in golf but probably like us never took the time to find out just how it works. It is a system used to determine the handicap for a player in a tournament when he has no established handicap at a golf club. It is figured after the score card is turned in based on the score which has been made. Here is how it works based on the gross score you have made: 72 or under — no handicap. 73-75—deduct half of score on worst hole. 76-80—deduct worst hole. 81-85—deduct worst hole plus half of next worst. 86-90—deduct two worst holes. 91-95 deduct two worst holes plus half of third worst. 96-100—deduct three worst holes. Unless you fall into the low score for any breakpoint of a division you are not likely to match par even with this handicap.

Sports Illustrated carried an article last week about Dick Groat, the great competitor at short, who is team leader of the league leading Pittsburg Pirates. Nothing flashy about Groat they say but he hits the singles when they are needed and provides that never give up spirit. Groat lived up to this publicity last Saturday. San Francisco tied the score to go extra innings and got two runs in the 10th but the Pirates bounced right back and got 3 to win, all on singles, and Groat batted in the clincher.

Four Units Seek Tournament Berth In Twilight Loop

The Arlington Heights twilight golf league is involved in a battle for the top position with four of the 12 teams scrambling for the top slot which is still held by Koops Mustard.

Koops picked up 7½ points on Friday to boost their total to 92½, three points over the red-hot team sponsored by Harris Pharmacy. The pharmacists picked up ten points to move from fourth into second.

A lot of this competition is generated by the desire of the golfers to represent their league in the forthcoming Paddock tournament. And the position at the end of this week's play will be the deciding one — so there will probably be a real scramble for points.

ALTHOUGH the league's two-ball tournament which was played July 24 is past history and all who participated had a good time, there is still a good deal of discussion about this tourney and a lot of the talk seems to revolve around the question of whether or not it would be wise to invite some of the ladies to play in the league regularly.

The league publicitor is sorry about missing last week's report and hopes that it won't happen again. But to get the record straight about one golfer who was claiming he had gotten three birdies on that night, the records were checked and it was discovered that only one — on the 455 yard fourth hole — was registered.

BIRDS THIS week were picked up by Len Haines, Jr., with two — the 455 yard fourth and 480 yard eighth; — Don Magnuson and Ralph Panek on the fourth; Leon Behrens on the 140 yard 14th; Don Kiehl on the 560 yard 16th; Ken Seeger on the 120 yard first hole on the third nine; Ted Lindstrom on the 255 yard third hole, third nine; Chris Tessem on the 375 yard 7th, third nine; Bill Schoepke on the 160 yard eighth hole, third nine; and Bill Dobbelaere on the 320 yard ninth hole, third nine.

Dobbelaere expresses his thanks to the officers of the league for handling his chores while he was off on his vacation.

POINT LEADERS in the twilight league are as follows: No. 1 men, Bill Schoepke (20½), Cecil Jamison (20½), Don Magnuson (17); No. 2 men, Ken Seeger (21½), Bill Magnuson (18½), H. Styzykowski (18½); No. 3 men, Paul Malchow (18), Ted Fonfara (18), Chris Tessem (17); No. 4 men, Bill Gappert (17), Ron Dattilo (15), Joe Bodor (13½); No. 5 men, Dale Wilson (16), Harry Lenell (14½), Art Martins (13½); Alternates, George Maretick (33½) Don Kiehl (23½).

Park District Softball Season Nearing Finish

The 1960 Arlington Heights Park District softball league is coming to a close with Recreation Park on top in two divisions. The Recreation Park Minor League All-Stars, composed of boys six to nine years old, have gone through a tough season, but have remained undefeated to clinch the title.

Standouts for the All-Stars have been pitcher Bob Lickman and outfielder Jimmy Gillon. Lockmen has won three games while dropping none and has been a consistent hitter. Gillon leads the club in hitting and extra base hits.

Other Minor Leaguers contributing to the undefeated team are John Dietz, Bob Hayes, John Kraenzel, Dennis Conrad, Don Shefte, Jay Benson, Gary Drake, and Craig Buntun.

THE RECREATION Park Major All-Stars, consisting of boys ten to thirteen years-of-age, have also been very successful in the Arlington Park District League this summer. They have won the championship, losing only once to Evergreen Park.

The high points of the season for Recreation Park were a pinch - hit single by Bill Murrow in the last inning to beat Evergreen Park in the season's opener, and a 6 - 1 upset victory over a powerful Pioneer Park team that won the pennant for Recreation Park.

The players on the championship team are Pat Kivland; Ray Herr; Mike, Terry, and Denny Draut; Dennis Smith, Phil Weber, Tom Hamalton, Bill Murrow; Ken Hawks; Noee Santos; John Kresback and John Ebel. Ebel was singled out for his fielding at shortstop.

Both Minor and Major League All - Star teams at Recreation Park are coached by their playground supervisor, Alan Eck.

Al Jordon On Hilton Bowlers

AL JORDON

Al Jordon, instructor at the Rolling Meadows Bowl, has been added to the roster of the Hilton Shirts bowling team, high-flying outfit that competes in the Hilton Classic league, Chicago All-Star circuit, all tournaments, and the national team event.

Jordon will join 23-year-old Paul Gorman, Mo Shiffman, Jim Stefanich, 19-year-old former King of Bowlers in Joliet, and Hank Lahr.

Jordon posted a 192-59 mark in 86 Tuesday division games in the Classic league and a 195-55 mark for 99 Thursday division lines. He rolled a mighty 298 in the Chicago Match game championships with a 1345 total for six games under extreme pressure.

Matron Handicap Set For Arlington Park

There is only one stakes attraction this week at Arlington Park, but the event, the $50,000 added Arlington Matron Handicap, already is shaping up as one of the outstanding horse races of the Chicago season.

William MacDonald's Royal Native and C. V. Whitney's Silver Spoon—two of the nation's outstanding fillies or mares—are candidates for Saturday's 1 1/8 miles Matron. Silver Spoon, the classy daughter of Citation, is already on the grounds and is a definite starter in the weekend headliner.

Between them, Royal Native and Silver Spoon have accounted for most of the country's blue ribbon events for the distaff division. Royal Native shows stakes victories in the Columbiana at Hialeah, the Black Helen at Hialeah, the Suwanee River at Gulfstream Park, the Colonial at Garden State, the Top Flight at Belmont and the Molly Pitcher at Monmouth.

In addition, she ran second in the Bed O'Roses at Aqueduct and last weekend settled for second in the lucrative Delaware Handicap at Delaware Park.

SILVER SPOON has confined her 1960 exploits to West Coast tracks where she has won five stakes, was second in another. Her added money tallies include the Santa Monica, Santa Maria and Santa Margarita at Santa Anita, and first in the Milady and Vanity at Hollywood Park. She also ran second in the Sequoia at Hollywood Park.

Both Royal Native and Silver Spoon will find the 1 1/8 miles of the Matron tailor-made and should both choose the Arlington event for their next starts they will be ridden by Bill Hartack and Bill Shoemaker, respectively, a rivalry all its own.

A strong field is being assembled to oppose the ranking filly pair in the Matron including, from California, Conejo Ranch and Jack Robbins' Honeys Gem, and, from the home guard, John Hughes' Equifun and Mrs. Mary Keim's Indian Maid.

INDIAN MAID should be happy to return to Chicagotown. The Florida-bred sauntered off with the Beverly Handicap at Washington Park six weeks at Washington Park cessful in a Delaware invasion. She likes a firm springy strip and should feel right at home here Saturday.

Mrs. Dorothy Turner's Silver Song, a recent winner here, and Mrs. William H. Veeneman's Woodlawn, are both candidates for the Matran, as is Rex C. Ellsworth's Midnight Date and Mrs. M. A. Silagy Sr.'s Even Lode.

MP's Midget Football Registration Saturday

On Saturday, August 13, and Saturday, August 20, between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., all boys interested in joining the Mount Prospect Midget Football assn., should register at Lions Park.

At the same time the mother's auxiliary will conduct a swap to allow an exchange of football equipment among the boys.

All boys between the ages of 8 through 13 will be eligible to compete.

Because of the increase in the number of teams for the coming season, interested fathers are requested to contact Pat Breen at Clearbrook 3-5239 in order to assist the program as coaches or trainers.

Park District Softball Season Nearing Finish

The 1960 Arlington Heights Park District softball league is coming to a close with Recreation Park on top in two divisions. The Recreation Park Minor League All-Stars, composed of boys six to nine years old, have gone through a tough season, but have remained undefeated to clinch the title.

Standouts for the All-Stars have been pitcher Bob Lickman and outfielder Jimmy Gillon. Lockmen has won three games while dropping none and has been a consistent hitter. Gillon leads the club in hitting and extra base hits.

Other Minor Leaguers contributing to the undefeated team are John Dietz, Bob Hayes, John Kraenzel, Dennis Conrad, Don Shefte, Jay Benson, Gary Drake, and Craig Buntun.

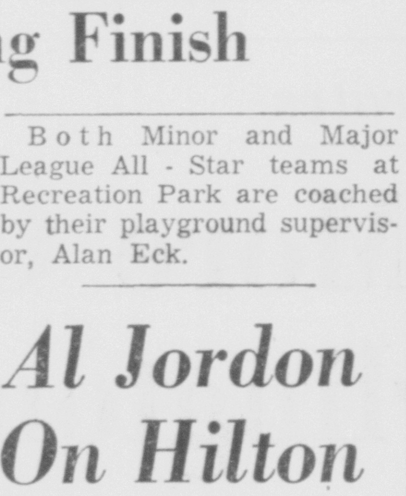
THE RECREATION Park Major All-Stars, consisting of boys ten to thirteen years-of-age, have also been very successful in the Arlington Park District League this summer. They have won the championship, losing only once to Evergreen Park.

The high points of the season for Recreation Park were a pinch - hit single by Bill Murrow in the last inning to beat Evergreen Park in the season's opener, and a 6 - 1 upset victory over a powerful Pioneer Park team that won the pennant for Recreation Park.

The players on the championship team are Pat Kivland; Ray Herr; Mike, Terry, and Denny Draut; Dennis Smith, Phil Weber, Tom Hamalton, Bill Murrow; Ken Hawks; Noee Santos; John Kresback and John Ebel. Ebel was singled out for his fielding at shortstop.

Both Minor and Major League All - Star teams at Recreation Park are coached by their playground supervisor, Alan Eck.

Al Jordon On Hilton Bowlers



AL JORDON

Al Jordon, instructor at the Rolling Meadows Bowl, has been added to the roster of the Hilton Shirts bowling team, high-flying outfit that competes in the Hilton Classic league, Chicago All-Star circuit, all tournaments, and the national team event.

Jordon will join 23-year-old Paul Gorman, Mo Shiffman, Jim Stefanich, 19-year-old former King of Bowlers in Joliet, and Hank Lahr.

Jordon posted a 192-59 mark in 86 Tuesday division games in the Classic league and a 195-55 mark for 99 Thursday division lines. He rolled a mighty 298 in the Chicago Match game championships with a 1345 total for six games under extreme pressure.

Matron Handicap Set For Arlington Park

There is only one stakes attraction this week at Arlington Park, but the event, the $50,000 added Arlington Matron Handicap, already is shaping up as one of the outstanding horse races of the Chicago season.

William MacDonald's Royal Native and C. V. Whitney's Silver Spoon—two of the nation's outstanding fillies or mares—are candidates for Saturday's 1 1/8 miles Matron. Silver Spoon, the classy daughter of Citation, is already on the grounds and is a definite starter in the weekend headliner.

Between them, Royal Native and Silver Spoon have accounted for most of the country's blue ribbon events for the distaff division. Royal Native shows stakes victories in the Columbiana at Hialeah, the Black Helen at Hialeah, the Suwanee River at Gulfstream Park, the Colonial at Garden State, the Top Flight at Belmont and the Molly Pitcher at Monmouth.

In addition, she ran second in the Bed O'Roses at Aqueduct and last weekend settled for second in the lucrative Delaware Handicap at Delaware Park.

SILVER SPOON has confined her 1960 exploits to West Coast tracks where she has won five stakes, was second in another. Her added money tallies include the Santa Monica, Santa Maria and Santa Margarita at Santa Anita, and first in the Milady and Vanity at Hollywood Park. She also ran second in the Sequoia at Hollywood Park.

Both Royal Native and Silver Spoon will find the 1 1/8 miles of the Matron tailor-made and should both choose the Arlington event for their next starts they will be ridden by Bill Hartack and Bill Shoemaker, respectively, a rivalry all its own.

A strong field is being assembled to oppose the ranking filly pair in the Matron including, from California, Conejo Ranch and Jack Robbins' Honeys Gem, and, from the home guard, John Hughes' Equifun and Mrs. Mary Keim's Indian Maid.

INDIAN MAID should be happy to return to Chicagotown. The Florida-bred sauntered off with the Beverly Handicap at Washington Park six weeks at Washington Park cessful in a Delaware invasion. She likes a firm springy strip and should feel right at home here Saturday.

Mrs. Dorothy Turner's Silver Song, a recent winner here, and Mrs. William H. Veeneman's Woodlawn, are both candidates for the Matran, as is Rex C. Ellsworth's Midnight Date and Mrs. M. A. Silagy Sr.'s Even Lode.

MP's Midget Football Registration Saturday

On Saturday, August 13, and Saturday, August 20, between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., all boys interested in joining the Mount Prospect Midget Football assn., should register at Lions Park.

At the same time the mother's auxiliary will conduct a swap to allow an exchange of football equipment among the boys.

All boys between the ages of 8 through 13 will be eligible to compete.

Because of the increase in the number of teams for the coming season, interested fathers are requested to contact Pat Breen at Clearbrook 3-5239 in order to assist the program as coaches or trainers.

Hit Behind The Ball On Sand Trap Shots!

(This is the seventh in a series of golf columns by Chuck Pedersen, Class A, PGA professional at Rolling Green country club.)

BETTERING YOUR SAND SHOT PLAY

Wen a golfer walks into a sand trap stubbornly refusing to accept any penalty for having placed himself in trouble, he plays the shot not much differently from a fairway shot — as though fate owed him a minor miracle in return for the dirty trick of putting him there.

There are only three possible results from this situation. One, he leaves the ball in the trap. Two, he sculls it. Three, he performs that minor miracle.

The latter happens so infrequently, however, that this game becomes increasingly frustrating. The golfer decides that the only way to remedy the situation is to give up the game or take out his frustrations on someone else.

GOOD GOLFERS approach the trap shots more philosophically. They are in trouble and they know it. They alter their shots somewhat after their fairway shots.

These alterations are designed mainly to get them out of the sand, leaving the success of the shot to percentage rather than the less reliable hands of fate.

The ball must be lofted quickly to execute this and the blade of the sand wedge is open. The club head is swung in an outside-in arc and strikes the sand approximately two inches behind the ball. This makes the trap shot the easiest shot in golf as you don't even have to hit the ball.

IN EXECUTING the trap shot you should try to hit the sand with the back of the club head. This allows the flange of the wedge to slide through the sand rather than to dig into it.

JIM KEANE, former professional football standout with the Chicago Bears who now resides in Arlington Heights, prepares to blast out of the trap by hitting behind the ball. Keane, who teamed with Ken Kavannaugh to give the Bears one of pro football's top pass receiving combos in history, is an impressive golfer who plays in the Old Orchard scratch league.

Since you strike the sand at least two inches behind the ball, you must swing with a good deal more force than normal. A trap shot of 40 feet would have to be swung as hard as a pitch shot of 40 yards.

The average golfer can enhance his chances of overcoming trouble, traps or otherwise, simply by thinking more accurately in terms of the shots he wants to play.

By following these simple suggestions, your trap shots will become more pleasant to do and by the same token you'll cut strokes off your score.

Golden's Holds Twilight Lead

Golden's Food Shop cooled off the hot Wille Lbr. & Fuel team Tuesday Aug. 2, and retained its five - week hold on first place in Mt. Prospect Twilight League play, as the Lumbermen missed their "golden" opportunity.

Wille's needed but two points to tie for the league lead as the teams teed off. However, Golden's came through like real pros in the clutch and set the challengers down 5½-4½, which left Golden's still the masters of the league by 2½ points.

Meanwhile, Kersting's Garden Center made its big move toward the Paddock tournament by overwhelming once-potent Vern's Pure Oil, 8-2, in the most decisive match of the evening. The victory enabled Kerstings to move into third place with less than four points separating them from Golden's. Vern's dropped into the fifth place spot vacated by Kersting's as the Gardeners moved up.

In ANOTHER important match Morton's Pontiac remained definitely in contention for the Paddock tourney by defeating Mt. Prospect Bowling Lanes 7-2. This leaves Morton's exactly four points from first place.

With the top five teams all within striking distance, next Tuesday's matches will tell the tale as to who is to represent the Tuesday division the the Paddock tournament. Golden's will meet Keefer's Pharmacy who defeated them in their last contest, 6-4; Wille Lbr. and Kersting's will battle it out with Kersting's, the underdog on the basis of their performance the last time out; and Morton's Pontiac takes on Vern's Pure Oil who will be battling to regain the first place slot they held for so many weeks earlier in the year.

Birdies were reported by R. Recher No. 3, W. Mott No. 3, R. Becker No. 6, and P. Peterson No. 10. Low gross for the evening was Rollie Becker's 39 scored on the first nine.

Prospect Heights Falls

Mt. Prospect's Swim Team Wins, 247-147

The Mount Prospect swimming team broke its losing streak last Wednesday evening by defeating Prospect Heights in its third home meet of the season.

The first place scoring was spread throughout all the events for both teams with M.P. taking six of the 10 relays which made the final score 247-147.

Winning four first places was Denny Nyberg with David Brinkley, Kathy Farleigh, Holly Wieber and Mary Kennedy taking three each. Ralph Thompson took two winning spots, and Ann Wichman, Bill Reising, Pam DeMent, Debbie Paddock, Ken McBeath, Rosemary Kovacs, Fred Brereton, Jeff Cassel, Bill Roosen, Mike Zadel, and Paul Harris brought home single blue ribbons.

At its meeting Friday, Aug. 5, the Northern Illinois Swimming Conference elected Charles Aldrich, pool manager at Lions Park, as the 1960-61 president of the conference as well as selecting Mt. Prospect as the site of next year's conference meet.

Fuel Problems? Try This Easy Method!

by BILL AND BARBARA STRICKLER

Western Hunting

It's time for Billy, our eight-year-old son, to contribute to the column. He recently came back from a hunting trip to the western states with his grandparents.

Only Billy's hunting trip was of a different type. he went camera hunting and came home with pictures of the first bear he ever saw, a moose, and even a wood kitty. He took pictures of the Elk in the Jackson Hole country of Wyoming.

On a fishing trip in Yellowstone lake each of the "tourists" caught three rainbow or brown trout, called "Cut Throat" by the guide. Billy caught three that measured 14, 16, and 18 inches in length.

Campfire Fuel

In our camping trips across various parts of the country we have found that dry firewood in some areas is scarce and non-existent. So we have improvised, using a large metal can filled with charcoal and have soaked them, two or three weeks before our trip, in kerosene or fuel oil.

Just before we start we pour out the excess liquid, then seal the cover on the can with wide adhesive tape. You can use a couple of large potato chip cans or large cans with tight covers obtained from meat markets.

In this way fuel for cooking is always available and no additional fluid is needed to start the fire. We recommend that the food be separated from the fire by aluminum foil to eliminate the possibility of the fuel odor penetrating the food.

An old cookie sheet, pizza pan, or an old refrigerator shelf or oven rack made a flat easily-packed grill when propped up on corner stones. A hole is made in the ground so that the grill will lie over it and will hold the heat for a long, safe cooking fire. This type of campfire, when covered with the excavated dirt after the final fire, is a sure woods fire preventative.

Station Wagon Travel Hint

If you are one of the many families who own a station wagon and take trips with children, we have found a way to double the space made by putting the seat or seats down.

The handy man in the family can easily make a plywood platform from one sheet of plywood and four or six legs of 2x4 blocks. If you measure the widest suitcase or tallest box and add two or three inches for hand space, the legs of this height when attacked will form a shelf or platform you can put into your station wagon.

Then all the suitcases and other miscellaneous items can be put under the platform. Remember to leave the suitcase that will be needed first nearest either the back or side doors where you can get at it.

BY PLACING an air mattress or single bed mattress on top of the platform, you have a large soft space for the youngsters, whether to play or sleep. Even the crawlers can see out the window with this raised level and since it is padded the children do not have to be warned to "sit still," as their bumps will be cushioned by the mattress.

Be sure to eliminate any sharp objects or toys on the mattress as they can puncture an air mattress. The points can also hurt a youngster.

This platform also makes an excellent place for adults to sleep when making a long continuous driving trip.

Two Teams Battle For Paddock Berth

Morans Furs & Spooner Engineering are making it a fight to the finish to see who will represent League No. 1 in the Paddock Tournament. Both teams won eight points which keeps it only a point and a half difference between first and second place.

Next week's results will decide who goes into the Paddock Tournament. The rest of the teams remained in their same respective lineup, although the gap between the first and third place is still small enough to make it anyone's lead.

Illinois Range, in the League No. 2, still holds an impressive lead. Bernie Minton and Phil Jeuck (the captain) are to be commended for the way they have consistently piled up points. Bernie is the top point getter in both leagues, with Phil tied for second top honors in this area.

THERE WERE some significant changes in this league this week. Bluett Construction plowed through with 10 big points which took them out of the last spot and into seventh place. Strass' Ladies Wear did a terrific job, also, by taking eight and one half points to move them from sixth to fifth place.

The outstanding game of the week was played by Ted Benda who shot a one over par 36. Unfortunately, it turned out to be a heartbreaker for the alternate he played got extra hot, and with a high handicap, just beat Ted out.

Golden's Food Shop cooled off the hot Wille Lbr. & Fuel team Tuesday Aug. 2, and retained its five - week hold on first place in Mt. Prospect Twilight League play, as the Lumbermen missed their "golden" opportunity.

Wille's needed but two points to tie for the league lead as the teams teed off. However, Golden's came through like real pros in the clutch and set the challengers down 5½-4½, which left Golden's still the masters of the league by 2½ points.

Meanwhile, Kersting's Garden Center made its big move toward the Paddock tournament by overwhelming once-potent Vern's Pure Oil, 8-2, in the most decisive match of the evening. The victory enabled Kerstings to move into third place with less than four points separating them from Golden's. Vern's dropped into the fifth place spot vacated by Kersting's as the Gardeners moved up.

In ANOTHER important match Morton's Pontiac remained definitely in contention for the Paddock tourney by defeating Mt. Prospect Bowling Lanes 7-2. This leaves Morton's exactly four points from first place.

With the top five teams all within striking distance, next Tuesday's matches will tell the tale as to who is to represent the Tuesday division the the Paddock tournament. Golden's will meet Keefer's Pharmacy who defeated them in their last contest, 6-4; Wille Lbr. and Kersting's will battle it out with Kersting's, the underdog on the basis of their performance the last time out; and Morton's Pontiac takes on Vern's Pure Oil who will be battling to regain the first place slot they held for so many weeks earlier in the year.

Birdies were reported by R. Recher No. 3, W. Mott No. 3, R. Becker No. 6, and P. Peterson No. 10. Low gross for the evening was Rollie Becker's 39 scored on the first nine.

League Standings
August 2:

Golden's Food	76
Wille Lbr. & Fuel	73½
Kersting's Ctr.	72 1/6
Morton's Pontiac	72
Vern's Pure Oil	69

Prospect Heights Falls

Mt. Prospect's Swim Team Wins, 247-147

The Mount Prospect swimming team broke its losing streak last Wednesday evening by defeating Prospect Heights in its third home meet of the season.

The first place scoring was spread throughout all the events for both teams with M.P. taking six of the 10 relays which made the final score 247-147.

Winning four first places was Denny Nyberg with David Brinkley, Kathy Farleigh, Holly Wieber and Mary Kennedy taking three each. Ralph Thompson took two winning spots, and Ann Wichman, Bill Reising, Pam DeMent, Debbie Paddock, Ken McBeath, Rosemary Kovacs, Fred Brereton, Jeff Cassel, Bill Roosen, Mike Zadel, and Paul Harris brought home single blue ribbons.

At its meeting Friday, Aug. 5, the Northern Illinois Swimming Conference elected Charles Aldrich, pool manager at Lions Park, as the 1960-61 president of the conference as well as selecting Mt. Prospect as the site of next year's conference meet.

Hats Off to Mac For Breaking 80!

This week's salute goes to G. A. McElroy of Palatine, for breaking 80 on the course at Inverness, the first time in ten years.

Why the headline?

Because "Mac" has been one of the best known sports personalities in these parts for 30 years.

G. A. McELROY began teaching at Palatine high school in 1931, and initiated his "Mac Says" sports column in Paddock Publications. He had worked his way through college writing sports for several Iowa dailies.

It was only natural to continue his first love when he came to Palatine, and continue it he did. He soon became known as THE sports authority of the area, particularly at Arlington, Palatine, Bensenville high schools, and throughout both Northwest and Northeast conferences.

"MAC" STARTED coaching at Palatine high school in the spring of 1935, winning the school's first track trophy in history, the small school class of the Pekin Relays. His success as basketball coach has been unmatched, with his enthusiasm for sports and giving the most to "his love, sports" rubbing off on all of his boys.

Mac initiated golf at Palatine, with his boys winning more honors. Mac, himself, eventually became principal, and had to cut back on his sports writing. He's now superintendent with a second high school about ready, a third in the planning.

He's up to his ears in school administration all hours of the day and night.

BUT WE'LL BET our bottom dollar if you see him on the street, and mention sports, you'll understand why we just had to mention his breaking 80.

Sidelight: Late hour query from handicap chairman George Adams at Inverness questioned (in all seriousness) whether a transposition of figures might have been made in Mac's score, he'd never shot lower than 86 this season.

Last week it was 79, in spite of an eight on one hole.

Palabar Horse Show Sunday

Palabar Horse Assn., will hold its seventh annual show Sunday, Aug. 14, starting at 9:30 a.m. at Fisher's Lazy "F" Ranch, a half mile east of Barrington road on Palatine road in Barrington.

Dave Blumenfeld and Frank Maher will judge the English and Western classes.

The public is invited. Refreshments will be available on the grounds.

Fleetwing Farm Prepares For August Horse Show

PREPARING FOR an August horse show at Fleetwing Farm is Mrs. Justin Fleischmann, Ela road, Palatine. Martha Jayne, owner of Fleetwing Farm, will hold her first show of the season Aug. 20 and 21 and it's open to novices and experts alike. Fleetwing Farm is located on 28 acres southwest of Palatine on Central road about a mile west of Roselle rd.

Located on 28 wooded acres about six miles from the center of Palatine is Fleetwing Farm, an impressive establishment owned and operated by Martha Jayne.

A woman of impressive vitality who was an international champion, Martha is currently preparing for Fleetwing's first horse show of the season, slated for Aug. 20 and 21.

The Junior events will begin at 10 a.m. that Saturday and the events are scheduled so that children will compete with members of their own age group. On Sunday the more competitive senior events will be held with an old-fashioned Pit Barbecue climaxing the two-day spectacle.

WELL-KNOWN in equestrian circles for her prowess and skill in jumping events, Martha trains her students and horses, runs the farm, and oversees the training of her German Shepherd, Poodles, and Schnauzers with the finesse of an efficiency expert.

Children and adult students find a lesson from Martha most educational. Riding technique is only one phase of the instruction. While learning to post on an English style saddle, she will explain a little of horse temperament, and the new student will leave with more than just a lesson; he has the groundwork of a new understanding of horses.

Eventually the students learn the parts of their saddles and bridles and to pack their own horses.

STUDENTS soon advance to jumping and movies are taken to aid the riders in perfecting their efforts. Periodically, the aspiring jumpers assemble to discuss the movies and the mistakes.

Fleetwing has the parking facilities to accommodate a large crowd, and the wooded area provides a picnic area to help make August's horse show a family affair. Refreshments will be available.

Paddock Women's Classic League to Open Sept. 3

Who says the women lead the way, and the men follow?

Who says the men decide the important things in life, such as what to do in the Congo, how the Summit should have been handled, and who should have been nominated on the Democratic ticket?

And that the women tell where the family should have Sunday dinner, what the kids (and father) should wear, and whether to feed or kill the clover?

BETTER BOWLERS of this area beat the women to the punch when it comes to Paddock Classic bowling, at least with the fourth season of competition scheduled to start August 27 at Hi-Way Recreation in Palatine.

The better women bowlers of the area, though, are going to catch up in a hurry, as witness this week's announcement of formation of the Paddock Womens Classic Traveling League.

Six teams are expected to compete Saturday evenings at each of six different bowling establishments, with competition slated to start at 6:30 p.m., same time as the men bowl, but at other locations each week.

TEAM ROSTERS are not complete as yet with some openings for 160-plus average women bowlers still available. Gals carrying 160-or-better averages wishing to join the loop are urged to call Edith Wayne at VAnderbilt 4-4970.

Teams will be geared for 830-845 the first season, with all six teams traveling as a group each Saturday night. Five franchises are already cinched at Country Lanes in Lake Zurich, Beverly Lanes in Arlington Heights, Jeffery Lanes in Wheeling, Sim's Bowl in Des Plaines and Northfield Bowl in Northfield. Sixth spot is still indefinite, with lack of bowlers the reason for the delay.

The loop is scheduled to open competition Saturday night, September 3.

Cubs Claim AAA Baseball Crown With 9-1 Victory

by ED COREY

The Cubs won the AAA championship in the Rolling Meadows Little League last week by trouncing the Sox 9-1.

The champions scored a pair of runs in the first inning on a walk, double by Richie Kotlarz and single by John Phillips.

Loading the bases with one out in the third, the Sox came within one run of a tie but only managed to score one run.

THE CUBS pulled away to stay with two markers in their half of the third on a single by Bob Erlander and consecutive doubles by Kotlarz and Phillips. They added two more in the fourth aided by three errors and a double by Bob Hickey.

Three runs in the fifth came in on singles by Hickey, Ed Corey, Kotlarz, and Phil Sporleder. Hickey was the winning pitcher as he allowed only four hits. Don Cooper was charged with the loss.

The Cardinals edged the Indians 4-3 with Mike Rowbottom the winning hurler, allowing only four hits and fanning 15. Jim Tessar and Kevin Roeske toiled for the Indians.

THE YANKEES scored single tallies in the fourth and fifth innings to break a 3-all tie and stop the Indians 5-3 to clinch third place. Allen Haase was the winning pitcher and Jim Bejerowski the loser. Russ Fields was the hitting star for the Indians with a single and triple.

With the accent on fielding the Cubs beat the Braves 7-5. Tony Nowobielski of the Braves played an outstanding game at shortstop for the losers. Richie Kotlarz was the winning pitcher on a four-hitter and Mike Nolan absorbed the loss.

The Sox edged the Yankees 3-2 last Friday on the strength of Larry Goeske's three-run homer in the fifth inning. It was Goeske's 14th homer of the season.

MIKE LEBBEN was the winning pitcher and fanned nine. John Hildebrand was the loser although allowing only four hits.

The Cardnials tied for fifth place on Sunday by besting the Braves 10-7 with an 11-hit attack. Behind 7-2 the Cards rallied for six runs in the fourth inning to take the lead.

Alan Butler with a homer and a single, Mike Valentine with a double and single, and George Oreskovich with two singles paced the winner's attack.

Mike Kommondoros was the winning pitcher and Owen Henson suffered the defeat. Final standings:

	W	L
Cubs	13	2
Sox	11	4
Yankees	7	8
Braves	6	9
Indians	4	11
Cardinals	4	11

Friday Men's Bowling League To Meet Aug. 19

The Friday night men's bowling league will hold its 21st annual meeting at Beverly Lanes Friday, Aug. 19, at 8 p.m.

All members should attend and aid in organizing teams for 1960-61.

The league is also in need of two sponsors. Anyone interested should call J. M. Ernst, secretary, at CLearbrook 3-4445. League bowling starts Sept. 9, 1960 at 7 p.m. at Beverly Lanes.

Reasons

A man always has two reasons for doing anything--a good reason and the real reason.--J. P. Morgan.

Barber Shop Moves Into League Lead

The only way to describe the recent brand of golf played by Moler's Barber Shop in the Mt. Prospect Twilight golf league is to say these boys are cutting-up all over the place. On July 18, this team was in 7th place, 12½ points behind the leaders. One week later, they were in 5th place and only 7½ points out.

At the end of the festivities on Monday night, Aug. 1, Moler's Barber Shop was tied with the team from Kruse's Schlitz for 1st place. These cut-ups have now won 19 points in the last two weeks. Monday night, they won nine from Van Driel's to scoot Van Driel's into 3rd place and to achieve a 1st place tie with the Kruse team. Kruse's was hard put to win five from the Toy Shop team which is beginning to come to life. Another good showing on Monday night was made by the Busse Motor Sales team which won 7½ points from the Mt. Prospect State Bank.

As of now, the George O'Day Realtors are in 5th place and yet are only 2½ points separated from the two teams which are tied for first.

WHO'S GOING to play in the Paddock Tournament? Who's going to win? Best way to figure this one out is to pull a name out of the hat.

Last week, we predicted that Moler's Barber Shop couldn't keep up the pace it was setting. We take it back and make no predictions for next week.

Low gross was shot by Elmer Walters with a very nice 38. Walters just returned from the boat race to Mackinac Island and the more this fellow goes sailing, the better his golf seems to become. The low net was shot by Randy Bateman with a 43-14-29.

Birdies were scored by Paul Seleski on 9, John Krueger on 9, Elmer Walters on 6, Bruce MacBeath on 1, Bob Sbarbaro on 1 and Joe Cole on 17.

The team standings follow:

Moler's Barber Shop	67½
Kruse's Schlitz	67½
Van Driel's Drugs	67
Busse Motor Sales	66
George O'Day Realtors	65
Pickett Paint	62½
Busse-Biermann Hardware	61½
Mt. Prospect State Bank	52
Illinois Range	51
Winkelman's Shell Svc	49½
Mt. Prospect Savings & Loan	48½
Toy Shop	46½

Arlington Swimmers Stand 7-1

The Arlington Heights Park District swim team wound up its conference dual meet season by defeating host Dundee 233-214. Late in the meet the Arlington swimmers fell behind 159-155; however, they led by five points before the final relays, and promptly won five of the first six relays to clinch the victory.

Margo Hauff won four firsts for Arlington and Mary Hetzel, Barb Johnson, Todd Behrens each took three.

The Arlington team placed second in the dual meet standings of the Northern Illinois Conference, posting a 7-1 record. Heights defeated Dundee, De Kalb, Des Plaines, Barrington, Belvidere, Mt. Prospect, and St. Charles and was beaten only by Park Ridge. Following are the final conference standings and the team's won-lost records.

Park Ridge	8	0
Arlington Hts.	7	1
Des Plaines	5	3
De Kalb	4	4
Belvidere	4	4
Barrington	3	5
St. Charles	3	5
Dundee	2	6
Mt. Prospect	0	8

Barrington Horse Show Aug. 12-14

The dates of August 12, 13, and 14 will bring to a close a tradition in the northwest suburb of Barrington.

The Barrington Horse Show, held annually on the beautiful fields of The Round Barn, holds its final show on this famous site. Classes will include beginning horsemanship for local exhibitors on Friday, morning.

Beginning at 1 p.m., outside exhibitors will be offered green hunter classes, open equitation, Town and Country Equestrian Ass'n. Junior class, and a warm up class for working hunters.

Saturday and Sunday will see hunter classes, equitation, obstacle jumping, junior olympics, Corinthian working hunters, hunt teams, lead line and a costume class.

Net Units Triumph

In matches held on the clay courts in River Forest, Arlington Heights Park District's tennis team and Little League squad dumped host River Forest.

The Little League test, sponsored by the Chicago District tennis assn., went to Arlington 4 - 2 as Ricky Wollerman, Steve Martin, and Jim Jakubiec won matches.

Wollerman won 12-10, 6 - 1 and Martin dumped his opponent 6-2, 6-2. Jacubiec picked up two 6-3 decisions. The doubles teams split their two matches.

Arlington's girls stopped the hosts 3-2 with Donna Cunningham, Lizz Cochrell, and Mickey Lloyd victorious.

The remaining boys' scores:

BUT WE'LL BET our bottom dollar if you see him on the street, and mention sports, you'll understand why we just had to mention his breaking 80.

Sidelight: Late hour query from handicap chairman George Adams at Inverness questioned (in all seriousness) whether a transposition of figures might have been made in Mac's score, he'd never shot lower than 86 this season.

Last week it was 79, in spite of an eight on one hole.

Palabar Horse Show Sunday

Palabar Horse Assn., will hold its seventh annual show Sunday, Aug. 14, starting at 9:30 a.m. at Fisher's Lazy "F" Ranch, a half mile east of Barrington road on Palatine road in Barrington.

Dave Blumenfeld and Frank Maher will judge the English and Western classes.

The public is invited. Refreshments will be available on the grounds.

Fleetwing Farm Prepares For August Horse Show

PREPARING FOR an August horse show at Fleetwing Farm is Mrs. Justin Fleischmann, Ela road, Palatine. Martha Jayne, owner of Fleetwing Farm, will hold her first show of the season Aug. 20 and 21 and it's open to novices and experts alike. Fleetwing Farm is located on 28 acres southwest of Palatine on Central road about a mile west of Roselle rd.

Located on 28 wooded acres about six miles from the center of Palatine is Fleetwing Farm, an impressive establishment owned and operated by Martha Jayne.

A woman of impressive vitality who was an international champion, Martha is currently preparing for Fleetwing's first horse show of the season, slated for Aug. 20 and 21.

The Junior events will begin at 10 a.m. that Saturday and the events are scheduled so that children will compete with members of their own age group. On Sunday the more competitive senior events will be held with an old-fashioned Pit Barbecue climaxing the two-day spectacle.

WELL-KNOWN in equestrian circles for her prowess and skill in jumping events, Martha trains her students and horses, runs the farm, and oversees the training of her German Shepherd, Poodles, and Schnauzers with the finesse of an efficiency expert.

Children and adult students find a lesson from Martha most educational. Riding technique is only one phase of the instruction. While learning to post on an English style saddle, she will explain a little of horse temperament, and the new student will leave with more than just a lesson; he has the groundwork of a new understanding of horses.

Eventually the students learn the parts of their saddles and bridles and to pack their own horses.

STUDENTS soon advance to jumping and movies are taken to aid the riders in perfecting their efforts. Periodically, the aspiring jumpers assemble to discuss the movies and the mistakes.

Fleetwing has the parking facilities to accommodate a large crowd, and the wooded area provides a picnic area to help make August's horse show a family affair. Refreshments will be available.

Barber Shop Moves Into League Lead

The only way to describe the recent brand of golf played by Moler's Barber Shop in the Mt. Prospect Twilight golf league is to say these boys are cutting-up all over the place. On July 18, this team was in 7th place, 12½ points behind the leaders. One week later, they were in 5th place and only 7½ points out.

At the end of the festivities on Monday night, Aug. 1, Moler's Barber Shop was tied with the team from Kruse's Schlitz for 1st place. These cut-ups have now won 19 points in the last two weeks. Monday night, they won nine from Van Driel's to scoot Van Driel's into 3rd place and to achieve a 1st place tie with the Kruse team. Kruse's was hard put to win five from the Toy Shop team which is beginning to come to life. Another good showing on Monday night was made by the Busse Motor Sales team which won 7½ points from the Mt. Prospect State Bank.

As of now, the George O'Day Realtors are in 5th place and yet are only 2½ points separated from the two teams which are tied for first.

WHO'S GOING to play in the Paddock Tournament? Who's going to win? Best way to figure this one out is to pull a name out of the hat.

Last week, we predicted that Moler's Barber Shop couldn't keep up the pace it was setting. We take it back and make no predictions for next week.

Low gross was shot by Elmer Walters with a very nice 38. Walters just returned from the boat race to Mackinac Island and the more this fellow goes sailing, the better his golf seems to become. The low net was shot by Randy Bateman with a 43-14-29.

Birdies were scored by Paul Seleski on 9, John Krueger on 9, Elmer Walters on 6, Bruce MacBeath on 1, Bob Sbarbaro on 1 and Joe Cole on 17.

The team standings follow:

Moler's Barber Shop	67½
Kruse's Schlitz	67½
Van Driel's Drugs	67
Busse Motor Sales	66
George O'Day Realtors	65
Pickett Paint	62½
Busse-Biermann Hardware	61½
Mt. Prospect State Bank	52
Illinois Range	51
Winkelman's Shell Svc	49½
Mt. Prospect Savings & Loan	48½
Toy Shop	46½

Arlington Swimmers Stand 7-1

The Arlington Heights Park District swim team wound up its conference dual meet season by defeating host Dundee 233-214. Late in the meet the Arlington swimmers fell behind 159-155; however, they led by five points before the final relays, and promptly won five of the first six relays to clinch the victory.

Margo Hauff won four firsts for Arlington and Mary Hetzel, Barb Johnson, Todd Behrens each took three.

The Arlington team placed second in the dual meet standings of the Northern Illinois Conference, posting a 7-1 record. Heights defeated Dundee, De Kalb, Des Plaines, Barrington, Belvidere, Mt. Prospect, and St. Charles and was beaten only by Park Ridge. Following are the final conference standings and the team's won-lost records.

Park Ridge	8	0
Arlington Hts.	7	1
Des Plaines	5	3
De Kalb	4	4
Belvidere	4	4
Barrington	3	5

Barrington Horse Show Aug. 12-14

The dates of August 12, 13, and 14 will bring to a close a tradition in the northwest suburb of Barrington.

The Barrington Horse Show, held annually on the beautiful fields of The Round Barn, holds its final show on this famous site. Classes will include beginning horsemanship for local exhibitors on Friday, morning.

Beginning at 1 p.m., outside exhibitors will be offered green hunter classes, open equitation, Town and Country Equestrian Ass'n. Junior class, and a warm up class for working hunters.

Saturday and Sunday will see hunter classes, equitation, obstacle jumping, junior olympics, Corinthian working hunters, hunt teams, lead line and a costume class.

Net Units Triumph

In matches held on the clay courts in River Forest, Arlington Heights Park District's tennis team and Little League squad dumped host River Forest.

The Little League test, sponsored by the Chicago District tennis assn., went to Arlington 4 - 2 as Ricky Wollerman, Steve Martin, and Jim Jakubiec won matches.

Wollerman won 12-10, 6 - 1 and Martin dumped his opponent 6-2, 6-2. Jacubiec picked up two 6-3 decisions. The doubles teams split their two matches.

Arlington's girls stopped the hosts 3-2 with Donna Cunningham, Lizz Cochrell, and Mickey Lloyd victorious.

The remaining boys' scores:

Carns (A) beat Nieter (RF), 6-0
Kephart (A) beat Ther (RF), 6-2

Paddock Women's Classic League to Open Sept. 3

Who says the women lead the way, and the men follow?

Who says the men decide the important things in life, such as what to do in the Congo, how the Summit should have been handled, and who should have been nominated on the Democratic ticket?

And that the women tell where the family should have Sunday dinner, what the kids (and father) should wear, and whether to feed or kill the clover?

BETTER BOWLERS of this area beat the women to the punch when it comes to Paddock Classic bowling, at least with the fourth season of competition scheduled to start August 27 at Hi-Way Recreation in Palatine.

The better women bowlers of the area, though, are going to catch up in a hurry, as witness this week's announcement of formation of the Paddock Womens Classic Traveling League.

Six teams are expected to compete Saturday evenings at each of six different bowling establishments, with competition slated to start at 6:30 p.m., same time as the men bowl, but at other locations each week.

TEAM ROSTERS are not complete as yet with some openings for 160-plus average women bowlers still available. Gals carrying 160-or-better averages wishing to join the loop are urged to call Edith Wayne at VAnderbilt 4-4970.

Teams will be geared for 830-845 the first season, with all six teams traveling as a group each Saturday night. Five franchises are already cinched at Country Lanes in Lake Zurich, Beverly Lanes in Arlington Heights, Jeffery Lanes in Wheeling, Sim's Bowl in Des Plaines and Northfield Bowl in Northfield. Sixth spot is still indefinite, with lack of bowlers the reason for the delay.

The loop is scheduled to open competition Saturday night, September 3.

Cubs Claim AAA Baseball Crown With 9-1 Victory

by ED COREY

The Cubs won the AAA championship in the Rolling Meadows Little League last week by trouncing the Sox 9-1.

The champions scored a pair of runs in the first inning on a walk, double by Richie Kotlarz and single by John Phillips.

Loading the bases with one out in the third, the Sox came within one run of a tie but only managed to score one run.

THE CUBS pulled away to stay with two markers in their half of the third on a single by Bob Erlander and consecutive doubles by Kotlarz and Phillips. They added two more in the fourth aided by three errors and a double by Bob Hickey.

Three runs in the fifth came in on singles by Hickey, Ed Corey, Kotlarz, and Phil Sporleder. Hickey was the winning pitcher as he allowed only four hits. Don Cooper was charged with the loss.

The Cardinals edged the Indians 4-3 with Mike Rowbottom the winning hurler, allowing only four hits and fanning 15. Jim Tessar and Kevin Roeske toiled for the Indians.

THE YANKEES scored single tallies in the fourth and fifth innings to break a 3-all tie and stop the Indians 5-3 to clinch third place. Allen Haase was the winning pitcher and Jim Bejerowski the loser. Russ Fields was the hitting star for the Indians with a single and triple.

With the accent on fielding the Cubs beat the Braves 7-5. Tony Nowobielski of the Braves played an outstanding game at shortstop for the losers. Richie Kotlarz was the winning pitcher on a four-hitter and Mike Nolan absorbed the loss.

The Sox edged the Yankees 3-2 last Friday on the strength of Larry Goeske's three-run homer in the fifth inning. It was Goeske's 14th homer of the season.

MIKE LEBBEN was the winning pitcher and fanned nine. John Hildebrand was the loser although allowing only four hits.

The Cardnials tied for fifth place on Sunday by besting the Braves 10-7 with an 11-hit attack. Behind 7-2 the Cards rallied for six runs in the fourth inning to take the lead.

Alan Butler with a homer and a single, Mike Valentine with a double and single, and George Oreskovich with two singles paced the winner's attack.

Mike Kommondoros was the winning pitcher and Owen Henson suffered the defeat.

Final standings:

1960 Edition August 28

Arlington Bank Copped 1st Paddock Tourney in 1950

Ten years old, battered and worn, but still standing straight and true — that's the large traveling trophy of the Paddock golf tournament as it awaits a new claimant Sunday, Aug. 28, when 18 local foursomes tee off at White Pines golf club.

The Paddock tournament among first place teams only of the local twilight leagues has become legendary since the meet's inception in 1950. Arlington Bank team of Arlington Heights league won that event, with Carl Engel, Tony Felker, Dick Dieball and Bill Shasberger on the firing line.

THAT FIRST meeting called to organize the tournament was held at Mt. Prospect country club with Pat McDonald of Rob Roy golf club, Ernie Simmons of Mt. Prospect golf league, Bob Paddock of Paddock Publications, and others in attendance. Ray Sophie of Mt. Prospect Country Club conducted the meeting.

From that meeting the Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament took shape, with more and more loops added as the area (and golf) expanded. The golfing event was so successful, by the way, that the bowling tournaments of the same nature were started the following winter. This year almost 100 men's bowling league leaders will compete in the Paddock kegling meet the second weekend in January, with first place squads of about 50 women's bowling leagues competing for honors the third weekend in January.

ELEVEN champs in nine years — that's the record of the Paddock golf tournament where first place ties have occurred twice.

Whitton Realtors of M. Prospect Tuesday league and Wulbecker Furniture of Rob Roy league tied for the trophy in 1952.

Roselle Bakery of Roselle loop and Pines Motel of Arlington Heights league at Mt. Prospect, hit the same tally in '53.

THOSE TIES mean extra medals for the promoters, plus a coin-tossing ceremony to determine which name makes the trophy.

Hook's Nursery of Mt. Prospect Tuesday league won the first battle in 1951. Mt. Pospect Monday loop won the event three years running, starting in '54.

Mt. Prospect Hardware took the trophy in 1954, Mt. Prospect Lions won in '55 and Whitton Realtors repeated in '56. Whitton is the only sponsor repeating his Paddock golf tournament title, by the way.

WHEELING LUMBER took home the championship in 1957, competing in the Arlington country club loop. In 1958 it was Busse Texaco of St. Raymond league winning, with stablemate Kirchhoff Insurance of the other St. Raymond league finishing second.

Last year it was Tioga VFW league of Bensenville that took the title.

This year the first place teams as of August 13 will compete in the big event at White Pines golf club August 28. Just one foursome from each of the 18 local twilight leagues will be eligible, with league officers to decide any internal disputes.

DEADLINE for entries from loop secretaries is August 13. Sports department of this paper will give golfers a rundown on how to play White Pines in the August 18 issue.

Czach Seeks Third Straight Sweep

Chicagoan Roy Czach will be shooting for an unprecedented third straight clean sweep in the stock car races Friday night at O'Hare Stadium, Mannheim and Irving Park rds.

Last weekend he posted the first two as he annexed victory in all events in which he competed headed by two 25-lap features. O'Hare will offer doubleheaded programs again this Friday and Saturday with 25-lap main events for both the late models and Cadets each night.

There will also be added thrills in a demolition race both nights. Out to upset Czach's bid will be such as National Champion Fred Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Chicagoans Rich Kleich and Rob chauncey, Skippy Michaels of Berwyn, Eric Johnson of Highland Park and Roy Martinelli of Halfday.

Next Wednesday will again be Destruction Night at O'Hare when the Cadet and Thrill division again take to the oval for their own most exciting brand of motorized mayhem. A demolition race is also scheduled. Gates open nightly at 6 p.m. with the first race always at 8:30.

Classic Traveling Loop Opens Aug. 27

Most powerful league ever to bowl in the northwest suburbs—that's the connotation the Paddock Classic Traveling league carries as it prepares for the opening of another season Saturday, August 27, at Hi-Way Recreation in Palatine.

Team captains will hold a meeting in the offices of Paddock Publications this Saturday morning to approve the playing schedule and other plans of the advisory committee. This latter group has been holding a series of meetings this summer, closing arrangements on two additional franchises, approving rosters, and reviewing rules of the league.

All eight squads will compete together Saturday night, Aug. 27, in the first of 36 nights of competition, with the entire loop bowling as a group all season. Official schedule is expected to be released next week.

THE LEAGUE was originally organized to give top notch bowlers of the area the best competition the year 'round. It has succeeded with this season's array more powerful than ever. Quite probably the loop, average-wise, will be ranked the fourth or fifth most powerful league in the entire Chicago area.

The league opened in the fall of 1957 with teams aiming for 910 averages. Second year they shot for 940 with 954 prevailing last season. This time the goal was 970, though reaching that goal has been a difficult task as 190-plus bowlers in the area are not too numerous.

High average team at the moment (one roster is not complete) is Gunnell's Lanes of Mt. Prospect with 967. Mean average for that group is 193. Other franchises: Jeffery Lanes of Wheeling 966, Country Lanes of Lake Zurich 964, The Ten Pin of Barrington 964, Hi-Way Recreation of Palatine 961, River-Rand Bowl of Des Plaines 954, Bowlway of Elgin 945.

INDIVIDUALLY there are two 200-average bowlers: Earl Fenimore of Arlington Heights with Gunnell's team, and Buck Perkins of Woodstock with Jeffery Lanes squad.

There are also two bowlers carrying 196 averages into competition, four at 195, two at 194, six at 193, four at 192, three at 191, four at 190, six at 189, two at 188, four at 187, two at 186 and two at 185. Team totals are computed by adding the top five averages for each squad, with each team listing six men.

Here's the complete rundown on rosters:

JEFFERY LANES, Wheeling: Capt. Bill Harris of Wheeling 189, George Stone of Wilmette 195, Hec Healey of Northbrook 186, Buck Perkins of Woodstock 200, Chuck Gibson of Bensenville 196, Ed Melton of Northbrook 185, team 966.

Gunnell's Lanes, Mt. Prospect: Capt. Al Walter of Arlington Heights 195, Ward Siewert of Palatine 188, Edward Duff of Niles 195, Ernie Koche of Roselle 189, John Ribando of Arlington Heights 187, Earl Fenimore of Arlington Heights 200, Al Valentino of Rolling Meadows 185, team 967.

Bowlway Lanes, Elgin: Capt. Jim Perna of Rolling Meadows 188, Tom Kouros of Barrington Woods 192, Dave Catherwood of Arlington Heights 189, Whitey Hefferan of Elk Grove 187, Ray Bryson of Carpentersville 187, John Seidel of Palatine 189, team 945.

Beverly Lanes, Arlington Heights: Capt. Monte Arkus of Roselle on vacation, data not complete.

Nation's Leading Drivers Enter Meadowdale Race

At least 50 of the nation's top drivers will compete for $11,000 in prize money next Sunday at Meadowdale's Third Annual Championship Stock Car Race, a 250 mile event over the winding 3.27 mile track four miles North of Elgin.

The list of "speed merchants," almost all driving 1960 model cars, includes Nelson Stacy of Cincinnati, Ohio, Paul Parks of Columbus, Ohio and Iggy Katone of Milan, Michian, who stand 1-2-3 respectively in the point standings of the Midwest Association for Race Cars.

The race will provide the season's toughest challenge to the stock car drivers who usually perform on small oval tracks as contrasted to Meadowdale's torturous road course. As a result, fans will view the most thrilling and action - packed auto race of the season in the Chicago area.

Local drivers among the favorites are Bill Lutz, Dave Hirschfield and Whitey Gerkin, all veterans of the rough, gruelling tests presented by stock car racing. The "hero" of Soldiers Field competition, Bob Pronger, will also be on hand.

Qualifying races will begin at 11:00 a.m., with the 250 mile feature event scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

500 Winner Heads State Fair Field

Jim Rathmann, Miami, Fla., 1960 500 mile race winner, heads the list of more than 25 entries for the four days of national championship auto racing on the one mile paved track at the Wisconsin fair park during state fair week, Aug. 19-28. Rathmann will drive the same Ken-Paul Special he used at Indianapolis.

Race director Tom Marchese stated that there would be two late model stock car races - Sunday, Aug. 21 - 150 miles and Thursday, Aug. 25, 200 miles. These races are limited to 1958-59-60 cars only. The midget cars move in for a 100 miler, Saturday, Aug. 27 and the national championship speedway big cars close activities for fair week with the 200 mile grind, Sunday, Aug. 28.

Other topflight big car entries are Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa.; Johnny Thomson, Boyertown, Pa.; Jack Turner, Seattle, Wash.; Parnelli Jones, Torrance, Calif.; Don Freeland, Speedway, Ind., and Jack Rounds, Riverside, Calif.

Marchese expects to have more than 50 entries for each of the stock car races. Topflight entries in the stocks include Don White, Keokuk, Ia.; Gordon Gorman, Libertyville, Ill.; Joe Wright, Hammond, Ind.; Sal Tòvella, Chicago; Ken Finley, Chicago, and Tiny Shilts, New Paris, Ohio.

Tickets for these four big days of racing on sale at the fair park and Wisconsin Auto Racing, Inc., 1200 S. First Street, Milwaukee 4, Wis.

160-Average Women Bowlers Needed!

Formation of the Paddock Women's Classic Traveling League is in the offing, with several 160-average women bowlers needed.

This league is expected to compete at 6:30 at six different houses Saturday evenings during the season. Four teams have beem completed, but two more squad rosters need to be filled.

Any 160-average women bowlers interested in this type of competition are urged to contact Edith Wayne at VAnderbilt 4-4970.

Net Score Event of Day

Event of the day, Aug. 8, in the Old Orchard ladies 18-hole golf league was Net Score. Winners were Mary Gregory of the first flight, Harriet Rahn of the second flight, and Eleanor Biazek of the third flight.

1960 Edition August 28

Arlington Bank Copped 1st Paddock Tourney in 1950

Ten years old, battered and worn, but still standing straight and true — that's the large traveling trophy of the Paddock golf tournament as it awaits a new claimant Sunday, Aug. 28, when 18 local foursomes tee off at White Pines golf club.

The Paddock tournament among first place teams only of the local twilight leagues has become legendary since the meet's inception in 1950. Arlington Bank team of Arlington Heights league won that event, with Carl Engel, Tony Felker, Dick Dieball and Bill Shasberger on the firing line.

THAT FIRST meeting called to organize the tournament was held at Mt. Prospect country club with Pat McDonald of Rob Roy golf club, Ernie Simmons of Mt. Prospect golf league, Bob Paddock of Paddock Publications, and others in attendance. Ray Sophie of Mt. Prospect Country Club conducted the meeting.

From that meeting the Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament took shape, with more and more loops added as the area (and golf) expanded. The golfing event was so successful, by the way, that the bowling tournaments of the same nature were started the following winter. This year almost 100 men's bowling league leaders will compete in the Paddock kegling meet the second weekend in January, with first place squads of about 50 women's bowling leagues competing for honors the third weekend in January.

ELEVEN champs in nine years — that's the record of the Paddock golf tournament where first place ties have occurred twice.

Whitton Realtors of M. Prospect Tuesday league and Wulbecker Furniture of Rob Roy league tied for the trophy in 1952.

Roselle Bakery of Roselle loop and Pines Motel of Arlington Heights league at Mt. Prospect, hit the same tally in '53.

THOSE TIES mean extra medals for the promoters, plus a coin-tossing ceremony to determine which name makes the trophy.

Hook's Nursery of Mt. Prospect Tuesday league won the first battle in 1951. Mt. Prospect Monday loop won the event three years running, starting in '54.

Mt. Prospect Hardware took the trophy in 1954, Mt. Prospect Lions won in '55 and Whitton Realtors repeated in '56. Whitton is the only sponsor repeating his Paddock golf tournament title, by the way.

WHEELING LUMBER took home the championship in 1957, competing in the Arlington country club loop. In 1958 it was Busse Texaco of St. Raymond league winning, with stablemate Kirchhoff Insurance of the other St. Raymond league finishing second.

Last year it was Tioga VFW league of Bensenville that took the title.

This year the first place teams as of August 13 will compete in the big event at White Pines golf club August 28. Just one foursome from each of the 18 local twilight leagues will be eligible, with league officers to decide any internal disputes.

DEADLINE for entries from loop secretaries is August 13. Sports department of this paper will give golfers a rundown on how to play White Pines in the August 18 issue.

Czach Seeks Third Straight Sweep

Chicagoan Roy Czach will be shooting for an unprecedented third straight clean sweep in the stock car races Friday night at O'Hare Stadium, Mannheim and Irving Park rds.

Last weekend he posted the first two as he annexed victory in all events in which he competed headed by two 25-lap features. O'Hare will offer doubleheaded programs again this Friday and Saturday with 25-lap main events for both the late models and Cadets each night.

There will also be added thrills in a demolition race both nights. Out to upset Czach's bid will be such as National Champion Fred Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Chicagoans Rich Kleich and Rob chauncey, Skippy Michaels of Berwyn, Eric Johnson of Highland Park and Roy Martinelli of Halfday.

Next Wednesday will again be Destruction Night at O'Hare when the Cadet and Thrill division again take to the oval for their own most exciting brand of motorized mayhem. A demolition race is also scheduled. Gates open nightly at 6 p.m. with the first race always at 8:30.

Nation's Leading Drivers Enter Meadowdale Race

At least 50 of the nation's top drivers will compete for $11,000 in prize money next Sunday at Meadowdale's Third Annual Championship Stock Car Race, a 250 mile event over the winding 3.27 mile track four miles North of Elgin.

The list of "speed merchants," almost all driving 1960 model cars, includes Nelson Stacy of Cincinnati, Ohio, Paul Parks of Columbus, Ohio and Iggy Katone of Milan, Michian, who stand 1-2-3 respectively in the point standings of the Midwest Association for Race Cars.

The race will provide the season's toughest challenge to the stock car drivers who usually perform on small oval tracks as contrasted to Meadowdale's torturous road course. As a result, fans will view the most thrilling and action - packed auto race of the season in the Chicago area.

Local drivers among the favorites are Bill Lutz, Dave Hirschfield and Whitey Gerkin, all veterans of the rough, gruelling tests presented by stock car racing. The "hero" of Soldiers Field competition, Bob Pronger, will also be on hand.

Qualifying races will begin at 11:00 a.m., with the 250 mile feature event scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

500 Winner Heads State Fair Field

Jim Rathmann, Miami, Fla., 1960 500 mile race winner, heads the list of more than 25 entries for the four days of national championship auto racing on the one mile paved track at the Wisconsin fair park during state fair week, Aug. 19-28. Rathmann will drive the same Ken-Paul Special he used at Indianapolis.

Race director Tom Marchese stated that there would be two late model stock car races - Sunday, Aug. 21 - 150 miles and Thursday, Aug. 25, 200 miles. These races are limited to 1958-59-60 cars only. The midget cars move in for a 100 miler, Saturday, Aug. 27 and the national championship speedway big cars close activities for fair week with the 200 mile grind, Sunday, Aug. 28.

Other topflight big car entries are Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa.; Johnny Thomson, Boyertown, Pa.; Jack Turner, Seattle, Wash.; Parnelli Jones, Torrance, Calif.; Don Freeland, Speedway, Ind., and Jack Rounds, Riverside, Calif.

Marchese expects to have more than 50 entries for each of the stock car races. Topflight entries in the stocks include Don White, Keokuk, Ia.; Gordon Gorman, Libertyville, Ill.; Joe Wright, Hammond, Ind.; Sal Tòvella, Chicago; Ken Finley, Chicago, and Tiny Shilts, New Paris, Ohio.

Tickets for these four big days of racing on sale at the fair park and Wisconsin Auto Racing, Inc., 1200 S. First Street, Milwaukee 4, Wis.

Classic Traveling Loop Opens Aug. 27

Most powerful league ever to bowl in the northwest suburbs—that's the connotation the Paddock Classic Traveling league carries as it prepares for the opening of another season Saturday, August 27, at Hi-Way Recreation in Palatine.

Team captains will hold a meeting in the offices of Paddock Publications this Saturday morning to approve the playing schedule and other plans of the advisory committee. This latter group has been holding a series of meetings this summer, closing arrangements on two additional franchises, approving rosters, and reviewing rules of the league.

All eight squads will compete together Saturday night, Aug. 27, in the first of 36 nights of competition, with the entire loop bowling as a group all season. Official schedule is expected to be released next week.

THE LEAGUE was originally organized to give top notch bowlers of the area the best competition the year 'round. It has succeeded with this season's array more powerful than ever. Quite probably the loop, average-wise, will be ranked the fourth or fifth most powerful league in the entire Chicago area.

The league opened in the fall of 1957 with teams aiming for 910 averages. Second year they shot for 940 with 954 prevailing last season. This time the goal was 970, though reaching that goal has been a difficult task as 190-plus bowlers in the area are not too numerous.

High average team at the moment (one roster is not complete) is Gunnell's Lanes of Mt. Prospect with 967. Mean average for that group is 193. Other franchises: Jeffery Lanes of Wheeling 966, Country Lanes of Lake Zurich 964, The Ten Pin of Barrington 964, Hi-Way Recreation of Palatine 961, River-Rand Bowl of Des Plaines 954, Bowlway of Elgin 945.

INDIVIDUALLY there are two 200-average bowlers: Earl Fenimore of Arlington Heights with Gunnell's team, and Buck Perkins of Woodstock with Jeffery Lanes squad.

There are also two bowlers carrying 196 averages into competition, four at 195, two at 194, six at 193, four at 192, three at 191, four at 190, six at 189, two at 188, four at 187, two at 186 and two at 185. Team totals are computed by adding the top five averages for each squad, with each team listing six men.

Here's the complete rundown on rosters:

JEFFERY LANES, Wheeling: Capt. Bill Harris of Wheeling 189, George Stone of Wilmette 195, Hec Healey of Northbrook 186, Buck Perkins of Woodstock 200, Chuck Gibson of Bensenville 196, Ed Melton of Northbrook 185, team 966.

Gunnell's Lanes, Mt. Prospect: Capt. Al Walter of Arlington Heights 195, Ward Siewert of Palatine 188, Edward Duff of Niles 195, Ernie Koche of Roselle 189, John Ribando of Arlington Heights 187. Earl Fenimore of Arlington Heights 200, Al Valentino of Rolling Meadows 185, team 967.

Bowlway Lanes, Elgin: Capt. Jim Perna of Rolling Meadows 188, Tom Kouros of Barrington Woods 192, Dave Catherwood of Arlington Heights 189, Whitey Hefferan of Elk Grove 187, Ray Bryson of Carpentersville 187, John Seidel of Palatine 189, team 945.

Beverly Lanes, Arlington Heights: Capt. Monte Arkus of Roselle on vacation, data not complete.

Five Winners Named In Weekly Sweepstake

Marathon service station dealers in northwest suburbs this week announced five more winners in the Marathon Picnic Sweepstakes.

They are:

—Steve Luprich, 116 LaSalle rd., Arlington Heights, at Ray's Marathon Service, State rd. and Eastman st., Arlington Heights;

—Jim Crawford, Route 3, Box 228, Palatine, at Ed's Marathon Service, Hicks and Dundee rds., Palatine;

—R. Raphail, 30 Oak, Addison, at Frank and Harold's Marathon Service, Lake and Iowa sts., Addison; and

—D. J. Larson, 517 Algonquin rd., Arlington Heights, at Sam's Marathon Service, State and Algonquin rds., Arlington Heights; and

—Walter Miekelini, 3726 Wren lane, Rolling Meadows, at Bob's Marathon Service, Algonquin and Wilke rds., Arlington Heights.

THIS WEEK'S prize is a pair of Duralite aluminum lawn chairs. Prizes in the Sweepstakes are awarded every Monday by the above Marathon dealers. Weekly prizes during the eight-week contest also include movie cameras, portable radios, ice and picnic coolers, picnic baskets and picnic jugs.

ALUMINUM LAWN CHAIRS

VISUALIZING how his new aluminum lawn chairs will look in his back yard is R. Raphail, 30 Oak, Addison. He won the chairs in the Marathon Picnic Sweepstakes currently being sponsored in northwest suburbs. Raphail was the winner at Frank and Harold's Marathon service station, Lake and Iowa sts., Addison.

Area Sweepstakes winners are chosen at random from names drawn from entry boxes at local Marathon service stations. Anyone of driving age in northwest suburbs is eligible to enter as often as he wishes by calling, writing or leaving his name and address at a Marathon service station participating in the Picnic Sweepstakes.

A grand prize of a 1960 Pontiac is also awarded weekly. In addition, a nine-day trip to Paris via TWA will be given away as a bonus prize. Winners are chosen from all entering the local Marathon Picnic Sweepstakes before August 28.

one of last week's winners was incorrectly listed as Lorraine Low. The winner was Mrs. Lonnie Low of Arlington Heights. (BB

Show Rare Dwarf Trees at Nursery

Amateur and professional gardeners from all over Chicagoland will have an opportunity to view rare dwarf trees at the first Midwest Bonsai show to be held August 19, 20, 21, at D. Hill Nursery in Dundee, at the corner of routes 72 and 31.

Fanciers from all over the Midwest will be showing their rare plants. Over a thousand unusual dwarf trees with origin from all parts of the world will be on display.

Mrs. William Lewis, 158 Richards ave., Elmhurst, will show some of her rare plants from Africa. Mrs. Lewis, a grandmother three times, has been collecting plants since she was married and left her home in Kansas City, Mo. "Plants are like people" she said, "they show you when they are angry or happy."

RARE ORANGE trees, flowering Japanese Quince and Pagoda trees will be the feature plants in Mrs. John R. Nicholson's showing. Mrs. Nicholson, who lives at 626 Valley rd., Glencoe, has one of the largest and most unusual collections of Bonsai in the area.

U. S. Army Captain John A. Dorman of Rockford, will show his prize winning 30-year old Spruce that won a blue ribbon in the National Flower Show in Washington, D. C. Captain Dorman first became interested in the ancient art while stationed in the Orient in 1952. Since then he has shown trees in this country and in Germany. During the National show he gave one of his prize trees to President and Mrs. Eisenhower, who were visiting the show.

Because of the popularity of the Japanese arts and the interest in Bonsai culture, Mr. Jack Hill, Manager of the nursery, has arranged for exports to be on hand at the show to demonstrate the care and growing of these little trees. American plant-lovers will be able to get first-hand knowledge of the ancient art that was originally brought to Japan by the Chinese Buddhist Monks in the 13th Century.

The Hill Nursery, a pioneer in Dundee since 1955, is the largest grower of evergreens in the country.

Show Rare Dwarf Trees at Nursery

Amateur and professional gardeners from all over Chicagoland will have an opportunity to view rare dwarf trees at the first Midwest Bonsai show to be held August 19, 20, 21, at D. Hill Nursery in Dundee, at the corner of routes 72 and 31.

Fanciers from all over the Midwest will be showing their rare plants. Over a thousand unusual dwarf trees with origin from all parts of the world will be on display.

Mrs. William Lewis, 158 Richards ave., Elmhurst, will show some of her rare plants from Africa. Mrs. Lewis, a grandmother three times, has been collecting plants since she was married and left her home in Kansas City, Mo. "Plants are like people" she said, "they show you when they are angry or happy."

RARE ORANGE trees, flowering Japanese Quince and Pagoda trees will be the feature plants in Mrs. John R. Nicholson's showing. Mrs. Nicholson, who lives at 626 Valley rd., Glencoe, has one of the largest and most unusual collections of Bonsai in the area.

U. S. Army Captain John A. Dorman of Rockford, will show his prize winning 30-year old Spruce that won a blue ribbon in the National Flower Show in Washington, D. C. Captain Dorman first became interested in the ancient art while stationed in the Orient in 1952. Since then he has shown trees in this country and in Germany. Fairbanks, Morse Selects 60 For Sales Training School

Bruce Nesser, 756 Woodland rd., Palatine, was among the 60 men, 20 of them newcomers chosen after interviews on college campuses and 40 of them veterans selected from the field, that will attend the second annual Fairbanks, Morse & Co. sales training school in Beloit, Wis.

The two - million - square-foot plant, whose products range from magnetos to diesel engines, will be the site of courses in selling things Fairbanks - Morse makes.

Training in scales will be given for three weeks from August 1; in diesel engines, for four weeks from August 8; in pumps, for four weeks from August 22, and in electric motors and generators, for one week from September 19.

IN SHARP contrast to the future requirement for a neat, well - dressed appearance, the trainees will be in work clothes or casual sports wear as they dissassemble, assemble, test and operate equipment. In the sales training workshops and role - playing portions of their course, they will be in the uniform of the sales profession — business suits.

"We expect good results from this school because we have received many excellent reports from our 1959 training school," said Russell W. Lewis, Fairbanks - Morse director of merchandising, who for 20 years managed the company's dealer division.

Lewis said he feels that a salesman newly recruited from a college campus has an advantage in enthusiasm over a salesman hired away from a competitor.

The ex - competitor, he finds, has had a degree of faith in his old line of products, and "needs to be re-educated and have his attitude changed." In contrast, "a man coming into our organization fresh can be trained according to our own methods and product theories, and he starts out with enthusiasm."

IN THE talent search on 25 campuses this year, eight Fairbanks - Morse branch managers interviewed prospects in their parts of the nation.

"What they looked for primarily," Lewis said, "was the student who took part in considerable extracurricular activities. They especially wanted to find the student who worked to pay at least part of his expenses, as a sign of aggressiveness that will pay off in sales work."

In turn, the college men were looking for some "plus" factors other than salary in the employer they chose, Lewis said. He quoted the average man interviewed as saying, "I assume you are paying the going salary. Now, do you have a training school so that I can learn more about your business?"

AMONG THE other attractions that led men to choose Fairbanks - Morse, he continued, were the opportunity to pick either metropolitan or rural selling ("my wife won't move to a big city," one said), and either industrial or merchandising selling. They also liked the fact that the company's nation-wide scope enabled them to select the region in which they wanted to live.

About half of the men recruited from the campuses had studied engineering and the rest had studied business administration.

The average length of service for salesmen brought in from the field for specialists' training at the Beloit Works is five years. Each man selected for a course will be rounding out his ability to sell combination lines.

Celebrate Service With Victor

George Hasbach, 1422 Dorothy dr., and Carl Buehler, 149 N. Inverway rd., both of Palatine, were among nine employees of the Victor Adding Machine company, Chicago, that celebrated service anniversaries during July.

Hasbach celebrated 21 years of service with the Northside business machine firm where he is currently employed as manager of electronic sales.

Buehler, executive vice president of Victor, marked his 20th year with the firm.

Zurich Assignment For Roselle Man

LOUIS ZWARTVERWER

Louis F. Zwartverwer, 305 Washington blvd., Roselle, was recently appointed assistant manager of the Port of New York Continental Trade Development office in Zurich, Switzerland, according to a recent announcement by Austin J. Tobin, executive director of the Port of New York Authority.

Zwartverwer's assignment will permit the Port Authority to increase its coverage and expand its services to exporters throughout Western Europe.

The office, opened in 1958, assists business and government leaders in this vital area on all aspects of trade with the United States. They advise them particularly on the advantages of using the facilities and services of the New Jersey - New York Port.

THE INTENSIFIED trade development effort is essential to help New York meet the competitive challenge of other North Atlantic ports and the St. Lawrence Seaway for America's largest export market. Almost 32 per cent of the general cargo exports shipped through the bi-state harbor in 1959 were destined for Western Europe.

The Zurich office, with Henry C. Klingman as manager, covers Switzerland, France, Western Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy and Austria. This office has recently been relocated to Talstrasse 66 in downtown Zurich in order to provide a more convenient and accessible location for those seeking information concerning the Port of New York.

Zwartverwer, who has traveled extensively throughout the European Continent, has had 12 years of experience in traffic management in the midwest with Allis Chalmers, A. O. Smith and most recently as manager of the Chicago office of James W. Elwell and Co., steamship agents and operators.

A NATIVE - born American, Zwartverwer was a student in an Amsterdam high school at the outbreak of World War II, in which he served in both the Dutch and United States Armies.

He attended Oxford in England, the University of Wisconsin and Marquette university, Wis. He is 33 years old, married to the former Anita Ruttman of Racine, Wis. and has two sons. He will report to Zurich in October.

Synthetic

Synthetic rubber will supply about 64 per cent of the United States' new rubber requirements in 1960, up 20 per cent in the past two years.

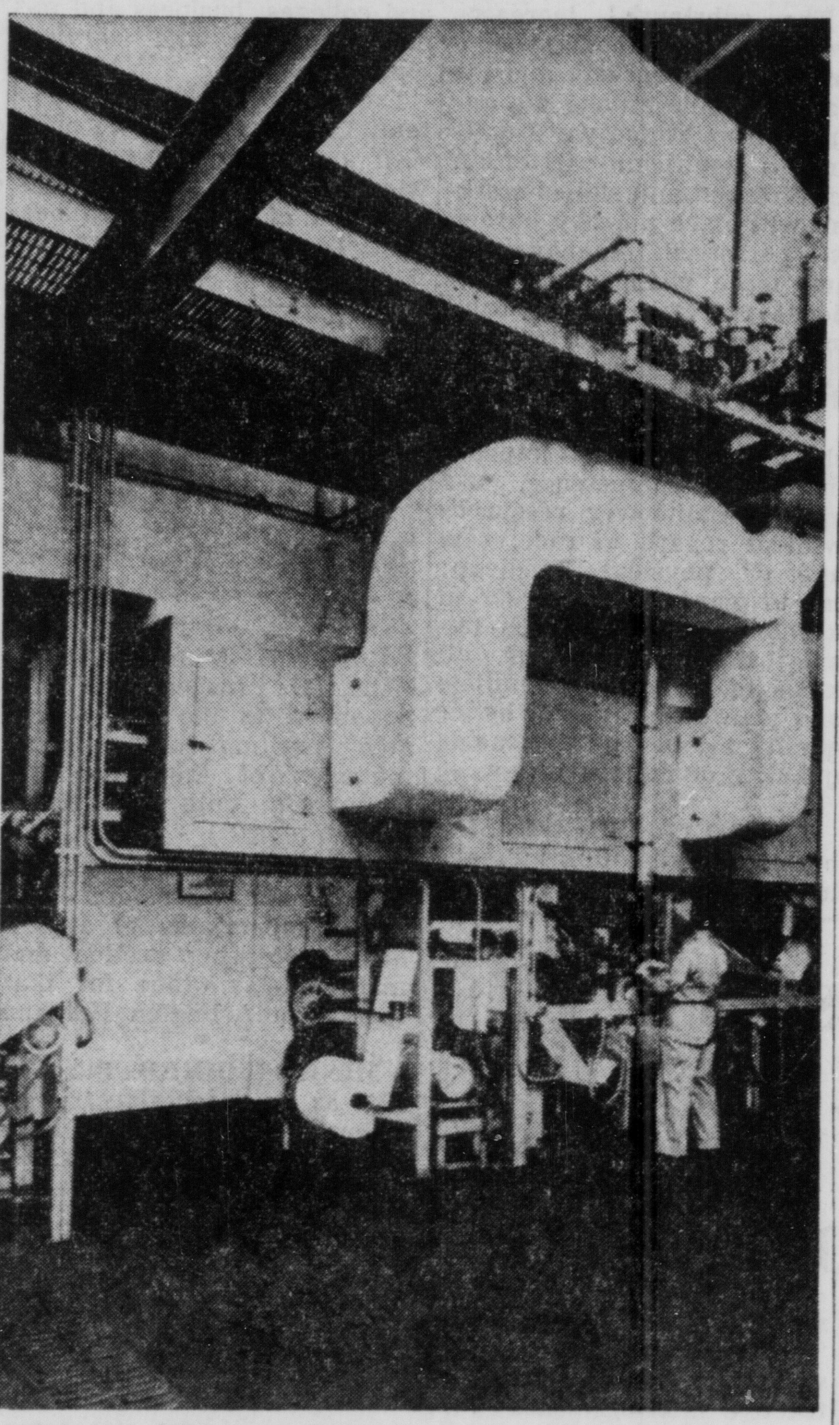
Bruning Duplicates Any Humidity State



ONE OF TWO experimental paper coating machines in the Charles Bruning company's new research and development center is pictured here. The flexible units can coat and dry up to 3,000 yards of diazo paper per hour. The dryers are humidity controlled and can be either gas or steam heated. These machines are operating replicas of the latest production line coating machines. Virtually all coating conditions can be simulated on the experimental coaters.

Virtually any humidity condition, ranging from Hawaii to Maine, can be made to order in the Charles Bruning company's new research center at Mt. Prospect.

"Humidity - controlled" rooms that will simulate exact humidity conditions in any part of the country are one of the features of the million dollar building opened by Bruning recently.

The center was designed primarily for research in photo-reproduction processes. These include the well established diazotype systems, newer copying methods, such as photo-electrostatic printing, and other chemical and physical reproduction systems.

BECAUSE BUSINESS is expanding its use of copying machines to eliminate repeat writing of a great variety of paperwork procedures, the annual sales volume of the sensitized paper industry alone jumped from $20,000,000 in 1947 to an estimated $100,000,000 in 1959.

Dr. Carl Botkin, Bruning vice president and research director, said the new center was designed to accommodate a staff of 70, engaged in applied research, product development, technical services and process development engineering.

The two-story building, which adjoins the company's headquarters, has more than 27,000 square feet of working space and is designed to allow for further expansion.

SPECIAL ROOMS in the research center include walk-in high humidity and high temperature rooms which cover a range from 70 to 120 degrees Fahrenheit in temperature and 10 to 95 per cent in relative humidity.

In addition to a central test room which contains diazotype, photo-electrostatic, and competitive copying equipment and facilities for carrying out forced-aging tests (temperature, humidity and ultraviolet light), the new building has ten window-less laboratories.

There are three true dark room labs, a photographic dark room, a semi-works area containing two laboratory paper coaters, an instrument room, offices, conference room, and a technical, legal and commercial library.

The Bruning Company's $50,000,000 a year business was started by the late Charles Bruning with $100 worth of decrepit blueprint equipment in 1897. Today a single coating machine in Bruning's main plant in Mt. Prospect can coat more than 200 miles of sensitized paper every day.

Dollar Sales Dip For Past Period

Baird & Warner's 18 Chicago and suburban real estate offices completed 700 sales for a gross volume of $25,045,984 during the six months ended June 30. This compares with 677 sales totaling $27,256,711 in the first half of 1959, John L. Hall, vice president, reported.

The eight per cent dip in dollar sales is due primarily to the smaller number of very large transactions in recent months, Hall said. Two large non-recurrent sales totaling more than $2,000,000 in June, 1959, accounted for almost all of the difference in sales for the two years.

Sales of single family homes, including co-operative apartment units, were 550 in 1960, compared with 551 in 1959. Home sales continued strong in all areas served by the firm's 18 offices, particularly in upper medium price brackets, Hall said.

WHILE MORTGAGE conditions have not changed materially during the last six months, the firm has experienced no difficulty in obtaining mortgage financing at current rates.

Sales of apartment buildings and commercial properties ran nearly 60 per cent ahead of 1959 during the period, Hall reported. The firm closed 46 sales of apartment buildings containing fewer than 12 units, an increase of 59 per cent over the 29 sales reported in 1959. Apartment buildings with 12 or more units and commercial buildings accounted for 54 closings, also an increase of 59 per cent over the 34 sold in 1959.

Sales of vacant parcels continued to decline, reflecting the growing scarcity of choice, unimproved land for residential, industrial or commercial development.

Job Opportunities Gaining In Cities; Farms to Suffer

"How 'ya goin' to keep 'em down on the farm," to quote an old refrain, has become purely academic in these days of automated technology since it isn't Paris that beckons any more but the simple bread-and-butter facts of life.

It's the shift of jobs from the farms, and rural areas to the big urban areas of the country that beckons today.

This shift has been going on for some time but the 1960s will see the biggest growth in job opportunities in the professional, managerial, clerical, sales and skilled occupations, with a continuing decline among the number of farmers and farm workers.

WHILE agricultural produc-creased tremendously and has created many new oppor-tion in the country has in-tunities, highly efficient machinery has also slashed the demand for farm operators and farm workers. Thus, many young people from farm areas must seek employment in other fields.

And it isn't only the farms and farmers that will be affected, as the job shifts indicae. The U.S. Department of Labor has made extensive studies in this field and has come up with some important estimates which are called "Manpower Projections."

Generally, the youth of today cannot look forward to working all his life at one job. He must be ready and able to step into new positions as swift industrial changes eliminate one set of jobs while creating other sets requiring different skills, different training, and different orientation.

This trend emphasizes the great importance of education and training during the current decade. Only the best kind of education in schools, apprenticeship training, and training on the job will enable us to match the growing number of workers with the job demands of the future. While both high school and college enrollments are expected to increase to meet these needs, it is shocking to discover that about 7½ million young persons are expected to drop out of school before receiving their high school diplomas during the 1960s.

IF THAT MANY do drop out, as predicted by the statistics, they will represent 30 per cent of all new workers entering the labor force during the 1960s. The prospects that there will be such a large group without a high school education points to the need for better guidance and counseling earlier in the school years. Boys and girls need to be helped to understand how important it is for them, in terms of their own job future, to get all the education they possibly can.

Some of the issues we will face become clear when the composition of the labor force over the next decade is examined. The number of young workers under 25 years of age in the labor force will increase by nearly 6½ million, or some 46 per cent by 1970. This compares with an increase in this age group of less than one million during the 1950-1960 period.

Workers 25 to 34 years of age will increase by some 1¾ million, or about 12 per cent over the number in this age group today.

One of the most important changes in the labor force will take place in the number of men and women between the ages of 35 and 44 who are available for work. These are the people from which foremen, supervisors and middle management are usually drawn, and because of the low birth rate during the depression of the 1930s, the number of these workers in the so-called prime years will actually decline by 200,000. During the 10 years just past the number of workers in this age group went up about 2½ million.

WORKERS OVER 45 years of age will continue to increase as in the last decade. Their number will go up by 20 per cent, or 5½ million, to make a total of nearly 33½ million workers over 45 by 1970.

The substantial increases we can expect among younger and older workers and the actual decline among the age group from which we usually draw a significant part of our experienced and skilled workers will place a heavy burden on personnel management and force changes in traditional practices in recruitment, selection, and training.

And what can be done about this? What is being done?

Labor Department studies show that we must improve individual competence, use all our manpower resources without regard to race, sex, age, or physical handicap; try to place every worker in a job that best fits his talents; develop jobs for all kinds of worker capabilities; and plan on full use of better quality as well as increasing quantity of manpower.

THE DEPARTMENT of Labor is carrying this message in a variety of ways to the populace through the schools and colleges, business and industry, unions and service clubs.

During the 1960s, our potential is such that if we plan well and use our manpower wisely we can increase our standard of living by 25 per cent. To do this, we must use our manpower effectively.

Local Man Appointed To Board

Leonard Bantz, executive vice president of the Mobile-home Dealers National Association of Chicago, has been appointed to a three year term to the board of trustees, the College of Commerce, the University of Illinois, in Champaign-Urbana.

Bantz was a graduate of the university in 1942. After his graduation Bantz was attached to the comptrollers department for seven years on the staff of the university.

Bantz resides at 7 N. William st. in Mt. Prospect.

North Western RR Adds New Coaches To Suburban Line

A gleaming yellow and green streamlined railroad coach of double-deck design will come off the production lines of Pullman-Standard in South Chicago this week for immediate delivery to the Chicago and North Western Railway company.

The new coach is the first of a fleet of 116 similar cars which will be delivered to the railroad during the next 10 months. When all the cars are received the result will be complete modernization of North Western's suburban equipment, replacing all conventional cars now in commuter service.

The 116-car order, along with necessary changes in diesel locomotives which will permit all the new cars to operate in "push-pull" trains, represents an investment of $21,000,000 by the railroad.

THE RAILROAD expects to receive one car a week for the first four weeks. As Pullman - Standard's production lines reach high gear, however, deliveries will be stepped up to three cars a week.

The new cars are similar in design to 36 double-deck coaches acquired by the railroad last winter and now operating in "push-pull" trains whereby the locomotive pushes its train on movement from the suburbs to Chicago and pulls them on outbound trips.

All the cars are equipped with modern air-conditioning, electric heating, flourescent lighting, comfortable foam rubber seats, five-foot-wide "picture" windows of tinted safety glass and colorful attractive interiors featuring vinyl permanently bonded on steel for walls and ceilings.

WHEN THE final coach is delivered next summer the railroad will have the most modern suburban train fleet in the world, consisting of 200 double-deck coaches with a total of 32,000 seats.

According to Clyde J. Fitzpatrick, president of the North Western, the modernization program of the railroad's suburban fleet will even extend to the 48 double-deck cars acquired by the railroad five years ago. "These," he said, "will be brought right up to date by replacement of steam heat with electric heat and by installation of other improvements so that they will be comparable with the coaches we are now receiving'

Fitzpatrick said that while the cars are designed with the comfort of the commuter in mind, they are also designed for efficiency in operation and maintenance.

As the result of modernization of commuter tickets and collection procedures, the elimination of a number of "close-in" stations and increasees in fares late in 1958, North Western's suburban service operated $29,500 "in the black" last year. In previous years the railroad's suburban service continuously produced deficits of as much as $3,000,000 a year.

Pure Oil Appoints Minner

Robert S. Minner, 204 N. Wille, Mt. Prospect, has been appointed to the newly created position of assistant manager of the Pure Oil company's data processing department.

In addition to his new duties, Minner will continue the direct supervision of Pure's data processing section and maintain his office for that section in Arlington Heights.

Job Opportunities Gaining In Cities; Farms to Suffer

"How 'ya goin' to keep 'em down on the farm," to quote an old refrain, has become purely academic in these days of automated technology since it isn't Paris that beckons any more but the simple bread-and-butter facts of life.

It's the shift of jobs from the farms, and rural areas to the big urban areas of the country that beckons today.

This shift has been going on for some time but the 1960s will see the biggest growth in job opportunities in the professional, managerial, clerical, sales and skilled occupations, with a continuing decline among the number of farmers and farm workers.

WHILE agricultural produccreased tremendously and has created many new opportion in the country has intunities, highly efficient machinery has also slashed the demand for farm operators and farm workers. Thus, many young people from farm areas must seek employment in other fields.

And it isn't only the farms and farmers that will be affected, as the job shifts indicae. The U.S. Department of Labor has made extensive studies in this field and has come up with some important estimates which are called "Manpower Projections."

Generally, the youth of today cannot look forward to working all his life at one job. He must be ready and able to step into new positions as swift industrial changes eliminate one set of jobs while creating other sets requiring different skills, different training, and different orientation.

This trend emphasizes the great importance of education and training during the current decade. Only the best kind of education in schools, apprenticeship training, and training on the job will enable us to match the growing number of workers with the job demands of the future. While both high school and college enrollments are expected to increase to meet these needs, it is shocking to discover that about 7½ million young persons are expected to drop out of school before receiving their high school diplomas during the 1960s.

IF THAT MANY do drop out, as predicted by the statistics, they will represent 30 per cent of all new workers entering the labor force during the 1960s. The prospects that there will be such a large group without a high school education points to the need for better guidance and counseling earlier in the school years. Boys and girls need to be helped to understand how important it is for them, in terms of their own job future, to get all the education they possibly can.

Some of the issues we will face become clear when the composition of the labor force over the next decade is examined. The number of young workers under 25 years of age in the labor force will increase by nearly 6½ million, or some 46 per cent by 1970. This compares with an increase in this age group of less than one million during the 1950-1960 period.

Workers 25 to 34 years of age will increase by some 1¾ million, or about 12 per cent over the number in this age group today.

One of the most important changes in the labor force will take place in the number of men and women between the ages of 35 and 44 who are available for work. These are the people from which foremen, supervisors and middle management are usually drawn, and because of the low birth rate during the depression of the 1930s, the number of these workers in the so-called prime years will actually decline by 200,000. During the 10 years just past the number of workers in this age group went up about 2½ million.

WORKERS OVER 45 years of age will continue to increase as in the last decade. Their number will go up by 20 per cent, or 5½ million, to make a total of nearly 33½ million workers over 45 by 1970.

The substantial increases we can expect among younger and older workers and the actual decline among the age group from which we usually draw a significant part of our experienced and skilled workers will place a heavy burden on personnel management and force changes in traditional practices in recruitment, selection, and training.

And what can be done about this? What is being done?

Labor Department studies show that we must improve individual competence, use all our manpower resources without regard to race, sex, age, or physical handicap; try to place every worker in a job that best fits his talents; develop jobs for all kinds of worker capabilities; and plan on full use of better quality as well as increasing quantity of manpower.

THE DEPARTMENT of Labor is carrying this message in a variety of ways to the populace through the schools and colleges, business and industry, unions and service clubs.

During the 1960s, our potential is such that if we plan well and use our manpower wisely we can increase our standard of living by 25 per cent. To do this, we must use our manpower effectively.

Local Man Appointed To Board

Leonard Bantz, executive vice president of the Mobilehome Dealers National Association of Chicago, has been appointed to a three year term to the board of trustees, the College of Commerce, the University of Illinois, in Champaign-Urbana.

Bantz resides at 7 N. William st. in Mt. Prospect.

North Western RR Adds New Coaches To Suburban Line

A gleaming yellow and green streamlined railroad coach of double-deck design will come off the production lines of Pullman-Standard in South Chicago this week for immediate delivery to the Chicago and North Western Railway company.

The new coach is the first of a fleet of 116 similar cars which will be delivered to the railroad during the next 10 months. When all the cars are received the result will be complete modernization of North Western's suburban equipment, replacing all conventional cars now in commuter service.

The 116-car order, along with necessary changes in diesel locomotives which will permit all the new cars to operate in "push-pull" trains, represents an investment of $21,000,000 by the railroad.

THE RAILROAD expects to receive one car a week for the first four weeks. As Pullman - Standard's production lines reach high gear, however, deliveries will be stepped up to three cars a week.

The new cars are similar in design to 36 double-deck coaches acquired by the railroad last winter and now operating in "push-pull" trains whereby the locomotive pushes its train on movement from the suburbs to Chicago and pulls them on outbound trips.

All the cars are equipped with modern air-conditioning, electric heating, flourescent lighting, comfortable foam rubber seats, five-foot-wide "picture" windows of tinted safety glass and colorful attractive interiors featuring vinyl permanently bonded on steel for walls and ceilings.

WHEN THE final coach is delivered next summer the railroad will have the most modern suburban train fleet in the world, consisting of 200 double-deck coaches with a total of 32,000 seats.

According to Clyde J. Fitzpatrick, president of the North Western, the modernization program of the railroad's suburban fleet will even extend to the 48 double-deck cars acquired by the railroad five years ago. "These," he said, "will be brought right up to date by replacement of steam heat with electric heat and by installation of other improvements so that they will be comparable with the coaches we are now receiving'

Fitzpatrick said that while the cars are designed with the comfort of the commuter in mind, they are also designed for efficiency in operation and maintenance.

As the result of modernization of commuter tickets and collection procedures, the elimination of a number of "close-in" stations and increasees in fares late in 1958, North Western's suburban service operated $29,500 "in the black" last year. In previous years the railroad's suburban service continuously produced deficits of as much as $3,000,000 a year.

Safety Council Cautions Campers To Avoid Dangers

If you're a typical father of lively youngsters, the odds are that sometime before the first snow falls you'll hear cries of:

"Let's go on a hike!" Or — "Why can't we camp out overnight?"

Chances are very good you'll wind up doing one or the other.

Maybe you know all the ins and outs of hiking and camping. If you don't, these hints from the National Safety Council can mean the difference between an unpleasant outing and an accident-free time of fun.

BECAUSE HIKING and camping are largely unorganized activities, few national accident statistics are available. But reports filtering in from across the nation indicate that two major hazards are poisonous plants, and poisonous reptiles.

Most persons are immune to the effects of the majority of the 60 kinds of American plants that can cause skin irritation. But nearly everyone who touches poison ivy, poison oak or poison sumac is affected somewhat.

Poison ivy is either a low shrub or a climbing or creeping vine. Plant leaves, which may be notched or smooth, are arranged in groups of three on short stalks of unequal length. The leaves are shiny, dark green in summer, brilliant orange or scarlet in fall. In May and June you may notice tiny white flowers clustered at the base of the leaves.

It is found in woods or in the open, in dry or moist locations, along fence rows, paths, roadways or in places where birds roost, and in every state except California and Nevada.

POISON OAK, similar to poison ivy, is usually a shrub but sometimes a vine. The leaflets, which resemble small oak leaves, occur in groups of three, are deeply lobed and somewhat hairy.

Poison sumac (aliases: poison ash, poison dogwood, poison elder and thunderwood), a shrub, may be found as a tree 20-30 feet tall. Its leaflets are sharply pointed, smooth and oily. Has smooth, cream-colored "berries" growing in loose clusters along the side of the branch or stem.

Best way to avoid getting ivy poisoning, says the Council, is to stay away from the poisonous plants.

NOW AS TO snakes:

The 20 species of poisonous snakes fall into four major groups: coral snake, rattlesnake, copperhead and water moccasin.

Coral snake, slender with smooth, glossy scales, usually is less than three feet long. Color: wide red bands bordered by narrower bands of yellow or white.

RATTLESNAKE, 21 varieties in the United States alone) varies in length from 15 inches to more than eight feet. One similarity between the varieties: the rattle at the end of the tail, which warns when the snake's been disturbed.

Copperhead, pale brown, pinkish or light reddish brown with a copper-colored head, usually is three to four feet long. Can be spotted by a series of large blotches (usually a rich, chestnut brown) on its sides.

Water moccasin, an aquatic serpent, lives along streams, lakes or in swamps, grows to a length of six feet. Colors: dull brown or olive.

Precautions: Give a snake, even one you think is harmless, a way out. Seek immediate medical attention if attacked. (BB

Ranger Offers Compact Unit For Campers

Recent surveys of the American public provide that the popularity of camping in this country is growing considerably.

This tremendous growth has necessitated a need for vastly improved camping facilities and equipment.

With this thought in mind, Ranger Engineering and Manufacturing of Union City, Mich., has developed a complete luxury camping unit that collapses into a compact trailer.

THE ENTIRE unit has a weight of only 400 pounds and can easily be pulled to any destination. The tent unfolds to cover an area six feet four inches by nine feet, ample room for three who will have to use sleeping bags.

The tent, made of heavy duck treated with Permasol, has no guy ropes or clumsy poles to mess with. A system of telescoping tubes which collapse easily and compactly support the roof.

Forty-three cubic feet will amply accommodate all necessary supplies without cluttering up the car.

The Remco unit is available in both a one wheel dual hitch and a two wheel single hitch.

Further information concerning the unit and other Ranger products can be obtained from Charles B. Gray Rand rd., Mt. Prospect.

Urick Promoted By Board

ARTHUR E. URICK

Arthur E. Urick, Barrington, recently was promoted from cashier to vice president and cashier at Harris Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, by the bank's board of directors.

The new vice president is a past president, Chicago chapter of American Institute of Banking, trustee of the village of North Barrington and a member of Biltmore country club and Lounsbury Lodge No. 751, AF and AM.

Revenue Increases For Month

Preliminary traffic revenue of the Illinois Tollway for July of this year was $2,355,108 as compared to $1,795,908 for the same month a year ago, an increase of $559,200 or 31.1 per cent, it was announced recently by Charles L. Dearing, executive director.

Revenue figures, subject to audit adjustment, indicate traffic revenues of $10,711,883 for the first seven months of 1960 as compared with $7,459,567 for the same period of 1959, an increase of $3,252,316 or 43.6 per cent.

Average daily toll revenue for July, 1960, was $75,971 compared to $57,932 for the same month a year ago, an increase of $18,039 or 31.1 per cent. Average daily toll revenue for the first seven months of 1960 was $50,291 as compared to $35,187 for the same period in 1959, an increase of $15,104 or 42.9 per cent.

Commercial traffic revenue for the period January 1 through July 19, 1960, amounted to $2,023,321 as compared to $1,257,477 for the same period in 1959, an increase of $765,844 or 60.9 per cent. (BB

THE ENTIRE unit has a weight of only 400 pounds and can easily be pulled to any destination. The tent unfolds to cover an area six feet four inches by nine feet, ample room for three who will have to use sleeping bags.

The tent, made of heavy duck treated with Permasol, has no guy ropes or clumsy poles to mess with. A system of telescoping tubes which collapse easily and compactly support the roof.

Forty-three cubic feet will amply accommodate all necessary supplies without cluttering up the car.

The Remco unit is available in both a one wheel dual hitch and a two wheel single hitch.

Further information concerning the unit and other Ranger products can be obtained from Charles B. Gray Rand rd., Mt. Prospect.

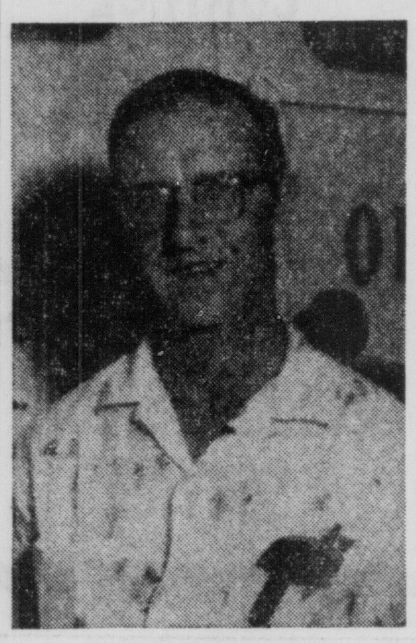
Drivers Honored By Jewel Tea At Safety Dinner

Walter Ostrowski, 2007 Grouse st., Rolling Meadows, and Wilbert Lein, 1209 Stoneham, Bensenville were among 151 drivers recently honored by Jewel Tea Co., at a Jewel Legion of Safety dinner held in the company's offices.

WALTER OSTROWSKI



WILBERT LEIN

All Jewel drivers operating throughout the Chicago and Metropolitan area are eligible for Jewel's Legion of Safety which was organized to encourage courteous and safe driving.

To earn a Jewel Legion of Safety citation, a driver must complete a year of accident free driving the 12 month period ending April 30, of each year.

AS PART OF the annual dinner program, drivers receive recognition for their outstanding efforts toward making their Jewel group the most courteous and safest driving group in Chicagoland.

This year 151 drivers, 67 per cent of the total staff, received awards for their safe driving accomplishments during the past year. These 151 drivers have amassed an accumulated total of 795 man-years of safe driving with Jewel. Some of them have attained over 20 years of safe driving, many have from 10 to 15 years, and a great many have reached the five to 10 year accomplishment.

In recognition of the accomplishments in the promoting of highway courtesy and safety, each Jewel driver receives an award commensurate with his total years of accident free driving. The awards this year consisted of a coin knife personally inscribed with the Jewel Legion of Safety emblem, together with merchandise certificates having a maximum value of $100.

During the 1959 - 60 safety award year, Jewel drivers made 60,573 individual trips, totaling nearly three and one-half million miles in serving the Chicago and Metropolitan area homemakers with food supplies.

Technical Seminar Slated

A technical seminar on high energy rate forming at the Sheraton Towers October 11 and 12 has been announced by E. Clark Shafer, chairman of the Chicago Chapter, American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers.

Shafer, 17 W. 235 Oakdale dr., Bensenville, is president of the Brett Machinery company, Oak Park.

THE TWO-DAY session will cover design, materials, reliability, forging extrusions, explosives, hydro-spark, shock waves and tooling requirements for high energy rate forming, Shafer said.

ASTME's seminars are under the direction of the Society's National Education committee, headed by Oliver S. Hulley, education consultant, General Electric company, New York City. They are designed to give the tool and manufacturing engineer the latest information on subjects of vital interest in the field.

Papers will be presented on various subjects by noted authorities who will come from around the nation to Chicago for the session.

VOLKSWAGEN

MORE THAN 125 Volkswagen dealers and personnel representing the VW franchises in the six-state Midwest region attended a promotional meeting August 1 at the Moraine Hotel, Highland Park. Shown at the meeting are Victor A. Doyno, left, and Robert Dall of Doyno Motors, Inc., Mt. Prospect. The meeting was conducted by the Midwest distributor for Volkswagen, Import Motors of Chicago, Inc., Northbrook, for its dealers in the Chicago area and Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, the Dakotas and Wisconsin. The meeting, held to signal the start of the new automobile year on Sept. 1, consisted of a business session as well as a musical sales presentation. Dealers were provided with information and new techniques designed to aid them in exceeding during 1960-61 the record-breaking sales figures attained by Volkswagen during the current

Dodge Sales Increase

Dodge car sales continue to increase. Retail sales of 12,221 units during the second 10 days of July 1960 were 179.7 per cent higher than similar sales last year, M. C. Patterson, Dodge general manager reports.

A comparison of sales figures shows that Dodge has increased its sales for every sales period in the current year.

Retail sales in the second 10 days of July, 1959 followed the traditional pattern and were only 256 units above the first ten days. In sharp contrast, the July 10-20, 1960 period showed an increase of 4,093 units for the comparable period.

"We are particularly pleased with the steady increase of Dodge sales, and the increase in sales-per-dealer," Patterson said, "and there is every indication that our dealers will write new records in the months and year ahead."

Haberkamp's Chosen As Representative

Haberkamp's Flowers, retail florists at 15 N. Elmhurst ave., Mt. Prospect, owned and operated by Edwin and Irene Haberkamp, has been chosen as exclusive representative by Florists' Nationwide Telephone Delivery Network America's Phone-Order Florists, for Mt. Prospect, Arlington Heights and Palatine, effective at once.

FNTDN, or "America's Phone-Order Florists" as the organization is popularly known, is the flower industry's independent florists' alliance and maintains national headquarters in Chicago.

Operating in hundreds of cities throughout the United States from the Atlantic coast all the way to Honolulu, this group is comprised of one outstanding florist in each city. All independently owned, these floral shops are banded together, via the Network, in a co-operative program which is accomplishing for each of them, increased sales, greater economy in operations, more efficient service and better consumer values.

THROUGH THEIR national buying office, the only one in the floral industry, member shops effect substantial savings through large-scale purchasing of basic floral accessories and cut flowers.

In another phase of their co-operative effort, these selected top florists also achieve better execution and delivery of all their intercity flower orders.

To qualify as exclusive FNTDN representative in this city, it was necessary for Edwin and Irene Haberkamp, their store staff, operations and products to pass rigid examinations and inspections by a Network official who surveyed the Mt. Prospect area during recent weeks.

Social Security Marks Anniversary

The Cubs won the pennant that year and their fans went wild. Two months earlier, at the Chicago Theater, another type of fan was gyrating; Sally Rand appeared in person.

It was 1935, when you could buy a new Chevrolet for $465, when Carole Lombard rented an entire amusement park to give a party, when Harvard boys were swallowing goldfish, when porterhouse steak was selling in Chicago for 22 cents a pound, when the union scale for brick layers, carpenters and plumbers was $1.50 an hour and when more than a million persons in Illinois, 13 per cent of the population, were "on relief," with an average grant per family of $29 a month.

On August 9 of that year Congress passed the original Social Security bill; on August 14, Will Rogers and Wiley Post died in the crash of their aircraft, the tragic news pushing the account of Franklin Roosevelt's signing of the Social Security Act to the inside pages of the newspapers.

ALTHOUGH the legislation was passed by an overwhelming majority of both houses of Congress and was widely hailed by most public elements, there were those who predicted a short life for the law, holding that the Supreme Court would declare it unconstitutional.

The court ruled otherwise and the rest is history. Growing and developing over the years with experience and the times, economic security in old-age and for families deprived of the breadwinner by death is an accepted, expected privilege of almost all Americans.

In Washington, next week, as well as in a number of communities throughout the land, government, business and labor groups will join to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Social Security Act.

LOCALLY, the Social Security Administration's northwest district manager, Julius Berman, observed: "The silver anniversary of this once 'revolutionary,' now traditional attack on common hazards is of course significant. Somewhere, in the ceremonies next week, someone will speak of what Social Security has done to gain 'freedom from want.' Somewhere else, someone else will speak of what Social Security has done to gain 'freedom from fear.'"

"These statements," he said, "will be important, true and meaningful. Most meaningful, however, is the silent commemoration that takes place each month in the homes of millions of Americans — more than 15 million who now receive more than a billion dollars a month in old-age, survivors and disability insurance benefits."

"In Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin alone," Berman noted, "old-age, survivors and disability insurance benefit payments total consideraby in excess of a billion dollars a year."

"Social Security Serving America for 25 years" (OASI-26g) is the title of a special pamphlet that is now available upon request. You may get your free copy by phoning or writing any social security office. The Northwest District Social Security office is located at 4255 Milwaukee ave., Chicago 41, and the phone number is Kildare 5-8844.

DuPage County readers are served by the district office located at 1124 Westgate ave., Oak Park.

Illinois Bankers Attend Classes

One hundred and forty young Illinois bankers will attend the 1960 session of the School for the Development of Junior Executives, sponsored by the Illinois Bankers association and held on the campus of Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

This is the largest enrollment in the school's history, according to Donald M. Carlson, association president and president of the Elmhurst National Bank. The school's eighth annual session will meet September 6-16.

The great majority of the men and women of the student body are from medium-sized and smaller banks in all sections of the state.

CHAIRMAN ROBERT B. Campbell, vice president of the Central National Bank & Trust company, Peoria, reports that 70 per cent of the 74 first-year students and 64 per cent of the 66 second-year students are employed by banks with less than fifteen million dollars in deposits. Their banks are located in 104 different communities.

The curriculum offers a comprehensive course in banking practices. It covers these broad areas: agricultural credits, consumer loans, commercial loans, economics, investments, bank operations and control, banking law, bank credit, public relations, bank administration problems and public speaking.

The forty-subject class schedule is augmented by evening seminars, which emphasize student participation.

The school's faculty is composed largely of banking officers, educators and specialists.

Since its founding in 1953, the School for the Development of Junior Executives has graduated 288 progressive, service-minded bankers, enabling them to play more important roles in their institutions.

Picnic Precautions Listed By Marathon Oil Co

The great American custom of picnicking is again in the midst of its annual warm weather revival. This year, it is estimated that one out of every two persons will go on at least one picnic or outing.

Noting that the number of picnickers has been increasing every summer, local Marathon service station dealers are presparing their customers for the rush to the picnic grounds with the Marathon Picnic Sweepstakes, now running through August 28.

Each Marathon dealer participating in the Sweepstakes is giving away picnic equipment each of the eight weeks of the big contest, ranging from picnic baskets and coolers to portable radios and cameras.

In addition, eight 1960 Pontiacs are being given to winners throughout the Mid-American Marathon sales territory. A bonus grand prize at the end of the contest will be a nine-day trip to Paris for two via TWA-Trans World Airlines.

ON A PICNIC, whether in Paris or in the backyard, there's a right way and a wrong way to proceed. Doing things the right way, paying attention to certain safety rules, will insure a more enjoyable outing. Here's some basic safety rules to consider while on your picnic.

Keep a first aid kit near at hand. Include bandages and a disinfectant, suntan or baby oil and something to treat burns.

Use caution when climbing over stone walls and fences. Never underestimate the power of a barbed wire fence.

Don't try to live seven days in one. It's loads of fun to be out-of-doors, but if you're not used to strenuous exercise take it easy, or you'll be very sorry the next morning.

WATCH OUT for the sun! You won't get that glorious suntan in a few hours — it takes days. Remember that you usually won't detect that sunburn until the next day, so ration yourself so you won't end up with a painful burn or worse.

Naturally, no swimming or other big exertion immediately after eating. It's a hard rule to explain to children, but a vital one.

If you build a fire, never leave it unattended, and be positive it is completely dead before you leave. Actually the safest bet is to bring along a portable grill.

One of the best and most popular is the Great Scotch Grill, included as a prize in Marathon's Picnic Sweepstakes, a barbecue grill that's convenient to carry and easy to use. This grill is also safe to use because the firepot is recessed into the body.

DON'T FORGET that children have unlimited curiosity and they can run faster and farther than you can. If there is water nearby, be sure it's within range of vision so small swimmers always are in sight. If the terrain is unfamiliar, check it for covered-over holes, hidden barbed wire and tempting but dangerous climbing areas.

Speaking of water, avoid drinking from strange springs or wells, unless you're sure about the purity of the water. If you are certain, then by all means enjoy the spring water because nothing tastes as clear and refreshing. For your other types of drinks, there's a wide variety of picnic jugs available.

If you're going on a picnic, it will also pay you to learn about the poisonous weeds like oak and ivy. Check the picnic area for signs of these plants before you settle down. Many's the picnic that was enjoyed on Sunday, only to be itchingly regretted by Monday or Tuesday.

If you're interested in getting some picnic equipment free, and who isn't, one way is to call, write or leave your name at the nearest Marathon service station participating in the Picnic Sweepstakes. Each dealer is conducting his own Sweepstakes each week during the contest.

Everyone entered in a local contest automatically is entered in the weekly drawings for eight 1960 Catalina Vista 4-Door Pontiacs. The TWA trip to Paris for two will be awarded after the contest is over late in August.

Wins Second Place In Operatic Test

Mrs. Clarence Paul, 506 S. Ioka ct., Mt. Prospect, was among the winners in the Cook County operatic vocal contests held earlier this week in preparation for the Chicagoland Music Festival. Mrs. Paul won second place in the dramatic soprano contests.

The contests are part of the 31st annual Chicagoland Music Festival, which will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, August 20, in Soldiers Field, Chicago.

Stars of the festival will include Connie Francis, the sweetheart of song; Hoagy Carmichael, composer, musician, actor of "Stardust" fame; Charles L. K. Davis, Hawaiian lyric tenor; Johnny O'Brien, harmonica-playing humorist; and a trio of Bing Crosby's swinging sons, Philip, Dennis and Lindsay.

ALSO IN the spotlight will be winners of festival musical, vocal and talent contests, a grand parade of massed bands, a gigantic display of fireworks, and other features involving a cast of over 6,000 amateur and professional entertainers. Director of the musical spectacular is Philip Maxwell.

The event is being sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc. Tickets for reserved seats, are available at $1.75 and $2.00, from the Festival ticket manager, Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., Tribune Tower, Chicago 11, Ill.

Proceeds of the event will be distributed to Chicago area charitable organizations. (BB

Late summer is one of the best times to renovate old lawns. If the job is started in August, and the lawn seeded by September, the fall growth plus the growth next spring will produce a turf thick enough to keep out crabgrass, and make it difficult for weeds to get started.

Probably the most important step in renovating a lawn is the removal of all weeds. If there are few weeds in the lawn, or if the lawn is quite small, the weeds can be pulled. For large or very weedy lawns, the chemical weed killers are almost a necessity. Broad-leaved weeds such as dandelions, plantain, or chickweed can be killed with 2, 4-D, 2, 4, 5-T or combinations of the two. Be sure to use these materials with care, as they will seriously injure or even kill broadleaved flowers, shrubs or vegetables. It is best to apply weed killers at a time when there is no wind so that there is no chance for fumes to drift to desirable plants. New dry forms of these materials now on the market considerably lessen the danger of damage.

CRABGRASS can be killed with disodium methyl arsenate, potassium cyanate, or certain other compounds especially formulated for this purpose. Several treatments may be necessary.

Undesirable perennial grasses such as the tall fescues can be spot treated with grass killers such as Dowpon. However, unless the entire lawn is to be killed, Dowpon must be used with care as it kills desirable as well as weedy grasses.

After the weeds have been killed, the lawn should be raked thoroughly to loosen the upper crust of soil and tear up the mat of dried grass. Low places in the lawn should be filled in with fine topsoil.

TEN DAYS to two weeks after the last weed killer treatment, the lawn can be fertilized, and grub proofing materials applied. Fertilizer of 10-10-10, 10-8-6, or similar analysis should be applied at the rate of 10 pounds per 1000 square feet of lawn. Lead arsenate, 10 pounds per 1000 square feet, or chlordane, one-quarter pound for the same area will control earthworms and grubs. Chlordane also controls ants. Chiggers and webworms.

Seed with a grass suited to the location. In northern Illinois, Kentucky bluegrass or its variety, merion blue, is probably the best adapted grass for lawns. If the lawn is quite shady, it may be necessary to sow a mixture containing 25 per cent fine leaved fescue and 75 per cent bluegrass.

The seed should be sown at half the rate recommended for new lawns. Roll after seeding to smooth the surface and firm the seed into the soil. When the soil is dry, water once a day until two weeks after the seed has germinated. After two weeks, watering every day is no longer necessary, and more water can be applied at each watering. After the middle of October, there will be sufficient moisture in the soil so that watering will not be required.

The lawn should be cut when the old grass reaches a height of 2 ½ inches regardless of the height of the new grass.

Sandwich-Happy Americans Devour 90 Million Daily

Realtor Explains Propaganda Attack By Soviet Regime

Russia's intensified propaganda attacks on the United States may be an attempt in part to suppress new-found desires of its citizens for individual freedom, C. Armel Nutter, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, stated in "Realtor's Headlines" recently.

The Camden, N. J., real estate leader has just returned from a two-month tour of Europe on both sides of the "iron curtain" with a delegation of realtors who attended the International Real Estate federation's annual congress in Salzburg, Austria, also.

"Opening the country to tourists has exposed the Russian people to the freedoms of individual enterprise," Nutter observed in his editorial in the current weekly news letter of NAREB.

"THEY LIKE IT, and they are tending in our direction. This may be a danger which causes the present regime to intensify its castigation of us. But we think, from what we saw, that its bluff and bluster is a facade as shallow and weak as the apartment walls that line its boulevards,' he added.

Behind the "beautifully broad apartment-lined boulevards" in Moscow, Nutter "saw primitive dens in which entire families exist on a dirt encrusted one-room floor, carrying water from a distant community pump."

But the president of the association containing 68,000 realtors does not discount Soviet progress. While appalled at the poor quality of construction "and particularly at the lack of finish of living quarters and kitchen and bath facilities," Nutter was "impressed that this regime is trying earnestly to provide living conditions for families condemned for past centuries to live under unspeakable, unimaginable (to an American) conditions."

HOUSING IS used as a propaganda tool by the Russian government, which rents apartments for $3 to $6 a month, because, Nutter believes, "it is the objective of the regime to demonstrate to the people that a capitalist economy based upon property ownership involves vast profits to the owners of buildings."

Yet in that land of paradoxes, a poorly tailored business suit costs $250 "and the government obviously makes a huge profit on this item (and others) with which to subsidize the construction of apartments and other subsidized activities."

When Nutter and his associates flew out of Russia, they found Finland "like a wonderful breath of fresh air after confinement in a closed, darkened, and ill-ventilated room."

THE REALTORS from throughout the United States found the citizens of communistic countries "extremely friendly" for the most part, but they felt repressed and being "watched much of the time."

Nutter reported that limited contacts with tourists are giving Soviet citizens "the impression that other people have found better ways of life." The Americans tried to impress the Russians "that neither we nor our government have any desire for war. These people must have peace if they are to be able to improve their way of life -- and they know it!"

Americans eat 90 million sandwiches a day and this year will devour more than 35 billion sandwiches — and more during August than any other month.

This report comes from Donald E. Coffey, Palatine, proprietor of the McDonald's drive-in, 1592 E. Northwest hwy. National Sandwich month, observed nationwide in August is sponsored by the Wheat Flour institute.

Coffey can qualify as an expert on the subject of aandwiches since he serves more than anyone else in town at his restaurant. During August he expects to reach his top production, serving 80,000 hamburgers.

TO MAKE that many hamburgers, Coffey will use more than four tons of beef. In addition, he will use about eight tons of potatoes and four tons of shortening to make more than 40,000 orders of french fries.

"August is usually our best month of the year because it's when the family likes to get outdoors. They will usually grab a snack without any bother for mom," Coffey said. "Of course a sandwich is the ideal meal for outdoor eating — one reason why National Sandwich month is observed in August."

The McDonald's chain of 200 drive-ins in 30 states is joining in the Sandwich Month celebration "since it makes more sandwiches than anyone in the country," notes Coffey. Only five years old, McDonald's has sold 400 million hamburgers since its inception.

Oddly enough, the hamburger sandwich which is America's most popular food is a combination of English and Russian origin, Coffey said.

Coffey, who has taken a special interest in the origin of the sandwich since entering the McDonald's chain, says its birth goes back about 200 years.

IT STARTED in the middle of the 18th century when John Montague, the fourth Earl of Sandwich, craving some food during a 24-hour card game at a London club, ordered some cold beef between two slices of bread. Thus, because the earl did not want to interrupt a winning streak at cards, he came upon an idea that two centuries later was turned into $25 million annual business by the McDonald's chain.

The birth of the hamburger actually goes farther back in history than the sandwich.

It all started with the Russians, according to Coffey. Those in the Baltic provinces were fond of chopped, raw meat. Seamen from Hamburg, Germany, picking up a taste for the dish, brought it back with them to North Sea ports where it caught on. It soon became known as Hamburger.

IT WASN'T until 1904, at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition — better known as the St. Louis Fair — that an inventive American decided to put the chopped meat on a skillet and serve it broiled. Travelers at the fair took to the idea quickly and in no time at all the capital H was dropped from hamburger.

Coffey said McDonald's has taken the process of broiling raw meat on a skillet and molded it into a streamlined production technique that can turn out a full meal of a hamburger, french fries and a milkshake in 50 seconds. Today, almost 10 full meals can be served in the time it took to make one hamburger at the St. Louis Fair.

"This production technique has enabled McDonald's to become the largest seller of hamburgers in the country today," Coffey said.

American Offers Arizona Service

The first pure jet service between Chicago and Arizona will be inaugurated next month by American Airlines, cutting as much as two and a half hours from present flying times, Chicago vice president James J. Lamond announced recently.

Starting September 18, the airline will use its 615-mile-an-hour 707-720 jet flagships on a daily round trip between O'Hare International Airport and both Phoenix and Tucson. The airline announced earlier this week that the 707-720s also would be put into operation August 14 between O'Hare and New York.

THE CHICAGO-Arizona service calls for a 720 jet to leave O'Hare daily at 10:50 a.m. (CDT) and operate nonstop to Phoenix, arriving there two hours 55 minutes later, at 11:45 a.m. (MST). After 30 minutes on the ground there, the plane will continue to Tucson, arriving at 12:45 p.m. (MST).

The plane then will operate nonstop from Tucson to O'Hare, leaving the Arizona resort city at 1:15 p.m. (MST) and arriving here three hours later at 6:15 p.m. (CDT).

Fastest nonstop times at present, via American's DC-7 piston planes, are five hours 25 minutes from Chicago to Phoenix, five hours 35 minutes from Chicago to Tucson and four hours 55 minutes from either Phoenix or Tucson to Chicago. (BB

Realtor Explains Propaganda Attack By Soviet Regime

Russia's intensified propaganda attacks on the United States may be an attempt in part to suppress new-found desires of its citizens for individual freedom, C. Armel Nutter, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, stated in "Realtor's Headlines" recently.

The Camden, N. J., real estate leader has just returned from a two-month tour of Europe on both sides of the "iron curtain" with a delegation of realtors who attended the International Real Estate federation's annual congress in Salzburg, Austria, also.

"Opening the country to tourists has exposed the Russian people to the freedoms of individual enterprise," Nutter observed in his editorial in the current weekly news letter of NAREB.

"THEY LIKE IT, and they are tending in our direction. This may be a danger which causes the present regime to intensify its castigation of us. But we think, from what we saw, that its bluff and bluster is a facade as shallow and weak as the apartment walls that line its boulevards,' he added.

Behind the "beautifully broad apartment-lined boulevards" in Moscow, Nutter "saw primitive dens in which entire families exist on a dirt encrusted one-room floor, carrying water from a distant community pump."

But the president of the association containing 68,000 realtors does not discount Soviet progress. While appalled at the poor quality of construction "and particularly at the lack of finish of living quarters and kitchen and bath facilities," Nutter was "impressed that this regime is trying earnestly to provide living conditions for families condemned for past centuries to live under unspeakable, unimaginable (to an American) conditions."

HOUSING IS used as a propaganda tool by the Russian government, which rents apartments for $3 to $6 a month, because, Nutter believes, "it is the objective of the regime to demonstrate to the people that a capitalist economy based upon property ownership involves vast profits to the owners of buildings."

Yet in that land of paradoxes, a poorly tailored business suit costs $250 "and the government obviously makes a huge profit on this item (and others) with which to subsidize the construction of apartments and other subsidized activities."

When Nutter and his associates flew out of Russia, they found Finland "like a wonderful breath of fresh air after confinement in a closed, darkened, and ill-ventilated room."

THE REALTORS from throughout the United States found the citizens of communistic countries "extremely friendly" for the most part, but they felt repressed and being "watched much of the time."

Nutter reported that limited contacts with tourists are giving Soviet citizens "the impression that other people have found better ways of life." The Americans tried to impress the Russians "that neither we nor our government have any desire for war. These people must have peace if they are to be able to improve their way of life -- and they know it!"

Americans eat 90 million sandwiches a day and this year will devour more than 35 billion sandwiches — and more during August than any other month.

This report comes from Donald E. Coffey, Palatine, proprietor of the McDonald's drive-in, 1592 E. Northwest hwy. National Sandwich month, observed nationwide in August is sponsored by the Wheat Flour institute.

Coffey can qualify as an expert on the subject of aandwiches since he serves more than anyone else in town at his restaurant. During August he expects to reach his top production, serving 80,000 hamburgers.

TO MAKE that many hamburgers, Coffey will use more than four tons of beef. In addition, he will use about eight tons of potatoes and four tons of shortening to make more than 40,000 orders of french fries.

"August is usually our best month of the year because it's when the family likes to get outdoors. They will usually grab a snack without any bother for mom," Coffey said. "Of course a sandwich is the ideal meal for outdoor eating — one reason why National Sandwich month is observed in August."

The McDonald's chain of 200 drive-ins in 30 states is joining in the Sandwich Month celebration "since it makes more sandwiches than anyone in the country," notes Coffey. Only five years old, McDonald's has sold 400 million hamburgers since its inception.

Oddly enough, the hamburger sandwich which is America's most popular food is a combination of English and Russian origin, Coffey said.

Coffey, who has taken a special interest in the origin of the sandwich since entering the McDonald's chain, says its birth goes back about 200 years.

IT STARTED in the middle of the 18th century when John Montague, the fourth Earl of Sandwich, craving some food during a 24-hour card game at a London club, ordered some cold beef between two slices of bread. Thus, because the earl did not want to interrupt a winning streak at cards, he came upon an idea that two centuries later was turned into $25 million annual business by the McDonald's chain.

The birth of the hamburger actually goes farther back in history than the sandwich.

It all started with the Russians, according to Coffey. Those in the Baltic provinces were fond of chopped, raw meat. Seamen from Hamburg, Germany, picking up a taste for the dish, brought it back with them to North Sea ports where it caught on. It soon became known as Hamburger.

IT WASN'T until 1904, at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition — better known as the St. Louis Fair — that an inventive American decided to put the chopped meat on a skillet and serve it broiled. Travelers at the fair took to the idea quickly and in no time at all the capital H was dropped from hamburger.

Northwest Area Sets Record in Tall Corn

NORTHWEST SUBURBAN beauty, Margi Koehler, inspects the tallest corn in Cook county, located in a field at Lee and Oakton sts. in Des Plaines. Miss Koehler, current Sweet Corn Sweetheart of Illinois, is pictured in photo taken and distributed by United Press International news service.

The northwest suburbs really do things big.

We've got the big Bob Hope Laugh-O-Rama coming up Sunday night, Aug. 21, featuring the most outstanding stars ever to appear in the area. They'll perform to help raise funds for the Northwest Suburban YMCA.

Two days later, Aug. 23, Des Plaines begins its gala 125th anniversary celebration including six full days of activities to which residents of sister suburbs have been invited.

Now it's been reported that the tallest corn in Cook County also is to be found in the northwest suburban area.

It's in the Dahm's field at Lee and Oakton streets in Des Plaines, according to James Fizzell, Cook County assistant farm adviser who is headquartered in the Farm Bureau building at 201 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

ALTHOUGH BAD weather has slowed up the growth of most corn in northern Illinois, some of the corn in the Dahm's field already has reached the height of 9 feet, Fizzell reported.

Fizzell supplied the information about the tall corn in connection with a photograph taken by United Press International of Margi Koehler, 18, who is the current Sweet Corn Sweetheart of Illinois as well as Miss Northwest Suburban.

THE SCHEDULE includes rehearsals for her special dance appearance on the Bob Hope show at Maine East high school where she'll also share the spotlight with such outstanding artists as Anita Bryant of the George Gobel and Breakfast Club shows, and Bobby Winters, TV's juggling funnyman.

The preceding evening, Saturday Aug. 20, she'll be a featured performer at the Chicagoland Music Festival sponsored annually by the Tribune.

During the Des Plaines 125th anniversary celebration Aug. 23-28, she'll appear at numerous events such as the parade Saturday, Aug. 27, described as so huge it will take 2 hours to pass a given point. More than 100,000 persons from neighboring suburbs are expected to line the 2-mile parade route.

After the celebration, Miss Koehler will go to Hoopeston, Ill., to vie for the title of the U.S. Sweet Corn Sweetheart at the National Sweet Corn Festival that begins Sept. 1.

The Way We See It

Suburban Politics Needs Modern Look

Before November, the suburban voter can expect special courtesies from politicians who realize the suburbs can make the difference this year between victory and defeat. Most party leaders at higher levels acknowledge the potency of suburbs' new political strength.

Unfortunately, this realization hasn't yet filtered down to the grass roots level. With few exceptions, both parties in the northwest suburbs are poorly organized at precinct and block levels. And those that are organized employ methods, for the most part, which are scarcely destined to make a very significant or lasting impact on today's suburban environment.

Partisan political activity in suburban townships is either nestled under a pall of apathy and indifference, or else it features just about everything except an intelligent discussion of issues important to suburbanites.

Too many of our party leaders—Republican and Democrat alike—have shown that they don't know this area as it is today, understand its problems or its needs.

Too much of our local leadership is a holdover from another era, men who cannot grasp the fact that there are people interested in politics for other than selfish motives. This kind of leadership is suspicious of those who have no reason to work within the parties except to see politics and government improved.

The Republican party has failed miserably in meeting the challenge and opportunity provided by this area's incredible growth in population. Lackluster leadership has blandly taken suburban loyalties for granted. Unimaginative politicians have not sensed the need for a re-examination of the basic principles of Republicanism to see how they might best be understood and applied to new times, new problems, new conditions. This is, however, not just a dilemma in the northwest area; delegates to the party's national convention were quick to admit that immobility and inflexibility among Old Guard politicians were national concerns.

The Democratic party has not done much better in the northwest suburbs. For the most part, Democratic leadership has been entrusted to men who resemble a tired bunch of ward-heelers. They have been content to impose a Chicago-style of politics on communities that could not conceivably accept it. The ticket-fixing, free beer school of politics is an insult to the intelligence of suburban voters. Too few leaders seem to recognize that the educational level of most suburban residents is relatively higher than in the wards of Chicago's teeming West Side.

There are, however, some encouraging exceptions to an otherwise discouraging picture of partisan politics in the northwest area.

In Elk Grove township, extensive revision of the GOP organization has been accomplished as a result of the efforts of a hard-working, determined Young Republican group. Today, Elk Grove Republicans—young and old alike—are anticipating a record turnout this fall.

In Palatine township, the regular Democratic organization has made rapid strides under the leadership of a committeeman who has concentrated on building an organization essentially "suburban" in flavor, with a well-planned appeal to voters of all classes.

We think many of our party leaders have much to learn before November. Such things as:

—the need for younger, more creative leadership;

—a concentrated appeal to that most neglected age bracket—25 to 40—through development of Young Republican and Young Democrat clubs;

—expansion of special women's political activities; and

—an election campaign based on discussion of candidate qualifications and policies, and a clear-cut debate of pertinent issues.

The old "pros" smile tolerantly and tell us we're naive and idealistic. They insist the key to victory—in 1960 as in 1916—is with tried and tested techniques based upon personality, patronage and power.

If true, this is a sad commentary on a community that otherwise has earned a reputation for a citizenry above-average in education and standard of living.

Dangerous Rail Crossings Are Inadequately Guarded

A woman was killed last Friday morning by a commuter express train at the Rohlwing rd. crossing of the Chicago and North Western railroad. The train hit her car after she drove through the crossing's safety flashers.

This is not the first accident at Rohlwing rd., but it is the first death here within recent years. The tragedy points up once more the need for gates at our busy crossings.

The gate is the only sure method of stopping cars at rail crossings. The flashing light and bell conceivably could be disregarded by a driver whose mind has wandered. The gate cannot be disregarded. If the driver doesn't see it, which is unlikely, he will hit it.

Most officials will admit the gates are best. But it usually takes a death like the one last week to make them act. And when they do act, they move like turtles.

Last year a man died at the Central rd. crossing in Mt. Prospect before railroad, county, state, and village officials could install stop lights and gates. The project had been in the works five years. Red tape delays cost a man his life.

Another man was injured seriously last year at the Mt. Prospect rd. crossing. This has been one of the most dangerous intersections in this area for years. A gate and light project for the crossing finally was announced last week.

To get gates and lights at crossings these days an appeal must be made to the Illinois Commerce commission. The appeals usually come from the public body that has jurisdiction over the crossing. In the Rohlwing rd. case this would be the county board of commissioners.

The appeal is studied by the ICC, which in turn contacts the officials of the railroad and those who made the appeal. The parties then work out the finances if the ICC approves the installation.

The whole affair can become quite complicated, depending on who owns the street or highway the gates and lights will guard. In the case of Mt. Prospect's Central rd. crossing, the road, though in the village, is maintained by the county. And a village desire to finance some of the work with state motor fuel tax funds added another chief to the tribe.

By the time the last inning rolled around you had the village, county, state, railroad, and ICC officials "working together" on the project.

We feel that this era of the automobile demands the finest in safety precautions, and we feel that present procedures for obtaining them border on the ridiculous.

'Breeding Places for Crime'

Chicago's Slum Jungles, Race Bias Spread Crime

Commission Report Reveals Increases

By WILLIAM L. DULANEY

The price that society pays for its slums is dramatically illustrated in the 1959 report of the Chicago Crime Commission, a private civic organization, which notes that five of Chicago's 41 police districts accounted for 27.2 per cent of the city's major crimes last year. All five districts abound in slums.

While the report doesn't say so, much of this crime is also the price paid for racial discrimination, for all five districts are heavily populated by Negroes.

Confined to their South Side "Black Belt" by pressure from the white community, Negro families are forced to live under staircases, in cubicles, and sometimes find it necessary to sleep in shifts when a room is too small to accommodate another cot.

AS DENSITY mounts, so do slums. Conditions are created which place the Fifth District, solidly Negro and about the size of Arlington Heights in area, first on the list in cases of murder, rape, and aggravated assault committed in 1959.

As the report notes, "It is not suggested that the elimination of slums would solve the crime problem," nor would minority groups be free of crime should discrimination cease.

However, as the report points out, "It is obvious that slums with their inadequate housing, unhealthful living conditions, insufficient school and recreation facilities, serve as breeding places for crime." It is also obvious, at least in Chicago, that racial discrimination helps perpetuate our worst slums, and is a factor in Chicago's yearly increase in major crimes.

A TOTAL of 57,511 major offenses was reported to police last year, an increase of 13.8 per cent over 1958.

(William L. Dulaney holds a degree in political science from The Citadel, Charleston, S. C., and a Master's degree in journalism from Northwestern university. A veteran of the Navy, he has been associated with Paddock Publications, Inc., since 1958. He is assistant managing editor of the 13-newspaper chain as well as news editor of the Arlington Heights Herald.)

The breakdown is:

Murder, 330 cases, up 8.2 per cent.

Rape, 597 cases, up 12.2 per cent.

Robbery, 8,073 cases, up 10.3 per cent.

Aggravated assault, 4,379 cases, up 10.5 per cent.

Burglary, 16,357 cases, up 14.4 per cent.

Larceny, 22,033 cases, up 14.4 per cent.

Auto theft, 5,662 cases, up 18.9 per cent.

The only reduction in major offenses was in negligent manslaughter cases which have dropped steadily in the past five years. These cases totaled 80 last year, for a 25.2 per cent decrease from 1958.

THE FIFTH District, bounded by Cottage Grove, 39th st., the Rock Island railroad tracks, and 60th st., accounted for 51 murders, 80 rapes, and 500 cases of aggravated assault, a situation that prevails year after year.

Probably the most startling revelation in the report is that, contrary to popular opinion, Chicago's juvenile delinquency is not as bad today as it was 40 years ago.

While admitting that statistics can be misleading, the report cites Chicago police department figures for 1919. In that year a total of 8,914 arrests were made of persons of all ages on charges of major crime — homicides, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, and auto theft — and 2,223 or 24.9 per cent of the total were youngsters from 16 through 20 years of age.

IN 1958 of 17,620 persons arrested for major offenses, 3,990 or 22.6 per cent were in the 16 through 20 age group, a lower percentage than 40 years earlier.

In 1919 police received 16,995 complaints against juveniles.

In 1957 legislation was passed classifying 17-year-old offenders as juveniles instead of 16 years as before. Despite this increase in the number of juveniles, and a population increase of 34 per cent between 1919 and 1958, Chicago police figures reveal that in 1958, 16,956 complaints were made against juveniles, or 39 fewer than in 1919.

"While possible changes in policies, inaccuracies of statistical data and other variables may make such comparisons of dubious value . . . available statistics tend to show some improvement (in juvenile delinquency) in Chicago during the past four decades," notes the report.

LESS PROGRESS was made in ridding Chicago of its world wide reputation as the home of gang warfare and the one-way ride.

Ten gangland killings in 1959 were climaxed nine days before Christmas with Roger Touhy, prohibition era gang leader, and Walter Miller, a retired police sergeant, being mowed down by five shotgun blasts. The 61-year-old Touhy died a few hours later.

The courts were of increasing concern to the Crime Commission in 1959. "The number of cases ending in a gross miscarriage of justice each year is enormous," notes the report.

"Congesting the calendar of the criminal courts are habitual criminals who are in and out of court with regularity. Many have records going back 20 or 30 years with notations of arrests and previous convictions ranging from 20 to sometimes 80 or 90.

"IN MANY instances, although the notation reflects a discharge or a finding of not guilty, the actual basis for the disposition was a highly technical ruling having no bearing on guilt or innocence, and except in the realm of legalistic theorizing, involving no violation of any genuine right of the accused," complains the Crime Commission report.

"The whole process tends to destroy public confidence, makes witnesses or prospective witnesses uncooperative and demoralizes the police, the first line of defense against crime," continues the report.

A case that particularly outraged the commission involved 44-year-old John Sortino, a former handbook doorman, who was found innocent of assault with intent to commit murder after shooting his two teenage sons.

Judge Burton M. Bergstrom in Cook county Criminal court entered a finding that since Sortino was drunk he could not have had a criminal intent to murder.

"This decision gives anyone the license to go out and get drunk, then rob, rape or kill with every right to escape punishment because he was drinking," bitterly complained First Assistant State's Attorney Frank Ferlic.

"For a man to wantonly shoot and critically injure his two young sons under the circumstances in this case and walk out of the court a free man without even having to present a defense, is more than a travesty on justice —it is an outrage. It brings the whole system of the administration of justice into disrepute. And such cases occur far too frequently in our courts," says the commission report.

ANOTHER judge to come under particular heavy fire from the Crime Commission and the state's attorney's office in 1959 was Joseph A. Pope.

In a letter to the Chicago Bar association the state's attorney's office complained of the large proportion of cases handled by certain defense lawyers before certain judges, particularly Judge Pope.

During last year's court term, five defense lawyers, all associated with representing well known mobsters, handled 98 cases in Criminal court. Of these cases, 74 were tried before four judges.

"What is even more shocking is the fact that of the 74 cases, 32 of them — or almost one-half — were tried before Judge Pope," noted the state's attorney's office.

THE CRIME Commission termed many of Judge Pope's sentences "unreasonably lenient."

The commission report notes the backlog of cases in Criminal court. It also notes that while the number of indictments returned by grand juries jumped from 2,827 in 1955 to 4,133 in 1958, the total hours spent on the bench by judges assigned to Criminal Court dropped from 8,575 in 1955 to 7,869 in 1958.

"In addition," says the report, "during this period when the case load of the Criminal court was increasing tremendously, the average daily time each judge was spending on the bench dropped from 4.7 hours in 1955 to 4.2 hours in 1958."

Suppression of gambling in Chicago in 1959 showed some improvement, but the rest of Cook county was running wide open, according to the report.

"Numerous letters were directed to Sheriff Frank G. Sain during the year listing hundreds of addresses where Chicago Crime Commission investigators found violations. In most instances the action taken was ineffective," claims the commission.

Newspapers Safeguard Welfare of Democracy

Freedom of the press is regarded by many people as a privilege accorded to newspaper publishers. We know some newspaper publishers who have the same mistaken idea. The truth is that freedom of the press is your right—yours and every other citizen of the United States.

The first article of the Bill of Rights of our Constitution guarantees that right so that you may be sufficiently informed about public affairs to vote intelligently — to run your government. Newspapers are only 1 of the means by which you keep yourself informed. There are other means, such as radio, television, magazines, books, and motion pictures, but you rely more on the newspapers than on the other information media to bring you fair and adequate news about what is going on in your city, state and nation.

THIS RIGHT of yours, which people do not know they possess, has been guarded zealously by American newspapers for the past 171 years. When a newspaper is denied access to public records, each reader of that newspaper has his rights taken away. When a newspaper bucks bureaucracy and prints the facts, it does so to protect your right to know.

Most of our citizens have no convenient way to get at public records in which they may be vitally interested. Newspaper reporters dig out the pertinent facts and let you know about them. If a state legislature has a bill presented which provides for sale of state land at a ridiculously low price, some newspaper reporter is sure to point it out to his readers. Public opinion then forces the legislators to pass a bill calling for sale of the property to the highest bidder.

WHENEVER you ask the editor to make an exception in your case and leave out some unsavory news about you or someone in your family, you are asking the editor to take away rights guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution. The editor is not going to print bad things about you merely for the sake of making you unhappy. But if the news about you is of such nature that the rest of the community should know about it, his duty is to print it. The good of the community comes before your own feelings.

Your newspaper publishes vital information about many things in which you may not be particularly interested, but the facts are there are those who are interested. Notices of tax sales are required by law to be published so that your property may not be sold for taxes without your knowledge—and the knowledge of your fellow citizens. Bank statements must be published at intervals so that you may know the financial condition of the depository of your money. Even your newspaper must publish regularly a statement of ownership so that you may know who owns your newspaper — who is speaking to you in its columns.

EVERY newspaper reader should be fully aware of his right to know. He should be just as aware of the role his newspaper plays in keeping him informed.

And if the newspaper does not supply him with the information about his government — how well his elected officials are performing, how his taxes are being spent, whether he is being given equal treatment under the laws—then that newspaper is failing in its duty and is not worthy of bearing the name "newspaper," or of demanding the protection of freedom of the press.

The Way We See It

Suburban Politics Needs Modern Look

Before November, the suburban voter can expect special courtesies from politicians who realize the suburbs can make the difference this year between victory and defeat. Most party leaders at higher levels acknowledge the potency of suburbs' new political strength.

Unfortunately, this realization hasn't yet filtered down to the grass roots level. With few exceptions, both parties in the northwest suburbs are poorly organized at precinct and block levels. And those that are organized employ methods, for the most part, which are scarcely destined to make a very significant or lasting impact on today's suburban environment.

Partisan political activity in suburban townships is either nestled under a pall of apathy and indifference, or else it features just about everything except an intelligent discussion of issues important to suburbanites.

Too many of our party leaders—Republican and Democrat alike — have shown that they don't know this area as it is today, understand its problems or its needs.

Too much of our local leadership is a holdover from another era, men who cannot grasp the fact that there are people interested in politics for other than selfish motives. This kind of leadership is suspicious of those who have no reason to work within the parties except to see politics and government improved.

The Republican party has failed miserably in meeting the challenge and opportunity provided by this area's incredible growth in population. Lackluster leadership has blandly taken suburban loyalties for granted. Unimaginative politicians have not sensed the need for a re-examination of the basic principles of Republicanism to see how they might best be understood and applied to new times, new problems, new conditions. This is, however, not just a dilemma in the northwest area; delegates to the party's national convention were quick to admit that immobility and inflexibility among Old Guard politicians were national concerns.

The Democratic party has not done much better in the northwest suburbs. For the most part, Democratic leadership has been entrusted to men who resemble a tired bunch of ward-heelers. They have been content to impose a Chicago-style of politics on communities that could not conceivably accept it. The ticket-fixing, free beer school of politics is an insult to the intelligence of suburban voters. Too few leaders seem to recognize that the educational level of most suburban residents is relatively higher than in the wards of Chicago's teeming West Side.

There are, however, some encouraging exceptions to an otherwise discouraging picture of partisan politics in the northwest area.

In Elk Grove township, extensive revision of the GOP organization has been accomplished as a result of the efforts of a hard-working, determined Young Republican group. Today, Elk Grove Republicans — young and old alike—are anticipating a record turnout this fall.

In Palatine township, the regular Democratic organization has made rapid strides under the leadership of a committeeman who has concentrated on building an organization essentially "suburban" in flavor, with a well-planned appeal to voters of all classes.

We think many of our party leaders have much to learn before November. Such things as:

—the need for younger, more creative leadership;

—a concentrated appeal to that most neglected age bracket—25 to 40—through development of Young Republican and Young Democrat clubs;

—expansion of special women's political activities; and

—an election campaign based on discussion of candidate qualifications and policies, and a clear-cut debate of pertinent issues.

The old "pros" smile tolerantly and tell us we're naive and idealistic. They insist the key to victory—in 1960 as in 1916—is with tried and tested techniques based upon personality, patronage and power.

If true, this is a sad commentary on a community that otherwise has earned a reputation for a citizenry above-average in education and standard of living.

Dangerous Rail Crossings Are Inadequately Guarded

A woman was killed last Friday morning by a commuter express train at the Rohlwing rd. crossing of the Chicago and North Western railroad. The train hit her car after she drove through the crossing's safety flashers.

This is not the first accident at Rohlwing rd., but it is the first death here within recent years. The tragedy points up once more the need for gates at our busy crossings.

The gate is the only sure method of stopping cars at rail crossings. The flashing light and bell conceivably could be disregarded by a driver whose mind has wandered. The gate cannot be disregarded. If the driver doesn't see it, which is unlikely, he will hit it.

Most officials will admit the gates are best. But it usually takes a death like the one last week to make them act. And when they do act, they move like turtles.

Last year a man died at the Central rd. crossing in Mt. Prospect before railroad, county, state, and village officials could install stop lights and gates. The project had been in the works five years. Red tape delays cost a man his life.

Another man was injured seriously last year at the Mt. Prospect rd. crossing. This has been one of the most dangerous intersections in this area for years. A gate and light project for the crossing finally was announced last week.

To get gates and lights at crossings these days an appeal must be made to the Illinois Commerce commission. The appeals usually come from the public body that has jurisdiction over the crossing. In the Rohlwing rd. case this would be the county board of commissioners.

The appeal is studied by the ICC, which in turn contacts the officials of the railroad and those who made the appeal. The parties then work out the finances if the ICC approves the installation.

The whole affair can become quite complicated, depending on who owns the street or highway the gates and lights will guard. In the case of Mt. Prospect's Central rd. crossing, the road, though in the village, is maintained by the county. And a village desire to finance some of the work with state motor fuel tax funds added another chief to the tribe.

By the time the last inning rolled around you had the village, county, state, railroad, and ICC officials "working together" on the project.

We feel that this era of the automobile demands the finest in safety precautions, and we feel that present procedures for obtaining them border on the ridiculous.

'Breeding Places for Crime'

Chicago's Slum Jungles, Race Bias Spread Crime

Commission Report Reveals Increases

By WILLIAM L. DULANEY

The price that society pays for its slums is dramatically illustrated in the 1959 report of the Chicago Crime Commission, a private civic organization, which notes that five of Chicago's 41 police districts accounted for 27.2 per cent of the city's major crimes last year. All five districts abound in slums.

While the report doesn't say so, much of this crime is also the price paid for racial discrimination, for all five districts are heavily populated by Negroes.

Confined to their South Side "Black Belt" by pressure from the white community, Negro families are forced to live under staircases, in cubicles, and sometimes find it necessary to sleep in shifts when a room is too small to accommodate another cot.

AS DENSITY mounts, so do slums. Conditions are created which place the Fifth District, solidly Negro and about the size of Arlington Heights in area, first on the list in cases of murder, rape, and aggravated assault committed in 1959.

As the report notes, "It is not suggested that the elimination of slums would solve the crime problem," nor would minority groups be free of crime should discrimination cease.

However, as the report points out, "It is obvious that slums with their inadequate housing, unhealthful living conditions, insufficient school and recreation facilities, serve as breeding places for crime." It is also obvious, at least in Chicago, that racial discrimination helps perpetuate our worst slums, and is a factor in Chicago's yearly increase in major crimes.

A TOTAL of 57,511 major offenses was reported to police last year, an increase of 13.8 per cent over 1958.

A veteran of the Navy, he has been associated with Paddock Publications, Inc., since 1958. The breakdown is:

Murder, 330 cases, up 8.2 per cent.

This Solution Too Simple?

Does the farmer sprinkle? He depends on the rain, cultivating, and mulching. We can cultivate our flower gardens and vegetable gardens. The lawns do not need sprinkling every day. In fact, if we sprinkle three or four hours once or twice a week in the early morning or evening that is all that is needed. This will also cause your weed roots to die because grass roots go deep, not so the weed roots (this will save your back and temper).

Instead of giving all your rain water to the sewers, why not open your down spouts so that your lawns and gardens can benefit from God's gift? You can have a shutoff in the downspout wherein you can regulate the water going down or out. Maybe I am wrong, but would this not help us in both the sewer and water problem, or is this solution too simple?

Responsibility To Aid Schools

I read your front page article of the Arlington Heights Herald in which you pose the question: What is a builder's responsibility to the community in which he builds his homes?

Possibly it is true as some builders point out, that the builder is looked upon as a "gravy train" to solve the community's problem. I know he has his headaches, but I also don't think he can entirely wash his hands of any responsibility for schools.

IN THE CASE of Hasbrook, it may be possible for the homeowners to carry the financial burden of the schools through taxes once the homes are on the tax rolls. Homes sold are in the $19,000 to to $23,500 bracket. However, what about the interim, while the houses are not yet on the tax rolls? A larger school district could take the burden, but a small district such as Wilson could not be expected to take the full financial load caused by large scale building.

Of course, the large scale builder cannot be expected to support the schools, but obviously, a portion of the financial responsibility is his.

Dirty Walks Irk Shopper

This is addressed principally to the Palatine chamber of commerce and to the village board.

Sidewalk Days are here again. This is an attempt, I suppose, to convince us that Palatine is a good place to shop.

We do have nice shops, and we do patronize them. But why do we have the messiest business district of any suburb around? The sidewalks are a community disgrace.

Like everything else we do in Palatine, we pass the buck on this. The merchants tell us not to throw trash around, Mr. Eppley tells us that it is not the village's responsibility, and the citizens act as though all outdoors was their personal garbage can.

WHAT HAPPENED to the old fashioned practice of businessmen out first thing in the morning sweeping their sidewalks? And later in the day, if necessary. I used to live in a small village in Minnesota, and it was always up to the merchants to keep the place neat.

I wrote the Enterprise on this last year. The response? One merchant told me that he wanted my business and everyone elses, and that he, too, thought the sidewalks were a mess.

I feel the modern world is passing Palatine. As it does, perhaps the folks with money invested will wish they had encouraged us to come in and shop by practising an old fashioned virtue—cleanliness.

I refuse to patronize Sidewalk Day by wading through trash to get there.

In your Bensenville Register issue, dated Thursday, July 28, 1960, you had an article entitled "Meeting held on Third Avenue crisis" by Robert Setlik.

We were in attendance at this meeting, and we want to commend Mr. Setlik for his very accurate account of this meeting. It was one of the finest reporting jobs we have seen, and please convey our thanks to Mr. Setlik for a job well done.

We also wish to thank your newspaper for having Mr. Setlik present, and also we thank you for publishing it in your newspaper as it actually happened.

Commission Report Reveals Increases

would like to see outlawed by legislation is pinball machines. The commission notes that certain types of pinball machines are designed as subterfuges for the old one-armed bandit type of slot machine.

Senator Robert McClory of Lake county introduced legislation in the 1959 session to outlaw the machines It was passed by the General Assembly, but vetoed by Gov. Stratton.

The governor referred to a State Supreme court decision that held " a free play on an amusement device is not a valuable thing and that it is unrealistic to hold that the chance of winning a greater or lesser amount of amusement is gambling."

One bit of legislation that met defeat in 1959 will undoubtedly be coming up again. Opposition to amend the Constitution of Illinois to permit bingo to raise funds for religious, charitable, civic, or educational purposes was so great that the sponsor withdrew it. This was before Superintendent O. W. Wilson told his policemen to stop winking at the game and start enforcing the law.

Such actions as this by Chicago's new superintendent, appointed last March, should make the Crime Commission's 1960 report particularly interesting reading. (FP

Nursing Home Issue Stated

In view of the erroneous interpretation of the petition submitted by the residents in the Centralwood area to the Mt. Prospect village board of trustees on August 2, objecting to the rezoning of certain lots on Kenilworth ave. that would permit the construction of a nursing, convalescent or home for the aged in a residential area, we hereby present our interpretation as it was intended.

We are average home owners.

We respect the aged and the infirm.

A NURSING home does not belong in a residential area on a small parcel of land that would permit a building and parking area, but little or no recreational area for the patients.

Centralwood is three blocks wide, two blocks in length, bounded on the north by the North Western railway, east and west by industrial area and on the south by Central rd. — a 4-lane highway.

The railroad directly to the north of the proposed home would create a noisy disturbance and the land immediately to the rear is zoned industrial. There is no other outlet from this area other than Kenilworth ave., which would bring the bulk of the traffic down this street.

OUR children have no playground in the area. The 70 children who live on Kenilworth are forced to play baseball or other group games in the street, so the increased traffic would definitely be a hazard.

It is a known fact that this type of establishment would lower the value of our homes. This is a natural concern of any home owner.

The purpose of this home is not in the best interest of the aged, or convalescents, but rather in the personal financial gain of those involved.

Column Spurs Patio Parties

The Hoffman Herald's "Talk of the Town" column would not be missed by many. To me, it's a way to show off what we can do better than you.

And how about those late Patio Parties you keep alive with the "Talk of the Town?" It sure is the talk of the town, about all the drunks that keep you up all night with their loud shouting, extra loud music. Believe it or not, they give dancing lessons at 2 and 3 a.m. on the patio. You can hear it for miles around.

OH, IT'S SO peaceful in the country. And I complained about Chicago! It's mild there compared to this.

I've been a suburbanite a year now, and I've got bags under my eyes that reach to my knees. Others have Patio Parties but they know when to end their outdoor activities. It seems a few will always try their best to create a nuisance.

It Doesn't Make Sense

Attached are two clippings from your paper of August 4, 1960, pertaining to our taxes and the payment of same.

Considering the fact that a vast majority of the over-burdened have to spend Monday through Friday from kin til kant chasing the elusive buck to pay that particular part of our taxes, four days a week 9 to 4 seems a bit shy on time to pay them.

According to another article in your sheet, they (commissioners) intend to spend 80-000 to 100,000 of our bucks to rebuild an old house to make it large enough for them to rattle around in. You can build a magnificent joint from scratch for that. (No increase in taxes, it will be paid from the excess above 2 per cent.) I don't think so good lately, but does it make sense to you?

Reader Offers Suggestions

I would like to tell you how much I enjoy reading your newspaper — which is very little (the enjoyment, that is). Your growth, as you boast, is wonderful. Possibly the fact you have no competition has something to do with that.

I was reading your headline story regarding Wilson school, which was continued to page 6, part 3, which I couldn't find due largely to the fact that very few of the pages carry any identification as to part, page number, date or even name of paper. After all, our paper doesn't always remain neatly put together with the indefinite number of sections always remaining in the proper order.

RECENTLY WE had a Fourth of July parade in Arlington Heights, which was not even mentioned in your paper. Was this an oversight or did you feel the people weren't interested in any of the details?

You use a lot of space in talking about Little League games (results, that is). I would like to know when and where I can go to see a Little League game (particularly the play-offs) but no clue is given as to where I might see such a game. Why not devote less space on activities in Palatine, Prospect Heights, Mt. Prospect, etc., and tell us more about Arlington Heights?

I think one of the finest things you could do would be to consolidate a list of "things to do" in this area so that the reader could conveniently find out what's going on.

We Regret

An advertisement appearing in last week's classified ad section headed "must sell" and giving a TWinbrook telephone number was phoned to us by someone other than the telephone subscriber whose number appeared. Poor Vision Is Pupil Problem

One out of every 500 children of school age has vision too low to carry on regular school work without special help. George T. Wilkins, superintendent of public instruction, says that this means that Illinois has approximately 3,400 partially seeing children of school age. Eleven hundred of these are provided with specialized help. Wilkins asks: "Where are the others and what are they learning?"

First Art Fair Is Set for Storybook

The first annual Storybook Art Fair has been set for Sunday, Aug. 28, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. The Fair area is on the grounds of Storybook City, U. S. A., Addison, Ill.

Artists and craftsmen of Chicago and suburban area are invited to show their work. Registration forms may be obtained from Peg Tootelian, 2045 Morse ave., Chicago 45, Ill.

Participating artists will receive free food tickets and family passes into the entertainment area of Storybook City. All sale proceeds go to the artist.

Bob Hope Benefit Show Will Help Complete 'Y'

Success of the Laugh-O-Rama benefit show August 21 is essential for completion of the new $1 million Northwest Suburban YMCA building. Proceeds of the show will go toward the $100,000 that still must be raised if the Y is to open on schedule this November.

Starring such noted headliners as Bob Hope and Anita Bryant, the Laugh-O-Rama is the largest stage presentation of its kind ever attempted in northwest suburbs. Donations for tickets are scaled at $5, $10, and $25 and are tax deductible. Patrons will get more than their money's worth with the topflight entertainment which has been planned.

More important, your ticket donation will support a worthy community project. Young or old, boy or girl, man or woman, the YMCA is open to all regardless of race, creed, or economic status. All faiths are represented among Y members, and no youngster has ever been denied the use of Y facilities because of inability to pay.

As for the cost to the community of a YMCA, it is negligible when measured in terms of case workers and juvenile detention homes.

We join Bob Hope in his rallying cry for the Laugh-O-Rama: "Let's Pay for the Y!"

This Solution Too Simple?

Does the farmer sprinkle? He depends on the rain, cultivating, and mulching. We can cultivate our flower gardens and vegetable gardens. The lawns do not need sprinkling every day. In fact, if we sprinkle three or four hours once or twice a week in the early morning or evening that is all that is needed. This will also cause your weed roots to die because grass roots go deep, not so the weed roots (this will save your back and temper).

Instead of giving all your rain water to the sewers, why not open your down spouts so that your lawns and gardens can benefit from God's gift? You can have a shutoff in the downspout wherein you can regulate the water going down or out. Maybe I am wrong, but would this not help us in both the sewer and water problem, or is this solution too simple?

Responsibility To Aid Schools

I read your front page article of the Arlington Heights Herald in which you pose the question: What is a builder's responsibility to the community in which he builds his homes?

Possibly it is true as some builders point out, that the builder is looked upon as a "gravy train" to solve the community's problem. I know he has his headaches, but I also don't think he can entirely wash his hands of any responsibility for schools.

IN THE CASE of Hasbrook, it may be possible for the homeowners to carry the financial burden of the schools through taxes once the homes are on the tax rolls. Homes sold are in the $19,000 to $23,500 bracket. However, what about the interim, while the houses are not yet on the tax rolls? A larger school district could take the burden, but a small district such as Wilson could not be expected to take the full financial load caused by large scale building.

Of course, the large scale builder cannot be expected to support the schools, but obviously, a portion of the financial responsibility is his.

Dirty Walks Irk Shopper

This is addressed principally to the Palatine chamber of commerce and to the village board.

Sidewalk Days are here again. This is an attempt, I suppose, to convince us that Palatine is a good place to shop.

We do have nice shops, and we do patronize them. But why do we have the messiest business district of any suburb around? The sidewalks are a community disgrace.

Like everything else we do in Palatine, we pass the buck on this. The merchants tell us not to throw trash around, Mr. Eppley tells us that it is not the village's responsibility, and the citizens act as though all outdoors was their personal garbage can.

WHAT HAPPENED to the old fashioned practice of businessmen out first thing in the morning sweeping their sidewalks? And later in the day, if necessary. I used to live in a small village in Minnesota, and it was always up to the merchants to keep the place neat.

I wrote the Enterprise on this last year. The response? One merchant told me that he wanted my business and everyone elses, and that he, too, thought the sidewalks were a mess.

I feel the modern world is passing Palatine. As it does, perhaps the folks with money invested will wish they had encouraged us to come in and shop by practising an old fashioned virtue—cleanliness.

I refuse to patronize Sidewalk Day by wading through trash to get there.

Byron J. Sayre, 606 E. Park, Arlington Heights, who is booking the talent and arranging the lighting, staging, and sound effects for the giant show to be presented Sunday, Aug. 21, at Maine East high school, Dempster and Potter rd., Des Plaines, has a long record of community service.

Included in the record are several other "show" jobs. Somewhat of a humorist himself, "By" has produced entertainment shows for the Masons and for the Chicago businessmen's Exemptor club. He has also been entertainment chairman for the Union League club of Chicago, where he produced 13 Friday night shows.

BUT THE MANAGER of a New York stock exchange house is not limited to show business. A father of two sons, Byron, a sophomore at the University of Iowa, and Bill, an Arlington high school senior, the production chief was one of the organizers of the Arlington Heights Little League and has served as president of the Arlingon high Boosters club, which he helped organize.

BYRON J. SAYRE

He has been active in scouting, initiating a bowling league for Cub scouts. He has served as chairman of the finance committee for the citizens' committee which studied the construction of Prospect high, and has been a financial consultant for both high school and grade school bond issues.

The list doesn't sop there. Sayre was assistant chairman of the first Northwest Community hospital drive and has participated in at least seven or eight other fund campaigns for charity.

"IT SEEMS that once they get your number you get called for everything," the Scarsdale resident protests mildly. "Actually, a lot of people are prone to say 'no' to requests for their time," he points out.

"These people would have a more rounded personality if they'd say 'yes' once in a while," he continued. "Their attitude is not good for themselves or for the community."

An Arlington Heights resident for 10 years, Sayre is a graduate lawyer and member of the bar. He has been a La-Salle st. businessman for 30 years.

The Bob Hope show is his most ambitious undertaking, he admits. "We have a $10,000 nut to crack, he confides, referring to the ticket sales revenue necessary to break even.

"I'll deliver tickets myself, if people will call me at CL 3-6796," he hastily adds.

THE SHOW'S goal is some portion of the $100,000 to complete the $1 million building now under construction at Cambridge rd. and Northwest hwy., bewteen Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines. The new "Y" will serve all the northwest suburbs.

The list of stars includes, besides the incomparable Bob Hope, Anita Bryant, famed American beauty and vocalist; Bobby Winters, juggling comedian; Norm Krone and his orchestra; and comedian "Nip" Nelson, who will emcee the show.

Tickets are $5, $10, and $25 donations, all of which are tax deductible, according to ticket chairman Charles Kimball, 600 Go-Wanda, Mt. Prospect. (B8

County Elm Disease War Is Launched

A drive to remove diseased elm trees from county road rights - of - way is on.

Anyone knowing of a tree on a county road infected with Dutch elm disease write to the county highway superintendent, William J. Mortimer, at 130 N. Wells st., Chicago.

"THE HIGHWAY department is prepared to act promptly," said Daniel Ryan, county board president. "Maintenance crews on the 640-mile road system remove diseased elms when they find them, but residents can be helpful by letting us know of infected trees in their localities," Ryan said.

"The county will take them down at its expense and haul them away for burning."

SKILL AT SCENT discrimination, as demonstrated by this cocker spaniel, will be among the exercises given to dogs Sunday, Aug. 21, when Northwest Obedience club holds its third annual obedience trial at Prospect high school. Other exercises will include heeling, figure eights, retrieving, hand signals, high jumping and broad jumping. More than 200 entries of pure-bred dogs, including six for the tracking test, have been received for the show. Trials will begin at 8:30 a.m. and continue through the afternoon, when more than 100 trophies will be awarded. The public is invited to the all-day show. (A13

County Denies 2 Hospitals' Zone

The Lutheran General and Deaconess hospital's rezoning plea for temporary use of a 30 acre Maine township tract as a golf driving range has been turned down by the county board.

The commissioners concurred in the county zoning board's recommendation against changing the zoning of the site, located about 900 feet west of the imaginary extension of Western avenue between Ballard road and Dempster street.

THE HOSPITAL'S construction program for the site is 5 to 10 years away and it wanted to lease the land for a golf driving range to gain income in the interim.

It purchased the site for future use as a medical college, a research and teachers building, laboratories and housing for medical students in connection with the hospital and nurses home located at 1775 Dempster street, which has been annexed to Park Ridge.

The county zoning ordinance now classifies the site as a general residence or townhouse district. The change sought for a temporary golf driving range was the general commercial district classification.

THE ZONING board, though, noted there are many other uses of land permitted under this zoning classification which would not be compatible to the surrounding area made up of Maine Township High School East, the hospital and nurses home, and residences. Park Ridge made the same point in opposing rezoning.

The hospital is holding the land for use as a campus for the Lutheran Institute of Human Ecology.

DiBlasi to Head Cancer Unit Here

Eugene Di Blasi of Niles was presented with the gavel as newly elected chairman of the Northwest Suburban chapter of the American Cancer society by Stuart Paddock, past chairman, at a meeting in the Mt. Prospect State Bank last Thursday.

Di Blasi has been a member of the board for several years and was chairman of the 1960 spring crusade.

DR. E. J. JACOBS, a member of the board for over a year, will be vice-chairman. He is a gynecologist and obstetrician with offices in Arlington Heights and Elk Grove Village. He will also act as chairman of the Professional Education committee of the Society in the northwest suburbs.

William Busse of Mt. Prospect and Mrs. B. L. Buxton of Palatine will continue to serve as treasurer and secretary respectively.

MRS. RUDOLPH Lippke, chairman of the nominating committee, reported that most of the lay members of the board will continue to serve. Charles Kveton of Des Plaines and W. C. Wolf of Arlington Heights are new members of the board.

Kveton offered to furnish a typewriter and desk for the office. Herbert Van Driel, owner of Van Driel Drug store in Mt. Prospect, donated a new sign for the office.

ENJOY THE FINEST PROGRAMS IN AIR CONDITIONED COMFORT

ROOMERS DEBBIE REYNOLDS and Tony Curtis get blistering earful from landlady Kay Medford in this scene scene from the Perlberg-Seaton drama, "The Rat Race," which is due Aug. 12-18 at the Prospect Theatre. The Paramount Technicolor production co-stars Jack Oakie and Don Rickles and features jazz favorites Joe Bushkin, Sam Butera and Gerry Mulligan.

Players to Hold Tryouts Sunday

Palatine Players will hold tryouts for their fall production, "The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial," Sunday, Aug. 14 from 2 to 6 p.m. Tryouts are open to the public.

The play by Herman Wouk is taken from his Pulitzer Prize novel, "The Caine Mutiny," and has been described as "enormously exciting" and "the modern stage at its best." The story concerns the court-martial proceedings against a young, upright Navy lieutenant who relieved his captain of command in the midst of a harrowing typhoon on the grounds that the captian was psychopathic and directing the ship and its crew to destruction. The play first opened on broadway on January 20, 1954, and was an immediate success.

The cast includes 19 men, of which 11 are speaking parts.

THE professional services of James Hughes, Des Plaines have been engaged to direct this and forthcoming productions. Hughes has an extensive background both as actor and director, and during his resident directorship of several theater groups has produced over 50 plays.

The hiring of a professional director is part of the Players reorganization plans to bring the best possible dramatic entertainment to this area. Anyone interested in more information about tryouts or about the group may call Toni Hodapp at FL 8-5314 or Marge Gegenhuber at FL 8-3380.

Popular Farce Is Set for Playhouse

The Shady Lane Playhouse company will present, from Tuesday through Sunday, Aug. 21, "Yes, My Darling Daughter," a comedy about a mother who sowed some wild oats in her youth but reminds her daughter that what was sauce for the goose is not sauce for the gosling.

To cite the ancient nursery rhyme when daughter asks, "Mother, may I go out to swim?" the parental ukase is "Yes, my darling daughter. Hang your clothers on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water."

LUCILE WATSON played the colorful matron in the Broadway original and Florence Reed was seen in the debonair role in Chicago's Loop.

"Yes, My Darling Daughter" comes from the typewriter of Mark Reed, who has written half a dozen hits, including "Petticoat Fever," which was a memorable vehicle for Dennis King in the 1930's.

It is the next to last production of Shady Lane Playhouse's nineteenth season of summer stock at the beautiful barn-theatre on Route 20 west of Marengo, Illinois. The players will conclude their season with a gala production of "The Drunkard," which began its colorful history in 1844 as a temperance tract, has had a checkered career in the 116 years since then, but will come full circle in a period-piece staging with music, beginning August 23 for two weeks.

Curtain times at the Playhouse, located three miles west of Marengo, are at 8:45 Tuesdays through Fridays, 7 and 10 on Saturdays, and 7:45 Sundays.

Hitchcock Chiller Is Set for 53

"Psycho," opening at the 53 Outdoor theatre on highways 53 and 12, starting Friday, Aug. 12 is the last word in Hitchcock hair-raisers.

Starring Anthony Perkins and Vera Miles, "Psycho" sets new records for suspense, drama and sheer terror. The story is based on an Inner Sanctum mystery novel and concerns events that follow when a young woman steals a fortune that will make it possible to marry the man she loves.

"Psycho" will be shown at 8:30 p.m. and 10:45 p.m. No one will be admitted in the theatre three minutes after the feature starts. Co-Featured will be a second attraction "The Wetback Hound," a true life story drama in Technicolor by Walt Disney.

Players to Hold Tryouts Sunday

Palatine Players will hold tryouts for their fall production, "The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial," Sunday, Aug. 14 from 2 to 6 p.m. Tryouts are open to the public.

The play by Herman Wouk is taken from his Pulitzer Prize novel, "The Caine Mutiny," and has been described as "enormously exciting" and "the modern stage at its best." The story concerns the court-martial proceedings against a young, upright Navy lieutenant who relieved his captain of command in the midst of a harrowing typhoon on the grounds that the captian was psychopathic and directing the ship and its crew to destruction. The play first opened on broadway on January 20, 1954, and was an immediate success.

The cast includes 19 men, of which 11 are speaking parts.

THE professional services of James Hughes, Des Plaines have been engaged to direct this and forthcoming productions. Hughes has an extensive background both as actor and director, and during his resident directorship of several theater groups has produced over 50 plays.

The hiring of a professional director is part of the Players reorganization plans to bring the best possible dramatic entertainment to this area. Anyone interested in more information about tryouts or about the group may call Toni Hodapp at FL 8-5314 or Marge Gegenhuber at FL 8-3380.

Popular Farce Is Set for Playhouse

The Shady Lane Playhouse company will present, from Tuesday through Sunday, Aug. 21, "Yes, My Darling Daughter," a comedy about a mother who sowed some wild oats in her youth but reminds her daughter that what was sauce for the goose is not sauce for the gosling.

To cite the ancient nursery rhyme when daughter asks, "Mother, may I go out to swim?" the parental ukase is "Yes, my darling daughter. Hang your clothers on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water."

LUCILE WATSON played the colorful matron in the Broadway original and Florence Reed was seen in the debonair role in Chicago's Loop.

"Yes, My Darling Daughter" comes from the typewriter of Mark Reed, who has written half a dozen hits, including "Petticoat Fever," which was a memorable vehicle for Dennis King in the 1930's.

It is the next to last production of Shady Lane Playhouse's nineteenth season of summer stock at the beautiful barn-theatre on Route 20 west of Marengo, Illinois. The players will conclude their season with a gala production of "The Drunkard," which began its colorful history in 1844 as a temperance tract, has had a checkered career in the 116 years since then, but will come full circle in a period-piece staging with music, beginning August 23 for two weeks.

Curtain times at the Playhouse, located three miles west of Marengo, are at 8:45 Tuesdays through Fridays, 7 and 10 on Saturdays, and 7:45 Sundays.

Hitchcock Chiller Is Set for 53

"Psycho," opening at the 53 Outdoor theatre on highways 53 and 12, starting Friday, Aug. 12 is the last word in Hitchcock hair-raisers.

Starring Anthony Perkins and Vera Miles, "Psycho" sets new records for suspense, drama and sheer terror. The story is based on an Inner Sanctum mystery novel and concerns events that follow when a young woman steals a fortune that will make it possible to marry the man she loves.

"Psycho" will be shown at 8:30 p.m. and 10:45 p.m. No one will be admitted in the theatre three minutes after the feature starts. Co-Featured will be a second attraction "The Wetback Hound," a true life story drama in Technicolor by Walt Disney.

Northern Lights 4-H Youngsters Awarded At Fair

Several Itasca and Medinah youngsters who are members of the Northern Lights 4-H club had entries in the Du Page county fair held recently in Wheaton. Various awards went to karen Moehling, Pamela Grotheer, Patricia and Melvin Ratieke, Sandy Smith, Lee Poulter, Linda and Robert Pruyn, Roger and Glen Roselwinkel, Fred Helmold, and Dale and Bob Webb, all of Itasca.

Eric Stumpf, Medinah, was one of the many children who entered vegetables and flowers. His rose entries, Sister Therese and Brownell's Pink Pillar 82 won for him the coveted blue ribbon.

ERIC became interested in the growing of roses when he met Everett Inam of Deerfield, former prize fighter, who has become well known as a rose enthusiast. The boy feels he owes a great deal to Mr. Inam for the valuable advice given him in the cutting of roses for shows and the points on which they are judged.

A member of the Itasca 4-H club, Lois Jean Koch, 12, was honored with an A rating for her coffee cake entry and a B rating on a hand made dress.

Artists Are Welcome In 'Staid' Suburbia

By LUCILLE ERNST

Forgive me. I can't help giggling behind my hand a little. While all the sociologists write their ominous tomes and point a finger of scorn at the suburbs for living in a den of conformity, look who is throwing the artists out. The great big broadminded city.

While Chicago seems to find its artists loathsome and noisy, particularly on its Gold Coast, the suburbs are giving their artists every encouragement. Barrington, Palatine, Rolling Meadows, and most of the Northwest suburbs have been most cooperative in giving their artists, and in many cases Chicago artists, a place to exhibit their work.

MOUNT PROSPECT State Bank opened its mind and its heart, and even more important, its doors to the artists of this region. In so doing they have paid their clients the highest compliment of assuming they are discriminating and intelligent human beings. More power to them.

On display at the Mt. Prospect State Bank are two oils by Mrs. Carl Hansen, a ballet study of a little girl and a splendid Chicago skyline. Mrs. Wilbur Mitchell is exhibiting a landscape and an interesting flower study, both in oil. Mrs. Hednic Vlasak is showing two beautifully finished landscapes in watercolors.

THE MT. PROSPECT artists plan to hold their fall meeting on September 14. In the meantime they are continuing their workshop. Anyone interested should contact Mrs. Lewis Komar, CL 3-6196.

Now will someone explain some paradoxes of American life that confuse me?

Why is it a mother is thrilled to learn her child has a talent for art, but would be horrified if he became an artist?

Same question only in a broader vein. Why is it most Americans believe an educated person is one who understands and appreciates the arts, but the persons who create the arts are odd and somehow suspect?

WHY IS IT the average person considers a $400 couch which will last ten years, a $250 TV set which will last four years, both good investments, yet think $100 an enormous price to pay for a picture which will last two lifetimes?

Why will most men freely admit they know nothing about art and just as freely give an expert opinion upon it?

Why is it an American housewife can dress herself beautifully, decorate her house with supreme good taste and perfect understanding of color, and then not know a painting is done the same way, and not see the harmony and beauty in a picture?

WHY IS IT a musician can use notes and chords to construct an abstract idea and we readily accept it? We need no cow mooing in the background to know it is a pastoral scene. When an artist does the same thing with color and line, we insist we don't know what it is without a picture of a cow and barn.

Why is it so many of us can appreciate the power and force of a home run in baseball and yet can't see the same thing in a painting.

Do you have the answers? I don't.

Q. While confined in a hospital recently, many of my friends visited me and brought gifts. I have thanked most of these persons either personally or by telephone. Is it necessary also for me to write each one a "thank you" note?

A. No; write only to those whom you haven't been able to thank personally.

Q. I should like an emerald, instead of the usual diamond engagement ring, but have been told this is not proper. What do you think about it?

A. You may have any kind of engagement ring you wish.

Q. What is the correct manner in which to eat beef or chicken pot pie when it is served in a small baking dish?

A. You may eat it directly from the baking dish, or lift a little of it at a time from the baking dish on to the dinner plate.

Q. When one's name has been mispronounced during an introduction, should one let the error go by or should one correct it?

A. If the introduction is a casual one and you do not expect to see the other person again, you might very well let the error pass. Otherwise, you may properly say, "I'm sorry, but I think you misunderstood my name. It is Barry, not Perry."

'The Bellboy' Due

The next attraction at the Catlow Theatre, starting Sunday, will be the new Jerry Lewis comedy released by Paramount, "The Bellboy," which not only stars Jerry but which represents his first quadruple effort as producer, director, writer and actor.

"The Bellboy" was filmed in and around the fabulous Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida. It is based on the comedian's personal experiences when in his youth he was bellboy-busboy in many resort hotels in the Catskill Mountains. Jerry stored up his memories of the zany things that happened to him—and the unfortunate people he served—against the day when he would put them into the form of a movie script. The dream has become the hilarious reality of "The Bellboy," which, according to reports, is Jerry's funniest picture.

Mees Explains County Council's Operation

In a special report to Cook county residents, Farm Adviser Carl F. Mees explained the role of the county extension councils.

He pointed out that few people probably realize the important role the councils play in local agricultural and homemaking activities. Here are answers given to nine key questions concerning the councils.

1. What is the reason for having county extension councils? Mees explained that every county has two councils: the agricultural extension council and the home economics extension council.

The council's main job is to help formulate and direct the county extension programs in agriculture and home economics. In doing this, they assist the farm and home adviser in designing programs so that they will achieve better farming and living conditions in the county.

MEES SAID, "These programs are supported by the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension service in agriculture and home economics".

2. When were the Councils first organized? "In 1915," Mees explained, "the Illinois General Assembly authorized and directed the U. of I. to organize and conduct the Extension Service in Illinois in accordance with the Federal Smith - Lever Act of 1914." For many years after that, the farm and home bureau boards provided local guidance as well as financial support for the work.

In 1956, however, these boards could no longer be designated as the county agricultural and home economics extension councils. County farmers and homemakers interested in extension work now make up the councils.

Farm and home bureau boards continue to give financial support to the Extension Service through contributions to the U. of I.

3. HOW ARE council members appointed? Louis B. Howard, director of the U. of I. Extension Service, appoints council members. The counties themselves, however, recommend people to serve on the councils. Each member serves a two - year term.

4. Must you be a farmer or farm wife to be a council member? No. Council members are selected because of their interests in agriculture and home economics and in education programs carried on in cooperation with the University.

5. Do council members receive pay? No.

6. How many members are on each council? The agricultural council has 12 members.

7. Who are council members?

Harold Bergman, Rt. 2, Box 105, Palatine, Ill., H. L. Cletcher, Rt. 1, Lockport, Ill., Carl Engelhardt, Rt. 2, Tinley Park, Ill., George F. Kloss, 449 E. Sauk Trail, Chicago Hts., Ill., William Keuch, 18619 Dixie hwy., Homewood, Ill., C. W. Paarlberg, 170th st., South Holland, Ill., Keith Chidley, P.O. Box 103, Palatine, Ill., George DeVries, 3560 W. 99th st., Evergreen Park, Ill., Carl Klehm, Rt. 1, Box 329, Arlington Hts., Ill., Herbert Kohl, Matteson, Ill., Albert J. Nickol, Rt. 3, Box 202, Palatine, Ill., and Faustin Zeller, Rt. 1, Box 58, Elgin. Ill.

8. Do Councils assist in hiring farm and home advisers? Yes. They do so by interviewing candidates approved by the Extension Service and indicating the person they consider best qualified.

9. How do the Councils function? "The councils," Mees said, "schedule meetings with farm and home advisers and their assistants. They discuss problems in the county and design programs to overcome these problems.

Y Auxiliary Sells Bob Hope Tickets

Women of Northwest Suburban YMCA are helping to sell tickets to the benefit show, Bob Hope Laugh-O-Rama, set for Sunday, Aug. 21, in Maine East high school at 8 p.m. The show, which stars the famous Hollywood comedian, also features singer Anita Bryant and Bobby Winters, juggling comic, as well as other acts and guests.

The 'Y' Women's auxiliary has set up booths at prominent locations in Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines each Saturday preceding the Laugh-O-Rama and will have tickets available at these sites between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

IN MT. PROSPECT the tables will be set up in front of Meeske's Market, corner Main st. and Busse ave. Mrs. John Gobeille, 515 S. Edward is in charge of this location. In Arlington Heights, Mrs. James Rice, 1551 N. George, is heading the booth at the intersection of Campbell and Dunton sts. Mrs. Budd Brown 325 Stratford, has a booth in the Arlington Market for the purchase of tickets.

Tickets are set at $5, $10 and $25 on a tax deductible basis. They may be purchased Saturdays at the above locations and also at any time from prominent business establishments in the local area. The 'Y' office is located at 1488 Miner, Des Plaines, where mail orders are also welcome. Phone is VA 4-4156.

Center Sends Invitations For Brunch

Invitations are in the mail for the Sunday benefit brunch sponsored by the Arlington Heights Center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago. The affair, to be held August 28 at the private Anvil club in Dundee, is the first benefit planned by the new Arlington Heights center.

An "by invitation only" party, the 13 members of the Arlington center are inviting 150 guests to join them at the Anvil club for punch and a complete bacon and eggs or pancake breakfast.

THE ANVIL club, well-known for its excellent cuisine, was converted several years ago from an old blacksmith shop to a fashionable private club. The atmosphere of the blacksmith shop has been fully retained on the exterior; and the interior, while modernized to serve club members, still retains a taste of the original environment in its decor featuring old blacksmith tools and fascinating antiques.

Fall Parties Open AAUW Activities

Prospective members may attend an evening party September 1, an afternoon tea September 7 and a morning coffee and evening party September 8. Eligible to attend are women who are graduates of 4-year accredited colleges and universities. Those interested may call Mrs. V. M. Brownell of Mt. Prospect, president of the group.

Summer Planning Sessions Keep Junior Club Busy

Although the club year of the Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club extends from September through May, many Juniors are busy throughout the summer months.

In June, Mrs. G. S. Lindeman attended the Chicago Home Forum in Glencoe, and she reports that it was interesting and thoroughly enjoyable. As one of the 200 women present from the Chicagoland area, she toured homes in the vicinity where construction methods were explained.

Participants filled out questionnaires reflecting their individual opinions concerning prices, floor plans, and various added home attractions. The event was completed with a group dinner at Allgauer's restaurant in Skokie.

MRS. R. E. Montgomery, chairman of this year's annual fashion show, has already had a meeting to begin plans for this fall. The fashion show and luncheon will be held November 9 at the Villa Venice in conjunction with Volle's Boutique, Lake Zurich, Maggie Daly will do the fashion commentary.

Mrs. W. G. Peterson, Mrs. H. E. Ehmann, and Mrs. J. J. Connery held a tea recently at Mrs. Peterson's home in Greenview Estates for neighbors interested in becoming better acquainted with the activities of the club.

A MEETING of the new committee chairmen was held at the home of the first vice president, Mrs. H. E. Wieditz. New chairmen are Mrs. W. S. Anderson, youth committee; Mrs. P. J. Jacobsen, public affairs; Mrs. H. E. Ehmann, American home and garden; Mrs. G. S. Lindeman, art, literature and music; and Mrs. J. L. Bolus, Mexican-American committee.

Mrs. Lindeman has already begun her new duties by entering some of the club members' work in the summer creative writing contest sponsored by the seventh district of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs.

THE JUNIOR'S new club year will be in good order when it begins with its first meeting the evening of September 13 at the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan building. Anyone interested in joining with the Juniors is invited to attend this meeting and may call Mrs. R. C. Decker, membership chairman, at CL 3-5711.

Jeanne Johnson Married To Chicagoan May 28

(Times Photo

St. James Catholic church, Arlington Heights, was the scene of a late May wedding in which Miss Jeanne Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson, 2005 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, and Thomas Lynam, son of the Joseph Lynams of Chicago, were married. Rev. John Lane officiated at the nuptials amid a setting of carnations and white roses.

Since their May 28 wedding and a 2-week honeymoon at the Wisconsin Dells, the newlyweds have been residing at 5853 W. Lawrence, Chicago.

The bride chose a white chantilly lace over satin gown combined with tulle. The sabrina neckline was trimmed with jewels and the full, gathered skirt was floor-length with a back, bustle panel of tulle and lace ruffles. A circlet of white pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white roses. Mr. Johnson gave his daughter in marriage.

MISS NANCY JOHNSON was her sister's maid of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Mary Ellen Lynam, and a childhood friend of the bride, Miss Sandra Musicalla of Chicago, were bridesmaids. All wore identical gowns of blue nylon chiffon fashioned with street-length bouffant skirts and fitted bodices with lace insert.

Miss Johnson's bouquet was of pink carnations with blue forget-me-nots, while the bridesmaids' were of pink carnations and roses. Headpieces for the attendants were blue pearl crowns with short, matching veils.

Four-year-old Susan Leiper of Chicago was flower girl, wearing a pink nylon chiffon floor-length gown. Her flowers were of pink carnations and forget-me-nots.

A BLUE NYLON chiffon and chantilly lace dress was chosen by the bride's mother while Mrs. Lynam chose a beige sheath of embroidered eyelet. Mrs. Johnson's accessories were in white and her corsage was a white orchid. Mrs. Lynam's accessories were in olive green and her orchid was also green.

Otto Frischolz of Chicago was best man and ushers were Dennis Johnson, brother of the bride, and Charles Warren of Chicago.

The double ring, 11:30 service was followed by luncheon at the Tally Ho in Park Ridge.

The new Mrs. Lynam was graduated from Arlington high school and is employed by Krause and Kehe in Arlington Heights. Her bridegroom was graduated from St. Patrick high school, Chicago and is with National Cash Register Co.

Marguerite Stitt Church Guest of Inverness Women

Two coffee hours were held at the Inverness home of Mrs. Fred Nicklas last Thursday honoring Mrs. Marguerite Stitt Church. Mrs. Church's visit to Inverness was an aftermath of a visit in Washington last Easter when she accepted the invitation given her by Mrs. Edwin A. Danisch to meet Inverness women.

The two coffee hours, at 10 and 11:30, gave 150 women an opportunity to become personally acquainted with the congresswoman. She gave two friendly non-partisan talks, touching on matters of special interest to women.

SHE POINTED out that balancing the national budget is not much different than that of balancing a household budget, where there are many things the family would like to possess, but the funds do not permit.

In Congress she first considers the importance of bills presented. As sometimes the household budget does not have sufficient elasticity to buy and buy, so the government cannot continue to spend, spend and spend. She does not hesitate to vote "no" when she thinks the cost is not justified. "We cannot continue to spend for everything," she said.

FEDERAL aid to education is needed in many parts of the country, but the same amount of federal aid should not go to every part of the United States. Many states are able to support their own school program. An equal federal grant everywhere would only perpetuate the existing difference of today.

Quoting from Oveta Culp Hobby, first director of the department of health, welfare and education, Mrs. Church stated that every dollar that goes to Washington must pay its freight, both ways.

Her only reference to the coming election was the importance that everyone be registered and vote. "They should take time to read the newspapers and magazines" said Mrs. Church.

Just Around the Corner from Patty McArdle

Vacation Is Broadening

Dear Peg:

When our friend, Mary, a teacher in our school, told me that she was to attend a conference at Notre Dame and asked if I could take her to the train station, I suggested my driving to South Bend, since I'd never seen the school or campus and would like to. I also thought it would be nice for the girls to see, after all, summer vacation should be utilized to broaden children's experiences and knowledge and certainly a visit to a well known university should be a worthwhile experience for them.

On the tollway, it took only three hours to get to South Bend — this included a stop for hamburgers and cokes at one of the Glass Houses. The girls were thrilled when they caught their first sight of the brilliant golden dome of the school's administration building and, as we came closer, the statue of the Virgin Mary on top. (You can guess their first question: "Is it real gold?" I hated to be honest and say "No" — they really hoped it was).

After finding the hall in which Mary was to stay for three days and getting her settled in her room, we made a tour of the campus. She knew the high points for us to see, in the small amount of time we had to spend there. First, we saw the grotto, a replica of the grotto at Lourdes and a very cool, shady spot with moss and ferns and flowers adding to the beauty and serenity of the place.

Following a path along one of the beautiful lakes on the campus, we came to the little log chapel — the first structure on the campus, in which is buried Father Sorin — the first ordained American priest. One of the very interesting things in this small chapel is the woven Indian blanket behind the altar. The intermingled design of the thunderbirds and the symbols of Christ indicate who the first parishioners were.

For some reason Megan and Bridget didn't seem as impressed as we expected, but Mary was sure they'd enthuse when they saw the inside of the huge high-ceilinged, many-arched church. We walked down the aisle past many side altars and around the main altar which can be used on both sides, and into the nave behind it. Here we found a small exquisite chapel of dark blue and gold. All at once something caught the girls' eyes and we saw them hurry over to a glass case on the far side of the church. They motioned for us to hurry over. Lying inside of the case was the wax figure of a small girl with a gaping wound in her neck. They wanted to know if she were real and how did she get that hole in her neck. I read the explanation on the side of the case to them and found out that she was St. Severna, a young martyr whose several relics were contained in a box inside the case. The girls were absolutely fascinated. Unsatisfied with the vague explanation, they wanted to know just how she was martyred. This was not my idea of a broadening experience and I was becoming a little impatient with their ghoulish interest in this wax figure.

"How should I know how it happened — I wasn't there. You heard what I read and that's all I know. Now let's look at the beautiful murals on the ceiling and the pipe organ way up there in the loft and the lovely carved statues and . . ." They were still staring at the case when I yanked their arms and whispered too loudly "Come on!'

Mary led the way to the main quadrangle of buildings and pointed out the library, the Knute Rockne Memorial gym and the cafeteria among the many buildings of classrooms. We were about to go into the library when we spotted Megan and Bridget turning into one of the buildings a short distance down the walk.

"What's that?" I asked Mary.

"The campus store." She replied.

We spent more time in the store than we did in any other place of interest — deciding on a souvenir! After much deliberation, Megan chose a crucifix on a chain and Bridget selected a stuffed skunk with a blue and gold blanket on its back bearing the famous initials ND.

Now, don't you agree that "summer vacation should be utilized to broaden children's experiences and knowledge?"

IN MT. PROSPECT the tables will be set up in front of Meeske's Market, corner Main st. and Busse ave. Mrs. John Gobeille, 515 S. Edward is in charge of this location. In Arlington Heights, Mrs. James Rice, 1551 N. George, is heading the booth at the intersection of Campbell and Dunton sts. Mrs. Budd Brown 325 Stratford, has a booth in the Arlington Market for the purchase of tickets.

Tickets are set at $5, $10 and $25 on a tax deductible basis. They may be purchased Saturdays at the above locations and also at any time from prominent business establishments in the local area. The 'Y' office is located at 1488 Miner, Des Plaines, where mail orders are also welcome. Phone is VA 4-4156.

Center Sends Invitations For Brunch

Invitations are in the mail for the Sunday benefit brunch sponsored by the Arlington Heights Center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago. The affair, to be held August 28 at the private Anvil club in Dundee, is the first benefit planned by the new Arlington Heights center.

An "by invitation only" party, the 13 members of the Arlington center are inviting 150 guests to join them at the Anvil club for punch and a complete bacon and eggs or pancake breakfast.

THE ANVIL club, well-known for its excellent cuisine, was converted several years ago from an old blacksmith shop to a fashionable private club. The atmosphere of the blacksmith shop has been fully retained on the exterior; and the interior, while modernized to serve club members, still retains a taste of the original environment in its decor featuring old blacksmith tools and fascinating antiques.

Fall Parties Open AAUW Activities

early September and a book sale October 1 will open the 1960-61 activities of the northwest branch of the American Association of University Women.

Prospective members may attend an evening party September 1, an afternoon tea September 7 and a morning coffee and evening party September 8. Eligible to attend are women who are graduates of 4-year accredited colleges and universities. Those interested may call Mrs. V. M. Brownell of Mt. Prospect, president of the group.

Both young people were graduated from Arlington high school. Miss Webster is now employed at Illinois Bell Telephone Co., accounting department, Arlington Heights, and Mr. Johnson is employed as a truck driver for Walter Johnson Jr.

Summer Planning Sessions Keep Junior Club Busy

Although the club year of the Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club extends from September through May, many Juniors are busy throughout the summer months.

In June, Mrs. G. S. Lindeman attended the Chicago Home Forum in Glencoe, and she reports that it was interesting and thoroughly enjoyable. As one of the 200 women present from the Chicagoland area, she toured homes in the vicinity where construction methods were explained.

Participants filled out questionnaires reflecting their individual opinions concerning prices, floor plans, and various added home attractions. The event was completed with a group dinner at Allgauer's restaurant in Skokie.

THE JUNIOR'S new club year will be in good order when it begins with its first meeting the evening of September 13 at the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan building. Anyone interested in joining with the Juniors is invited to attend this meeting and may call Mrs. R. C. Decker, membership chairman, at CL 3-5711.

Jeanne Johnson Married To Chicagoan May 28

St. James Catholic church, Arlington Heights, was the scene of a late May wedding in which Miss Jeanne Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson, 2005 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, and Thomas Lynam, son of the Joseph Lynams of Chicago, were married. Rev. John Lane officiated at the nuptials amid a setting of carnations and white roses.

Since their May 28 wedding and a 2-week honeymoon at the Wisconsin Dells, the newlyweds have been residing at 5853 W. Lawrence, Chicago.

The bride chose a white chantilly lace over satin gown combined with tulle. The sabrina neckline was trimmed with jewels and the full, gathered skirt was floor-length with a back, bustle panel of tulle and lace ruffles. A circlet of white pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white roses. Mr. Johnson gave his daughter in marriage.

MISS NANCY JOHNSON was her sister's maid of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Mary Ellen Lynam, and a childhood friend of the bride, Miss Sandra Musicalla of Chicago, were bridesmaids. All wore identical gowns of blue nylon chiffon fashioned with street-length bouffant skirts and fitted bodices with lace insert.

Miss Johnson's bouquet was of pink carnations with blue forget-me-nots, while the bridesmaids' were of pink carnations and roses. Headpieces for the attendants were blue pearl crowns with short, matching veils.

Four-year-old Susan Leiper of Chicago was flower girl, wearing a pink nylon chiffon floor-length gown. Her flowers were of pink carnations and forget-me-nots.

A BLUE NYLON chiffon and chantilly lace dress was chosen by the bride's mother while Mrs. Lynam chose a beige sheath of embroidered eyelet. Mrs. Johnson's accessories were in white and her corsage was a white orchid. Mrs. Lynam's accessories were in olive green and her orchid was also green.

Otto Frischolz of Chicago was best man and ushers were Dennis Johnson, brother of the bride, and Charles Warren of Chicago.

The double ring, 11:30 service was followed by luncheon at the Tally Ho in Park Ridge.

The new Mrs. Lynam was graduated from Arlington high school and is employed by Krause and Kehe in Arlington Heights. Her bridegroom was graduated from St. Patrick high school, Chicago and is with National Cash Register Co.

Marguerite Stitt Church Guest of Inverness Women

Two coffee hours were held at the Inverness home of Mrs. Fred Nicklas last Thursday honoring Mrs. Marguerite Stitt Church. Mrs. Church's visit to Inverness was an aftermath of a visit in Washington last Easter when she accepted the invitation given her by Mrs. Edwin A. Danisch to meet Inverness women.

The two coffee hours, at 10 and 11:30, gave 150 women an opportunity to become personally acquainted with the congresswoman. She gave two friendly non-partisan talks, touching on matters of special interest to women.

SHE POINTED out that balancing the national budget is not much different than that of balancing a household budget, where there are many things the family would like to possess, but the funds do not permit.

In Congress she first considers the importance of bills presented. As sometimes the household budget does not have sufficient elasticity to buy and buy, so the government cannot continue to spend, spend and spend. She does not hesitate to vote "no" when she thinks the cost is not justified. "We cannot continue to spend for everything," she said.

FEDERAL aid to education is needed in many parts of the country, but the same amount of federal aid should not go to every part of the United States. Many states are able to support their own school program. An equal federal grant everywhere would only perpetuate the existing difference of today.

Quoting from Oveta Culp Hobby, first director of the department of health, welfare and education, Mrs. Church stated that every dollar that goes to Washington must pay its freight, both ways.

Her only reference to the coming election was the importance that everyone be registered and vote. "They should take time to read the newspapers and magazines" said Mrs. Church.

Vacation Is Broadening

Dear Peg:

When our friend, Mary, a teacher in our school, told me that she was to attend a conference at Notre Dame and asked if I could take her to the train station, I suggested my driving to South Bend, since I'd never seen the school or campus and would like to. I also thought it would be nice for the girls to see, after all, summer vacation should be utilized to broaden children's experiences and knowledge and certainly a visit to a well known university should be a worthwhile experience for them.

On the tollway, it took only three hours to get to South Bend — this included a stop for hamburgers and cokes at one of the Glass Houses. The girls were thrilled when they caught their first sight of the brilliant golden dome of the school's administration building and, as we came closer, the statue of the Virgin Mary on top. (You can guess their first question: "Is it real gold?" I hated to be honest and say "No" — they really hoped it was).

After finding the hall in which Mary was to stay for three days and getting her settled in her room, we made a tour of the campus. She knew the high points for us to see, in the small amount of time we had to spend there. First, we saw the grotto, a replica of the grotto at Lourdes and a very cool, shady spot with moss and ferns and flowers adding to the beauty and serenity of the place.

Following a path along one of the beautiful lakes on the campus, we came to the little log chapel — the first structure on the campus, in which is buried Father Sorin — the first ordained American priest. One of the very interesting things in this small chapel is the woven Indian blanket behind the altar. The intermingled design of the thunderbirds and the symbols of Christ indicate who the first parishioners were.

For some reason Megan and Bridget didn't seem as impressed as we expected, but Mary was sure they'd enthuse when they saw the inside of the huge high-ceilinged, many-arched church. We walked down the aisle past many side altars and around the main altar which can be used on both sides, and into the nave behind it. Here we found a small exquisite chapel of dark blue and gold. All at once something caught the girls' eyes and we saw them hurry over to a glass case on the far side of the church. They motioned for us to hurry over. Lying inside of the case was the wax figure of a small girl with a gaping wound in her neck. They wanted to know if she were real and how did she get that hole in her neck. I read the explanation on the side of the case to them and found out that she was St. Severna, a young martyr whose several relics were contained in a box inside the case. The girls were absolutely fascinated. Unsatisfied with the vague explanation, they wanted to know just how she was martyred. This was not my idea of a broadening experience and I was becoming a little impatient with their ghoulish interest in this wax figure.

"How should I know how it happened — I wasn't there. You heard what I read and that's all I know. Now let's look at the beautiful murals on the ceiling and the pipe organ way up there in the loft and the lovely carved statues and . . ." They were still staring at the case when I yanked their arms and whispered too loudly "Come on!'

This Suburban Gal Is a Quadruple Threat

Mother, Artist, Horsewoman Too!

By LIZ ALANNE

The duties of mother, white collar worker, professional horsewoman and professional artist call into play an impressive array of talent, energy and application, particularly when the four areas are handled simultaneously by one petite young woman.

Mrs. Eleanore Krumwiede, Clyde and Willow rds., Palatine, has lived in semi-rural Palatine 21 years, and along with her sister, Mrs. Erika Beyer, learned the riding, training and management of horses without the benefit of professional instruction.

Her first mounts were work stallions owned by a neighbor. Lacking the luxury of saddlery she galloped them bareback, with old work bridles for control, around Palatine roads as a youngster. Then after saving money and building a stable she got her own mare, Rocky. Her favorite horse was this mare's colt, which Eleanore predicted would be a bay with four white stockings.

WHEN RUSTY arrived he was just that, a bay with four high white stockings, which may or may not illustrate the power of positive thinking. Sired by an Arabian he was an exceptional performance horse due to the firm and careful training he received from Eleanore.

Those who attended the 1954 Palabar horse show may recall that Eleanore and Rusty won four trophies and three other ribbons, including one in a trail horse class with 53 entries.

TRAGEDY broke up this winning combination when Rusty was stabled one night at a farm away from home. In an effort to return to familiar surroundings he jumped a high fence and was struck down and killed by a speeding car.

To replace Rusty, Eleanore bought a Palomino quarter horse stallion, Playboy, but sold him in 1958.

Her next horse, which she bought as a weanling, is the one she owns today, Elrusmar's Medallion. This Morgan stallion is now 5 and shows signs of becoming an outstanding performance horse and breeding stallion. He is an old type Morgan with a pedigree that reads like a horse hall of fame and an appearance that lives up to his breeding.

Injuries sustained by the Medallion in the spring, plus the demands of Eleanore's office job and art work, made it impossible for her to show extensively but she won first place on the Medallion in a western pleasure class for Morgans at Milwaukee and has several other ribbons collected in conformation classes and performance this year.

SHE TRAINED him herself as she has all her horses, by the learn-as-you-go system. Eleanore feels that the only way to become a horsewoman, as differentiated from merely a rider, is to learn the care and training of a horse by doing it from the ground up oneself. One learns as much from the mistakes as the triumphs, she maintains, and while horses are not the most intelligent of animals, they have individual feelings and personalities which will be discovered only by the one who cares for and works with him.

The Medallion, whose training has been sandwiched in among Eleanore's numerous other pursuits, performs as a driving horse in either a buggy or sleigh, a spirited western riding horse, a show horse in pleasure classes, in work harness and shows some indications of having jumping ability. The latter, says Eleanore, is something she will work on in the future. She hopes to make a top all-around versatility horse of him, a quality at which Morgan horses through the years have excelled.

ELEANORE thinks the tendency toward training horses as fancy show specimens only or exclusively for one specialized event has its place but thinks the potentialities of the "family-show-pleasure" combination horse have been overlooked.

She also feels that many who would like to own horses but dread the expense would find owning a horse can cost less than most people imagine if they are willing to pitch in and do a lot of the work themselves.

Recommending horses as a source of pleasure, perfect for the development of discipline and patience, and healthy exercise, she adds it helps keep a young approach to life. In Eleanore's case it seems to have worked since, at 28, she was recently asked by a fellow exhibitor at a horse show if she was still in high school.

SHE DOESN'T think, however, that a stallion is much of a genuine pleasure horse. They are nervous and can be expected to do the unexpected, particularly in the company of other mounts.

"I ride one, of course, and I can handle him all right but I raised him from a colt and have a pretty good idea of how he is going to act. Many people who are good riders wouldn't know what to do if they rode a stallion and he started acting up. The Medallion and I work well together because we are used to each other and he knows I won't stand for foolishness when I'm on him."

(SHE ADDED wistfully," "Someday I'm going to get a nice, quiet gelding and then I'll have a pleasure horse.)

"Stallions are not as wild and vicious as many pieces of fiction would have us believe but they are never gentle or docile in the respect that a mare or gelding is. You simply have to watch them all the time."

Aside from her consuming interest in horses, she works full time as a receptionist at Molon Motors in Rolling Meadows and in the evenings and odd free hours pursues her interest in art. Her natural talent in this area has been supplemented by a fine arts course given by the Famous Artists school.

SHE specializes in landscapes, animal studies and portraits done in her favorite mediums, oils and pastels. She won third place for a pencil drawing of a horse head in the art competition at the 1958 Illinois state fair and donated an oil landscape to the Northwest Community hospital. Currently she gives instruction to art students in Medinah and plans to donate a painting to the winner of one of the horse show classes at the 4-H fair to be held at Arlington Park this September. She has shown her work in the past two art fairs at Arlington Market.

Strictly a realist, she thinks pictures should look like the individual subject pictured and that she would prefer to obtain unusual effects and individuality with composition and color than with cryptic abstractions. She hesitates, however, to condemn the area known loosely as modern art. To each his own, in other words, which sums up Eleanore's attitude in most areas.

A SMALL blue-eyed blonde, she exudes the impression of quiet stability, purposeful energy and an inexhautible supply of calm.

Her pride and joy is her year-old daughter, Lynne Marie, who has already taken her first ride on horseback and shows every sign of becoming an exhuberant and fearless horsewoman.

"If she doesn't grow up to be one," adds Eleanore, "it won't be because she wasn't exposed to it. She's in a decidedly horse - indoctrinated family."

Recently, Eleanore was invited to join Zonta International, an organization of professional women, which sponsors and supports civic and welfare projects.

Such a heroic schedule leaves little time for daydreaming but Eleanore does have a picture of her ultimate goal in life. Ideally, she and her husband, Mark, who shares her love and interest in horses, will operate a Morgan horse ranch and Eleanore would like to continue working at her art career and have more free time to spend with her daughter.

"THIS RANCH literally is a one horse operation now," she says, "but we have one of the best horses around to begin with." The ranch even has a name, Elrusmar, a composite of the names Eleanore, Mark and her beloved mount, Rusty.

Unlike many pipe dreams, this has a good chance of becoming reality Eleanore thinks, because "we're willing to give up luxuries to get started and keep it going. The know-how gained from having horses and energy will contribute the rest. Most important we think it's a goal worth working for."

A SILVER TROPHY and a fistful of ribbons have been brought home by Eleanore and her 5-year-old Morgan stallion, Elrusmar's Medallion, in this, his first year of showing as a mature horse. Trained and ridden by his owner he competes mainly in western performance and conformation classes but at home he also pulls a sleigh, does odd jobs in work harness and is being schooled for stock horse competition. Among his ancestors is Ethan Allan, one of America's most famous racing horses in the early 1800s.

ARTIST-HORSEWOMAN Eleanore Krumwiede and daughter, Lynne, 1, display two of Mrs. Krumwiede's paintings. Her busy schedule leaves her no time to try her hand at portraying two favorite subjects, her daughter and her horse. In addition to painting individual subjects and teaching art, she likes creating pictures keyed to the decor of individual rooms.

Old Gowns, Style Show Highlight

A fashion show featuring gowns nearly a century old, will be staged at 8:30 p.m., Wednesday, Aug. 17, in St. Mary's hall, Buffalo Grove. Presented by guild six of the church's Altar and Rosary society, the show will be followed by a mock wedding reception during which refreshments will be served.

The public is invited to the show; tickets will be available at the door for $1.50. Mrs. Warren Mallette, leader of the sponsoring guild, also has tickets.

71-YEAR-OLD WEDDING dress of Mrs. Jacob Leikam, who was married November 12, 1889 in Buffalo Grove, will be modeled by Bess Brehm Wednesday, Aug. 17, when members of guild six of St. Mary's Altar and Rosary society present "Promenade d' Fashion. The dress, which was in fashion just before the Gibson Girl era, is of black faille with bodice embroidered in beads and leg-o-mutton sleeves.

She also feels that many who would like to own horses but dread the expense would find owning a horse can cost less than most people imagine if they are willing to pitch in and do a lot of the work themselves.

Recommending horses as a source of pleasure, perfect for the development of discipline and patience, and healthy exercise, she adds it helps keep a young approach to life. In Eleanore's case it seems to have worked since, at 28, she was recently asked by a fellow exhibitor at a horse show if she was still in high school.

SHE DOESN'T think, however, that a stallion is much of a genuine pleasure horse. They are nervous and can be expected to do the unexpected, particularly in the company of other mounts.

"I ride one, of course, and I can handle him all right but I raised him from a colt and have a pretty good idea of how he is going to act. Many people who are good riders wouldn't know what to do if they rode a stallion and he started acting up. The Medallion and I work well together because we are used to each other and he knows I won't stand for foolishness when I'm on him."

(SHE ADDED wistfully," "Someday I'm going to get a nice, quiet gelding and then I'll have a pleasure horse.)

"Stallions are not as wild and vicious as many pieces of fiction would have us believe but they are never gentle or docile in the respect that a mare or gelding is. You simply have to watch them all the time."

Aside from her consuming interest in horses, she works full time as a receptionist at Molon Motors in Rolling Meadows and in the evenings and odd free hours pursues her interest in art. Her natural talent in this area has been supplemented by a fine arts course given by the Famous Artists school.

SHE specializes in landscapes, animal studies and portraits done in her favorite mediums, oils and pastels. She won third place for a pencil drawing of a horse head in the art competition at the 1958 Illinois state fair and donated an oil landscape to the Northwest Community hospital. Currently she gives instruction to art students in Medinah and plans to donate a painting to the winner of one of the horse show classes at the 4-H fair to be held at Arlington Park this September. She has shown her work in the past two art fairs at Arlington Market.

Strictly a realist, she thinks pictures should look like the individual subject pictured and that she would prefer to obtain unusual effects and individuality with composition and color than with cryptic abstractions. She hesitates, however, to condemn the area known loosely as modern art.

To each his own, in other words, which sums up Eleanore's attitude in most areas.

A SMALL blue-eyed blonde, she exudes the impression of quiet stability, purposeful energy and an inexhautible supply of calm.

Her pride and joy is her year-old daughter, Lynne Marie, who has already taken her first ride on horseback and shows every sign of becoming an exuberant and fearless horsewoman.

"If she doesn't grow up to be one," adds Eleanore, "it won't be because she wasn't exposed to it. She's in a decidedly horse - indoctrinated family."

Recently, Eleanore was invited to join Zonta International, an organization of professional women, which sponsors and supports civic and welfare projects.

Such a heroic schedule leaves little time for daydreaming but Eleanore does have a picture of her ultimate goal in life. Ideally, she and her husband, Mark, who shares her love and interest in horses, will operate a Morgan horse ranch and Eleanore would like to continue working at her art career and have more free time to spend with her daughter.

"THIS RANCH literally is a one horse operation now," she says, "but we have one of the best horses around to begin with." The ranch even has a name, Elrusmar, a composite of the names Eleanore, Mark and her beloved mount, Rusty.

Unlike many pipe dreams, this has a good chance of becoming reality Eleanore thinks, because "we're willing to give up luxuries to get started and keep it going. The know-how gained from having horses and energy will contribute the rest. Most important we think it's a goal worth working for."

A SILVER TROPHY and a fistful of ribbons have been brought home by Eleanore and her 5-year-old Morgan stallion, Elrusmar's Medallion, in this, his first year of showing as a mature horse. Trained and ridden by his owner he competes mainly in western performance and conformation classes but at home he also pulls a sleigh, does odd jobs in work harness and is being schooled for stock horse competition. Among his ancestors is Ethan Allan, one of America's most famous racing horses in the early 1800s.

ARTIST-HORSEWOMAN Eleanore Krumwiede and daughter, Lynne, 1, display two of Mrs. Krumwiede's paintings. Her busy schedule leaves her no time to try her hand at portraying two favorite subjects, her daughter and her horse. In addition to painting individual subjects and teaching art, she likes creating pictures keyed to the decor of individual rooms.

Old Gowns, Style Show Highlight

A fashion show featuring gowns nearly a century old, will be staged at 8:30 p.m., Wednesday, Aug. 17, in St. Mary's hall, Buffalo Grove. Presented by guild six of the church's Altar and Rosary society, the show will be followed by a mock wedding reception during which refreshments will be served.

The public is invited to the show; tickets will be available at the door for $1.50. Mrs. Warren Mallette, leader of the sponsoring guild, also has tickets.

71-YEAR-OLD WEDDING dress of Mrs. Jacob Leikam, who was married November 12, 1889 in Buffalo Grove, will be modeled by Bess Brehm Wednesday, Aug. 17, when members of guild six of St. Mary's Altar and Rosary society present "Promenade d' Fashion. The dress, which was in fashion just before the Gibson Girl era, is of black faille with bodice embroidered in beads and leg-o-mutton sleeves.

Doris Rudolph, Air Force Man Married Here

An heirloom necklace of sapphires and diamonds, given to her as a wedding gift by her bridegroom, complemented the wedding ensemble of Miss Doris A. Rudolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rudolph, 421 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, when she became the bride of Lt. Arthur J. Lewis, son of Mrs. Bray Lewis of Melrose, Mass. and Gurney Lewis of Swampscott, Mass.

The double ring service took place at 3:30 p.m. July 23 in Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, with Rev. Edgar Behrens officiating. Soloist and also maid of honor, was the bride's sister, Miss Brenda Rudolph, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

Baskets of gladioli and mums in yellow and white decorated the church for the ceremony, during which Mr. Rudolph gave his daughter in marriage.

THE BRIDE'S floor-length gown was of taffeta, fashioned with square necked bodice with long sleeves. A large bow, inset and chantilly lace train, featured the back of the gown. The bodice was also of chantilly. Her veil, borrowed from a close friend, was held in place with a crown of tiny pearls.

The bride's flowers were of white roses and lily of the valley, which she carried on a white Bible, a recent birthday gift from her bridegroom.

The maid of honor and the bridesmaid, Miss Gloria Beckway of Arlington Heights were gowned identically in yellow silk organza over taffeta with full skirts, sabrina necklines and puffed sleeves. Their flowers were a basket-effect of yellow and white gladioli florets with ivy and their headpieces were yellow picture frame hats.

A RECEPTION for 130 was held in the church after the service and that evening, the bride's parents were hosts at a buffet supper for relatives and close friends. Mrs. Rudolph received in a light blue lace dress over taffeta, light blue accessories and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Lewis chose a beige lace over taffeta dress with silk organza trim, beige accessories and a corsage of yellow cabbage roses.

Lt. Richard Head of St. Louis was the bridegroom's best man and usher was Lt. William Zersen, both of whom were graduated in June with the groom from the U. S. Air Force academy in Colorado Springs.

The bride was graduated from Arlington high school and was employed by Mt. States Telephone Co. in Colorado Springs. After an 11-day Bermuda honeymoon, and a visit in Arlington Heights, the newlyweds will be stationed at Lowry air force base in Denver.

Rosemary O'Brien's Wedding Is Really a 'Family Affair'

An uncle, two cousins, a niece and a brother of Miss Rosemary O'Brien took part June 6 in the ceremony during which she became the bride of William Hall, son of the Marvin Halls of Des Plaines.

Daughter of Mrs. John O'Brien, 920 Nawata, Mt. Prospect, the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William O'Brien of Chicago; the niece, Miss Donna O'Brien of Arlington Heights, was one of the bridesmaids; her brother, Max O'Brien of Arlington Heights, was best man; and the cousins, Mrs. Henry Wienckowski and James McCarthy of Chicago, were matron of honor and an usher, respectively.

Other attendants in the party were the bridegroom's cousin, Miss Sandra Lemke of Arlington Heights who served as a bridesmaid, and the bridegroom's brother, Marvin Hall Jr., who served as an usher.

THE SERVICE was held at 3 p.m. in St. Raymond Catholic church, Mt. Prospect, with Rev. Joseph Doyle officiating. An un-related O'Brien, Mrs. Dorothy O'Brien, was soloist for the double ring service and Mrs. Voorhees was organist. White gladioli and mums decorated the church.

For her marriage, the bride chose a gown of white silk organza with tulip design embroidery, chapel-length train and short sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place with a crown of pearls, crystals and rhinestones and her bouquet was of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

The bride's attendants were gowned identically in blue embroidered silk organza gowns, fashioned with street-length skirts. They also wore blue for-get-me-not head clips with cap veils and carried pink roses in their bouquets. All wore gold and pearl bracelets, gifts from the bride.

A RECEPTION for 150 guests was held in Wheeling's Chevy Chase country club, where Mrs. O'Brien received in a blue, embroidered silk organza dress with phalaenopsis orchids in her corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a champagne silk organza dress with beige cymbidium orchid corsage.

Since June 20, the newlyweds have been at home at 920 Nawata, Mt. Prospect, after honeymooning for two weeks in Miami Beach and Bermuda.

The bride was graduated from Alvernia high school and is employed by Sun Electric Corp. Mr. Hall was graduated from Maine Township high school and is with General Telephone Directory Co.

PREPARATIONS are being made for the annual Arlington Heights Nurses club rummage sale to be held Saturday, Aug. 20, in Miner Junior high school. Co-chairmen Mrs. James Valkenaar and Mrs. Edward Broderick, with the assistance of Mrs. Norman Hawthorne are busy sorting the many choice items of rummage that have been collected.

Former Palatine Resident Takes Bride in Cincinnati

Gerald Lewis Herrmann of Milwaukee, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Herrmann of Winter Park, Fla., formerly of Palatine, and Miss Suzanne Waltz daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Waltz of Cincinnati, were united in marriage July 30 at a candlelight ceremony in the Westwood First Presbyterian church, with Dr. Everett C. Moorhead officiating.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of chantilly lace fashioned with short sleeves and a fitted bodice. Seed pearls adorned the scalloped neckline and the full skirt was fashioned bell shape. A wreath of orange blossoms held her veil of silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of white butterfly roses with variegated ivy and stephanotis.

Miss Carroll Kelly, maid of honor, and Miss Shirley Suggs, the bridesmaid, were attired in gowns of white organdy over pink taffeta fashioned with a rounded neckline, short sleeves and a full skirt. The waistlines were highlighted with a band of nile green and their hats were made up of a single pink rose caught with veiling. They carried bouquets of red roses with daisies and ivy.

MISS BARBARA Ann Ray of Connellsville, Pa., cousin of the bride, was the flower girl with a dress of white organdy over pink. A wreath of sweetheart roses adorned her hair and she carried a basket of sweetheart roses and white pompons.

Best man was Walter Martens of Chicago and the ushers were Robert Glen Herrmann of Green Lake, Wis., a brother of the groom, and Thornton League Ray of Terre Haute, Ind.

A family dinner was given in the Hotel Alms after the ceremony.

FOLLOWING a wedding trip to northern Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Herrmann will reside in Milwaukee.

The new Mrs. Herrmann attended Rollins college, winter Park, Fla., and was graduated from the University of Cincinnati. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Herrmann was graduated from DePauw university and is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta. He also served as a lieutenant in the air force.

Here's HAUGH to Give a Party

Give a Bronco Brunch

by DOLORES HAUGH

O what a beautiful morning - yes, and not just in Oklahoma but in any "homa" in the morning is such a wonderful thing to share as a family so how about a Bronco Brunch, pardner?

Invitations

Just the family can enjoy this treat, but it is fun to include a neighbor. If you are planning on out-of-town guests, slip an invitation under their door as an indication that you are planning something "special," and they can judge their sleeping habits accordingly.

A black paper cowboy boot, complete with a silver foil spur with the following verse will "boot" your brunch on its way.

Howdy, friend, when the sun comes up,
A shinin' in the mornin',
We'll rustle up your breakfast-lunch-
We'll give ya little warnin',
Thar's going to be some flapjacks,
Eggs and bacon too,
Coffee, strong and hot,
Will be awaitin' thar for You.

State time, place, the patio is ideal, and then plan ahead.

Menu

The menu will be big and abundant for there is nothing like an early morning cookout to perk up the appetite, as well as the coffee. Cool "Texas sized" glasses of orange juice, pancakes, hot maple syrup and melted butter, (you can mix these together for a new twist) eggs and bacon, or thick slices of ham broiled on the open grill gives an aroma no one can resist, not even the usual "breakfast skippers."

Cowboy coffee cake, which is a baking powder cake with topping of cinnamon and brown sugar served piping hot with lots of coffee completes the menu. You can toast your bread over the grill too and serve jelly and jam and honey.

Entertainment

Who needs it - just eat!

Decorations

At this hour of the day, you don't want to try and be clever. Plan on a paper tablecloth in a bandana print with napkins to match. Paper, plastic-coated plates that resemble wood are available and why not invest in some inexpensive coffee mugs? They are good to have not only for cookouts but for hot, mulled drinks in winter and cocoa for the kids.

'USE THE old bean pot or grandmother's pitcher for a vase and fill it with garden flowers. If you think you cannot arrange this, just cut some fresh branches of oak or red maple leaves and stick them in. Cut the stems different lengths and you have a nice outdoor centerpiece that isn't tipped over easily. When the party is over, bring in the arrangement and put it in your fireplace for a summer refresher.

If the children have cowboy hats, let Dad wear one and Mom too, with white dishtowels for aprons. Let Dad do the cooking and he will really be the chuckwagon master of the day.

So saddle up, rustle your doggies and plan a Bronco Brunch in the cool, cool, cool of some mornin'.

Sandra Froyd, Former Heights Girl, Weds in Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A double ring ceremony performed in the First Presbyterian church, Ft. Wayne, Saturday, Aug. 6, united in marriage, Miss Sandra Elizabeth Froyd and Russell Burleigh. Rev. Ray Walther read the vows before an altar decorated with standards of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and candelabra.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Howard N. Froyd of Ft. Wayne, formerly of Arlington Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Irving Burleigh of Tavares, Fla.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of silk organza and rosepointe lace over taffeta. Lace formed the scalloped square neckline and brief sleeves of the basque bodice. Garlands of lace appliqued the billowing skirt which extended to a circular chapel train.

A tricorne with a full blown organza rose held her bouffant veil of imported illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses, white pompons and lilies of the valley.

MISS MIRIAM Cross, Prairie Village, Kan. was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Diane Nelson of Lincolnwood, Ill., Miss Gloria Manlong of Chicago and Miss Elizabeth Prunty of Arlington Heights. All except Miss Prunty, who is a childhood friend, are A O Pi sorority sisters of the bride at Northwestern university. Miss Trudy Ann Weburg of Paxton, Ill., cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore identical gowns of cats-eye green organza over taffeta. The sheath skirt featured a tunic falling in tiny unpressed pleats from a pleated cummerbund. The junior bridesmaid wore a similar dress with a full skirt. They wore matching Dior bows and carried Dresden colonial bouquets of pastel pompons and carnations.

BEST MAN was Charles Stearns of Albuquerque. Fredric Froyd, brother of the bride, Joseph Westerhaus and Fredrick Johnson, both of Cincinnati, served as ushers. All attendents except Mr. Froyd are Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brothers of the bridegroom at Northwestern university.

Mrs. Froyd chose for her daughter's wedding, an oatmeal linen sheath with silk embroidery in a deeper tone. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of orange-toned glamellias. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue linen dress with a madeira lace front. She wore a matching veil with organza flowers and a corsage of pink-toned glamellias.

SERVING AT the reception in the church were the groom's sister, Miss Janet Burleigh of Tavares, Miss Ann Clemons of Cincinnati, and Miss Constance Kolssak of Chicago.

Following the reception, the bride's parents greeted out-of-town guests at an open house.

Upon their return from a Florida honeymoon the couple will reside in Evanston, where the bride will teach school in Northbrook and the groom will work towards his master's degree at Northwestern university.

Sorority Activities

Kappa Delta-10 x ital ....

Watermelon filled with fresh fruit, patty shells covered with chicken, sweet rolls and coffee will be served this Sunday, Aug. 14, at 11 a.m. to area actives of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority by members of the Northwest Suburban Alumnae association.

Hostess for the brunch is Mrs. Fred D. Empkie, 209 S. Stratford, Arlington Heights. Her committee includes: Mrs. Alan McDonald, president of the alumnae association, Mrs. Robert Hanson, Mrs. Wesley Kasl, Mrs. Allan Kovar of Arlington Heights and Mrs. Robert D. Bjork, Mrs. William G. Catron Jr., and Mrs. Melvin R. Lannert from Park Ridge.

MRS. EMPKIE'S daughter, Stephanie, a Kappa and senior at Duke university majoring in elementary education, is vice president of Duke's Pan Hellenic board. She will join hostesses in welcoming the Kappa guests now attending such colleges as Ohio Wesleyan, University of Miami in Ohio, Illinois, Missouri, Butler and Indiana universities.

Northwest Suburban Alumnae association, which represents the communities of Arlington Heights, Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights and Palatine is looking forward to this second annual meeting between area actives and alumnae.

Any girls who have not been contacted, but would like to attend the Sunday brunch, may call Mrs. Empkie, CL 5-0717.

Seek Bowlers For New League

Formation of a new Paddock Women's Classic Traveling league is in the offing with several additional 160-average women bowlers needed. The loop is expected to bowl at 6:30 Saturday evenings at six northwest bowling lanes. Women interested in joining the league, and carrying 160-averages, are asked to contact Edith Wayne at VAnderbilt 4-4970.

Mrs. W. Strickler Elected TOPS' New Leader

Mrs. William Strickler, 408 N. Windsor, Arlington Heights was elected leader of the Arlington Heights Daytime TOPS when the group held its recent election of officers. Her co-leader will be Mrs. Robert Pawlikowski. Mrs. Leslie Bang is secretary; Mrs. Harry Ewalt, treasurer; and Mrs. A. H. Harting and Mrs. Edward Smalenberger, weight recorders.

Purpose of this and all TOPS groups is to "Take Off Pounds Sensibly." Membership is open to all women of the area who wish to lose unwanted pounds. Plans are now being made by the members to attend the State Recognition day in October, to be held in Chicago. This is the annual meeting of all Illinois TOPS clubs.

AERA TOPS meetings are held Tuesday mornings from 9:30 until 11 in the home of Mrs. Strickler. Further information may be obtained by calling her at CLearbrook 9-3945.

William F. Eich Jr. Weds College Sweetheart Aug. 6

A reception for 100 guests in the Inverness country club followed the August 6 double ring ceremony in which Miss Diane Hammer, daughter of Mrs. Bussey Hammer of Indianapolis, became the bride of William Frank Eich Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Eich, 353 Inverway, Palatine.

Dr. Walter Spangler performed the service which united Beloit college sweethearts, in St. Luke Evangelical Lutheran church, Park Ridge, amid a setting of white gladioli with pale yellow shirred daisies and pew ribbons.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Dewey Heaton, chose a gown of white organza and chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a sabrina neckline outlined with lace sprinkled with iridescent sequins and pearls. Bands of the lace encircled the bodice as well as the bottom of the three-quarter-length sleeves.

The bouffant floor-length skirt was also highlighted by bands of the lace in a circular effect. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a tiny cap of organdy petals topped by a crown of pearls. Stephanotis and ivy made up her bouquet.

MAID OF honor, Miss Dorothy Christmann, the bridesmaids, Sherry McMartin and Beverly Butler, and the junior bridesmaid, Candy Heaton, were attired in dresses of marine blue silk organdy over taffeta with scooped necklines and three-quarter-length sleeves. Accenting the dresses with bell-shaped skirts were matching petal hats with face veils. They carried crescent bouquets of yellow plumaria and greens.

THE BRIDE'S mother received in a dress with a full skirt of pink organza and pink lace bodice and a white orchid with a pink throat. Mrs. Eich Sr. wore a hyacinth blue chiffon dress with a lavendar orchid.

John Temte was the best man, while Don C. Hart and James McCreery were ushers.

The new Mrs. Eich is a graduate of Roosevelt high school in Des Moines and attended Beloit college. The groom attended Maine Township high school, Palatine high school, Beloit college, and is presently studying law at the University of Wisconsin.

Following a honeymoon in New England, the couple will be at home in Madison August 25.

Area Girls On Wieboldt Style Board

Five area girls were recently chosen for Wieboldt's Evanston high school fashion board. They are Peggy Remsen of Mt. Prospect, Valorie Vorhees of Prospect Heights, and Jil Derering, Linda Trimmel, and Barb Baughman of Arlington Heights.

Various activities of the board include meetings, open houses and fashion shows. An open house will be held August 15, 16 and 17 from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Young Fashion shop, second floor, and each day 10 board members will serve as hostesses, wearing the ensemble shown on the cover of the August "Seventeen." This outfit consists of a Bandstand skirt and tunic top.

Fashion board members would like to meet all area high school girls and show them the exciting, new, fall fashions.

Former Palatine Resident Takes Bride in Cincinnati

Gerald Lewis Herrmann of Milwaukee, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Herrmann of Winter Park, Fla., formerly of Palatine, and Miss Suzanne Waltz daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Waltz of Cincinnati, were united in marriage July 30 at a candlelight ceremony in the Westwood First Presbyterian church, with Dr. Everett C. Moorhead officiating.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of chantilly lace fashioned with short sleeves and a fitted bodice. Seed pearls adorned the scalloped neckline and the full skirt was fashioned bell shape. A wreath of orange blossoms held her veil of silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of white butterfly roses with variegated ivy and stephanotis.

Miss Carroll Kelly, maid of honor, and Miss Shirley Suggs, the bridesmaid, were attired in gowns of white organdy over pink taffeta fashioned with a rounded neckline, short sleeves and a full skirt. The waistlines were highlighted with a band of nile green and their hats were made up of a single pink rose caught with veiling. They carried bouquets of red roses with daisies and ivy.

MISS BARBARA Ann Ray of Connellsville, Pa., cousin of the bride, was the flower girl with a dress of white organdy over pink. A wreath of sweetheart roses adorned her hair and she carried a basket of sweetheart roses and white pompons.

Best man was Walter Martens of Chicago and the ushers were Robert Glen Herrmann of Green Lake, Wis., a brother of the groom, and Thornton League Ray of Terre Haute, Ind.

A family dinner was given in the Hotel Alms after the ceremony.

FOLLOWING a wedding trip to northern Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Herrmann will reside in Milwaukee.

The new Mrs. Herrmann attended Rollins college, winter Park, Fla., and was graduated from the University of Cincinnati. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Herrmann was graduated from DePauw university and is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta. He also served as a lieutenant in the air force.

Here's HAUGH to Give a Party

Give a Bronco Brunch

by DOLORES HAUGH

O what a beautiful morning - yes, and not just in Oklahoma but in any "homa" in the morning is such a wonderful thing to share as a family so how about a Bronco Brunch, pardner?

Invitations

Just the family can enjoy this treat, but it is fun to include a neighbor. If you are planning on out - of - town guests, slip an invitation under their door as an indication that you are planning something "special," and they can judge their sleeping habits accordingly.

A black paper cowboy boot, complete with a silver foil spur with the following verse will "boot" your brunch on its way.

Howdy, friend, when the sun comes up,
A shinin' in the mornin',
We'll rustle up your breakfast-lunch-
We'll give ya little warnin',
Thar's going to be some flapjacks,
Eggs and bacon too,
Coffee, strong and hot,
Will be awaitin' thar for You.

State time, place, the patio is ideal, and then plan ahead.

Menu

The menu will be big and abundant for there is nothing like an early morning cookout to perk up the appetite, as well as the coffee. Cool "Texas sized" glasses of orange juice, pancakes, hot maple syrup and melted butter, (you can mix these together for a new twist) eggs and bacon, or thick slices of ham broiled on the open grill gives an aroma no one can resist, not even the usual "breakfast skippers."

Cowboy coffee cake, which is a baking powder cake with topping of cinnamon and brown sugar served piping hot with lots of coffee completes the menu. You can toast your bread over the grill too and serve jelly and jam and honey.

Entertainment

Who needs it - just eat!

Decorations

At this hour of the day, you don't want to try and be clever. Plan on a paper tablecloth in a bandana print with napkins to match. Paper, plastic-coated plates that resemble wood are available and why not invest in some inexpensive coffee mugs? They are good to have not only for cookouts but for hot, mulled drinks in winter and cocoa for the kids.

'USE THE old bean pot or grandmother's pitcher for a vase and fill it with garden flowers. If you think you cannot arrange this, just cut some fresh branches of oak or red maple leaves and stick them in. Cut the stems different lengths and you have a nice outdoor centerpiece that isn't tipped over easily. When the party is over, bring in the arrangement and put it in your fireplace for a summer refresher.

If the children have cowboy hats, let Dad wear one and Mom too, with white dishtowels for aprons. Let Dad do the cooking and he will really be the chuckwagon master of the day.

So saddle up, rustle your doggies and plan a Bronco Brunch in the cool, cool, cool of some mornin'.

Following a honeymoon in New England, the couple will be at home in Madison August 25.

Sandra Froyd, Former Heights Girl, Weds in Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A double ring ceremony performed in the First Presbyterian church, Ft. Wayne, Saturday, Aug. 6, united in marriage, Miss Sandra Elizabeth Froyd and Russell Burleigh. Rev. Ray Walther read the vows before an altar decorated with standards of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and candelabra.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Howard N. Froyd of Ft. Wayne, formerly of Arlington Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Irving Burleigh of Tavares, Fla.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of silk organza and rosepointe lace over taffeta. Lace formed the scalloped square neckline and brief sleeves of the basque bodice. Garlands of lace appliqued the billowing skirt which extended to a circular chapel train.

A tricorne with a full blown organza rose held her bouffant veil of imported illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses, white pompons and lilies of the valley.

MISS MIRIAM Cross, Prairie Village, Kan. was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Diane Nelson of Lincolnwood, Ill., Miss Gloria Manlong of Chicago and Miss Elizabeth Prunty of Arlington Heights. All except Miss Prunty, who is a childhood friend, are A O Pi sorority sisters of the bride at Northwestern university. Miss Trudy Ann Weburg of Paxton, Ill., cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore identical gowns of cats-eye green organza over taffeta. The sheath skirt featured a tunic falling in tiny unpressed pleats from a pleated cummerbund. The junior bridesmaid wore a similar dress with a full skirt. They wore matching Dior bows and carried Dresden colonial bouquets of pastel pompons and carnations.

BEST MAN was Charles Stearns of Albuquerque. Fredric Froyd, brother of the bride, Joseph Westerhaus and Fredrick Johnson, both of Cincinnati, served as ushers. All attendents except Mr. Froyd are Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brothers of the bridegroom at Northwestern university.

Mrs. Froyd chose for her daughter's wedding, an oatmeal linen sheath with silk embroidery in a deeper tone. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of orange-toned glamellias. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue linen dress with a madeira lace front. She wore a matching veil with organza flowers and a corsage of pink-toned glamellias.

SERVING AT the reception in the church were the groom's sister, Miss Janet Burleigh of Tavares, Miss Ann Clemons of Cincinnati, and Miss Constance Kolssak of Chicago.

Following the reception, the bride's parents greeted out-of-town guests at an open house.

Upon their return from a Florida honeymoon the couple will reside in Evanston, where the bride will teach school in Northbrook and the groom will work towards his master's degree at Northwestern university.

ROSELLE THE GARDEN VILLAGE

"As Pretty as its Name"

NO COOPED UP FEELING HERE

The extra large rooms in this 3 bedroom brick ranch provide a feeling of spaciousness not found in most comparable homes. Located in a good area, the house is in fine condition. Transferred owner must sell this fall and has set price accordingly at $21,000.

CHARM AND QUALITY

This one was built for and decorated by a young couple from Europe who now find they must return home. It is a 3 bedroom bi-level with furnished rec. room, 1½ baths, 2 car attached garage, air conditioned. They would like to sell furnished so could walk out taking only personal belongings, but will also sell unfurnished. Price of $27,000 for house and contents is a real bargain for this very attractive home. Come out and see for yourself.

ROSELLE THE GARDEN VILLAGE

"As Pretty as its Name"

NO COOPED UP FEELING HERE

The extra large rooms in this 3 bedroom brick ranch provide a feeling of spaciousness not found in most comparable homes. Located in a good area, the house is in fine condition. Transferred owner must sell this fall and has set price accordingly at $21,000.

CHARM AND QUALITY

This one was built for and decorated by a young couple from Europe who now find they must return home. It is a 3 bedroom bi-level with furnished rec. room, 1½ baths, 2 car attached garage, air conditioned. They would like to sell furnished so could walk out taking only personal belongings, but will also sell unfurnished. Price of $27,000 for house and contents is a real bargain for this very attractive home. Come out and see for yourself.

Shhhh

After silence that which comes nearest to expressing the inexpressible is music.—Aldous Huxley.

by L. H. SIMERL

Our big stocks of corn have been the subject of many articles and speeches. Hardly anyone seems to be aware of the more important fact that the corn is being used at a record - busting rate. This high use is all the more significant because farmers are reported to be feeding the smallest number of hogs since 1953.

Last October 1 the carryover of old corn was officially estimated at 1,530 million and the 1959 crop (grain only) at 3,989 million bushels. That made a total supply of 5,520 million bushels. At that time it was widely proclaimed that the carryover of old corn this fall would be 600 million bushels larger than last year.

ONE MAJOR development since last fall would seem to have added even more to the carryover: Instead of increasing hog production as was then expected, farmers cut the 1960 spring pig crop by 16 per cent!

But we now have strong evidence that the addition to the carryover will be much less than the 600 million bushels claimed earlier. Total disappearance of corn from last October 1 to July 1 is officially estimated at 2,958 million bushels, over 9 per cent more than a year before. These increases in disappearance appear to be the result of several conditions: (1) The quality of much of the 1959 crop was low, (2) farmers fed 8 to 20 per cent more cattle and (3) more broilers were produced.

This high rate of disappearance left 2,563 million bushels on hand July 1, or only 355 million more than a year before.

DISAPPEARANCE of corn in the current fourth quarter will surely be at least as large as it was a year ago. We are still using the same crop of corn. Farmer are feeding 4 per cent more cattle than they fed last year. And they are still producing more broilers.

On the other side of the balance, farmers apparently have around 16 per cent fewer hogs to feed out than they had a year ago. But the favorable prices for hogs are encouraging them to feed to heavier weights than they did last summer.

A year ago this quarter, the disappearance of corn was 678 million bushels. In the present quarter it seems likely to be around 700 million bushels. If so, total disappearance for the year will be close to 3,660 million bushels. And the addition to the carryover will be only about 330 million bushels, or a little more than half as much as was widely forecast last fall.

THE INDICATED disappearance of corn this year is 31 per cent greater than the five-year average. It is greater than production in any other year except 1959. It is only 1 per cent short of the official July forecast of the 1960 crop for grain.

Many conditions will favor a rapid disappearance of the 1960 crop: (1) In heavy livestock-feeding areas the crop is late. (2) Beef cattle numbers and poultry production are increasing. (3) Hog prices are good and farmers have reported intentions to increase sow farrowings beginning this fall. And (4) the supplies of oats and barley are a little smaller than they were last year.

Creative Experiences Is Home Bureau Lesson

Creative Experiences 3 Bol Mt. Prospect Home Bureau held its July meeting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Thorne, 310 S. Albert, with Mrs. R. DeKimpe assisting as co-hostess. Welcomed as guests were Mrs. Evelyn Oster and Mrs. Violet Olsen.

The lesson on "How to Interest Children in Worthwhile Creative Experiences" was presented by Mrs. Claradehl Upham, who gave the group ideas on the importance of such things as family fun, music at home, poetry, the value of reading and appreciation of good books.

A BEEHIVE July 27 was held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Worley for instruction in making wreaths and miniature trees of a variety of gaily colored fruits for decorative uses.

The August meeting is an open one with no scheduled lesson. Mrs. Dorothy Lockhart has invited the group to her home, Lockies Acres, in Wauconda for a "hobo dinner," each member to bring food ready to cook outdoors, preferably in a pound coffee can. Mrs. Marie Ryan will be co-hostess.

It is amazing how time flies. The summer is slipping by rapidly. Wheat has been combined, oats are being harvested and corn is tasseling. It soon will be time for the children to start back to school.

Recently I read of an 80-year old man who was not conscious of how time had slipped by. One day he came in wet and muddy from his knees down. "I wanted to cross the creek to see about the cow," he explained. "I use to jump it clear and easy, but now every dang time I try it, I land in the middle. Guess I just ain't noticed it getting wider." I thought this was a realistic way of growing old, but not admitting it. This could well apply to many of us.

Research into greater industrial uses for farm products is one key to breaking down giant agricultural surpluses. But it's wishful thinking to believe that research started now can find new and economic uses for all the grain presently stored under government loan. It doesn't happen that fast.

Farmers can treat their ponds with larvacides if mosquitos are causing trouble. For ponds without fish, use a 1 per cent concentration of DDT, chlordane or toxaphen . Use pyrethrins on ponds that contain fish. Mix according to direction, and apply about 10 quarts of pyrethrin material per acre of water.

WE READ A great deal about the surpluses we have today. USDA economists figure this will be a problem with us only during the next 10 to 15 years. Estimates are that we must double farm output in the next 50 years just to keep up with population growth. The population is expected to hit 370 million by the year 2010. It may be quite a challenge to us to try to double output. Some think it is pretty high today. Certainly we must admit that the weatherman has been working with us the last 10 years or so and this plays a great part in determining our yield of crops and output of agricultural foodstuffs.

Grape growers have suffered one of the worst seasons for many years. Black rot and downy mildew have been difficult to control. Capton is suggested as the best fungicide to use between now and harvest.

A research program designed to help put firmer, yet well - colored tomatoes on the market has swung into action again this summer at the University of Illinois.

This is not as easy as it sounds. Horticulturist J. P. McCollum said that the key to producing such tomatoes depends a lot on storage temperatures. The best temperature for developing a uniformly red color is 68 degrees. But tomatoes soften more quickly at this temperature than at lower readings.

SOFTENING, AS all consumers know, is not desirable. It usually makes tomatoes over - ripe by the time Mrs. Homemaker carries them home.

Low temperatures slow softening, but also slow color development. A temperature of 55 degrees has proved fairly satisfactory for storing tomatoes. McCollum is working to find more satisfactory temperatures.

Small brown sap beetles are appearing in sweet corn fields that have been damaged by corn earworm and corn borer. Where beetles are present, apply ½ pound of parathion or 1 pound of malathion per acre, using proper procedures.

Watch for corn borer egg-laying to start about August 10. Second generation corn borer numbers may increase noticeably over last year. DDT and Sevin have given successful control up to now. A word of caution: Before applying insecticides, read labels carefully and follow all precautions. This not only will insure personal safety, but will eliminate insecticide residue hazards.

Shhhh

After silence that which comes nearest to expressing the inexpressible is music.—Aldous Huxley.

by L. H. SIMERL

Our big stocks of corn have been the subject of many articles and speeches. Hardly anyone seems to be aware of the more important fact that the corn is being used at a record - busting rate. This high use is all the more significant because farmers are reported to be feeding the smallest number of hogs since 1953.

Last October 1 the carryover of old corn was officially estimated at 1,530 million and the 1959 crop (grain only) at 3,989 million bushels. That made a total supply of 5,520 million bushels. At that time it was widely proclaimed that the carryover of old corn this fall would be 600 million bushels larger than last year.

ONE MAJOR development since last fall would seem to have added even more to the carryover: Instead of increasing hog production as was then expected, farmers cut the 1960 spring pig crop by 16 per cent!

But we now have strong evidence that the addition to the carryover will be much less than the 600 million bushels claimed earlier. Total disappearance of corn from last October 1 to July 1 is officially estimated at 2,958 million bushels, over 9 per cent more than a year before. These increases in disappearance appear to be the result of several conditions: (1) The quality of much of the 1959 crop was low, (2) farmers fed 8 to 20 per cent more cattle and (3) more broilers were produced.

This high rate of disappearance left 2,563 million bushels on hand July 1, or only 355 million more than a year before.

DISAPPEARANCE of corn in the current fourth quarter will surely be at least as large as it was a year ago. We are still using the same crop of corn. Farmer are feeding 4 per cent more cattle than they fed last year. And they are still producing more broilers.

On the other side of the balance, farmers apparently have around 16 per cent fewer hogs to feed out than they had a year ago. But the favorable prices for hogs are encouraging them to feed to heavier weights than they did last summer.

A year ago this quarter, the disappearance of corn was 678 million bushels. In the present quarter it seems likely to be around 700 million bushels. If so, total disappearance for the year will be close to 3,660 million bushels. And the addition to the carryover will be only about 330 million bushels, or a little more than half as much as was widely forecast last fall.

THE INDICATED disappearance of corn this year is 31 per cent greater than the five-year average. It is greater than production in any other year except 1959. It is only 1 per cent short of the official July forecast of the 1960 crop for grain.
